PREFACE

There are two classes of people, one which is interested in its lineage and one which is not. This book is compiled to give pleasure to the first class and to put in permanent form records which otherwise might be lost to posterity. It is submitted with the many imperfections which, even with the utmost care, a work of this kind must necessarily contain. Exactness in dates and names has been the aim, but there are sure to be mistakes due to typographical errors, to oversight in repeated transcriptions or, in some instances, to the difficulty of deciphering bad chirography, either in old records or in correspondence. Often information on the same subject from different sources does not agree in dates or even in names; often copies of the same record by two different persons vary and at times the same record sent twice by the same person is different. Frequently there is a difference of a year, sometimes of a day, seldom of a month, except that June, July and Jan'y or May and Mch are confused. Both private and public records are often inaccurate and when they disagree it is not always that a compiler can tell which is correct. Frequently in the following pages, both the private and public records are given.

William Eddye, the Vicar, when writing his name, spelled it Eddye, but in his will, except for his own name, the spelling is Eddie, even when attached to the names of his children. This spelling was kept by John of Watertown for some time, but it changed to Eddy quite early. The spelling Edy occurs there several times. In Plymouth the early spelling was Eedey, but Edey, Edy, and Eddey frequently appear. In Bristol, R. I., Ady and Adye are found. In order to avoid confusion it has been deemed wise to keep the spelling Eddy throughout the book, except in quotations and in the case of the Vicar. Likewise the forms, Obadiah, Zachariah, and Eleazar, were chosen from the many variations in the spelling of the names.

In the genealogies of the Eddy family published earlier, there were no references to authorities for the statements printed. This Genealogy has been wholly rewritten from the beginning and authorities given for the various dates and statements. So many lines are so entirely different from those in the earlier books, that it has been thought necessary to quote quite fully from deeds and wills to show why a change has been made. The reader can then follow the line of proof and decide for himself whether to adopt or discard the line as herein set forth. For that reason many more abstracts of deeds, which show relationship and mention other members of the immediate family, are given here than are ordinarily found in a genealogy. In addition to such deeds there are many abstracts of those which show the location of the homesteads. It must be admitted that the information in these quotations, when they concern a branch other than one's own, seems prosy, lengthy, and almost unnecessary, but when they are about one's own ancestors, they are full of interest, almost thrilling, and seem very short and meagre, when so much more could have been written.

Such records as have no reference to public documents, whether printed or in manuscript, or to other genealogies, town histories, or town and county records, were obtained from family records by correspondence. This is true of almost all of the records of the last one hundred years, when the branch has lived outside of New England. The compiler has to assume that such records are accurate. It is impossible in a work of this size, to check by reference to public documents every such name and date. It is also impossible to give the name of the member from whom each individual item has been obtained. These records are on file in the Eddy Family Association and appear in this volume, either without any reference attached or with the legend, "Family Record."

One great difficulty that the compiler has had to contend with has been to decide just how far back the knowledge sent to the Association was first-hand knowledge, and not copied from some earlier work. Many a weary hour spent in trying to reconcile conflicting data would have been saved, if the correspondent had stated, "Here personal knowledge ceases," and then given references for the rest of the information.

The compiler regrets that the descendants of every adult male have not been traced. This could not be done without the help of every family bearing the name Eddy in these United States. No one knows better than she how very incomplete this book is, but in self-defense she is obliged to say that she has faithfully tried to interest many who have not deemed her personal letter worthy of a reply, and that many others felt that when they had filed their own individual records they had done enough and could not take the time to obtain those of relatives.

The compiler wishes to express her thanks for the kindly assistance which she has received from the Rhode Island Historical Society, the Connecticut Historical Society, and State Record Library at Montpelier, Vt., and the Bristol County Registry of Probate and Land Records at Taunton. She wishes to acknowledge her indebtedness especially to the Rev. William Bell's "Memoir of Rev. William Eddye, M.A., Vicar of Cranbrook, 1591–1616"; and to the Eddy Family Bulletins which have printed the results of the research carried on by Miss Clara A. Avery in England, through the agency of Mr. Bower Marsh, managing director of Phillimore & Co. Ltd., London; and to the "History of Marthas Vineyard" by Dr. Charles E. Banks. She wishes to express her gratitude for the monographs prepared by Myron Asem Eddy, William Justus Eddy, William David Eddy, William Simonson Eddy, Byron Barnes Horton, and the Eddy Family Association of Eddyville, N. Y.; each of which was a very complete record of a branch from an ancestor of the period of the Revolutionary War or earlier. She wishes to thank Mrs. Elizabeth French Bartlett and Mr. Howard M. Chapin for timely hints and suggestions; Mrs. Ida Ferry Welsh, Mrs. William Norton and Mr. Horace Dickerman for their great help in searching records; Mrs. Alpha (Haight) Ruf, Mrs. Caroline (Haight) Adams, Mrs. Ellen Augusta Eddy and Miss Clara Arlette Avery for their material contributions for research work; the various officers of the Association, whose interest throughout has been most keen and whose help has always been forthcoming, when asked for; and the many individuals who have cheerfully given of their knowledge to make this work a success. She also wishes to thank Mr. Will Currier Eddy, who has taken full charge of the illustrating and printing of the book. Especially does she wish to express her gratitude to Mr. James Williamson Eddy, the Executive Secretary of the Eddy Family Association, Inc., for his assistance and co-operation throughout the years, and to Hon. Samuel Alden Eddy, for his encouragement and advice, when the "spirit was weak," but most of all to her long-suffering husband, William Holden Eddy, who in spite of having had the "Eddy Genealogy" as a subject of conversation almost daily for over six years, nevertheless most generously aided in that most arduous task, the reading of the proof of the pages of this book.

HISTORY OF THE EDDY FAMILY ASSOCIATION, INC.

This volume has been produced under the auspices of the Eddy Family Association, Inc., which had its origin in Boston, was organized at Eddyville on Sept. 15, 1920, and incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on October 29, 1923.

One day in the late summer of 1920 John Hardenbergh Eddy and his brother James Williamson Eddy were lunching together in Boston, when the late George Winslow Eddy, a member of a wholly different branch of Eddys, joined them and the conversation turned upon the various branches of the Eddy family. It was the year of preparation for the great Tercentennial at Plymouth and the thoughts of New Englanders were more or less centered upon their earliest ancestors in this country, so that it was quite natural for these three men to recall that 1930 would be the tercentennial of the landing of John and Samuel Eddy at Plymouth, and to agree that it would be worth while to celebrate that event. To do this successfully it would be necessary to enlist the aid of all branches of the descendants. This idea was suggested to several representatives of other branches, who lived in or near Boston; namely to Mr. Lyman Kinsley Eddy, Rev. David Brewer Eddy, the late Dr. Samuel Breck of Eddyville, Mass., and the late Clinton Lucius Eddy.

These were delighted with the idea and Dr. Breck suggested that a meeting of Eddys be held at his home in Eddyville, Mass., where a family organization might be formed. Accordingly letters were sent to all Eddys living in near-by towns, inviting them to come to a meeting at Eddyville on Sept. 15, 1920. At that meeting the Eddy Family Association was formed and the Rev. David Brewer Eddy was chosen to serve as the first President. Each year he has been re-elected and has now served for ten years. Will Currier Eddy of Auburndale, Mass. was chosen First Vice-President and James Williamson Eddy of Boston, Secretary. These two have served in their respective offices ever since. Clinton Lucius Eddy of West Newton was chosen Treasurer and served in this capacity until his death on Sept. 8, 1926, when George Winslow Eddy, his brother, was chosen to succeed him. He served until his death on Dec. 7, 1929. As the work of the secretary increased, it was found necessary to divide the work. The secretary then became the Executive Secretary and a Recording Secretary was added. William Holden Eddy of Providence served in this capacity for two years and was followed by Cyrus Tourtellotte Eddy of Providence. He was succeeded by Mrs. Luella (Eddy) Eddy of New York City, who still occupies the position.

In 1922 the need of an Assistant Secretary was felt and Mrs. Luella (Eddy) Smith of Auburndale, Mass. was chosen. She served until 1926, when Beatrice French Eddy of Newtonville, Mass. was elected. She has served ever since.

In addition to the First Vice-President there have been several other Vice-Presidents each year, who represented the various sections of the country. Dr. George S. Eddy of Middleboro, Mass., Charles Sumner Eddy of Providence, and Clinton L. Eddy of West Newton, Mass. were elected in 1920; to these three in 1921, William Simonson Eddy of Plainfield, N. J., Byron Barnes Horton of Sheffield, Pa., Earl Dorr Eddy of Akron, O., and Miss Clara Arlette Avery of Chicago, were added. In 1922 the seven elected were William Holden Eddy of Providence, Charles Sumner Eddy of Providence, Clinton Lucius Eddy of West Newton, Mass. William Simonson Eddy of Plainfield, N. J., Earl Dorr Eddy of Akron, O., Miss Clara Arlette Avery of Chicago, Dr. Samuel Breck of Eddyville, Mass., and Clifford Otis Eddy of Raleigh, N. C. In 1923 Clinton Lucius Eddy of West Newton, William Simonson Eddy of Plainfield, N. J., Miss Clara A. Avery of Chicago, Charles Sumner Eddy and Cyrus Tourtellotte Eddy, both of Providence, Clifford Otis Eddy of Raleigh, N. C., Louis Horatio Eddy of Marysville, Kan., and Rev. William David Eddy of Spokane, Wash. were elected, and they served for the following year also. In 1925 Clinton Lucius Eddy of West Newton, Mass., William Simonson Eddy of Plainfield, N. J., Miss Clara A. Avery of Chicago, Rev. William David Eddy of Spokane, Wash., Samuel Alden Eddy of Canaan, Conn., Hon. Thomas Weston of West Newton, Mass., and Clifford Otis Eddy of Raleigh, N. C. were elected and in 1926 Samuel Alden Eddy of Canaan, Conn., William Holden Eddy of Providence, George Winslow Eddy of West Newton, Mass., William Simonson Eddy of Plainfield, N. J., Rev. William David Eddy of Spokane, Wash., Hon. Thomas Weston of West Newton, Mass., Miss Clara A. Avery of Chicago, and Clifford Otis Eddy of Raleigh, N. C. were chosen; in 1927 to the list for 1926 were added Chancellor Elmer Ellsworth Brown of New York City, Charles Sumner Eddy of Akron, O., and John Hardenbergh Eddy of Newtonville, Mass. and in 1928 and 1929 the same members were re-elected.

For the first three years the secretary, James Williamson Eddy was chairman of the Genealogical Committee, but at his own request, because of the great amount of time necessary for the task, he was relieved of this extra work and in Sept. 1923, Mrs. Ruth Story (Devereux) Eddy of Providence, a member of the Genealogical Committee, was chosen as Chairman of the Committee and in 1925 the compilation of the Genealogy was placed in her hands. In addition to his work as Executive Secretary of the Association, James Williamson Eddy has served as editor of the Bulletin of the Eddy Family Association, which has appeared twice a year. The thought, the time, and the labor, which he has given to the Association to make it a success cannot be overestimated. To him we owe the life of the Association.

John Hardenbergh Eddy of Newtonville, Mass. has served throughout the whole period as the Chairman of the Finance Committee. Under his careful guidance and that of those associated with him each year, there has never been a deficit and funds have always been forthcoming for the various needs as the work progressed. Will Currier Eddy, Lyman Kinsley Eddy, Cyrus T. Eddy, George Winslow Eddy, Kathleen (Eddy) Mundy, and Hon. Thomas Weston have served at various times during the past ten years on this committee.

The personnel of the Genealogical Committee has changed during the various years. The following have served for one or more years,—James Williamson Eddy of Boston (Chairman 1920–1923), Ruth Story (Devereux) Eddy of Providence (Chairman 1923–1930), Byron Barnes Horton of Sheffield, Pa., Cyrus Tourtellotte Eddy of Providence, William Simonson Eddy of Plainfield, N. J., Samuel Alden Eddy of Canaan, Conn., Mrs. Ellen Augusta Eddy of Saginaw, Mich., James William Eddy of Waterbury, Conn., Augustus Osborn Bourne of Bristol, R. I., Mrs. Carlie (Bedient) Ford of Little Valley, N. Y., Mrs. Elizabeth (Thomas) Baldwin of Jamestown, N. Y., and Frances (Eddy) Houston of Geneva, N. Y.

In addition to the officers the following have served on the Executive Committee,—Leace W. Eddy, of Dorchester, Mass., Lyman Kinsley Eddy of Jamaica Plain, George Winslow Eddy of West Newton, and Hon. Samuel Alden Eddy of Canaan, Conn.

In 1926 a Genealogy Publication Committee was formed. Samuel Alden Eddy of Canaan, Conn. was chosen General Chairman. In 1927 this committee, beside the General Chairman, consisted of Ruth Story (Devereux) Eddy as Sub-Chairman of the Editing Committee with Miss Clara Avery and James Williamson Eddy as members and Will Currier Eddy as Sub-Chairman of the Publication Committee with John Hardenbergh Eddy and Hon. Thomas Weston as members. The President, David Brewer Eddy was a member ex-officio.

The first meeting of the Eddys occurred in 1920 at Eddyville, Mass., when the Association was organized. Thereafter the annual meetings occurred in September. In 1921 it was held at the Church of the Pilgrims at Plymouth; in 1922 in Wilder Hall of the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston; in 1923 in Providence at the Bell St. Chapel, which was built by James Eddy; in 1924 at the First Congregational Church in Middleboro, Mass.; in 1925 in the Church of the Pilgrims at Plymouth; in 1926 at the Winslow Congregational Church at Taunton, Mass.; in 1927 in Pilgrim Hall, 14 Beacon St., Boston; in 1928 at the Hotel Bellevue in Boston; in 1929 at the Town Hall in Swansea, Mass. At the first annual meeting the Recording Secretary reported that the Association numbered 191 members. In 1922 there were 325; in 1923, 502; in 1924, 609; in 1925, 661; in 1926, 850; in 1927, 927; in 1928, 1000; in 1929, 1047; and on Jan. 1, 1930 the number had reached 1089.

On October, 27, 28, 29, 1930 the Association will celebrate the three-hundredth anniversary of the landing of John and Samuel Eddy at Plymouth, by appropriate exercises in Boston, Watertown and Plymouth. A tablet in memory of John Eddy will be placed at Mount Auburn Cemetery in Watertown, and one dedicated to the two brothers, John and Samuel Eddy, will be placed in Brewster Park in Plymouth. With the placing of these two memorials and the publishing of this book the Association will have accomplished two of the purposes for which it has been working during the past ten years.

THE GENEALOGY OF 1930 AND ITS PREDECESSORS

This volume is not the first attempt to compile a genealogy of the Eddy families in America. In 1840 Caleb Eddy of Boston began to collect data on the family. He wrote to all the Eddys he could find, giving an account of his own line. He asked all those to whom the letter was sent to write for him a similar account of their descent and to send a record of their immediate family. This compilation was never published. Upon the death of Caleb in 1859, this collection was inherited by his son, Robert Henry Eddy of Boston.

In 1854 there appeared in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register an article on Capt. Joshua Eddy of Middleboro, written by his son, Zachariah Eddy of Middleboro, an eminent lawyer. Since fifty years of his life had been spent in the companionship of his father it is very probable that Zachariah had from him all of the facts which appear in that article, and they probably represent the history and tradition which Capt. Joshua, as a life-long resident of Middleboro, had accumulated during more than eighty years.

In 1877 a pamphlet of 72 pages by Col. Joseph Porter of Burlington, Me. was printed under the title of "A Memoir of Col. Jonathan Eddy of Eddington, Me. with some account of the Eddy Family and of the Early Settlers on the Penobscot River."

Sometime, probably about 1875, perhaps earlier, Dr. Charles Eddy of Brooklyn, N. Y., began the compilation of an Eddy Family Genealogy, which he had ready for publication about the time of the great meeting of the Eddy Family in Providence in 1880. This is a small book of about 170 pages, published in Brooklyn, N. Y. in 1881. Whether Dr. Charles Eddy built upon the foundation laid by Caleb Eddy of Boston and Zachariah Eddy of Middleboro, or whether he did personal research in the early lines is not clear, but he probably used the "Memoir of Col. Jonathan Eddy."

On Oct. 29, 1880,—the 250th Anniversary of the landing of John and Samuel Eddy at Plymouth—the great meeting was held at Providence, at the Chapel on Bell St., which had been built by James Eddy of that city. Following this meeting, Robert Henry Eddy of Boston, printed a volume of about 260 pages. This book bears on its title-page the following inscription: "The Eddy Family. Reunion at Providence to celebrate the Two Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the Landing of John and Samuel Eddy at Plymouth, Oct. 29, 1630." It was printed at Boston. The account of the Reunion occupies about 75 pages. This is followed by a genealogy of about 160 pages and an article on the Eddy Family as related to Middleboro. Robert Henry Eddy definitely states that the generations included in this volume are based on the earlier work of his father, Caleb, and that he was greatly indebted to Dr. Charles Eddy for the information relating to the recent generations, which the latter had just published. Thus it is that, while Robert Henry Eddy's book on the Eddy Family is a little more complete than Dr. Charles Eddy's, it does not differ in any noticeable degree. In 1884 a second edition of Robert Henry Eddy's book was published. This contained in an appendix several lines which had been omitted in the edition of 1881.

About 1910 Dr. Charles Eddy began to revise his work and to collect the new material which thirty years would add to his earlier information. But death intervened before he accomplished his purpose. At about this same time Mr. Byron Barnes Horton of Sheffield, Pa., a descendant of Zachariah Eddy of Warren, Pa., became interested in his ancestry and began to collect data on the Eddy Family. When the family of Dr. Charles Eddy learned of this, it most generously gave to Mr. Horton, the note-books, manuscript, and letters, which had been left by Dr. Charles Eddy. Mr. Horton then began to carry on the work of Dr. Eddy, but before he had gone very far the World War began and he was obliged to lay aside the work on genealogy for more important duties. Before he was able to resume the work, the Eddy Family Association was formed. When he learned that the Association intended to publish a new genealogy, he most generously loaned his own collections and that which he had received from the family of Dr. Charles Eddy, so that there might be the least possible duplication of effort. He felt, however, that he had not fulfilled the trust which he had assumed, so he had the whole collection of papers of Dr. Charles Eddy most beautifully typed and bound. He then presented these six volumes to the New England Historic Genealogical Society of Boston. Unfortunately, Dr. Charles Eddy had not begun, at the time of his death, any more research work into the early history of the Eddy Family, so that these volumes contain the same errors as the two earlier books.

In 1902, when the windows and the tablet, in memory of William Eddye, Vicar of St. Dunstan's Church, Cranbrook, were to be dedicated, the Rev. William Bell, M.A., who was at that time the Vicar, prepared an address on the life of William Eddye, which he based on Mr. W. Tarbutt's "Annals of Cranbrook Church" and on a study of the Church Register. This address was printed under the title of "A Memoir of Rev. William Eddye, M.A., Vicar of Cranbrook, 1591–1616 A.D." and in 1921 was reprinted for the Eddy Family Association, by W. T. Simmons, of Cranbrook, Kent, England.

A record of the material in print previous to 1930 must include also the "Bulletins of the Eddy Family Association." The first was issued in 1921. The idea of a Bulletin was conceived by James Williamson Eddy and a copy was for sale at the first Annual Meeting. This contained several facts of interest concerning the early history of the family, which had never before been printed. This Bulletin was so favorably received that it was decided to issue it regularly. Mr. James Williamson Eddy was made the editor and since then he has issued a Bulletin twice a year. These Bulletins contain the reports of the Annual Meetings, the written addresses delivered on those occasions, and much other history of the family previous to 1800. Copies of wills and deeds on file in England and New England have been given, and they have been illustrated by photographs, maps, pedigrees, and diagrams, which make them of inestimable historical value and a permanent memorial to James Williamson Eddy, the Executive Secretary, who has labored so long and so faithfully to make the Eddy Family Association a success.

In addition to these general volumes on the Eddy Family two monographs have been available for reference. Mr. Myron Asem Eddy, whose line was not completed in either of the editions printed in 1881, worked out his own line and deposited a manuscript copy in the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston. The other monograph, entitled "Eddy Family History," was published adout 1910. It gives an account of a branch of the family, descendants of Elisha Eddy of Glocester, R. I., which settled in Cattaraugus Co., N. Y.

At first the officers of the Eddy Family Association had thought to publish an Appendix to the edition of 1881, but soon after Mrs. Ruth Story (Devereux) Eddy became chairman of the Genealogical Committee and began original research in the early court-records, wills, and deeds of Plymouth Colony and of the other towns of New England, she reported that she found so many errors in the early history as recorded in the two genealogies of 1881, that it would not be possible to correct these in an Appendix, owing to the great confusion that would thereby result. It was then decided to celebrate the 300th anniversary of the landing of John and Samuel Eddy by the publication of an entirely new genealogy.

With this idea in mind the Association on Sept. 12, 1925 appointed Mr. Samuel Alden Eddy of Canaan, Conn., Chairman of the Genealogy Publication Committee and at a meeting of the Executive Committee on the 9th of October, Mrs. Ruth Story (Devereux) Eddy was chosen Sub-chairman of the Editing Committee and Will Currier Eddy, Sub-chairman of the Publication Committee. Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Story (Devereux) Eddy the Association sent out in the fall of 1925 about five thousand genealogical blanks to all Eddy descendants whose addresses could be obtained. When these were returned the vital statistics contained thereon were filed in a card catalogue. The catalogue was enriched by the contribution of Mr. Byron Barnes Horton, previously mentioned. The accounts of the earliest Eddys in America have been compiled from records obtained by personal research in the court-records, in the original vital, probate, and land records in the New England states; from vital statistics, records, genealogies, and biographies in printed books; and from town histories. About the period of the Revolution many families moved beyond the borders of New England. The descendants of these branches have generally furnished not only the records of their own generation, but often those of the two preceding ones. In such cases the compiler has been obliged to rely wholly upon these records, without any attempt to verify them by comparison with public records throughout the many states of the country. Such an attempt would demand years of labor. Therefore the accuracy of the records of the last hundred years must depend almost wholly upon the accuracy of those who sent information.

No work in genealogy covering, as this one does, a period of three hundred years can be made complete. It becomes necessary to drop out the descendants of the daughters very early in the line, generally with their marriage and a list of their children. This Eddy Genealogy of 1930 is published by the Eddy Family Association, which consists of the descendants of many of those daughters of Eddys as well as those who still bear the name. So in justice to those loyal members of the Association their line of descent is shown in this new book, no matter how far back the Eddy name occurred. This will explain the inclusion in an Eddy Family Genealogy of what otherwise might seem irrelevant material.

TO OUR FOREFATHERS

October 29, 1630—A Day of Undying Inspiration for the Loyal Descendants of John and Samuel Eddy.

On that day the little vessel "Handmaid" brought to Plymouth these two sturdy sons of William Eddy, Vicar of Cranbrook, after a voyage whose only record is one of storm and exhausting hardship. Ten out of the twenty-eight cattle brought as cargo perished during the voyage. The record reads that the frail ship battled for twelve weeks against wind and wave, reaching land "with all masts spent."

In imagination we may trace the causes of this journey even as this volume records a portion of its results through three centuries. John, the older brother, had married Amie Doggett of Groton. Since she was a distant connection of the second wife of John Winthrop, first Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony, it is easy to believe that John's decision to come to America was a part of the upheaval of thought and conscience that brought 25,000 Puritans to the shores of New England between 1630 and 1643. The counties of Suffolk and Essex in England, whither John and Samuel Eddy went sometime after the death of their father, were aflame with the spirit of reformation and of protest against the indolent corruption of the Church of England. These Puritans were determined to found a colony in which they could worship God according to their consciences, and John and Samuel Eddy were not strangers to this same purpose. Their father's estate had been settled, and young Samuel, in his 21st year, had recently received his inheritance of perhaps £150. Quite possibly the two brothers had acquaintances among the Plymouth Pilgrims, for it is likely that a definite sympathy with the spirit of liberty and of reform within the Church of England had been bred in the Vicarage at Cranbrook in the days of persecution and martyrdom under Elizabeth and James. We would like to think that Vicar William had lent assistance and spiritual sympathy to the early Pilgrim leaders and that this spirit animated the final decision of his two sons.

Possibly the voyage to Plymouth was considered a preliminary to settlement with John's relatives in Boston, for we know the two brothers promptly applied for admission to Massachusetts Bay Colony and were refused only because their papers of dismissal from Plymouth were incomplete. In any event, pioneers to the New World were they, whether Plymouth or Boston bound, and we must believe they were inspired by the deep courage and heroic devotion that marked the struggle of the best hearts in England to find liberty and God on the rugged shores of New England.

In the year 1630, the Town of Plymouth, then only a decade old, faced bleak chances of prosperity. The Dutch settlers in New York were pushing up the Connecticut River with their trading posts. The stronger colony in Boston was soon to cut off the valuable trade routes to the north, the one important source of wealth to Plymouth. The recent loss of more than one cargo of furs shipped to England, and wretched mismanagement of the colony's business affairs by Allerton, had greatly increased their debt to the financial backers in England. The outbreak of serious sickness in the previous winter and the partial scattering of the struggling church through the founding of Duxbury and other centers were to bring gloom to Plymouth skies. These untoward circumstances may have hastened John's decision to join in the founding and settling of Watertown, where he became its first Town Clerk, a member of the first Board of Selectmen, and a Freeman in its early days. In the long record, John's services to his town prove that he must have had clear business judgment, and a degree of sound leadership among his neighbors, helped no doubt by the close connection of his wife with her relatives in nearby Boston.

With eager imagination we can today stand on the spot where the crude log house was built that was sold by Experience Mitchell to Samuel Eddy and to which he brought his young bride, perhaps another result of his recent inheritance. We have a clear picture today of the pioneer life in these early days of the colonies. With tender emotion we think upon the rough log walls, chinked with clay, and the crude roof of thatch that protected the two rooms of that primitive home. The great chimney at the kitchen end was built of stones daubed with clay or of woven withes, always a serious fire hazard. The floors were of clay, and later of flattened logs. With his own hands, Samuel doubtless hewed a table board to be laid across wooden props and a simple bench or stools as seats for himself and his bride, Elizabeth. They ate from a wooden trencher, hollowed by fire or possibly by a knife, from "dish timber", with the white finish of poplar or linden wood. Since the first fork in the colonies belonged to Governor Winthrop in 1633, we know that our ancestors ate with their fingers and used a gourd or hollowed block of wood for a cup.

If their hearth fire was extinguished in winter, live coals were brought on a shovel or in strips of green bark from a neighbor's fireplace. When dusk fell, Samuel and Elizabeth talked for a brief space by the light of a wooden torch split into fine splinters in imitation of the Indians, from pine trees "so full of moysture of turpentine and pitch that they burne as cleere as a torch." Later their single home-made tallow candle must be extinguished during prayers by the thrifty housewife, to prolong its days. All grease and tallow was carefully saved and these candles were made in each home by dipping wicks of loosely spun hemp or silk of milkweed in the tallow kettle.

In England, Samuel had been apprenticed to the tailor's trade. We know he followed it in Plymouth, for some years later he was voted a grant of five shillings by the town for having prepared the clothing for some of the soldiers in the early battles with the Indians. It is very suggestive, however, that he never bound out any of his sons to the tailor's trade, and knowing that he lived in poverty for many years we must believe that in the matter of clothes, each family was self-sufficient, and there was scant employment for Samuel as a tailor in Plymouth. We know they dressed in deerskin and a little later in homespun cloth. Each home produced its own flax through a score of difficult processes, and the spinning wheel was a treasure in every household. Many of the early Pilgrims were doubtless familiar with the weaving of woolen cloth, and by 1643 there were 3,000 sheep in Massachusetts. No sheep under two years of age was permitted to be killed for sale, and none could be sent outside the colony, while each family must train up one wool spinner for its own needs. Knitting must have been the regular occupation for the women and girls in their leisure hours.

These early settlers, and our own ancestors were no exception, had the Englishman's desire to acquire fields and lands of his own whereon each man's home might be his castle, whether log cabin or baronial hall. We read of the allotments of land for gardens, and just on the edge of the town for crops of grain, and still farther off wood lots and meadows for the cattle. Much of this land was assigned from the colonies' possessions, while other plots were bought and sold, and their records add interest to the little we know of the actual careers of these two pioneers.

But a man's final ability to establish a comfortable home depended solely on his sturdy arms and brain. To our honored ancestors, each day brought a struggle of exceeding gravity to maintain life for themselves and the children that early thronged around them. We know they depended chiefly on three standard dishes for their food supply — Indian corn, fish, and occasional game. From the Indians these pioneer colonists acquired the knowledge of corn, squash, pumpkins, and beans, and they doubtless brought from England the usual garden vegetables, but never a potato had they until after 1720. Surely the thrifty housewife planted and tended a little orchard near the log house, and soon added to her table such fruits as apples, pears, peaches, plums and cherries.

Once more in imagination we think of their autumn months as spent in preparing their winter supplies. Nuts were gathered, apples and other fruits were dried, and vegetables were pickled in brine as the only means they knew of saving them for winter use. Some deer meat or wild fowl, and certainly an abundance of salted codfish must be prepared for the winter's needs. Somewhere in that log cabin a supply of dried ears of corn must be stored, and we can imagine the boys whose names we trace with loving interest spent many an evening husking corn or roasting ears in the ashes of the big fireplace.

Certainly in Watertown there was a gristmill grinding out its golden stream of cornmeal, within one year after John Eddy settled there, and we know that entire generations of Pilgrim children were brought up on cornmeal mush or milk porridge, and even Roger Williams spoke of this dish as "a diet exceedingly wholesome for English bodies."

Perhaps these homely thoughts help us to see our forefathers somewhat more clearly, for it must be admitted that no portrait or personal description has been preserved to us that might make them live in our presence. Apart from occasional phrases indicative of some particular quality, we seem to possess no true picture of any ancestor before the days of the Revolutionary War. They were a part of that solid middle class of English freeman and farmers that have revealed themselves to us in deeds rather than in words or by the artist's brush. Not many great men come up; not many highly placed leaders of national life are listed among them. Their boast must be those sturdy qualities which braved the hardships of the sea, the dangers of a desolate coast, and the discomfort of pioneer settlement, to establish on these shores a home for freedom and an altar to their God.

By as much as life was never soft or easy for them did they create those rugged qualities of honesty, and fearlessness toward men and of humility toward God which we now admire. By as much as they were denied comfort, affluence, or an easy fame, they gave to us an honored line of noble men who offered life with patriotic zeal in every war that endangered the colony or the nation. In many capacities of trust and of responsible leadership they served those early towns with integrity and ability. Hardened by toil, yet with hearts full of love toward their Maker, they learned and practiced a sympathy toward the weak and the unfortunate that never shared the bigotry or bitterness of the early attacks upon the Quakers or the pitiable witches of Salem. Tempered by the restraints of wise judgment, our ancestors helped to found public institutions and to rear the structure of government that has stood the test of centuries.

If the America we love continues her favored way among the nations, it will ever be because of those very qualities woven into the fabric of our nation's life by our ancestors in old New England. Thence comes the clear stream of true Democracy that marks America's story. Thence springs the path for Liberty's sure progress in the earth. Thence burns like a clear flame the reverence for God that has lifted the Anglo-Saxon race to world leadership. Thence will ever flow streams of inspiration that shall guide their loyal descendants upon the untried paths of the future.

John and Samuel Eddy, our forefathers, on this solemn day of commemoration, we greet you. Never in all the years has your memory been so bright as on this three hundredth anniversary, when we dedicate in your honor this new volume representing a decade of toil in which we have gathered the names of your wide-flung progeny amid the growing story of this land. The Eddy Family of America assembled in formal celebration of these three hundred years, offer to you their message of high admiration, of humble gratitude, of profound appreciation. We accept those obligations which you have passed on to us in the building of a nation in the fear of God and in behalf of the Brotherhood of Man.

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

The origin of the name Eddy is an interesting subject for research and speculation. Frank R. Holmes, in his "Directory of the Ancestral Heads of New England Families, 1600–1700," suggests two possible origins; from the Gaelic eddee, meaning instructor; and from the Saxon ed, backwards, and ea water, — a whirlpool or eddy; thus making it a place-name. A much more probable origin is the Saxon root ead, meaning success or prosperity. This root occurs in several frequently used names, as Edgar, Edmund, Edward, Edwin, and the obsolete Edwy. It is interesting to note that the earliest record yet found of John Eddy of Taunton spells the name Eddway. Eddy might be a diminutive of any one of these names. Robert Ferguson, in his work on "English Surnames" suggests also that it is a place-name, from the Anglo-Saxon Edingas, and Frisian Edde.

The earliest mention of the name is in the form Eddi or Edde, Latinized into Eddius. The bearer assumed the name Stephanus on taking orders. He went to Northumbria from Canterbury with Bishop Wilfrid (or Wilfrith) in 699. His special work was the teaching of the Roman method of chanting. In 709 he was an inmate of the monastery of Ripon, where he wrote a life of Wilfrid in Latin, a work of considerable interest and value.

In the "Domesday Book" the name Eddeu occurs in a description of Little Abington, Cambridgeshire, and in the time of Edward I persons named Ede, Edde, and Edwy are mentioned as paying taxes in Worcestershire. In 1486 a William Edy, Gent., is recorded in co. Herts. From 1545 the name was found frequently in Gloucestershire under the forms Edie, Eddy, Eddye, Edy and Edye. At Woodbridge, Suffolk, Eyde occurs as a surname between 1599 and 1610 and then vanishes, for a century at least.

In the records of the Archdeaconry Court of Cornwall the name is found in various forms, Edy, Eady, Eedy, Ede, Edye, or Eddy, in different parishes from 1570 on. In Bristol, the town where William Eddye, the Vicar, was born, a number of wills have been discovered, dated about 1580, of persons bearing the names of Eddie, Eddye or Eddy. In Scotland the names Ade, Adie, Addy, Eadie are frequently found. Some of these are thought to be diminutives of Adam, a favorite name in that country. In 1672 a coat-of-arms was granted to David Eadie of Moneaght, Scotland, as noted in the paragraphs on heraldry.

With our present knowledge it is impossible to trace these various names to their sources. It seems quite clear that they come, at least in part, from different origins and have at times been interchanged in inextricable confusion.

Although William Eddye seems to have used two d's consistently in the spelling of his name, his descendants in this country, in the many variations found, frequently dropped one and also often doubled the initial E. This would suggest that the name was pronounced Eedy. As a matter of fact that pronunciation was largely, if not entirely, used in the western part of Rhode Island in the early portion of the nineteenth century. The writer of this article can recall hearing this pronunciation in his boyhood from some of the elderly people of that region. It is interesting to note that the names Edye and Edie, mentioned in the paragraphs on the coat-of-arms, suggest a like pronunciation.

In his introduction to the Genealogy published in 1881 Robert Henry Eddy wrote, "The author has made considerable effort to obtain the 'Armorial Bearings' of Eddy; having sent therefor to the Herald's College of London. He has been informed that the arms are not to be found therein; but from the best authorities, the shield had upon it three old men's heads couped at the shoulders. One branch had three cross-croslets in the shield, with a cross-croslet and dagger saltierwise for the crest; the motto being 'Crux mihi grata quies'. As only those who were in the holy wars were entitled to have a cross in their armorial bearings, it is fair to presume that, as the Eddy family is a very ancient one (Eady being a name found in Domesday Book), some if not many of the race, like their descendants, manfully combatted against irreligion and infidelity, and, having devoted the sword to the cross, found in the latter the grateful rest, as is indicated by the above admirable motto."

He did not state who the best authorities were, but in the engraving printed in his book he rejected the crosses crosslet in the shield, retaining the three old men's heads, with the crest described above. This arrangement was also followed in the commemorative tablet erected to the memory of William Eddye in 1902 in St. Dunstan's Church, in accordance with the terms of his will. It has been used by various members of the family in this country for fifty years and it also appears in Matthew's "American Armoury and Blue Book."

The edition of Burke's "General Armory" published in 1842 does not contain the name Eddy but under the heading Edye, arms are given as follows: Gu. (another, purp.) three men's heads couped at the shoulders ar. crined gray. That is on a red (or purple) shield three men's heads in silver, with gray hair. No crest or motto is given. Under Edy, the arms are given as three boys' heads on a red shield, without motto or crest. In 1615 arms were granted to an Ady family in Kent, on the shield of which were three cherubim's heads. The crest was a stag, but no motto was mentioned. Another family, Ady, Adey, or Addy (of Kent, London, and Herefordshire), had three leopard's faces in its shield, again without a motto. The Eades family also had three leopards' faces.

The motto, "Crux mihi grata quies" (The Cross is to me a welcome rest), is found in Burke (1884) assigned to three families, Adam, M'Adam, and Edie, all Scottish. Edie or Eadie is a Scottish diminutive of Adam. The Edie arms, granted to David Edie of Moneaght in 1672, are apparently those referred to by Robert Henry Eddy. They are described as: Ar. three crosses crosslet fitchée gu. Crest, — A cross crosslet fitchée gu. and a skean in saltire ppr. Motto — Crux mihi grata quies. That is, they consisted of three red crosses crosslet, pointed at the base, on a silver shield, with a crest composed of a similar cross crosslet, crossed by a dagger (skean).

Unfortunately, we lack one piece of evidence that might have been very helpful. Caleb Eddy, father of Robert Henry, wrote in 1840 to the Rev. Ira Eddy, of Portage, Ohio: "I have in my possession a silver tankard which was brought to this country by Samuel Eddy, the Pilgrim and given to his son Caleb, who gave it to his son Caleb, who gave it to his son Caleb, who gave it to his son Benjamin, who gave it to his son Caleb, myself. I have likewise the copy original of Coat-of-Arms worn by David Eddie in the Holy Wars at Jerusalem in the 11th century." . . . It will be noted that no mention is made of any armorial engraving on the tankard, but in the article on p. 197 on Caleb Eddy, the great-grandfather of the compiler, it is stated that it "had on it, beautifully engraved, armorial bearings", and also bore the mark "Caleb and Martha Eddy, 1747." In 1880 this tankard was in the possession of Robert Henry Eddy, but at his death, without issue, all trace of it was lost, and what the armorial bearings were, or of what value they would be in investigating the matter, is unknown. "The copy original of Coat-of-Arms worn by David Eddie" has also disappeared.

The seal used by William Eddye in connection with the signature on his will has no armorial bearings, but in the list of articles displayed at the Bell St. Chapel during the Reunion of 1880, mention is made of a "Coat-of-Arms and Crest of the Eddy family, the latter having been taken from an old silver seal remaining in possession of the family." Unfortunately there is nothing to tell us which branch it was. Certainly there was no Eddy family in Cranbrook at that time. It is much to be regretted that the reference was not more definite.

It will be seen that we have at present no more knowledge than had Robert Henry Eddy, in fact we seemingly have less. Until further facts come to light the matter must stand as he left it, with no data available either to check his statements or to furnish a clue for further investigation.

The village of Cranbrook is in the heart of the Weald of Kent, the garden of England. It is a quaint, old fashioned place of perhaps four thousand inhabitants, set in the midst of a rolling country filled with great hop and wheat fields. If one goes there from London by railroad, it is necessary to change at Tunbridge Wells, and again at Paddock Wood, to a leisurely little branch, which winds slowly through the rich fields, and finally leaves the traveller nearly two miles from his destination. It is a pleasant walk to the town, however, and conveyance is available. The village consists practically of one street branching into a Y at the farther end. To the left, somewhat above the street level, is the Church of St. Dunstan. Most of the buildings are old, some of them dating back five centuries. Many are half-timbered. There are examples of architecture, it is said, "embracing nearly every style during the last five-hundred years." The George Hotel is a fine, old-fashioned, British inn. Queen Elizabeth stopped there in her trip through Kent in 1573.

Edward III (1327-1377) conceived the idea of bringing Flemish weavers to England to manufacture their famous broadcloths, instead of exporting the wool to Flanders for weaving there. Many Flemings came over at his invitation. Cranbrook was found to be an excellent location for the work, having good water power, an ample supply of timber, and a good quality of the marl used in cleansing the cloth. The town became famous for its product and was prosperous for many years. When Queen Elizabeth visited it the weavers laid down on the street a carpet of broadcloth half a mile long for her to walk on.

The use of machinery in spinning and weaving gradually put an end to this hand manufacture, for Cranbrook was too far from the sources of supply, and too difficult to reach. As a result it settled down into a quiet, rather sleepy, trading centre for the farming district that surrounds it.

To a visitor the Church of St. Dunstan is the main attraction. It dates from a very early period. It seems probable that a church existed there before the Norman Conquest; at any rate, traces of Norman work are found in the present building. Even though it has been completely rebuilt most of the present structure is from four to five centuries old. The tower was erected between 1414 and 1443 and the middle aisle completed in 1530. In 1725 the undermining of a column wrecked the aisle, which had to be rebuilt. The tower is square and plain, and rather heavy in effect. The aisles of the church are rather low and when viewed from the rear are not at all pleasing. The view at an angle is more satisfactory. The church is of considerable size,—170 feet long, and 70 feet wide. The tower is 90 feet high.

In the tower is a small room said to have been used as a jail for Protestant prisoners during the persecution under Mary. To the right of the south door is the tablet erected in accordance with the will of Robert Henry Eddy in commemoration of William Eddye. It contains the Eddy Arms with the inscription;

> "This Tablet and these three windows were dedicated by Robert Henry Eddy of Boston in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, U. S. A., to the memory of his ancestor, the Reverend William Eddye, M.A., Vicar of this church from 1591 to 1616.
> Whose sons John and Samuel and whose daughter Abigail were among the Pilgrim settlers of New England and there implanted for the benefit of a numerous posterity the religious principles here taught them."

The three windows (by C. E. Kempe) illustrate the doctrine of the Incarnation. The window to the west contains the figures of David, Isaiah, and Jeremiah; the window to the east of the door has the figures of St. Luke, St. Paul, and St. John; and the other window, St. Stephen, St. Augustine of Canterbury and St. Alban. These figures occupy the upper parts of the various windows. Below, respectively, are the Salutation and Visitation; the Appearance of the Angel to the Shepherds, and the Visit of the Shepherds to Bethlehem; and the Magi.

There are other stained glass windows erected by local families or by popular subscription. There is also a very interesting baptismal font built about 1710, about four feet square and eight or ten feet high, for the use of those who desired baptism by immersion. This was formerly known as the "Dipping Place." Other features of the interior are interesting, especially to the antiquary.

The old churchyard lacks the trimness and regularity so much sought after at the present time. The graves are irregularly placed and many of the monuments are in very poor condition. Steps have been taken to secure new cemeteries at some distance from the town, and as a result the churchyard will be closed to further burial. The earliest legible date to be found on any stone is 1608, though probably some of the memorials are of even greater age.

Those who have no historical interest in Cranbrook may well enjoy its beautiful scenery and its quiet restfulness. As a vacation centre for short walking trips and excursions it has many advantages. Several artists have established studios there, attracted by the picturesque surroundings. But the industrial conditions that have weighed so heavily upon England of late years have affected Cranbrook severely. The dense population supported by the hand weaving of former days cannot be sustained by the agricultural labors of the present, so that economic problems are difficult. That prosperity may return to it in full measure is the wish of all the descendants of William Eddye.

Double Dates. In England and her colonies the year began on March 25 from the 14th century until 1752, when a change was made to January 1, as at present. Other nations had made the change before 1752, and even in English documents the beginning of the year was often reckoned from January 1, long before this reckoning was made legal. Hence to avoid ambiguity the custom arose of giving to dates between January 1 and March 25 a double date. Thus Feb. 1722/23 would mean Feb. 1723 in the present method of writing dates. The double dates are used in this book whenever they were found in the original. In order to make dates previous to 1752 correspond in the solar year in the New Style, it is necessary to add 10 to dates between 1600 and 1700 and 11 to those between 1700 and 1752. The Quakers disliked to call the months by their Pagan names so that dates in their records appear with a figure for the month. Great care must be used to make sure whether the month referred to is reckoned in the Old Style or the New Style, for in the former the eighth month would be October while in the latter it is August. This is the source of much confusion when dates are copied by those who do not know of this custom of reckoning. So when an apparent discrepancy in dates occurs, they should be examined to see whether a translation from one style of reckoning to the other would prove them the same.

Method of Numbering. In the following pages the children are given consecutive numbers as they appear, except for those groups in which no member is carried on. When such a number is preceded by a plus sign it signifies that farther on in the book a paragraph about that individual appears in which more information of him and his family is given. To trace a line backwards it is necessary to note the number, in bold-faced type, of the father. Then work backwards in the book until such number is found belonging to one of a group of children. Then note the number of that child's parent, and again search for him in the list of children. A few records are without numbers. These were obtained too late to be included in the numbering. They are placed in the lists, instead of in footnotes to avoid confusion.

AN APPRECIATION

The Executive Committee of the Eddy Family Association has requested the President to voice the profound gratitude and appreciation of every member of the Association toward three of its members, who through the past years have been primarily responsible for the success of the Association, and to one alone for the completion of this long-awaited volume.

Mrs. Ruth Story Devereux Eddy, the honored chairman of our Genealogical Committee, has written this book from beginning to end. To this task she has brought a peculiar genius for close and accurate research and for clear and concise statement of her results. She has sought and found obscure trails among the various branches of our family. She has finally placed upon our family tree thousands of names, including hundreds of living Eddys, who have never known their right relation to their ancestry in the past. For three years she has poured her life into the actual composition and editing of these pages, in addition to caring for her home, her husband and three children. With unusual ability to concentrate, she has effectively used every hour, creating leisure where none existed and seizing opportunity amid the engrossing tasks of a busy life. These hours gleaned from her many burdens have been cheerfully invested in this book for the benefit of every member of the Eddy Family. In all this period one or more rooms in her home have been set aside for the careful storing and accumulating of these records, and now that the book is in our own hands, we stand amazed at the contribution made by Mrs. Ruth Eddy to the history of the Eddy Family.

There is no way in which we can repay such sacrificial service, but we can unite with one voice to express our gratitude and undying appreciation, for without her this book had been an impossibility.

Mr. James Williamson Eddy was one of the founders of the Association and his deep personal interest in genealogical research and his indefatigable zeal in building up our membership and finances have been primary factors in the success of the Association. His presence at each annual meeting, his guiding hand upon each program, his vital touch in every letter and communication sent out as Executive Secretary, and above all else his unique contribution in editing the eighteen Bulletins which have come from his mind, his heart, and his pen, have made possible the more than 1090 recorded members and have brought us to our goal in the great Tercentenary Celebration in October, 1930.

Our gratitude must also be expressed to Mrs. Luella (Eddy) Eddy who has served the Association as recording secretary for many years, keeping our records with accuracy and reporting the annual meetings with marked skill. Since her marriage to Mr. James Williamson Eddy, they have together carried these detailed tasks through which the Association has been bound together as one family.

To these three, we thus express our endless debt of gratitude and the future success of the Association will rest upon foundations securely built by them.

D. Brewer Eddy, D.D., President.

THE EDDY FAMILY
IN AMERICA

WILLIAM EDDYE, VICAR OF CRANBROOK, ENG., AND HIS DESCENDANTS

1 William Eddye, b. at Bristol, England; d. at Cranbrook, Co. Kent, England, Nov. 23, 1616; m. (1) at Cranbrook, Nov. 20, 1587, Mary Fosten; dau. of John and Ellen (Munn) Fosten. Mary died in July 1611 and William m. (2) Feb. 22, 1613/14, at Cranbrook, Sarah Tayler, a widow. She d. before Feb. 5, 1639/40 when her will was proved.

Elizabeth became Queen of England in 1558 and reigned until 1603. William Eddy was born probably between 1558 and 1564 and died in 1616, so that with the exception of the last few years, his whole life was spent in that great period, the Age of Elizabeth. His years of life were almost the same as those of Shakespeare, who was born in 1564 and died in 1616.

In spite of many years of research it has not as yet been possible to learn the names of the parents of William Eddye. Upon the first page of the Parish Register at the Church of St. Dunstan in Cranbrook, it is written by the hand of William himself, since his signature is at the foot of the page, that he was "borne in the cittie of Bristoll." The church registers of the towns about Bristol as well as those of Bristol have been searched in vain for this birth record. Among the many wills which have been found (abstracts of which will be found in Bulletin No. 8) the two following seem to be the only ones which might throw any light on the problem. The town of Northleach is in the eastern part of Gloucestershire and the city of Bristol is in the southern part of the same county.

25 March 1578. Thomas Eddie of Norlach (Northleach), co. Glouc., tanner. To be buried in Norlach Church or churchyard. Sons: John; William; Harrie; Thomas; Christopher. To John that house and part of my 3 tenement at east end of Norlach next to a lane leading to the water, one now inhabited by Harrie Mynchin with reversion to son Thomas. To son William second tenement inhabited by George Mynchin. To son Harrie 3rd tenement inhabited by Nycholas Horton. To my sister Agnes Lane 40s. Residue to my son Harrie, sole execr. Overseers: Thos. Herbert the elder, & Christopher Lane. Wit: Thomas Dutton, Harrie Wynchcombe, Wm. Haule, Robert Fyfield, Thomas Herbert the elder. 2 July 1579 Proved at Gloucester by Harrie Eddie, son.

12 Jan. 1586/7. Henry (or Harrie) Edie, of Northleach, shoemaker. To son Thomas, his heirs, etc. 2 tenements . . . at east end of Northleach in occupancy of John Evance & John Green. . . . To Harry my son £5. at age of 18 years. To Marie. . . . To Ane. . . . Residue to my wife Margaret, sole executrix. Overseers: Richard Rose & Henry Winchcombe. Wit: Henry Winchcombe, Rychard Rose. Gregory Townsend, Thomas Edie. Proved 2nd Sept. 1589.

If the Harrie of the second will was the son, Harrie, of the first will he must have been married before 1557 in order to have a son Thomas, who is of age to inherit immediately. This would seem to place the children of Thomas Eddie, namely, John, William, Harrie, Thomas, and Christopher, one generation earlier than the Vicar William. But it is just as probable that the Thomas and Henry (Harrie) of the two wills were of the same generation. In this case the son William (if second son, as position in will would suggest) must have been born as early as 1552. This date is earlier than has usually been ascribed to William, the Vicar, but of course not impossible. The problem of his parentage, however, must remain unsolved until more information is discovered. It is possible that the family to which our William belonged left the vicinity of Bristol during his childhood and settled in some other part of England, perhaps in the vicinity of Bury St. Edmunds, co. Suffolk, or in Cambridgeshire, where William became imbued with the desire to become a clergyman.

William Eddy matriculated as "sizar" at Trinity Hall, at the University of Cambridge, and there received the degree of B.A. in 1583. (A sizar is one who performs certain duties in part payment of his expenses at a school or college.) William then went to Thurston, a small parish in co. Suffolk, near Bury St. Edmunds and not very far from Cambridge. There he occupied the position of curate, perhaps from 1583 to 1586, as is shown by his signature on the transcript of the Register which was sent to the Bishop's office at Norwich. This signature was compared with those at Cranbrook and found to be the same, so there can be no question concerning the identity of William the Curate at Thurston, and William the Vicar at Cranbrook. During this period he matriculated at Trinity College at the University of Cambridge and in 1586 received the degree of Master of Arts — "magister in artibus" as he records it on the Register at Cranbrook.

In this same year, 1586, Richard Fletcher, who since 1559 had been Vicar of Cranbrook, died, and Robert Roades, the President of St. John's College, Cambridge, was chosen by Archbishop Whitgift to succeed him. To have held this position in the College, Robert Roades must have been a very able and distinguished man, probably a Fellow of the University for many years and one who had taken a leading part in moulding its views and spreading its teaching and discipline. It is likely that he had become acquainted with William Eddye and was attracted to him, perhaps because of his scholarship or personality, and invited him to accompany him as his assistant to the Parish of Cranbrook in 1586. To a young man this must have been a wonderful opportunity, this chance to work with and be the companion of one of the scholars of the day. William accepted the invitation and settled in Cranbrook. There he met Mary Fosten and in November of the year 1587 he married her. Upon the Marriage Register in his own handwriting there is the following entry:

Inductus autem fuit in realem actualem huius Ecclesiae parochialis Vicariae de
Duodecimo die Januarii, A. 1591.

Mary Fosten was the daughter of John and Ellen (Munn) Fosten, who were married Jan. 19, 1562. John Fosten died and his widow married Andrew Ruck on Jan. 11, 1574. There was at least one child by this second marriage as William Eddye in his will mentions "my loving brother Stephen Ruck." It is possible that Mary inherited from her father some property, which would become hers upon her marriage, so that William felt that he could marry when only a curate. This marriage portion may be the "Annuitie of five pounds a yeare granted unto me and Mary my late wife now deceased and to the heires of our body", whereof he makes mention in his will.

This first year of their married life was a very exciting one in the history of England, for it was the year of the war with Spain and the defeat of the great Spanish Armada. Cranbrook is not very far from the coast and must have taken a very active part in furnishing men for the ships and in other preparations for the defense of the coast bordering on the English Channel.

For some reason William Eddye was in Staplehurst, a town about six miles from Cranbrook, in the spring of 1589 and there his son Nathaniel was born and baptized, for the Register of the Staplehurst Church has the following record:

1589 Marche The XXX day was baptized ye sonne of Wyelyam Eddye mynyster & preacher of ye gosspell of our lord Jesus

The Register at Cranbrook records that on February 24, 1589/90, was buried Master Roberte Roades, "whoe was President of St. John's Colledge in Cambridge and after Vicar of this parish of Cranbrooke". Archbishop Whitgift then appointed Richard Mulcaster, the Head-Master of the Merchant-Taylors School, to the office of Vicar. But he remained only a year, during which time William Eddye continued as curate. Then on Jan. 12, 1591, Archbishop Whitgift appointed William Eddye to succeed. He occupied this position for twenty-five years, until his death in 1616. Perhaps this appointment gives us the clearest picture of the ability of William Eddye which we have, in that he was deemed worthy to succeed the three brilliant and scholarly men who had occupied the vicarage for the previous thirty years.

Richard Fletcher, the first Protestant vicar, served from 1559 to 1586. He received ordination in the reign of Edward VI, and during the reign of Mary remained in England, in spite of many hardships and imprisonment. When he was Vicar of Cranbrook he had associated with him two men who were so Puritanical in their views that they were ordered to stop preaching their doctrines. This Richard Fletcher was the father of Richard Fletcher who became the Bishop of London and religious adviser and Chaplain of Queen Elizabeth, and he was grandfather of John Fletcher, whose name is so often associated with that of Beaumont as a writer of brilliant plays. After the death of Fletcher, Archbishop Whitgift, a "strong Calvinist in doctrine and a strict enforcer of conformity," chose Robert Roades, the scholar, a kindly gentleman, one whose views were above suspicion and one whose manners were conciliatory, who, as President of St. John's College, Cambridge, had long shown his ability and genius. These were two of the noted men whom Archbishop Whitgift deemed William Eddye worthy to succeed. Thus it seems likely that in 1591 William Eddye was a strict Conformist and it is probable that he held these views for the greater part of his life, for there seem to be no accounts of any religious disturbances recorded in the parish during his incumbency. If there were any changes they must have come gradually as a natural growth rather than from any sudden adoption of the more radical views of the Puritan element, which was gaining ground in the section to the north-east of London, especially in the counties of Suffolk and Essex.

We can imagine the pride which William felt upon being chosen, when only about thirty years of age, to become the Vicar of the Church at Cranbrook, and we can understand the joy in his heart when he wrote below the record of his marriage those Latin words which when translated are "But he was inducted into the real and actual possession of the Vicarage of the Church of the parish of Cranbrooke on the twelfth of January in the year 1591". Another proof of his installation as Vicar is a record found in the First Fruits' Composition Books in Vol. XI, fo.131, at the Public Records Office, which contains the following records:

Kent: Cranbrook Vic: 17 Dec. 1591: William Eddye, Clerk, compounded for first fruits of Archbishop of Canterbury the vicarage aforesaid—Extending to £19.19.6 the tenth whereof 39$^{s.}$ 11¼$^{d.}$
1 June and 1 Dec 1592 and
1 June and 1 Dec 1593 £17.19.6¾.

Bondsmen of the said William, Richard Jurden of Cranebrook in C$^{o.}$ Kent yeoman and Robert Hovenden of the same clothier.

Every new incumbent of a feudal or ecclesiastical benefice or of an office of profit was obliged to pay to his superior the "first fruits" or in other words, the income for the first year of the benefice or office. In England up to the time of Henry VIII these "first fruit" taxes were paid to the pope by every new incumbent of a benefice in the pope's patronage, but Henry VIII abolished this payment and the "first fruits" tax was transferred to the Crown. This record shows that the income of William Eddye for the first year of his incumbency, which began on Jan. 12, 1591, was £19.19sh. 6d. and that on Dec. 17, 1591 he paid one-tenth of the stipend and arranged with Richard Jurden, yeoman, and Robert Hovenden, clothier, to act as security for his payment of the rest. It also shows that he paid the remaining amount £17.19sh. 6¾d. in four payments, two in 1592, and two in 1593.

Previous to 1598 the Church Registers of England had been written for the most part on paper. In the latter part of that year a law was issued to the clergy that the records must be kept on parchment. William Eddye set about this task and scholar that he was, he wished it well done, so he did it himself. Eighty pages bear his signature. The book bears evidence of careful work as a scribe and it shows some skill in drawing and designing, but a critic states that the illuminations are poor when compared with the work of mediaeval artists, but far superior to those of the average vicar of his time. The Rev. David Brewer Eddy, who visited Cranbrook in 1927, writes as follows:

"The vicar opened the large steel safe which stands in the rear of the entrance hall near his study door, and placed before me, with my two younger boys, Russell and David Brewer, Jr., the sacred pages of the old parish records. He spoke with satisfaction of the painstaking care with which our famous William had recopied on permanent parchment the earlier records. Turning the pages he showed exactly where the handwriting of our ancestor began. He opened several sections of the records to show the decorations that William had added to embellish the pages for Burials, Marriages, Births. Together we sought the names of the Eddy children noted at birth, the longer lists of parish deaths at the times of plague, a surprising list of vicars with all too brief tenure in these times of the Black Death, possibly related to our modern epidemics of the flu, and vastly more fatal. Each new page of parchment was endorsed with the signature of "William Eddye, Vicar" and one or two names of church officials added to his own as witnesses.

The principal pages show designs of rather crude workmanship, often in a pale green ink, with rulings for margins and an occasional flower pattern with geometric patterns at the corners of the page. It is all free hand work and totally without artistic effect but reveals care and patience thru many years of faithful effort."

This Title Page is of interest, since it is the source of much of our knowledge concerning William Eddye himself.

The Rev. William Bell, who was Vicar of Cranbrook in 1902 made a careful study of the Register for the purpose of writing a Memoir of William Eddye. He states that scattered throughout the book are several scholarly quotations. Some are from the Scriptures and others from Latin authors. The following quotation from Cyprian is found on the Title-page preceding the records of Baptisms,—"Ut deus personam non accipit sic nec aetatem item a baptismo atque gratia nemo prohibetur." One from Augustine precedes the records of Burials. "Nec aliquid nocet fidelibus negata eorum corporibus sepultra, nec si exhibeatur aliquid infidelibus prodest." Mr. Bell states that here and there after the entry of a burial William Eddye added a comment, such as "an honest man" or "a good woman", "a good Christian." Some places show that sometimes he erased the comment which he had added. From the fact that the names of the children of William were Bible names and not those that were characteristic of the Puritans of the time, such as Faint-not, Comfort, Repent, and Experience, Mr. Bell draws the conclusion that William Eddy did not go to extremes in his beliefs, but was a sincere adherent of the Church of England as it was in the reign of Elizabeth. He adds that this idea is borne out by the fact there are no records of any disputes in the parish while he was Vicar.

One section of this Register contains a description of a plague which fell upon Cranbrook. It is of interest because it was written by William Eddye and is the only piece of his own composition that has been found. It is quoted below in modern spelling.

In this year following 1597 began a great plague in Cranbrook, which continued from April the year aforesaid unto the 13th of July, 1598.

1. First it is to be observed that before this infection did begin that God about a year or two before took away by death many honest and good men and women.
2. Secondly, that the judgment of God for sin was much before threatened and especially for that vice of drunkenness, which did abound here.
3. Thirdly, that this infection was in all quarters at that time of this parish except Hartley quarter.
4. Fourthly, that the same began in the house of one Brightlinge out of which much thievery was committed and that it ended in the house of one Henry Grynnoche who was a pot companion and his wife noted much for incontinency which both died excommunicated.
5. Fifthly, that this infection was got almost into all the inns and victualling houses of the town places then of great misorder, so that God did seem to punish that himself, which others did neglect and not regard.
6. Together with this infection there was a great dearth at the same time, which was cause also of much heaviness and sorrow.
7. This was most grevious unto me of all that this judgment of God did not draw the people unto repentance the more but that many by it seemed to be more hardened in their sin."

The other matters of interest in the Register are the records of the baptism of his children, a record which has proved invaluable to his descendants of later generations. It is also noted that the records in the latter part of 1610 and for nearly all of 1611 are written by another hand. When this fact is added to the record that "Thomas Greene, son of Mr. Greene preacher of the word, was baptized in Cranbrook," it would seem likely that for some reason William was away from his vicarage or else was suffering from a long illness. This was the year in which Mary, his wife, and also a new-born child, Nathaniel, died.

Two years later he married again. The second wife, Sarah Tayler, was a widow with several children by her first husband. From her own will and from the will of William Eddye it is evident that she had property. There is on record at Cranbrook a deed, dated 1617, between Dence Weller of Cranbrook, clothier, and Sarah Eddy of Cranbrook, widow, late wife of William Eddy, late Vicar of Cranbrook. This deed bears a seal heraldic and five signatures (Coleman's catalogue of 1875, No. 56).

From the inventory of William's estate it is possible to get some idea of his home. There was a hall with a large fireplace and some armor on the walls and behind it the kitchen, evidently a large room where the family ate. Here also was a large fireplace surrounded by the utensils used in cooking, many of them similar to those used in the very early New England kitchens. The kitchen had two cupboards, one of wood and the other, either with a glass front, or else made for holding glassware. The shelves were filled with pewter dishes and there were several pieces of brass. On this same floor opening out of the hall and kitchen, were several other rooms. First of all there was a parlor which was well-furnished. There were curtains and "mappes" and pictures on the walls, a carpet on the floor, tables, chairs, and cushions for further comfort and decoration. Then there were six chambers, the Chapel chamber, which was his own and which he probably used for his study and work, a parlor chamber, a hall chamber, a kitchen chamber, a maid's chamber, and another over the shop, which seemed to have been used partly as a storeroom, as was also the shop below. If one recalls the pictures of the interior and exterior of Shakespeare's house and remembers that William Shakespeare was a contemporary of William Eddye it will greatly aid in forming a mental picture of the appearance of the vicarage of Cranbrook. Beyond the kitchen were the regular outbuildings, one where the meal was sifted (or bolted) and then stored and where the loaves were kneaded, another building where the ale and other drinks were brewed and a third where the products of the dairy were cared for and stored. The three buildings generally adjoined the kitchen, while the other outbuildings were entirely separate. There were several of these besides the barn and the woodhouse.

We learn from the Register that at times there were other inmates in the household of William besides his family and servants, for on Feb. 10, 1599 Mistress Bridget died, about whom he wrote "she appeared a maiden and most godly Christian gentlewoman. She lodged with me at the Vicarage and there died." There is also the entry of the death of a gentleman "who was schooling for the Latin tongue." So we may believe that William increased the income derived from his position as a Vicar by tutoring. It is probable that among these scholars was his own son, John, who shows in after life, that he had a very good education.

William Eddy did not live long after his second marriage which took place in Feb. 1614. One daughter, Priscilla, was born to him. Early in 1616, if we can judge by the handwriting on the register, William was so ill that he was no longer able to perform his duties as Vicar and on Nov. 23, 1616 he died. He left a will dated Aug. 20, 1616 and proved Dec. 4, 1616 in the Court of the Archdeacon of Canterbury. The seal on this will is not armorial.

By the greatest of good fortune the Inventory of the estate of William Eddye was discovered in 1922 in the Canterbury Probate Registry—Inventoria Book 43 fo.36. Because of its description room by room of the possessions of William Eddye and because of the wonderful picture it gives of his home in Cranbrook it is printed in full, together with a glossary of obsolete terms, the gift of Mr. Byron B. Horton.

After the death of William Eddye his widow continued to live in Cranbrook. There seems to be evidence in the Churchwarden's book that her sons and the children of William did not always agree. Zachary Eddy, in his oration in 1880, states that Phineas had a fight with one of them in the churchyard. When Sarah died she left no property to any of the Eddy children and since her own daughter, Priscilla Eddy, is not mentioned in her will she must have died in childhood. Her will was dated Aug. 1, 1637 and proved Feb. 5, 1639/40. (See Bulletin No. 3, p. 29 for an abstract of this will).

Just what happened to the children of William after the death of their father can only be conjectured. It is known that the oldest son, Nathaniel, died before 1611, since another son was given that name. The latter died in infancy. The death of Eleanor (Ellen) is recorded also. The oldest daughter Mary had married Simeon Evernden and had three children before her father's death. It is probable that Phineas, who was twenty-three when his father died, soon married Katherine Courthopp, daughter of Peter and Anne (Sheaffe) Courthopp, and so made a home for his younger brothers and sisters, for by the terms of his father's will he was entrusted with this care.

"Phinees Eddie my sonne his heirs or assignes shall well and vertuouslie bringe upp the foresaid Samuell Eddie Zacharias Eddie Abigail Eddie Anne Eddie and Elizabeth Eddie my sonnes and daughters in good and vertuous education and maintaine and keepe them wth meete and suffitient meat drinke and apparell viz^{t} my sonnes untill they accomplish their severall ages of eighteene yeares except before that tyme he can place them forth in good services fytting for their degree and my daughters untill they shall severally accomplish their severall ages of eighteene yeares."

Since Samuel was a tailor it is probable that in due time Phineas apprenticed him to that trade, which in that section of the country at that time was a very lucrative one. No record of Zacharias is found anywhere. He may have died in boyhood or he may have been the Eddy, who, according to Pope in his "Pioneers of Massachusetts", came to New England from Boxted, England in 1639. The story of Abigail and Anne is told in the following chapter. Of Elizabeth we have no further record. She may have died in childhood or she may have been the wife of some one of the early settlers here in New England.

The marriage of Phineas to Katherine Courthopp, a niece of William Sheaffe, allied him with two of the best families in Cranbrook. He was appointed as one of the sidesmen at Easter in 1618. Before 1620 two of his children died, one an unnamed child, the other named Peter. Some time later Phineas left Cranbrook and settled in Portsmouth. Whether his wife Katherine died before or after this change in residence is not known, but she had died and he had married a second wife, Christian . . . , before Dec. 18, 1639, when he made a will. This will was proved June 7, 1641. From this will, which follows, it is evident that Phineas left no male descendants, so unless Zacharias married and had sons there are no descendants of William, the Vicar, bearing the name of Eddy, except those who trace back either to John or Samuel Eddy.

John Eddy was nearly twenty years of age at his father's death, so Phineas was given no care over him. No further record concerning him has been found in Cranbrook. It has been suggested that perhaps he was studying to follow in the footsteps of his father and was about to enter Cambridge, but that his father's death put an end to these plans. At any rate he is next found in 1622 married and living in Nayland not very far from Thurston, the little parish in which his father served as curate while studying at Cambridge. Both of the towns are in the region of Bury St. Edmunds. It has been suggested that perhaps some relatives or friends of his father lived in this vicinity and gave to this young student a home while he was studying. He does not seem to have learned any trade. This change from peaceful Cranbrook to Suffolk county, one of those sections in which Puritanism was rapidly increasing in strength, was destined to be a momentous one in the life of young John Eddy. It is probable that he embraced these views with all the ardor of a young man, so that when the great Puritan migration to New England began under the leadership of John Winthrop in 1630, he was ready to throw in his lot with this group, and probably induced his younger brother Samuel, who was just coming of age, to be also one of those who were setting out to secure religious liberty and a civil democracy in a new land.

The exact spot where William Eddye lies buried is not known. It may be beneath the chancel of the church where the incumbent often was buried, or outside in the churchyard, where at some time a wooden cross may have marked the grave. If so it has long since disappeared. Thus passed the name of Eddy from the memory of Cranbrook and it remained for a descendant some two hundred and fifty years later to restore it to the town.

Robert Henry Eddy of Boston became interested in his ancestry and visited the place which tradition had handed down as the birthplace of his first New England parents. There on the Register he found proof of the truth of this tradition, and wishing to have some permanent record of his ancestor, William Eddye, in the church which he so faithfully served for over twenty-five years, he left a bequest of $5000 for this purpose to the Church in Cranbrook. In 1902 three memorial windows and a tablet were dedicated to the memory of William Eddye and his emigrant children.

Children, by first wife; all born in England:

2 Nathanaell Eddy, bapt. Mar. 30, 1589, at Staplehurst, Co. Kent; d. young.

3 Mary Eddy, bapt. Sept. 1591, at Cranbrook, co. Kent, Eng. (Church Register); m. before 1616 Simeon Evernden. Simeon Evernden was one of the witnesses of the will of William Eddy and one of those who took the inventory of his goods. Their children were Simeon, Katherine, and Robert. Perhaps further research will connect this family of Evernden with those Everndens which appear early in New England.

4 Phineas Eddy, bapt. Sept. 1593, at Cranbrook, Eng. (Church Register); m. (1) Katherine Courthopp, dau. of Peter and Anne (Sheaffe) Courthopp. She d. before 1639. He m. (2) Christian . . . , who survived him. (See his will.) His children were Peter, Anne, Margaret, Susanna, and Abigail. Peter died at Cranbrook Nov. 8, 1619 and Abigail between Dec. 18, 1639 and June 7, 1641. Phineas died before June 7, 1641, when his will was proved at Portsmouth.

6 Eleanor Eddy, bapt. Aug. 1599; called Ellen when buried Oct. 1610.

+7 Abigail Eddy, bapt. Oct. 1601.

+8 Anna Eddy, bapt. May 1603.

9 Elizabeth Eddy, bapt. Dec. 1606. She was living in 1616.

+10 Samuel Eddy, bapt. Sept. 15, 1608.

11 Zacharias Eddy, bapt. Mar. 1610. He was living in 1616, according to his father's will. Query.—Is he the . . . Eddy, who according to Savage came to New England in 1639 from Boxted, Eng.? Did he come accompanied by a young son John, who later settled in Taunton and whom we know as John Eddy of Taunton, carpenter?

12 Nathaniel Eddy, bapt. July 1611; d. 1611, aged 9 days.

Child, by second wife:

13 Priscilla Eddy, bapt. Dec. 10, 1614. She was living in 1616, but died, probably unmarried, before 1637, as she is not mentioned in her mother's will, dated Aug. 1, 1637 (See Bulletin, No. 3).

SECOND GENERATION

5 John Eddy (William), bapt. Mar. 1597, at Cranbrook, Co. Kent, England; d. at Watertown, Mass., Oct. 12, 1684, aged about 90 years. He m. (1) in England sometime after May 22, 1619, Amie Doget (or Doggett); dau. of John and Dorothy Doget of Groton, Co. Suffolk, Eng. (Manuscript Winthrop Papers, Vol. I, p. 90, also Bulletin No. 4, p. 48.)* He m. (2) at Watertown, Mass., Joanna . . . , probably Joanna Meade, the widow of Gabriel Meade. She d. at Watertown, Aug. 25, 1683, aged 80 years.

(NOTE. For a much fuller account of John Eddy refer to The Eddy Family Bulletins: No. 9, p. 144; No. 10, pp. 150 and 151; No. 1, pp. 2, 3, 4; No. 3, pp. 32 and 33; No. 4, p. 48.)

The date of the baptism of John Eddy is found on the Church Register at Cranbrook. As his father did not die until John was nearly twenty years of age, it is likely that John received such education as his father could give him. It is not known when he left Cranbrook, nor is the date of his marriage known, except that it occurred after May 22, 1619, which is the date at which John Doget of Groton made his will. In this will John Doget calls his daughter Amie Doget.

(NOTE. For the Doggett Pedigree see Eddy Family Bulletin No. 8, pp. 124, 125.) Amie Doget was baptized on July 16, 1597 at Groton, Co. Suffolk. In his will John Doget left certain possessions at Nayland, Co. Suffolk, to his son, Benjamin Doget. Nayland is a small parish not very far from Groton, near the Stour River. Just across the river, in Co. Essex, is another small parish called Boxted. The tradition that has been handed down is that John Eddy came from Boxted, England. When the tradition in regard to Boxted is added to the fact that John Eddy married into the Groton family of Doggetts, which had owned property in Nayland, there can be no doubt that the following entries found on the Church Register at St. Stephen's Church, Nayland, refer to the children of John and Amie (Doget) Eddy.

1622, June 9 was bapt. John the sonne of John Eddye.
1622, Feb. 8 was bur. John the sonne of John Eddye. (This date is recorded in the Old Style and should therefore be understood to be 1622/23.)
1624, Mar. 29 was bapt. John the sonne of John Eddye.
1625, Mar. 10 was bapt. Mary the daughter of John Eddye. (This date should be understood as 1625/26.)

It is known that John Eddy of Watertown had a daughter Mary who was born before he came to New England. After he came he had a son born here, whom he named John; so it would seem probable that the second John, born in England, died young. (NOTE. This supposition cannot be considered absolutely true, because at this time in England it occurred frequently that there were brothers of the same name. This was true in the family of Amie Doget's father. John Doget had a brother called William the Elder, and a younger brother who was called William the Younger. So it is possible that John Eddy of Watertown had two sons by the name of John.) The Parish Registers of Boxted from 1617–1662 are lost. It seems very likely that the birth of Sarah, daughter of John, and perhaps the marriage of John to Amie Doget were recorded there, and also other matters pertaining to the family.

In the latter part of the reign of Elizabeth (1558–1600), a desire for a simpler form of religious worship grew and spread among some of the Protestants in England. These dissenters were called Puritans. They increased rapidly in numbers among the best element of the middle class, especially in the counties of Essex and Suffolk.

During the reigns of James I and Charles I, the persecution of these Puritans became so severe that a great emigration to the shores of New England began in 1630 and lasted until 1643. Over 25,000 came in those thirteen years and of these probably about 15,000 were from Suffolk and Essex Counties. This great emigration started under the leadership of John Winthrop of Groton, in the spring of 1630. Previous to June of that year fourteen emigrant ships had sailed from England. Among the passengers on these vessels were the new governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, John Winthrop, the deputy-governor and many of the assistants, and others who were to aid in the civil affairs of the new settlement. John Doggett, a cousin of Amy (Doggett) Eddy was among the number.

On Aug. 10, 1630 the vessel "Handmaid" left the port of London for New England with John Grant, Master, and with sixty passengers. Among these were John Eddy and his wife Amy and at least two of their children, Mary and Sarah, and also John's brother, Samuel Eddy. After twelve weeks at sea the vessel reached Plymouth harbor in Massachusetts, on Oct. 29, 1630 (O. S.) with her masts "spent," so severe had been the weather.

The following two extracts from the Journal of John Winthrop, Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony, are the sources from which this information is obtained.

> Oct. 29, 1630. The Handmaid arrived at Plimouth, having been twelve weeks at sea, and spent all her masts, and of twenty-eight cows she lost ten. She had about sixty passengers, who came all well: John Grant, master, Mr. Goffe wrote to me, that his shipping this year had utterly undone him. She brought out twenty-eight heifers, but brought but seventeen alive.
> Nov. 11, 1630. The master came to Boston with Capt. Standish and two gentlemen passengers, who came to plant here, but having no testimony, we would not receive them.
> NOTE. Although neither John nor Samuel Eddy are named here, it has been handed down by tradition that they were the two gentlemen passengers. This tradition has been accepted without question by genealogists and others.

The Winthrops, Doggetts, and Eddys were known to each other in England, for John Winthrop had married for his second wife Thomasine Clopton of Groton; Thomas Doggett, a cousin of Amy, had married her sister Margery Clopton of Groton; and John Eddy had married Amy Doggett of Groton. This is doubtless the reason why John and Samuel Eddy within two weeks of landing at Plymouth left for the Bay Colony. They wished to settle near their friends and acquaintances. At this time there was an agreement between the two colonies that a man must carry letters of dismissal from one colony before he could be received as an inhabitant by the other. John and Samuel did not carry those letters with them and so were obliged to return to Plymouth, with John Grant and Capt. Standish.

Sometime previous to Feb. 26, 1631/32 John Eddy procured the necessary letters of dismissal and was received into the Bay Colony. He joined the settlement at Watertown, which was rapidly growing to be the largest in New England. A letter which Gov. Bradford of Plymouth wrote to Gov. Winthrop, regarding the dismissal of several men from the colony is found in the Chamberlain Collection at the Boston Public Library. (See Bulletin No. 1, p. 3, for the whole letter.) The letter closes with these words:

> Now ther are diverce goone from hence, to dwell and inhabite with you, as Clement Brigges, John Hill, John Eddy, daniell ray, &c. the which if either you, or they desire their dismissions: we shall be redy to give them: hopeing you will doe the like: in the like cases, though we have heard something otherwise. This with our prayers to ye Lord for your prosperity, as our owne, and our harty salutations unto you all we rest your assured loving friends. William Bradford Gover: Myles Standish Tho: Prence: Plym: feb. 6, 1631. (NOTE. This date would be Feb. 1632 in the present reckoning.)

In the three or four years following the settlement of Watertown, the population was greatly increased by families from the counties of Suffolk and Essex in England, the section from which John Eddy had come. Here in Watertown there soon settled the families of two of his sisters, Abigail, who had married John Benjamin, and Anna, who had married Barnabas Wines (Windes). According to the Journal of Winthrop, John Eddy in 1633, soon after his arrival at Watertown, had a temporary attack of insanity. He wrote, as follows:

> One John Edye, a godly man of Watertown congregation: fell distracted and getting out one evening, could not be found, but eight days after, he came again of himself. He had kept his strength and colour yet had eaten nothing (as must needs be conceived) all that time. He recovered his understanding again in good measure, and lived orderly but would now and then, be a little distempered. (See The History of New England by John Winthrop with notes by James Savage, 1853, in which Savage throws some doubt upon the accuracy of this statement of Winthrop's.)

Savage states that the item was entered in a space preceded and followed by a blank space; that the place for the name of the person thus affected by insanity was evidently left blank for some time and then the name was added in a different ink. He also states that the wording of the last sentences shows that a part of the statement (at least) was written at a much later date than 1633, and so suggests by these remarks that the date and accuracy of all the statements might be questioned. So it is possible that it was the son John Edye who was insane and that his illness occurred at a later date.

If it was John Eddy, Sen., who was ill, his attack could have been only temporary for in the next year John Eddy, having previously joined the church at Watertown, was made Freeman in the fall of 1634, and immediately took his place among the most influential men in the growing town. The very first item on the first page of the Watertown records is as follows:

Agreed by the consent of the Freemen, that there shall be three persons chosen for the ordering of the civil affaires: one of them to serve as Town Clerk, and shall keep the records and acts of the Town; the three chosen are William Jennison, Brian Pembleton, John Eddie.

Thus John Eddy of Watertown, by the vote of his fellow citizens, was one of three men, whom they deemed worthy to receive the highest honor that the town could then bestow. He was also the one chosen to act as the Town Clerk. The first pages of the town's books were written by him and his signature is found on several. The next year the group of "governing" men was increased from three to eleven and in this year, 1636, and the following year, John Eddy was again called upon to serve on the board and to act as Town Clerk. In 1670 he was elected to this position again and it is recorded that on Jan. 17, 1670 the meeting of the Selectmen was held at John Eddy's, Senr. At various times he was called upon to serve somewhat in the capacity of the modern truant officer or school committeeman. The following are extracts from the town records.

Ordered that John Edy Senr shall goe to John Fisk his house and to George Lorance and Willyam preist houseis to inquir a bought their Children wither they be lerned to read the english tong and in case they be defecttiue to warne in the said John George and Willyam to the next meeting of the selectmen. [1 p. 102.]

Also, John Edy seni and Isaak Sternes wear a pinted to speak with Willyam knop abough the Education of his Daughter and to make return how they find it as to her education and also keept under restraint and Gouerment. 1670.

Jan. 3, 1670. It was further a greed that the selectmen should goe through the town in their ceurall quarters to make tryall whether Children and servent be educated in Learneing to read the Enlish tongue and in the Knowlidge of the capitall Lawes accordeing to the Law of the Country also that they be educated in sum orthodox Catacise."

In 1645 John Eddy was appointed one of the two executors of the will of John Benjamin, his brother-in-law, whose estate on the banks of the Charles River was one of the largest in Watertown.

For over thirty years he was a member of the military company. When finally he was sixty-two years old and getting infirm he petitioned the court to be excused and understood that his petition had been granted. But much to his surprise he was one day summoned to training and found that he could be excused only by paying a fine. Thereupon he wrote the letter found in Bulletin No. 3 on p. 32, in which he begs the authorities to give him youthful strength and vigor, if they expect the service of a young man.

Bond, in his Watertown History, states that on Dec. 15, 1673 John Eddy "then 77 years of age asked to be excused from military training." If Bond's dates are correct, John Eddy must have been summoned a second time, when too old to serve.

When John Eddy first settled in Watertown he came into possession of a Homestall of forty acres, which was situated on the north side of Mill St. (now Mt. Auburn St.). As time went on he received several grants and purchased several other pieces of property, so that he became a large landholder.

On Feb. 28, 1636 A grant of the Plowlands at Beverbroke Planes, Devided & Lotted out by the Freemen to all the Townsmen then inhabiting being 106 in number. Allowing one acre for a person, & likewise for cattle valued at 20 lb ye head, beginning next to the small lotts beyond the ware & bounded with the great lotts on the North side, & Charles River on the South devided by a cartway in the middest, the first lott to begin next to the River, the second on the north side of the Cartway, & so to be laid out successively untill all the lotts be ended.

Granted to John Eddy Lot No. 12 Nine acres.

The Dividents mentioned in the following were four in number and comprised the land to the north of the "in lieu of township lands," which were to the north of the Oldham farms. They extended west from the western boundary of the present town of Waltham.

On July 25, 1636 a grant of the Great Dividents lotted out by the Freemen to all the townsmen then inhabiting being 120 in number, the land being divided into foure Divisions (Squadrons), every Division being 160 rods in breadth, beginning next to the Small Lotts and bounded with the Cambridge Line on the Northside, & the Plowland on the South, to be laid out successively one after another (all the Meddowes & Cartwaies only being excepted) for them to inclose or fedd in common.

In the Fourth Division Lott 10 John Eddy Fifty Acres.

June 26, 1637 A grant of the Remote or Westpine Meaddows devided & Lotted out by the Freemen to all the Townesmen then inhabiting being 113 in number allowing one acre for a person & likewise for cattle valued at 20 lb the head beginning next to Plaine Meddow & so to go on untill the Lotts be ended.

Granted to John Eddie Lott 44 Nine acres.

The exact spot where the bodies of John and his wife Amy were buried is not known, but it is likely that they lie in the old burial plot of the town, which was set apart for the townsmen quite early in its history. The early graves there were often unmarked or marked by stones with no inscriptions.

Children:

14 John Eddy, bapt. at Nayland, Co. Suffolk, Eng., June 9, 1622; bur. Feb. 8, 1622/23, at Nayland, Eng. (Church Register at Nayland.)

15 John Eddy, bapt. Mar. 29, 1624, at Nayland.

Note. It is not known whether this John lived to grow up and marry or not. It is possible that there were two sons, John, and that this John came to America and was the John Eddy who settled at Taunton and was a carpenter by trade. The objection to this is the fact that John Eddy of Watertown in his will mentions only one son John. However, it often happened in the early days that the wills did not mention all the children. This was especially true, if during the lifetime of the parent, the latter had given to the child what he considered to be the share of the property due him. So it is possible that John Eddy of Taunton had already received his share of his father's property and so was not mentioned in the will of John of Watertown.

+16 Mary Eddy, bapt. Mar. 10, 1625, at Nayland, Eng.
+17 Sarah Eddy, b. in England.
18 Pilgrim Eddy, b. Aug. 25, 1634, at Watertown, Mass. (Watertown Rec.); d. young.
+19 Pilgrim Eddy, b. at Watertown.
+20 John Eddy, b. Feb. 16, 1636/37, at Watertown.
21 Benjamin Eddy, bur. 1639, at Watertown.
+22 Samuel Eddy, b. Sept. 30, 1640, at Watertown.
+23 Ruth Eddy, b. probably at Watertown.
24 Abigail Eddy, b. Oct. 11, 1643; d. before 1677. She is not mentioned in her father's will.

7 Abigail Eddy (William), b. at Cranbrook, Co. Kent, England; bapt. Oct. 1601, at Cranbrook; d. at Charlestown, Mass., Mar. 20, 1686/87; m. about 1619 in England, John Benjamin, who was b. about 1598, probably, somewhere in Herefordshire,* and d. at Watertown, Mass., June 14, 1645 (Bond's Watertown). In a volume entitled "Grout and Allied Families," the date of the marriage to John Benjamin is given as 1619 (p. 73).

In the Rolls Office, Chancery Lane, London, the following is found: "June xxii, 1632; The names of such men transplanted to New England to the Plantacon there P'r Cert from Capt. Mason have tendered and taken oath of allegiance according to statute. . . . Jo. Benjamin."

"It is claimed that John Benjamin after graduating at Cambridge, became intimate with John Winthrop, afterwards the Governor of Massachusetts Bay, and that this friendship led to the coming of the Benjamin family to America." John Benjamin, together with his wife, Abigail, and several of his children sailed for New England in the ship "Lion" from Bristol, under Capt. Mason. This vessel arrived in Boston, Sept. 16, 1632. He became a member of the church and was admitted Freeman on Nov. 6, 1632, and on May 29, 1633, the General Court appointed him Constable of Newtown (now Cambridge). He settled first in Newtown and built a large house. It is said that he brought with him from England what was then considered a fine library. In a letter Gov. Winthrop says, "Mr. Benjamin's mansion was unsurpassed in elegance and comfort by any in the vicinity." It is very likely that his education and hospitality attracted to his home many others of like tastes for an evening's discussion of many a burning religious or civil question. On Nov. 7, 1634 he was exempt from training, but was required "to have arms for himself and his servants."

In 1635 he was made one of the five surveyors of the lands. The following year his house was burned and the estimated loss was over £100. Instead of building in Newtown, he purchased sixty acres in Watertown on the bank of the Charles River and moved there in 1637. In 1642 the records state that he had the largest homestead in Watertown. Besides the homestead he owned four other plots; a "house and meadow near the mill," 10 acres at Oyster Bank, 10 acres at Rocky Meadow and 8 acres at the "Great Dividends." In 1645 he purchased 16 acres of Capt. Sedgwick at Watertown. In the summer of the same year he died, leaving a will dated June 12, 1645. He appointed "my brother John Eddie of Watertown and Thomas Marret of Cambridge" executors of this will. The inventory of his estate was taken by Simon Stone, John Eddie and Thomas Marret, and the estate showed a valuation of £297–3–2, a large sum for those early days.

(Note. For further account refer to Savage's Dictionary; Bond's Watertown, also to Founders of New England.)

Children (list from Dr. Chester H. Keogh of Chicago, a descendant, who has kindly furnished his line of descent from John and Abigail):

b. ca 1620 He d. 22 Dec 1706 ae 86 w. Lydia d. [illegible] 1642/4
(25) John Benjamin, m. Lydia Allen. They remained near Boston.
+26 Abigail Benjamin. or 1624
27 Samuel Benjamin, b. 1628; d. 1669; m. Mary . . . . He resided at Hartford and Windsor, Conn. He left his estate to his widow, who resided in Wethersfield, Conn., in 1670. His brother, Caleb Benjamin, was an executor.

*Note. The Benjamin Family has a Coat-of-Arms. The branch to which John belonged lived in Lower Hereford. They retained the old Coat-of-Arms and added the "crest of a chapeau flammant, with the motto, Poussez en avant."

28 Mary Benjamin, d. May 10, 1646. She left a will in which she mentions Aunt Wines and cousin Anna Wyes (probably meant for Wines).

29 Joseph Benjamin, b. Sept. 15, 1633.

30 Joshua Benjamin, d. May 6, 1684; m. Thankful 3 STOW dau of Nathaniel 2 Ho & 1st w. Elizabeth 31 Caleb Benjamin, d. 1684; m. ~~Dorothy~~ Mary Hale. They lived in Wethersfield, Conn.

32 Abel Benjamin, m. Amathea Merrick. They lived in ~~Windsor, Conn.~~ Charlestown, Mass.

Richard Benjamin. He is added by some, but is not in Mr. Keogh's list.

8 Anna Eddy (William), b. at Cranbrook, Co. Kent, England; bapt. May 1603, at Cranbrook (Church Register); m., probably about 1632, Barnabas Wines (Windes), b. about 1600. He was in Watertown, Mass. in 1635. He was made a Freeman of that town on the sixth of May of that year. This marriage is not proved but is based upon the fact that Mary Benjamin in her will mentioned "Aunt Wines," who must have been the wife of Barnabas Wines. The fact that the daughter is called Anna Wines, suggests that it was Anna, the sister of Abigail (Eddy) Benjamin, who was Mary Benjamin's "Aunt Wines."

Barnabas Wines owned land in Watertown, and the registry of deeds contains two sales by Barnabas, one in Dec. 1642 and the other in 1643. Sometime later he removed to Southold, L. I. It is interesting to note that a brother of John Benjamin also went to Southold, L. I. In 1654 Barnabas Wines was made a corporal of a military company at Southold, and in 1662 he was made a Freeman of Connecticut Colony. In 1664 he was chosen a deputy to the General Court at Hartford. He sold land to his son Samuel Wines in Southold in July 1670. At the time of the Indian Wars a census was taken. In this census of 1676 he was rated on £152 for 15 acres of land, 24 cattle, 6 horses, etc. The dates of the deaths of Anna and Barnabas Wines have not been found.

Children, born probably in Watertown:

i Anna Wines, b. about 1633; m. (1) about 1650, Francis Nichols of Stratford, Conn., as his second wife. He died soon and she m. (2) about 1653, John Elton of Southold, who d. in 1675. She m. (3) ~~in 1686~~ by 6 Jan 16 John Tucker of Southold, as his second wife. (See Southold Town Rec., Vol. I, p. 141 and the Will of John Elton, proved June 3, 1675 in "New York Wills," Vol. I, p. 113; also Southold Town Rec, Vol. II, pp. 214–217.) By her husband Francis Nichols, Anna had a posthumous child named Anna, b. 1651.

ii Barnabas Wines, b. about 1636; m. Mary . . . , b. about 1638; d. June 13, 1727. He died about 1711, aged 75 years. He went with his parents to Southold, L. I., where he purchased land in 1660 (Southold Rec.). On Aug. 26, 1665, he and his wife Mary sold their property in Southold and moved to New Jersey, and settled in Elizabethtown. He lived there for about fifteen years and then returned to Southold. In Mar. 1695/96 he conveyed all the property, which he had acquired, to his wife Mary, in trust. She was to hold certain of the lands for their sons, Barnabas and Samuel, and the rest she was to dispose of to the other children as she saw fit. Their children were Elizabeth, Barnabas, Sarah, and Samuel.

iii Sarah Wines, b. about 1640, at Watertown; m. Oct. 16, 1660, at Southold, L. I., Joseph Youngs. See Vol I p [illegible] iv Samuel Wines, b. about 1645; d. Jan. 27, 1728/29, in Southold, aged 84 years; m. about 1670 or 1671, Mary Mapes. She is mentioned in the will of her father, Thomas Mapes, as "daughter Mary Wines." Her mother was Sarah Purrier; dau. of William Purrier, in whose will Mary is called "granddaughter Mary Wyndes." Samuel and Mary had a daughter Susanna Wines, b. about 1671 or 1672.

v Prudence Wines, b. about 1650; m. in 1679, at Southold, L. I., as his first wife, John Goldsmith. They had two children, John and Thomas.

10 Samuel Eddy (William) bapt. May 15, 1608, at Cranbrook, Co. Kent, England (Church Register); d. Nov. 12, 1687, at Swansea, Mass. (Plymouth Ch. Rec., Vol. I, p. 262); m. Elizabeth . . . (probably Savery) who d. May 24, 1689, "in her 82nd year at the end of it;" in Swansea, Mass. (Plymouth Ch. Rec., Vol. I, p. 265).

It is not known whether Samuel and Elizabeth were married before they came to New England. It is supposed that Elizabeth's name was Savery from the following facts: A deed dated Feb. 20, 1662 (Plymouth Co. Deeds, 2.2.111) states that Thomas Savery makes over to Samuell Eedey, his brother-in-law, land in Puncateesett, lying over against Road Island. If Thomas Savery was a brother-in-law of Samuel Eddy, either he married Samuel's sister or Samuel married his sister. Thomas Savery's wife was named Ann. Samuel Eddy had a sister Anna, but there seems to be no doubt that Anna Eddy was the wife of Barnabas Wines. If Samuel's sister Anna was the wife of Barnabas Wines, then she was not the wife of Thomas Savery, and therefore Samuel Eddy's wife was Elizabeth Savery, sister of Thomas. It is possible that both Ann, wife of Thomas Savery and Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Eddy, were sisters, but if that were the case it does not seem likely that Ann Savery (Savory) would have used the expression "our brother-in-law" in the following deed, dated Mar. 22, 1677/78. Ann Savery, widow, conveyed to her two sons "land at four mile brook which fell to my late husband Thomas Savery, by exchange with our brother-in-law, Samuel Eddy" (Plymouth Col. Rec., Vol. IV, p. 311).

Of the life of Samuel Eddy in England little is known. In accordance with his father's will, his brother Phineas Eddy was to care for his education and apprentice him to some trade. He learned the trade of a tailor. Upon reaching the age of twenty-two years he was to receive by inheritance £100. So in May of 1630 he must have received this sum and probably used a goodly portion of it to pay his passage to New England. It is known that his brother John, whom he accompanied to New England, lived either in Boxted, County of Essex, or in Nayland, County of Suffolk, in England. These two parishes are on opposite sides of the River Stour, which separates the two counties. It is possible that the records of Boxted Church, which unfortunately are lost for the years between 1617 and 1662, might have contained the record of the marriage of Samuel and Elizabeth.

Samuel Eddy came to New England with his brother John Eddy on the "Handmaid," leaving the port of London on August 10, 1630 and arriving at Plymouth Harbor on the 29th of October, 1630 (Old Style), after a very stormy twelve weeks at sea (See quotations under John Eddy, No. 5). Both Samuel and John intended to join their distant connections, the Winthrops and the Doggetts, who had come to New England earlier in this same year, and who had settled at Boston, but they were not permitted to do so because they had neglected to obtain letters from the Plymouth Colony, dismissing them from that colony to the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The following quotation from Goodwin's "Pilgrim Republic" refers to this fact. "As two of the passengers (of the Handmaid) rated as gentlemen, desired to settle at Boston, Standish took them there, but the Bay people refused to receive them because they had no testimony." Both the Eddys returned with Standish to Plymouth and Samuel Eddy remained there. It has been conjectured by some that he found his bride in Plymouth and that she did not want to leave her relatives in Plymouth, so Samuel was persuaded to remain there. He did not accompany his brother, John Eddy, when John and his family left in the winter of 1631/32, having procured the necessary letters from Plymouth to Massachusetts Bay, in accordance with the agreement between the two colonies.

It must be remembered that Samuel Eddy was only twenty-two years of age and had just finished an apprenticeship in the tailoring trade, when he set sail for New England. What remained of his inheritance after paying for his passage must have been nearly all expended when he purchased the property on Spring Hill from Experience Michell (Mitchell). This place was then on South Street and is now No. 34 and 36 Market St. The deed was dated May 9, 1631.

> Experience Michell, sould unto Samuell Eeddy his dwelling house, garden plott fence, wth all things nailefast in ye same; for ye summe of twelfe pounds starling, as apears more at large by a writing under their hands to which ffrancis Eaton was witness. Only this was excepted by ye above said Experience Michell, so much of ye said garden plote as lyeth between ye ende of ye house ye streete; throw which notwithstanding he was to allow ye said Samuell a convienient way of Pasage, and to fence ye said ground (thus excepted) at his owne charge to maintaine ye same. (Plym. Col. Deeds; Vol. I, p. 18.)

Samuel thus acquired a house, perhaps a home for his bride. With the purchase of this property he also acquired whatever rights went with it as a landholder in Plymouth. Thus it is that six years later on Nov. 7, 1637, Samuel received three acres of land at New Field, which was set off to him by the town.

The persons mentioned had divers porcons allowed them 3 acres in breadth and 2 in length next to the land of John Dunham, the elder, . . . to Samuell Eedey, 3 acres . . . all wch psons have or are to build in the towne of Plymouth and these lands to belong to their dwelling houses there and not to be sold from their houses. (Plym. Court Orders, Vol. I, p. 46.)

The "New Field" was the first section of cleared ground found by the people of Plymouth at a distance from the town. They used it as a planting ground for the most part and so these acres were to be considered as a garden plot belonging to each estate, and could not be sold apart from such homestead.

On Jan. 1, 1632/33 Samuel Eddy was admitted to the "freedom of the colony" and received the oath (Court Orders of Plym., Vol. I, p. 1 and p. 5). A list of the names of the "Freemen of the Incorporation of Plymouth in New England," dated 1633, contains the name, Samuell Eedey. This list at first numbered only 68 men, but later 91 men (Plym. Court Orders, Vol. I, p. 4). At this time there were about 300 persons in Plymouth.

On Jan. 2, 1633 the "persons were rated for the public use," that is, the tax was assessed. Samuell Eedey's tax was 9 shillings. This was the lowest tax assessed to any man. Of the 89 persons on the tax-list, 44 were taxed 9 sh. This was just half that of Miles Standish, who was assessed 18 shillings, while Governor Winslow's tax was £2–5 sh. and Bradford's was £1–16 sh., Prince's, £1–7 sh. and John Alden's £1–4 sh.

On March 24, 1633, the lists were again made up. Samuel's tax remained the same. At various times lists of the freemen were made and sometimes the records contain the names of the freemen who were present or absent from a given town meeting. A list taken Mar. 7, 1636 contains the name of Samuel (Plym. Court Orders, Vol. I, p. 53). In Oct. 1646 Samuel was absent from the town meeting, but was present in December of the same year (Plym. Rec.).

On Sept. 1, 1640 the order went forth that "every inhabitant of every Towne within the Government fitt and able to beare armes must be trayned (at least) six tymes in the year." In 1643 Samuel was enrolled as a person capable of bearing arms and was made a member of a troop enrolled for the defence of the Colony against the Indians (Hist. of Middleboro, p. 588). On Nov. 29, 1652, Samuel Eddy was a witness to a deed for the purchase of lands from the Indians, "Wosamequen and Wamsutta my sonne", by Bradford, Standish, Winslow and others (May. Des. 6.245). This land is now the town of New Bedford (Hist. of New Bedford, Bristol Co., Mass. 1858, by Daniel Ricketson). In June 1668 it is recorded that Samuel voted in a town meeting in Plymouth (Plym. Rec., p. 101).

On May 29, 1670 an exact list of all the names of the "Freemen of the Jurisdiction of New Plymouth," contains the name of Samuel Eedey. This list was made because the towns of Middleberry and Swansea had been incorporated and all those freemen, who had taken up residence in either were listed as freemen of those towns and no longer as belonging to Plymouth. Samuel remained in Plymouth. His son Zachariah was listed as a resident of Swansea but neither Caleb nor Obadiah appear on the lists, as they had not at this time qualified as freemen.

On Aug. 5, 1672 "The Swamp at Wellingsley [a section to the south of the town] lying up the brooke is Graunted wholly unto the Neighbors living there, viz. John Jourdain, Gyles Rickard, Jun., Nathaniel Morton, Sen'r, Abraham Jackson and Samuell Eedey."

On June 27, 1677 Samuel's name appears as a proprietor of land in the Township of Middleborough, but this term proprietor does not mean that Samuel was a resident of Middleborough, but only that he was an owner of property in that town (Rec. of Town of Plym., Vol. I, p. 191).

On June 25, 1678, it was voted that "The collectors to Gather the minnesters maintainence for this year are William Clarke and Abraham Jackson who are to doe it on the same conditions as it was performed the last yeer: . . . five shillings was allowed to Goodman Edey, viz. Samuell Edey for work don by him in time of warr in makeing Clothes for Souldiers." (Plym. Col. Rec., Vol. I, p. 157.) At this time Samuel was seventy years old. Though he could not fight as a soldier, he could aid by using his hands in helping to make the clothes for the fighters, thereby finding a use for the trade he had learned in boyhood.

From these records it is evident that Samuel and Elizabeth were residents of Plymouth all their lives until this date and never were residents of Middleboro. But at this time both were over seventy years of age. Their four sons had long since left Plymouth, and they were alone. Probably sometime between June 1678 and December 1681 Caleb or Zachariah of Swansea persuaded them that it was time that they gave up their own home at Plymouth, for in Dec. 1681 when giving a deed Samuel and Elizabeth gave their residence as Swansea. They both died there.

By a study of the records, it is possible to learn much about the life of Samuel and his family. Soon after arriving at Plymouth, Samuel must have taken an apprentice boy to teach him the tailor's trade, unless perhaps he had brought him from England, for the records state that on Jan. 10, 1632:

Thos Brian, the serv't of Samuell Eedy was brought before the Gov. and Mr. Will Bradford, Mr. John Done, Stephen Hopkins and William Gilson, Asst. because the said Thomas had runne away and absented himself five daies from his master's service & being lost in the wood & found by an Indian, was forced to returne & for this his offense was privately whipped before the Govr & Council aforementioned.

The following year it is recorded that ffrancis Eaton, carpenter, owed Sam Eedy £2. Perhaps Samuel had been making some clothes for the Eaton family.

So far as the records show, John Eddy, born on Dec. 25, 1637 was the oldest child of Samuel and Elizabeth. There may have been and probably were other children born before this time. In the first years of his sojourn in the new colony, there was probably very little opportunity for Samuel to ply his tailoring trade, which in England at that time was so profitable. Instead it was necessary for this young man to wrest a living for himself and his family from the soil, a calling for which he doubtless had no preparation. For these reasons and perhaps for others Samuel and Elizabeth found life in the new country very hard, so that by 1638, they were rated among the "poore of the town." In the spring of 1624 Edward Winslow returned from a trip to England and brought with him the first cattle introduced into the Colony, and a letter from James Shurley, one of the merchant-adventurers, presenting a heifer, with its increase, as a gift for the benefit of the poor of the town. Each year the "poores stock" as it was called, was assigned to those who needed it.

At a meeting of the Townesmen of New Plymouth held at the Governor's the XVI th day of July 1638 all the Inhabitants from Jones River to the Eele River being . . . thereunto To consider of the disposal of the stock given [by Mr. Shurley of London] to the poore of Plymouth who had playnely declared by severall letters in his owne hand writing that his intent therein was—wholly to the poore of the Town of New Plymouth.

In the division of the "poores-stock" in July 1638, it is stated that Samuell Eddy as one of the "poore of the town of New Plimouth received four shares in the black heiffer, which was Henry Howland," that is the one which Henry Howland had had the previous year and was now holding. From some of the records it would seem that they had to pay a small sum which might be termed a year's rental, but in many cases there is no reference to any such payment. Perhaps those that were too poor had their share in the heifer free of charge. At various times in the next few years, Samuel Eddy's name appeared in the lists of those who received a share in the "poores-stock." These years from 1638 to 1649 are the years in which his five children were born and in which he apprenticed the oldest son, John, to Francis Goulder of Plymouth, and another son, Zachariah, to John Brown of Rehoboth.

In July 1644 it was voted "For the ordering of the poores stock, Edmond Tilson and Samuell Eedey are to have the cow at Edmund Tilsons betwixt them, but Edmond to have two parts and Samuel one part & Edmond to winter her and Samuel to pay his part thereof" (Plym. Rec., Vol. I, p. 19).

. . . Again in July 1646, "The cow calf that came from Tilson was sould to John Dunham and Sam Eedey at 18 sh., John Dunham hath paid his part . . and Edey still is debtor." (Plym. Col. Rec., Vol. I, p. 20.)

. . . In 1648 when the "poores stock" was called, one cow was "in the hands of John Dunham and Samuell Eedey. The increase thereof a yearling heifer and a bull calfe." The value of these was £3–4 sh. (Plym. Rec., Vol. I, p. 27.)

From this time Samuel's affairs began to improve; for the next year, "John Dunham had the cow that he and Samuel Eedy had before" and after this Samuel has no more of the "poores stock" assigned to him. There are several other items in the records, of minor import, but which serve to give a glimpse into the daily life of the family in Plymouth.

In addition to the heifer in which Samuel Eddy had shares he had the use of or else furnished pasturage for four goats and a lamb, and he had a dog which was not loved by all of his neighbors as it was by his own family.

. . . On Dec. 7, 1641 "Thomas Sheriff (Shurtleff?) and William Brown complained against James Laxford in an action of trespass." They attached four goats which were in the hands of Samuell Eedey and Joshua Pratt amounting to 33 sh. (Judicial Acts of Plymouth).

On Aug. 4, 1646 "it was decided in the case betwixt Sam'l Edey and John Dunham, Jr. about ye said John Dunham's giveing poysen to the said Samuel Eddys Dogg, the Court having taken the same into consideration upon hearing what could be said upon both sides the Court doth order yt ye said John Dunham shall find sureties for his good behavior unto the next Court." (Court Orders, p. 107.) Later in the same year it is recorded on Oct. 27, 1646 "In a case of difference twixte John Dunham, Jun'r and Sam Edie, the court orders, & the said John Dunham agreed thereunto, that Mr. Wm. Paddie and John Cooke, Jun. shall heare & determine all former civill differences twixte them to this present day." (Court Orders, Vol. II, p. 110.)

During these years of struggle, Robert Hicks, a neighbor and friend died. In his will, probated May 24, 1647, he left to Samuel Eddy a "payer of my wearing stockings," not such a small gift as it would seem, when the scarcity of wool in a new settlement and the labor of carding it and the final knitting of the wool into stockings is taken into consideration.

These were the years in which Samuel and Elizabeth apprenticed their three older sons, as the following records show.

Menorand: that Samuell Eddy hath put his sonn, John Eddy, to dwell with Francis Goulder, and Katherne, his wyfe, vntill he shall accomplish the age of xxjtie yeares, (being seaven yeares of age the xxvth of December, last past) the said Francis, and Katherne, his wyfe, fynding vnto the said John, their servant, meat, drink, and apparell during the said term, and either in the end thereof, or else at the term of the death of said Francis, or of the said Katherne, his wyfe, whether shall last happen, to pay him five pounds in country pay, or, if it please God so to disable the said Francis, or Katherne, his wyfe, that they shall not be then able to pay so much then to pay him so much as I shall haue left: And if it happen that both the said Francis, and Katherne, his Wyfe shall dye before thende of the said terme, that then the said John shalbe at liberty to be disposed of as his parents shall think fitt; but if either of them doe live out the said terme, the said John to dwell with the longer liuer of them vntill he shall accomplish the age of xxj tie yeares as aforesaid. Dated Apr. 3, 1645. (Court Orders of Plymouth, Vol. II, p. 82.)

Whereas Samuell Edeth, & Elizabeth, his wife, of ye towne of Plymouth aforesaid, having many children & by reason of many wants lying upon them so as they are not able to bring them up as they desire and out of ye good respect they beare to Mr. John Browne, of Rehoboth, one of ye assistants of this government, did both of them jontly desire that he, ye said Mr. Browne, would take Zachery, their son, being of the age of seven yeres & bring him up in his imployment of husbandry, or any business he shall see meete for ye good of their child till he come to ye age of one & twenty yeres, whereupon Mr. Browne dod in ye presence of Mr. Bradford Governor, take unto his service the said Zachary & promiseth to provide for & allow him during ye said terme all necessaries convenient & fitting such a servant according to ye state and condic on of ye country & doth further of his own will provide that if in case he, ye said Mr. John Browne & his wife, shall depart this life that said Zachary shall attaine to ye end of his time of service that then his eldest son, that shall haue the government of him during the residue of ye said time not attained unto, shall not make sale of ye said residue of time not attained unto nor any part thereof to any person or persons whatsoever whereby he shall or may be wronged: and if it shall so come to passe that those to whomsoever he shalbe committed unto, after the death of ye said Mr. John Browne & his wife, shall not deal well with him, as such servant ought to be dealt with, thereupon the complaint of any of ye friends of ye said Zachary shalbe lawfull for ye deacons of ye church of Plymouth aforesaid, with the Governor, that shall be and take him wholly away & place him with whom they shall see meete, provided that no sale or merchandise be made of ye remaine of his time by any. Dated Mar. 2, 1646/47. (Court Orders of Plymouth, Vol. II, p. 112.)

On Mar. 4, 1652, Caleb Eddy, aged 9 years, was "to be taken by Mr. John Browne of Rehoboth . . . who was to bring him up in his Implyoment of husbandry (or any other business)". (Plym. Col. Deeds, Vol. II, p. 30.)

(NOTE. See Bulletin No. 1, p. 6.)

Twice Elizabeth Eddy was summoned to appear before the Court of Plymouth. It is recorded that on "Oct. 7, 1651, Wee further present Elizabeth Eeddy, Sen'r of the towne of Plymouth for laboring, that is to say, for wringing and hanging out clothes on the Lord's day, in time of publicke Exercise." She was fined ten shillings, but this fine was remitted. (Court Orders, Vol. II, p. 73.)

Again on May 1, 1660, it is recorded that "Elizabeth Eedey was summoned to this court, and appeared, to make answare for her traueling on the Lord's day from Plymouth to Boston; and affeirmed that shee was nessesitated to goe on that day, in regard that Mistris Saffin was very weake and sent for her, with an earnest desire to see her, in her weakness with some other pleaes of like nature. The Court considering some cercomstances in her answare, although they saw not sufficient excuse for her act therein, saw cause to admonish her and soe shee was discharged of the Court." (Court Orders, Vol. III, p. 186.)

(NOTE. It is interesting to note that the wife of John Saffin was Martha, a granddaughter of Mr. John Brown, Sr. of Rehoboth (will of John Brown of Apr. 1662). Query,—Was this the Mistress Saffin who so desired to see her friend Elizabeth Eddy?)

Samuel Eddy lived at the house which he purchased from Experience Mitchell until about 1645. During that time he was granted "6 acres of upland on the north west side of Fresh Lake, about the fishing place and 30 acres of Upland at Narrogansett Hill and 4 acres of meddow or else a half there meddow ground to yt" (Plymouth Court Orders, Vol. II, p. 26). Fresh Lake is better known by the name of Billington Sea. Narrogansett Hill was the high land to the west of the town, where a battle between two Indian tribes, the Narragansetts and the Pochanockets, had occurred.

On July 6, 1638, Samuel Eddy appears in two transactions as follows:

Memorand, the sixt of July 1638 that Samuel Eddy acknowledgeth that for & in consideration of fourty bushells of good Merchantable Indian Corne hath bargained and sould unto Richard Clough all that his house and garden in Plymouth wherein the said Samuel now dwelleth with all the boards & pallysadoes in & about the said house and garden together with all his Right title & interest of and unto the same and all singular the prmiss unto Richard Clough his heires assignes forever and to his their onely behoofe forever. The said Corne to be payed in Plymouth by the last of January next but the possession of the garden to be delivered to the said Richard Clough the first of September next and of the house in October following.

Memorand,—the sixt day of July 1638 that Nicholas Snow acknowledgeth that for and in consideration of the sume of Twelve pounds sterling to be payed him he Hath bargained and sould unto Samuell Eddy all that his house garden adjoyneing wth all singular . . . and unto the said prmiss euery pte pcell thereof To have and to hold . . . etc. The said xii pounds for the prmisss to be payd in fourty bushells of good merchantable Indian Corne at the rate it will passe from man to man & if it shall fall short of the said sume then the said Samuell to make up the same either in money or other comodyty. And the possession of the said house and garden to be given by the last day of October next at wch tyme the money or Corne is to be payed & deliued.

The property of Nicholas Snow abutted against Hobbs Hole, an inlet just south of the town of 1630. (Plymouth Deeds, Book 1, p. 38.)

In 1642 Samuel purchased a house, barn and other buildings at Willingsley and Wayberry Plain. This was a section beginning at Hobbs Hole and extending along a brook which had its source about a mile inland. Wayberry Plain (Playne) appears often on the early maps as Oberry and Woeberry Plain, near the source of the brook aforementioned. Another method of describing this section would be to call it the settlement near Sandwich St. at Hobbs Hole and the South Pond Road.

On Mar. 7, 1642. Memorand.—That John Allen for and in consideration of a cow to him in hand payed by Samuell Eddy wherewith he is fully satisfied and payd Hath freely & absolutely bargained and sold . . . unto said Samuell Eddy all that his house barnes buildings with the lands thereunto belonging lying at Willingsly and Wayberry playne with all singular thapprten thereunto belonging and all his Right title & interest of and unto the said prmiss . . . . (Deeds, Book 1, p. 158).

Samuel moved to this new home sometime before Mar. 3, 1645, when he sold his home on Spring Hill to John Thompson, for four pounds.

Mar. 3, 1645. Memorand That Samuel Eddy doth acknowledg That for and in consideracon of the sum of foure pound, three pounds whereof is to be payd by John Thompson in November next and the other twenty shillings that tyme twelvemonths in goods as they will passe from man to man Hath freely and absolutely bargained and sold unto the said John Thompson all that his house scituate at the Spring Hill in Plymouth wth the garden place adjoyneing and 3 acres of upland be it more or lesse lying in the New Field with all and singular . . . . (Deeds, Book 1, p. 218).

This home at Wellingsley was their home so long as Samuel and Elizabeth lived in Plymouth. Within a month of the time that they purchased this place they apprenticed little John Eddy to one of the neighbors, Francis Goulder, who lived farther down the brook near Hobbs Hole. He was hardly a mile away.

At some time previous to 1660 Samuel Eddy had come into possession of land at Manomett Ponds. This he sold in July 1660 to Samuel Ryder.

July 21, 1660, Memorand: Samuell Eedey, Senr. of the towne of Plymouth . . . Taylor, a valuable sum to him already payed by Samuell Ryder, Junr of the Towne of Plymouth—Planter hath freely sold . . . all parcell of land lying att Manomett Ponds in the township of Plymouth neare Thomas Clarkes ffarme containing twenty and five acres of upland ranging betwixt a small brooke on the southerly side along to sea . . . also a acre of meadow called Little Meddow . . . the said Samuell Eedey sould to the said Samuell Ryder . . . and is satisfied for it.

Some time later there was a question in regard to the title of these lands, so that it was voted

Att a Towne meeting held att the meetinghouse att Plymouth the 16th day of ffebruary Anno. Dom 1673, whereas notwithstanding for what upon serch is or can be found in the records of the Court for the Jurisdiction of New Plymouth The land which Samuell Ryder bought of Samuell Eedey lying att Mannomett Ponds in the Townshipp of Plymouth; is found to be Comon and att the Towns dispose: The towne haue graunted unto the said Samuell Ryder all their Right Interest in the said land, which is twenty-five acres of land lying att Mannomet ponds aforesaid as it is now bounded and in the possession of him the said Samuell Ryder. (Plymouth Col. Rec., Vol. I, p. 138.)

During the year 1651 Samuel acquired interest in some lands at Puncateesett "over against Road Island." These lands were in what is now the northern part of Tiverton, R. I., to the south west of Fall River. On March 22, 1663 these lands were allotted. Samuel Eddy and Thomas Savery together received the "3rd lott which is on the west side of the south point bounded on the south end with a walnut stake standing att the highway side betwixt the 2cond lott and att the north end buteth to the highway att the cove as farr as a white thorne bush: att the East side bounded with the highway at the west side with the sea & ffogland beach. (Plym. Rec., Vol. I, p. 63.)

This is the land which Thomas Savery on Feb. 20, 1662 made over to his brother-in-law and in exchange obtained from Samuel Eedey, land lying near Four Mile Brook and also a piece of upland lying and being near Fresh Lake. (Plym. Deeds 2-2-11.) Samuel and Elizabeth kept possession of these Puncateesett lands until Dec. 21, 1681 when Samuel Eddy, Sen'r of Swansea, yeoman, sold to Job Almy of Portsmouth two shares or two portions of land in a neck of land against Road Island, divided or undivided, the third lot being a part; half of it which was one share did belong to Thomas Seabury & also all my two shares right, title & interest of & into a grant of the Honorable Court of the Colony afsd. The afsd Neck being thereof a part which grant was determined by Capt. Miles Standish & Mr. John Brown as by the Record may and Doth Appear . . . This deed was signed by both Samuel and Elizabeth.

When John, the oldest son of Samuel was about nineteen, Samuel began to look about for some lands for him to possess. Together with others he applied to the court for a grant of land for these "firstborn" children of the colony and it is recorded

In answer to the request of John Morton, Richard Wright, John Dunham, Jr. Samuell Eedey and Frances Billington desiring some proportions of land to accommodate them for theire posterities, the court (June 7, 1650) giueth libertie unto them to looke out a tract of land for that purpose, & if found convenient it shalbee confirmed unto them for the ends aforesaid (Court Orders, Vol. III, p. 161), and later.

In reference to a petition prefered to the Court by sundry of the freemen & in reference unto a grant made to some to looke out accomodations of land, as being the firstborne children of this government & for the disposing, of two seueral tracts of land lately purchased, the one by Major Winslow & the other by Captaine Southworth the Court, hauing viewed the several lists of the names of those that desired to be accomodated therein have settled it upon those whose names follow . . . Samuell Eedey, . . . etc. Dated June 3, 1662.

This tract which Capt. Southworth had purchased was divided among twenty-six men and was known as "The 26 Men's Purchase." It was between the Namasket River and the Tippacunnett Brook. As Samuel had asked for this grant for "his posterity," he soon deeded it to them. On March 24, Samuel made over to his two sonns viz. Zacariah Eedey and Obadiah Eedey, all that his share . . . which he hath in the land graunted and confirmed by the Court in June last past before the date herof unto sundry parties lying neare unto Namassakett, bounded as in the Indian deeds of the said lands is att large expressed . . . both upland and meadow, to be equally divided betwixt them . . . excepting that he reserved to his own use six acres of the upland to be for his use while he liveth . . . to be taken out of any parte thereof . . . whenever he shall think meet; before it is divided betwixt his said sons and in case he shall see meet for the time of his life to place any other to improve that said six acres in his behalfe, it shall bee with theire liking and approbation and att his decease the 6 acres to return to Zacariah and Obadiah. But before this was ratified it was "agreed that Caleb should have a quarter of it, if he desired." This deed was not acknowledged by Samuel or put on file until ten years later in Feb. 1672 (Plym. Col. Rec., 2-2-166).

By this grant Samuel became one of the first proprietors of Middleberry, as the town midway between Plymouth and the Pokanoket chief was called. In 1669 this town included what had been known as Assawampsett, Nemasket, the Titicut land of the Indians, the west portion of the town of Halifax and the whole of Lakeville.

At various times during the following years these lands were again confirmed by the Court and their boundaries more accurately defined. On June 7, 1665 Samuel was assigned 30 acres on the west side of the Nemasket River and on July 14, 1667, he was given 6 acres on the South Meadow River which in April 1710 was definitely bounded.

A meadow is granted to Samuel Edey on South Meadow River at a town meeting held at Plymouth July 14, 1667 and is "bounded as ffolloweth from the aforesaid Hugh Coles bounds all the meadow lieing down the river to a great pine tree marked on the northeast side of the river and from there to run . . .to the northeasternmost part of John Coles bounds." (Rec. of Plymouth, Vol. II, p. 70 and p. 89.)

In 1672 the Cedar Swamp (a part of the Major's Purchase, Duxbury) was divided into seven lots of five shares each. These were distributed to the proprietors, of whom Samuel Eddy was one, as the land had not as yet passed to his sons. On July 4, 1673 the Court repeated its grant of June 7, 1665 and confirmed the bounds of the land in the Major's Purchase near Namassaket. Thomas Savery's land adjoined Samuel Eddy's at this place (Court Orders).

When the list of the proprietors of "the Liberties of the Township of Middleborough" was taken at Plymouth on June 26, 1677 "Samuell Edey and Zachariah Edey" together held one "Propertie."

As Samuel grew older he sold parts of his holdings

Samuel Eedy for and in consideration of 30 sh. or thereabouts already paid by Experience Michell of Duksberry hath . . . sold unto the said experience Michell one acar of marsh medow lieing nextt unto the medow of experience Michell aforesaid on the one side and unto a small parsell belonging unto James Cole on the other syed with all his right title, etc . . . (Deeds 1–244).

On Feb. 23, 1684/85 "Samuel Eddy of Plymouth sold to Baruch Jordain of Plymouth one house and land belonging to Samuel Eddy, now in the possession of Jordain, excepting 6 acres of meadow land granted him and also lands at Agawam granted Samuel Eddy."

From this deed, it would seem that during the absence of Samuel and Elizabeth Eddy, Jordain had occupied the home of Samuel at Woberry Plain and that the two elderly people realized that they would never go back to Plymouth again to occupy it. It is also evident that although living in Swansea, Samuel still considered himself a Freeman of Plymouth.

Soon after Samuel's death the records state that Samuel Eddy's share in the 26 Men's Purchase was then in the hands of Obadiah Eddy. In 1695 when a new survey was made Samuel's share is called the 9th lot, which consisted of a little more than 8 acres near Ravin Brook.

So far as is known Samuel Eddy held no public office. This was due probably to his youth and inexperience with conditions in a colony which had been established for ten years when he joined it, and as time went on the care of his family occupied his entire attention.

Just how many children Samuel and Elizabeth had is not known. Three times in deeds Samuel is called Samuel Eddy, Sen'r (July 21, 1660, Mar. 24, 1662, and Dec. 1681). In 1681, both Zachariah and Caleb had small boys named Samuel, but at the time of the first two deeds, so far as is known, there was no other Samuel Eddy in Plymouth. It is therefore possible to suppose that Samuel had another son, who was named Samuel Eddy and of such an age in 1660 that it was considered necessary to distinguish the father as Samuel Eddy, Sen'r. Likewise Elizabeth also appears on a record as Elizabeth Eddy, Sen'r, so it is possible to add a daughter Elizabeth to the list of the children. But since neither Samuel nor Elizabeth left a will, no way has been found, up to the present, to prove the truth or falsity of these suppositions.

As both Samuel and Elizabeth were elderly people at the time of their deaths and as they both died in Swansea, it seems likely that they were living with either their son Zachariah or their son Caleb, both of whom resided in Swansea. It was the custom in early New England to bury the dead on the day following the death and in a plot near the house, so it would be natural for Samuel and Elizabeth to be buried near the home of one of these Swansea sons. It happens that in December of 1696, just nine years after the death of Samuel and seven years after the death of Elizabeth, Zachariah Eddy sold to his son, Zachariah Eddy, twenty acres in Swansea, lying in a place "Commonly known by the name of Matapoysett, bounded northerly with the highway, easterly with the fence and Spring Brook to the Salt Water, southerly to the land of Ralph Chapman and bounded westerly with the highway which leadeth to the land of Ralph Chapman . . . excepting and reserving the Burying Place on the premises which is to lye and remain as a burying place for and to the families of the said Eddys & for such of their neighbors as the said Eddys shall admit of forever." Thus it is known that previous to 1696 Zachariah had already buried some members of his family near his home. Since the only Eddys who had died besides his wife Alice were his father and mother, it seems almost certain that Samuel and Elizabeth lie in the Eddy Cemetery in Swansea Village, perhaps in two of those graves whose locations are marked by stones which bear no inscriptions. This cemetery lies on a hill-top, overlooking a cove of salt water, just south of the main road through the village. It adjoins the estate of Mrs. Frank Stevens and is east of the Swansea Dye Works. This plot was used by the descendants of Zachariah as a burial place for over a hundred years. (NOTE. Caleb Eddy of Boston writing in 1840 said that he knew where Elizabeth was buried, but he neglected to describe the spot and no traditions have been handed down in any branch of the family as to the location of the grave of Samuel. I had long known that there were some very old graves in this cemetery, but it was not until the spring of 1928 that I had an opportunity to visit it. As I stood on that hill-top and looked about and saw the little brook on the east, the salt-cove to the south, and off to the west the road leading to the neck, there came to my memory a description in an old deed which I had found some years previously, in which a burial-plot had been mentioned, and I realized that I was standing in that very burial place. As I was re-reading the deed upon my return home, there suddenly flashed upon me the full implication of the words "excepting the Burial Place," for I knew that Samuel and Elizabeth had died in Swansea only a few years previous to 1696, and I felt that without doubt I had discovered their final-resting-place. Ruth S. D. Eddy.)

John Horton and wife Mehitable moved to Rehoboth, Mass. Their daughter, Sarah Horton, married John Miller or Millerd and had a daughter Keziah Miller, who married Charles Mason. Their daughter Patience Mason married her second cousin Capt. Jonathan Mason, and they had a daughter Lydia Mason who married Johnson Streeter. Their daughter Nancy Streeter married Capt. Luke Parsons and had a daughter Lucy Mason Parsons, who married Dr. Lewis Darling. Their son Dr. Lewis Darling, Jr. married on Jan. 1, 1867, Julia Lavilla Day and had a son Carlos Parsons Darling, the writer of this ancestry.")

17 Sarah Eddy (John, William), ~~b. in England and~~ came with her parents on the "Handmaid," on Oct. 29, 1630, to New England. She d. Feb. 3, 1709/10, at Boston, in her 85th year (King's Chapel Epitaphs). About ~~1640~~ she married John Marion, a cordwainer of Watertown, Mass. (In the early records this name has various spellings, Marion, Merion, Meryon, Meriam, Merriam, and Miriam. Several of these occur among the descendants.) He was the son of Isaac Marion of Stebb~~e~~ing Co. Essex, Eng., for on Dec. 6, 1648, "John Marion appointed John Marion Sen'r, of Braintree, Eng., his Att'y to collect what was due him from the estate of his father Isaac Marion, late of Stebb~~e~~ing, Co. John Marion was a Freeman of Watertown but sometime previous to 1652 he moved with his family to Boston. On Feb. 15, 1651/52 John and Sarah were admitted to the First Church in Boston, and on May 26, 1652 John was admitted Freeman in Boston, where he soon became a very influential citizen. In 1693 he was made a Selectman, one of the highest honors that the town could bestow. Both John and Sarah were active in the church and both are buried in King's Chapel Burying Ground. Their stones bear the following inscriptions:

This is the only grave of any of the "Eddy" passengers on the "Handmaid" whose site is actually known.

In accordance with her father's will Sarah inherited a part of the farm of 100 acres. On Feb. 9, 1703 this farm was sold to Alexander Miller of Boston (Middlesex Deeds, 16:126). This deed, quoted in full in Bulletin No. 10 (p. 163), is of interest and value because of the many signatures and the acknowledgments, and also because in the one document the name Marion is spelled in several of the ways that John and Sarah's descendants now use. John Marion left a will, which mentions all his living children.

19 Pilgrim Eddy (John, William), b. Aug. 25, 1634, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.). She married three times: . . . Steadman; William Baker; son of Nathaniel Baker; and . . . Eveleth, which name appears also as Evles and Eules.

In her father's will, dated Jan. 11, 1677, she is called "my daughter Pilgrim Steadman." She was to have one quarter of the 100 acres of farm land. But on Feb. 9, 1703, when she made out a deed she called herself "Pilgrim Baker (formerly the said Pilgrim Steadman), of Boston, widow:" and when she signed the deed on Feb. 23, 1705/6, she signed her name Pilgrim Eules. The marriage of Pilgrim Eddy to William Baker was performed by William Brown on ye 22 of ye 2 nd mo. 1656, according to the Boston Records. It may be that Pilgrim after the death of Steadman or a separation from him called herself the widow of Baker, instead of widow of Steadman. From the marriage record of Pilgrim Eddy and from the dates it would seem that Baker was the first husband, Steadman the second and Eveleth, the third.

i Nathaniel Baker, only son (Deed of 1705/6).

20 John Eddy (John, William), b. Feb. 16, 1636/37, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.) He was living Aug. 6, 1702, when his brother Samuel Eddy made his will as Samuel ordered his two sons "to take the full care to provide and maintaine my Brother John Eddi during his naturell life" (Middlesex Prob. 6829). He is probably the John Eddy whose death is recorded in Watertown on Dec. 27, 1707.

From the will of his father dated Jan. 11, 1677, it is evident that he married in April or May, 1676. He received £30, half of the movables, and "85 acres which I got by exchange with Philip Shattuck." From the letter to Gov. Winthrop (Ms. Winthrop Papers, Vol. I, p. 190; 1618–1648 at the Mass. Hist. Soc., Boston) quoted in Bulletin No. 4 of the Eddy Family Association (p. 48), it would seem that as a child John was sickly, but he probably outgrew the illness and was able to take his place in the town's affairs. John Eddy's name appears as a witness on a deed given by his father in 1682 and it is also on a list of men who "object to having the New Meeting House between Widdow Stearns & Whitneys Hill and refuse to pay one penny toward it, but will help if the building is put toward the Westward end of the town, and choose a Committee to act for them" (Watertown Rec., Vol. II, p. 74). The name of the wife is not known. No records of any descendants have been found. The New Jersey line of Eddys may in time be traced to him. It is possible that all his family left Watertown, so that it was necessary for him to live with his brother Samuel in his old age, or with Samuel's sons.

22 Samuel Eddy (John, William), b. Sept. 30, 1640, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.); d. Nov. 22, 1711 at Watertown (V.R.); m. Sept. or Nov. 30, 1664, Sarah Meade; dau. of Gabriel and Joanna (. . .) Meade (N.E.H.G.R.). It is probable that this Joanna Meade was the second wife of Samuel's father, John Eddy. Boston records give the date of the marriage of Samuel Eddy and Sarah Meade as Sept. 30, 1664.

Samuel Eddy inherited the homestead lands consisting of 40 acres and also 7 acres of land near Widow Barnard's, and 12 acres of upland at Stony Brook. By purchase he added to these lands. He was a cordwainer by trade and held public office of various kinds. He was chosen tything-man in 1683/4, 1693/4 and 1704/5. He was fence-viewer in 1695/6 and town-sealer of leather in 1703/4, 1705/6, 1706/7, 1707/8, 1709/10, 1710/11. Samuel and his wife Sarah, who was admitted to full communion in the Watertown Church in 1690, were very active in church matters. The Watertown records contain the following accounts of his work and relation to the church:

On May 9, 1694 he was one of the men who objected and refused to pay one penny toward the new Meeting House unless it was placed in the Westward end of the town (Watertown Records, Vol. II, p. 74). Again Sept. 8, 1696, Samuel Eddy is one of a number who objected "to having Reverent Mister Angier to be minister for the whole town in the new meeting house, where they say the Church hath called him to office" (Watertown Records, Vol. II, p. 83). On July 2, 1697, "At a meeting of the two precincts, It was voted that we doe renew our Call once More to the Reverend mer Henry Gibbs that he be assistant to the Reverend mer Samuel Angier in the work of the ministry in the new meeting house for the town. . . . Voted . . ." "that . . . and Samuel Eddy, senr. are desired and appointed to treate with Mr. Henry Gibbs for his acceptance of the call in the foregoing vote and to make Return unto the Selectmen of their doeings there in" (Watertown Records, Vol. II, p. 115).

Feb. 18, 1707/8 "Voted that we do Desire . . . and Samuel Eddy Senr. to procure som Person or Persons for the carrying on of the worke of the ministrey in sd Cociety for ye next and last quarter of the present year, upon as reasonable terms as may be." (Watertown Records, Vol. V, p. 17.)

On Oct. 5, 1709 at a meeting of the Easterly cociete or Congregation in Watertown, it was voted "That we do appoint Deacon Nathaniel Barsham, Deacon Wm. Bond and Samuel Eddy, Sr. to be a Committee to warn meetings for sd cociete or Congregation when and so often as there be occation. Voted that we do desire the severall Gentlemen viz. . . . and Samuel Eddy, sen'r, . . . to sit at the table" (Watertown Records, Vol. V, p. 19).

Again on May 29, 1711, Benjamin and Samuel Eddy, Sen'r, subscribe for the purchasing of lands for better accommodation of the minister (Watertown Records, Vol. V, p. 23). In the inventory of his property made at his death there is mention of a Bible and Books on Divinity. From this one would judge that he was a student of the Bible as well as interested in the works of the Church.

His will, dated Aug. 6, 1702, and probated Dec. 30, 1711, mentions wife Sarah; sons, Samuel, Benjamin; and daughters, Deliverance Eddy, Elizabeth Allin, Ruth Stone, Johanna Eddy, and Sarah Coolidge; and brother John Eddy. The inventory taken Dec. 18, 1711 includes a house and 30 acres valued at £150 and 7 acres near the old mill in Watertown, a twelve acre lot, and an 80 acre farm. The inventory and the will in full are found in Bulletin No. 10, pp. 161 and 162.

33 John Eddy (Samuel, William), b. Dec. 25, 1637, at Plymouth; d. May 27, 1715, at Tisbury, Marthas Vineyard, aged about 78 years (Tisbury Rec.). He m. Hepzibah Doggett of Watertown, b. about 1643; d. May 3, 1726, at Tisbury, aged about 83 years. She was the dau. of John and Bathsheba (Fay) Doggett. (See Doggett Gen. for an account of this family. Also spelled Doget).

On Apr. 3, 1645, John was apprenticed by Samuel and Elizabeth Eddy to Francis Goulder and his wife Katherine of Hobbes Hole, Plymouth, or as it was sometimes called, Wellingsley. They were near neighbors. John must have finished this apprenticeship in which he learned the trade of a blacksmith in 1658. In the records of Edgartown, Marthas Vineyard, under date of Dec. 28, 1659 is the following record.

The Town (then called Great Harbour) voted to pay the charge of the Smiths Transportation hither if he desires, this is John Edy of Plymouth. (Edgartown Records, I, 133.) On Oct. 22, 1660, he was the owner of one of the shares of land which was given him by the town (Edgartown Rec. I, p. 147). On May 1, 1663 it was voted that John Edy, having remained three years in town should have a lot of 10 acres and a commonage with two acres of meadow—the meadow lies about the pond at Miles Brook (Dukes Co. Deeds, VI, 115).

From these records it would seem that John went to Great Harbour in the spring or summer of 1660, and remained there from the time of his arrival. In the Plymouth Colony Rec. (Vol. II, p. 37) is a deed dated August 27, 1660, in which

"Aron Knapp of Taunton within the government of New Plymouth, husbandman sold to John Eedey of Plymouth, blacksmith, ten acres of land, bee it more or less Scittuate and lying Neare unto the land of Nicholas White in the plantation of Taunton aforsaid bounded by the land of John Eddway, Carpenter on the Northwest side: by the Comons on the southeast side: and the Mill River on the end of it." At the end of this deed after the signature and the names of the witnesses is the statement "I John Eedey doe by these presents make over this my deed to Daniell Makenny of Taunton."

Thus it is probable that soon after the date of this deed Aug. 1660 and before Oct. 22, 1660, John went to Marthas Vineyard and became the blacksmith of this new settlement. John Doggett, his wife's father, had purchased land in Martha's Vineyard, and one of her brothers was there. It seems likely that this was another inducement for the young man to go to the Island. The records of Edgartown show that he became one of its prominent men and took an active part in its life.

He bought of John Dogget a plot of six acres for a homestead lot. The exact location of this has not been ascertained, but it is supposed to have been on the "Line" (Sup. Judicial Court Files 4974 also Edgartown Rec., I, 4, 7). In 1662 he was chosen constable and became a member of the train band. During the period of dissatisfaction with the government of Mayhew, he, together with Thomas Dogget and a few others would not sign the paper showing disapproval (Banks Hist. of Marthas Vineyard, Vol. I).

On Jan. 29, 1663, the neck of land called Quanomica was divided and John Eddy, the following year, came into possession of one of the twenty-five shares.

The following account is taken from "The History of Marthas Vineyard" by Col. Charles E. Banks. He has made an exhaustive study of all the early families on the Island, and is an authority on all matters pertaining to the early history of the place.

This lot was one of the five and twenty, just south of the cemetery on Tower Hill, having a frontage of 142 rods on the harbor. As proprietor he participated in all the divisions of land during his residence in Edgartown, and in 1667 was granted one sixth of the West Chop Neck by Governor Mayhew (Dukes Co. Deeds, I, 239). At this time the project for the purchase of Takemmy was under consideration, and he entered into negotiations with the three partners for admission as a proprietor in the proposed new settlement. Accordingly he offered his lands at Holmes Hole as an exchange for this right, as is shown by the following document:—

Know all men by these presents that I John Eddy of the town of great-harbour upon the vineyaard do for myself my heires and assignes sell unto William Pebody Josias Standish and James Allin I say I do sell my whole accommodations lying at Holmes his hole being on sixth part of that which was bought of the Indians by thomas Layton of Rode Island and this I do for and in consideration that the for s'd William Pebody Josias Standish and James Allin are to lett me the said Eddy have five pounds worth of land at Takemmy at the same rate as they bought it of the Indians provided that the said Eddy demand it within two years after the date hereofe as also they shall let me have one Lote among them to live upon I the sd Eddy paying for it at the rate that they buy of the Indians the afores'd five pounds worth to be part of the Lote if I do not demand the land and live upon it then to pay me five pounds at the end of the s'd 2 years the payment to made in current pay at prices current and in wittness of the premises I have hereunto set my hand this 29 of June 1669.

Memorandum—that the lot mentioned is to be one whole accommodation of the town now to be setled and that if ye town be not settled then the fores'd land at holmes his hole to be returned to me the s'd Eddy in wittness to all the premises I haye set hereunto my hand the day and year above s'd John Eddy (Tisbury Records, p. 17)

Within two years the new township being an assured success, he was granted a lot by the proprietors, on May 20, 1671, "if he com according to compacicion,"

Whereas we whose names are under written have obtained liberty of Mr. Thomas Mayhew to buy and purchas land within the bounds & limits of Taakimmy upon the Vineyard this may signifie unto men that we willi; Pebodie Josiah Standish James Allen and James Skiffe have made purchas of certain lands within the above saide bound with a purpos to people or plant the same and inorder thereunto have devided the whole into twelv partes or shares payable to the charges of the whole purchas besids one lott for the mill one for a minister and one lott for John Eddy if he come according to Compaccicion and we have admitted certain perssons to have shares, etc. (Sup. Jud. Court Files, No. 4974, Boston) May 20, 1671.

Thenceforth John Eddy, since he came "according to compaccion" was identified with Tisbury till the close of his life. Eight years later he sold all his Edgartown properties to John Coffin, with the exception of some small divisions on the necks. (Dukes Deeds, I. 318. Dated March 6, 1679.)

In 1680 he was a defendant in a suit brought by Simon Athearn for trespass and defamation, and acted as a juror later in the same year. (Court Records, Vol. I.) He was chosen constable of Tisbury in 1683, 1684, 1692; selectman in 1687, 1688, 1693, 1696, 1697, 1700; tithing man, 1699; besides acting in several minor capacities on committees appointed by the proprietors or freeholders. His last public office was held in 1711, when he was chosen surveyor of highways, being then in his 73rd year.

In May 17, 1673 he was one of the overseers of John Doggett's will. (See Dukes Co. Deeds, I, 321.)

John Doggett states "I give my wife that £5 which I was to receive of John Edy as part pay for the two oxen of mine he sold for £10. . . Land at Aquampache, at Felixneck & Konomache and meadow at Sangekantackett to my two daughters Elizabeth and Hephzibah & all cattle at the Vineyard. . . . With reference to my estate at the Islands above mentioned I desire my loving friends, Isaac Robinson & John Edy my son-in-law to be overseers of this my will."

In 1675 John Eddy's name appears on the list of whites, thirty-eight in number, capable of bearing arms. His name appears many times in the description of lands belonging to others whose lands joined his, "in the neck of land by John Eddys." He was chosen with Joseph Doggett "to by what land Thay can of the indians for the uses of the towns within the township of tisbury." He was one of the two witnesses to sign the deed given by Josias "Sachem of Tackomy" when the tract of land known as the Additional Purchase was made in Jan. 1671. When on Oct. 22, 1675 the "lands on the north side of the old Mill brook to the sound were divided" the fifth lot, about 24 rods in breadth, fell to John Eddy and the seventh lot to John Eddy and John Manter.

The townsmen empowered James Allen and John Eddy to purchase from the Indians certain additional meadows. This they did on Dec. 24, 1681, purchasing from John Papameck (Deeds, I, 129).

On Dec. 4, 1689, it was agreed and voted "by the freeholders of Tisbury that goodman robinson goodman eddy and goodman whitney shall procure ye old records that is to say all records of or in ye old books and loose papers of consarnment sutch as they shall see convenent to cause them to be entered in ye new boock and in so doing the town doth ingage to answer and pay them for all necessary cost and charge in and about the same."

On Nov. 21, 1694 it was agreed "and voted at a legal town meeting that Mr. Simon Athern, Thos. Look, John Edy, Joseph daggett and peter Robinson are chosen a commity for the town of Tisbury for to draw up a petition to the general assembly for an easment of their tax and for an addition of Lands unsettled to their township." (Tisbury Rec., p. 26.)

After the death of his father John Eddy of Tisbury entered into an agreement with his brothers in regard to the lands which Samuel had left. This agreement is in the Plymouth Co. Registry of Deeds, Book 7, p. 177. It is very important, because it is absolute proof that John Eddy of Tisbury was a son of Samuel Eddy of Plymouth, when to this deed is added the one which follows it below (Book 9, p. 264).

Swansey, Octobr. ye 14th, 1695 Be it knowne unto all Men by these presents that wee whose names are Under Written have joyntly Agreed And Concluded in And about some lands wch did appertaine unto our honored father Saml'l Eddy late of Swansey Deceased And are come to a

In witness whereof I ye aforsd John Eddy have hereunto Sett my hand this 28th day of Sept. 1711.

Col. Banks states that John had provided for his declining years by an arrangement with his son Benjamin in 1706, by which all his property was given to this only son on attaining his majority in consideration of support during the remainder of his life (Dukes Deeds, II, 140). But this was destined to be broken by the early death of Benjamin in his 24th year. By a will Benjamin, who had married, required his wife as executrix to see that the agreement which "I have with my honored father and mother, John and Hepzibah Eddy touching their annual allowance shall be well and faithfully observed." (Dukes Probate, I, 27). In the month following Benjamin's death, Hannah, the widow, evidently being desirous of being relieved of the support of the aged couple, transferred the entire property to John Manter, the husband of John's daughter Hannah (Dukes Probate, I, 27), in consideration of his assuming the "Agreement between John and Benjamin Eddy to the value of £9 annually for the support of John Eddy and wife living in one end of the house." John Eddy's homestead was on the east side of the Old Mill Brook abutting on the Mill Path on which it had a frontage of 160 rods. During the rest of his life John lived quietly. He gradually disposed of his several scattered possessions to his various children, so that when he made his will on Dec. 24, 1714 he had very little property to bequeath. He and his wife are buried in the West Tisbury Cemetery. The stones are in good condition and the inscriptions fairly legible.

His will is printed in full in Bulletin No. 16. It mentions wife Hepzibah, daughters Hannah Manter, Beulah Coffin, and Abigail Eddy, grandson Samuel Manter, son-in-law John Manter.

Zachariah was bound out at the age of seven years to Mr. John Browne of Rehoboth. This Mr. John Browne was a man of importance in Plymouth, being the Governor's Assistant from 1636–1655. He was one of the original settlers and proprietors of Taunton and also of Rehoboth. A large tract of land called Wannamoisett was granted to him for his services to the government of Plymouth (Hist. of Taunton, p. 32). Mr. John Browne died in 1662, but in a deed dated Dec. 29, 1661, he left to "Zacariah Eedey now resident in my family" 1/3 of 150 acres in Narragansett betwixt Quidnisset and trading house of Richard Smith (Plymouth Col. Deeds, p. 103).

On Jan. 4, 1661, "Zachariah bought of Thomas Savery a piece of land lying near Whetstones Vineyard in the Major's Purchase bounded on or near where Eddy lives" (Plymouth Co. Deeds, 3, 81).

On March 24, 1662 he received from his father Samuel, land near "Namassakeet" (Plymouth Col. Records, p. 116), and later

"The court has granted to Zacary Eedey a smale gusset of land lying betwixt his land and the brook, from his house below the path to Namasskett unto the aforesaid brooke unto a bridg or way neare unto a path that turns out of the old way unto Wm. Nelson's house, the sd. parcell of land so bounded as aforesaid, is granted unto the said Zacary Eedey . . . etc. on condition that the said Zacary Eedey doe continue a bridge neare his house in the place where it is needed for horse and cart, for the use of the countrey, for the full tearme of twenty years from the date hereof. June 7, 1665." (Court Orders, Plymouth, printed. Vol. IV, p. 95. Hist. of Middleboro, p. 41.)

From these records it appears that upon completing his apprenticeship Zachariah went to Middleboro and settled there, remaining for about eight years. His house stood on the twelve acres, granted him by the court, near what was later known as Eddy's furnace, just south of the present Eddyville. In 1666 his bounds were laid out by Ephraim Tinkham and Henry Wood (Court Orders, 4, p. 128).

In 1667 Hugh Cole, Constant Southworth, Josias Winslow, and others, all of Plymouth, purchased of King Philip all the marsh and meadow land of Mattapoysett. At this time Rev. John Myles, who had been a pastor in Wales and had been driven from his parish by the new laws of the English king (Act of Uniformity issued by Charles II), was in Plymouth, but his preaching did not please the church members there and Myles and his few Baptist Dissenters were sent to Rehoboth. Complaints soon drove him from there, and he was advised by the court of Plymouth to go farther south beyond the borders of Rehoboth. The Court then decided to grant to him and those of like mind the new tract recently purchased from the Indians. On Feb. 22, 1669 fifty-five men signed the articles of agreement which made this section into the new town of Swansea. Two of the signers were Zachariah Eddy and his brother Caleb. Thus Zachariah and Caleb became two of the first purchasers of Swansea and at the same time became members of the First Baptist Church in Swansea. Zachariah took an active part in the Church life. In the old Church Book, now in the vaults of the B. M. C. Durfee Trust Co. of Fall River, there is a copy of a letter sent to a church in Boston, asking that the brethren in Boston help the Swansea Church in the selection of a pastor. Both Zachariah and Caleb Eddy signed this letter.

In these earliest times Swansea comprised the land which lay between the two upper forks of Narragansett Bay, south of Rehoboth and Taunton, and extended from the Taunton River to the Providence River. There are five main necks or peninsulas extending southward. The most eastern one (now Somerset) is between the Taunton River and Lees River (formerly called the Mattapoisett River). This neck was called Shawomett Neck. The next peninsula lies between Lees River and Coles River. This was called Mattapoisett Neck (now called Gardner's Neck and South Swansea). The third peninsula is divided into two sections by the Kickimuit River. It lies between Coles River and the Warren River. The whole section was called Kickimuit, while the eastern section was often called Towesett (alias sheep pasture) and the western section was called Mount Hope Neck. The latter extended far to the south and was the great stronghold of King Philip. Between the Warren and the Barrington Rivers was New Meadow Neck (now called Hampden Meadows). The most western neck, between the Barrington River and the Providence River, was called Wannamoisett Neck. The Shawomett lands comprised not only the Shawomett Neck but probably extended as far north as the present Dighton line. These words of explanation will give a clearer idea of the extent and location of the purchases of Zachariah Eddy and his sons.

Soon after the incorporation of Swansea, Zachariah Eddy was made Freeman of Swansea on May 29, 1670. The following year on May 11th, he was chosen waywarden and on June 5th, he was elected surveyor of highways. In 1675 when King Philip's War broke out it is likely that Zachariah and his family took refuge in Plymouth for a few years. While there on June 5, 1677 he was summoned by the court of Plymouth to serve on the Grand Inquest. Some time in June of this same year, 1677, those who had formerly lived in Middleboro previous to the outbreak of the war, together with some who owned property within the borders of Middleboro, sixty-eight persons in all, met and agreed to resettle the town. The list of the names of "The Proprietors of the liberties of the township of Middleberry taken at Plimouth" contains the item,—"Sachariah Edey, Samuell Edey, 1 propriation." When Samuel Eddy became a proprietor of the town of Middleboro, he thereby obtained the privilege of being a participant in all future divisions of the undivided lands belonging to the township. This right was passed on to the sons when they received from him the lands at Namassakett. When the land was sold by them the proprietor's rights went with the land.

On July 23, 1673 Zachariah Eddy's name appears as the recipient of a lot in the South Purchase, which included the present towns of Rochester, Wareham, Carver, and a part of Middleboro. Later, on May 17, 1698, when the tract of land was divided, Zachariah received lots 128 and 129. On May 14, 1675, Zachariah was one of those who received a lot in the tract known as the "16 Shilling Purchase." He received lot No. 51.

After King Philip's War, when all danger from hostile Indians was over, probably about the spring of 1678, Zachariah and his family returned to Swansea. He was established there on Oct. 21, 1679, when he purchased a piece of land from Thomas Barnes, and by this purchase obtained rights as a "second ranch man"; that is in any division of lands he would receive twice as much as a man of the "third ranch" (or third rank as it is more often written). The third rank man received one unit of a division, a second rank man, two units, a first rank man, three units.

(Bristol Co. Deeds, 1. 14.) Zachariah Edey of Swansea bought of Thomas Barnes of Newport . . . My houselott, being 12 acres and 2 acres which I had of Jonathan Bosworth joining with it . . . by ye 33rd page of ye book Land records . . . and all my rt in Common and divisions of land whatsoever may appertain to me as I was a second ranck man in Town of Swansea.

In 1681 both Zachariah and his brother Caleb were members of a jury called to view the body of William Makepeace who had been drowned. On June 7, 1681, Zachariah was propounded as Freeman by the court in Plymouth. (Court Orders, [written] Plymouth, 6. 1. 47.) There is no record of his having been admitted, but it would seem that he must have been admitted, for he was called upon to perform the duties of a Freeman. He was made constable.

This (Plymouth) court imposes and authorizes Zachery Eddy to be constable of the ward of Showamett and to act within that ward as in every respect as an other constable might do and proper unto the proprietors of Showamett, respecting them at that place. July, 1683. (Court Orders Plymouth VI, p. 115.)

Zachariah's name appears on the records in connection with several items of minor interest. On Sept. 26, 1697, together with Hezekiah Luther he was appointed to take the inventory of Widow Bartram's estate (N.E.H.G.R., Vol. LXIII). On Apr. 5, 1710, Zachariah Eddy testified at Bristol that he was "then about 70 years of age and that a certain lot of land was laid out by Samuel Luther, Thomas Esterbrooks, and Hugh Cole, about 26 years ago in the right of John Allen."

Most of the first purchases of Zachariah Eddy in Swansey were in the Shawomet Neck probably on its western side, and bordering on the Mattapoisett River, probably along the present highway leading out of Swansea Village toward Fall River.

Zachariah Eddy of Swansey bought on Nov. 1, 1683 of David Wood of Middlebury, house carpenter ½ share in land at a place called Shawawmett in New Plymouth Colony—½ part of the first division in ye Great Neck being in number the 2 & 20th lot and in quantity about 45 acres & ye 1 moiety or half part of second division being in quantity 5 acres & also ½ of ye 3rd division being about 36 acres and all ye same divisions and allotments are bounded as may appear by ye records (Bristol Co. Deeds, 1, 15).

May 20, 1696. Zachariah Eddy of Swansea bought of James Bell "a 5 acre lot of upland lying in Shawamott Neck in Swansea, belonging to the Shawomett Purchase, 29 in number of the second division of small lotts purchased by me of Mr. Nicholas White of Taunton bounding easterly with Thomas Paine's lot; westerly with lot belonging to Gov. Josiah Winslow, Dec'd.; northerly on a highway and southerly on Samuel Winslow, about 5 acres." (B. C. D. 2, 1.)

Zachariah Eddy bought of John Road (or Reed) of Freetown, "land being in Shawomett Neck in Swansey belonging to the freeman's purchase—meadow 2 acres a part of the third lot of meadows which fell by division to Thomas Thatcher of Boston and purchased of Thatcher by John Road (or Reed) bounded eastwardly with upland belonging to Shawomett Purchase, westerly with the river that parts Mattapoisett Neck and said Shawomett, northerly beginning at a brook of water and from a tree marked 2 on north side said tree and three on south side," etc. (B. C. D., 2, 3.)

Zachariah Eddy of Swansey bought of "Richard Winslow of town of Boston, lot of land at Swansey known by name of Shawomett Neck, part thereof being already laid out in three lots, the great lot being the first of the 3, being 45 acres and in number the 23rd, the second is 5 acres and no 23 and the third beares the denomination of the outlett lott and is numbered 16." etc. (B. C. D., 2, 117.)

Zachariah Eddy of Swansey in County of Bristol bought of "John Borden of Portsmouth and Mary Borden his wife land in the township of Swansey and bounded eastward in part by land of Zachariah and partly by upland belonging to Shawmmonot Purchase, westerly by the river that driveth the fulling mill that belongeth to the said Zachariah Eddy and extendeth in length northwardly and southwardly from the afore said fulling mill to a small white oak which is marked and showeth near the mouth of the cove. (B. C. D., 1, 286.)

From this deed it would seem that in addition to farming Zachariah had a mill somewhere near the present site of Swansea Village. This mill later came into the possession of his son Zachariah.

On July 30, 1691, James Brown sold to Zachariah Eddy in return for release of land at Narragansett, one rank right and a half of undivided lands, that is ½ of all the land yet undivided at the day of the date, pertaining and belonging to the said James Brown of Swansea (B. C. D., 2. 57). In this deed Zachariah parted with that land which Mr. Brown of Rehoboth had given him just before his death, probably in return for his services when an apprentice. Zachariah passed on the land obtained from James Brown to his son Zachariah.

On Oct. 14, 1695 the four sons of Samuel came to an agreement in regard to the ownership of the land which they had received from their father. Zachariah's share was on the east side of the Namasket River, in what was known as Capt. Southworth's Purchase (Plymouth Co. Deeds, Vol. VII, p. 177). This same year he sold to Obediah of Middleboro, his brother, certain lands in Middleboro (Plymouth Co. Deeds, 2.5).

After the purchase of the lands in Shawomett near the head of the neck and bordering on the east side of the Mattapoisett River, Zachariah seems to have purchased the lands adjoining on the west, so that all the land of the present Swansea Village on the south side of the highway and extending from the main highway on the east, to the road which leads to Gardner's Neck, on the west, was a part of his possessions. This would include the present Stevens estate, the Eddy Burial Plot and the Swansea Dye Works and the land upon which the houses bordering the highway on the south are situated.

It would seem that his homestead was on or near the Stevens estate. This plot he sold to Caleb Eddy his son in a deed dated Jan. 27, 1710/11.

Zachariah Eddy, yeoman, "to son Caleb Eddy, cordwainer, . . . my homestead, houses etc. at Mattapoisett . . . 50 acres of upland and meadow and salt marsh etc. at the head of Spring Brook, then by Spring Brook to salt water, then rounding by low water until it comes to a stake in the little cove before my door . . . to the brook near the Indian line; edge of Rocky Run Brook . . . Country Road." (B. C. D., 7, 489.)

The section west of Spring Brook and extending to the road leading down to South Swansea, he sold to his son Zachariah on Dec. 29, 1696. Zachariah Eddy, yeoman, "to son Zachariah Eddy, Jr. yeoman, 20 acres lying at a place commonly called and known by the name of Matapoysett in Swansey, bounded northerly with a highway, easterly with the fence and Spring Brook to the Salt Water, southerly to the land of Ralph Chapman and bounded westerly with the highway which leadeth to the land of Ralph Chapman . . . excepting and reserving the Burying Place on the premises which is to lye and remain as a burying place for and to the families of the said Eddys & for such their neighbors as the said Eddys shall admit of forever." Dated Dec. 29, 1696. Ack. Mar. 19, 1696/97. (B. C. D., 2, 57.)

The exact location of this land sold to Zachariah is very clear. The highway leading to Ralph Chapmans is the road leading off of the main road down to South Swansea. This was the western boundary; the present highway in Swansea village probably was the northern; Spring Brook which is now partly on the Stevens estate and separates the Stevens estate from the Eddy Burial Plot was the eastern boundary; and the salt water and Ralph Chapman the southern. The Burial Plot mentioned in the deed to Zachariah was used by the descendants of Zachariah for over a hundred years, as the place to bury their loved ones. The oldest stone therein, which bears any inscription is dated 1700.

On Jan. 22, 1700 Zachariah bought of Capt. T. Brooks, 20 acres, at Mattapoisett. (B. C. D., 5, 510.)

Zachariah Eddy ffuller bought of Ralph Chapman of Newport . . . upland and salt marsh meadow at Mattapoisett Neck in Swansea about one and a half acres. Bounds mention a mill pond and low water mark. Dated May 18, 1705. (B. C. D., 4, 433.)

On Mar. 23, 1704/05 Zachariah bought of Hugh Cole 3 acres on the River that parts Mattapoisett and Shawomet (B. C. D., 5, 420).

In addition to these lands at Shawomet and Mattapoisett, Zachariah owned land at Towissett, which he sold to Ralph Chapman and lands at Kickimuit near the Kickimuit Bridge, which he sold to Nathaniel Cole. Besides the purchases already mentioned Zachariah bought several other tracts of land in Swansea, so that he became a large landholder. As his sons grew to manhood and wished to start out in life for themselves, he deeded to them one after another, certain of his properties. The parts given to Zachariah and Caleb have already been mentioned.

On July 8, 1700 Zachariah Eddy sold to "well-beloved son John Eddy of Swansea, blacksmith, a piece of land lying and being in a place called Shawmut and in the township of Swansea, containing 40 acres and two 5 acre lots which he had purchased of James Bull or Bell and Richard Winslow. His wife Abigail signed this deed, which was witnessed by Thomas Seamons, Daniel Wilbur, and John West. (B. C. D., Vol. III, p. 223.) Again on Jan. 7, 1705/6 he sold to "my well beloved son, John Eddy of Swansea, blacksmith, 5 A. and the 3 A. lot, I bought of J. Little . . . and also my meadows lying on the south ward side of the line which runneth between my son Joshua Eddy and my son John Eddy to the middle of the land as there it runneth." (Bristol Co. Deeds, Vol. VIII, p. 35.)

Zachariah sold to "my son Joshua Eddy, cooper, for the great love I bear him land and meadow at Mattapoisett which I purchased of Hugh Cole." To his son Obadiah Eddy, tanner, he gave 90 acres near the brook on the Indian line, with the proviso that Obadiah could not sell it without the father's permission. To his son Ebenezer, who was living in Middleboro, he gave the 60 acres bought of Thomas Savery and Benjamin Eaton, and all of the rest of the lands east of the said sixty acres, also 400 A. which is called the Major's Purchase, and the three acres bought of Robert Ransom, and right in Assawamsett Neck, and a gusset of 12 A. granted by Plymouth, reserving 12 A. to myself. John Eddy was a witness to this deed. There are many other records of land transactions on file but they contain very little of genealogical interest. One deed was signed by wife Alice (B. C. D. 5, 545), another by wife Abigail (B. C. D. 3, 204). Elizabeth Eddy, Mary Eddy and Samuel Eddy witnessed the deed of April 23, 1690 (B. C. D. 5, 545); Bethia Smith witnessed a deed of Sept. 14, 1699 (B. C. D. 3, 204); Caleb Eddy and Samuel Eddy witnessed a deed of Aug. 4, 1698.

Having thus disposed of most of his possessions to his sons during his lifetime, Zachariah had but little to leave to his children as an inheritance. His will, dated Nov. 4, 1718, mentions his wife Abigail and all of his sons, to whom he states that he has given to them the land which he considers their share. It mentions also his daughter Elizabeth Whipple, who is deceased and his son-in-law, Samuel Whipple; his grandson Edward Eddy; and his wife's son, Timothy Smith. To his son Joshua he left his great Bible (Bristol Co. Prob., 3, 488). His wife Abigail left a will, dated Jan. 2, 1720, which mentions daughters, Abigail Hatch, Bethia Eddy, Hannah Simmons; son-in-law, Remembrance Simmons; daughter, Hopestill Kelley; and granddaughters, Ann, Abigail, and Amy, daughters of Caleb Eddy, whom she called her son-in-law (Bristol Co. Prob., 3, 693).

In the Eddy Burial Plot which Zachariah set aside to be a place for the burial of the Eddys forever are many graves, marked by stones which bear no inscriptions. Without doubt Zachariah and his two wives lie buried in some of these.

35 Caleb Eddy (Samuel, William), b. 1643, at Plymouth (Ply. Col. Deeds, Vol. II, p. 30); d. Mar. 23, 1712/13, in Swansea; m. Dec. 6, 1671, Elizabeth Bullock of Rehoboth (Swansea V.R.); dau. of Richard Bullock.

At the age of nine years on Mar. 4, 1652, Caleb was apprenticed by his parents to Mr. John Browne of Rehoboth, who was "to bring him up in his Implyment of husbandry or any other business." On Dec. 29, 1661 Caleb was still in his household, for in a deed John Browne states:

"Whereas, I John Brown of Rehoboth . . . of my own voluntary good will do give . . . unto Zachariah Eedey and Caleb Eedey now resident in my house one hundred acres of land lying in the Narragansett Bay betwixt Quidnisett and the trading house of Mr. Richard Smith, Comomly Called and knowne by the name of Mr. Browne's Share." (Plym. Col. Deeds also Eddy Bulletin, No. 2, p. 16.)

When Samuel Eedey, Caleb's father, deeded on Mar. 24, 1662, "land lying at Namassakett" unto his two sons Zachariah and Obadiah to be equally divided between them, he added this statement:

"It was mutually agreed before the ratification of the premises by and between the said Samuell Eedey and Zachariah Eedey that in case Caleb Eedey shall Desire a quarter parte of the above said land hee shall have it." When the four brothers, after the death of their father, met on Oct. 14, 1695, at Swansea to divide this land it was agreed that John and Caleb should have the lands on the west side of the Great River (Plym. Deeds, Vol. XLVIII, p. 111).

In 1667 Hugh Cole, Constant Southworth, Josias Winslow and others, all of Plymouth, purchased of Philip all the marsh and meadow land of Mattapoisett. And in March 1667 the Court of New Plymouth passed an order called the grant of Swansea, authorizing the formation of a new town to be called by the name of Swansea. Caleb Eddy was among the fifty-five men who became the proprietors of the new town.

He settled in Swansea about the time of his marriage. It seems likely that he made his home nearer the church than did Zachariah, for references seem to indicate that it was not far from the Kickimuit River, while Zachariah was near the Mattapoisett River. Caleb soon began to take an active part in the affairs of the new town. In 1678 he was constable (Plym. Court Orders, Vol. V, p. 258) and he was chosen surveyor of highways. On June 7, 1681 he was propounded as Freeman and on June 6, 1682 "Caleb Eedey took up the freedom of this court." On Aug. 19, 1681 Caleb was on a jury summoned to view the body of William Makepeace, who was drowned when crossing the Taunton River. On July 16, 1696 he was chosen a member of the Grand Inquest.

The First Church of Swansea was regarded by its pastor, Rev. Mr. Miles, as a continuation of his earlier church in Wales. He brought with him the old book of records of the Welsh Church and in this the early records of the church in Swansea are found. It contains copies of several letters written from the Swansea Church to other churches. Among these is one written to the church at Boston asking for their advice and help in selecting a new pastor. Caleb was a member of the committee which wrote this letter. He was chosen deacon of this church and he is referred to in documents as Deacon Caleb Eddy (probably to distinguish him from his son Caleb). (See Inventory of his property, taken Mar. 23, 1712/13 and recorded Apr. 1.)

Caleb Eddy appears but seldom in the Land Registry. There is one deed executed Aug. 16, 1699, which was signed by his wife Elizabeth.

Caleb Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, sold to George Sisson of Rhode Island 6 acres at a place known by name of Towesett (alias) Sheep pasture within the township of Swansea, bounded on east with second range of lots and north by lot no. 63 (being Bildad Kingsleys) west by a Highway, south by lot No. 61—the pasture lot (Swansea book of land records, p. 145). This deed was witnessed by James Cole, Thomas Hix and John West (Bristol Co. Deeds, 3, 27).

On Oct. 18, 1708 Caleb Eddy sold to his son Caleb Eddy, ship carpenter of Boston, his half share in the 16 shilling purchase, which he held in common with his brother John. Some time later both Caleb Jr. and John of Tisbury sold their shares to Jacob Tomson of Middleboro.

Caleb Eddy was buried in the old Kickimuit cemetery, now in the bounds of Warren, R. I. His stone shows that he died in March 1713 at the age of 69 years. His will mentions wife Elizabeth, elder son Caleb; son Samuel who was to have full care of his mother; son Benjamin; daughters Elizabeth, Hannah, and Hopestill who are married; and daughter Mary, who is not yet of age or married. (See Bulletin for copy of will.)

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R. of Plymouth and Swansea):

36 Obadiah Eddy (Samuel, William), b. abt. 1645, at Plymouth; d. 1727. His will was probated Nov. 6, 1727; m. Bennett . . . who d. before him, but after Jan. 21, 1702.

It is probable that Bennett, the wife of Obadiah was Bennett Ellis, dau. of John Ellis and his wife Elizabeth Freeman, dau. of Edmund Freeman. The Ellis family were of Sandwich where Obadiah spent his youth. Bennett Ellis was b. Feb. 27, 1649, which is four years later than Obadiah was born and she had a brother Joel Ellis. Note that Obadiah named a son Joel. Obadiah during the rest of his life had many dealings with the Ellis family and a Joel Ellis witnessed the codicil to his will.

Obadiah learned the trade of a shoemaker. It is likely that he was apprenticed to someone living in Sandwich, for the first record found suggests that he was living in Sandwich at the time that he was fifteen or sixteen years of age.

It is recorded under the allotments to Sandwich and Bourne as follows:

"To Obadiah Edie 2 pound of powder, June 25, 1660 at training day," and later "Obadiah Edie was called by the constable of Sandwich to view the body of Thomas Fish," who had died Aug. 25, 1664. On March 7, 1664/65 he was called to court to give testimony in regard to the case. (Court Orders of Plymouth Vol. IV, p. 85.)

The Court Orders furnish another interesting item in regard to Obadiah (Vol. III, p. 190). Obadiah Eedey and George Barlow appeared before the court and accused John Newland of blasphemy. "Obadiah says that he (Newland) said that he was as holy as God himself was (if hee stood) and soe should remaine to ppetuity" . . . The court was unsatisfied in some particulars and adjourned the case to a later date. Later it is recorded that "George Barlow is such a one as hee is a shame and reproach to all his masters and stands convicted of a lye at Newberry." Nothing more is said in regard to the case, so it cannot be determined how Obadiah's accusation was settled.

When Samuel Eddy received from the town of Plymouth the lands at Namassakett, he deeded them to his sons, Zachariah and Obadiah (Plym. Col. Rec., p. 116), although the latter was not of age. On April 29, 1663, Obadiah Eedey, shoemaker, deeded to Zachariah Edy of Plymouth, planter, his brother, all his share of land at Namaskett,—viz. one-half of their father's land there, but on July 7, 1674 Obadiah and Zachariah came into court and nullified the deed by mutual consent.

It is probable that as soon as Obadiah married, he settled on these lands which became incorporated into the town of Middleboro. His name first appears in town affairs as a member of the Grand Inquest in 1673, and in 1679 and in 1681 he again held this position. In 1675 and 1692 he was surveyor of highways and in 1679, 1681, 1683, 1689, he was constable. In 1690 and 1694 he was one of the Selectmen of Middleboro. Among the officers of the towns in the Old Colony, none were of more importance than the selectmen. They were given large discretion and until the Revolutionary War, had almost entire management of the civil affairs. These offices were filled by the most influential and able men.

When King Philip's War broke out in 1675, Obadiah and his family were living in Middleboro. They took refuge in the fort. When this was abandoned, they went to Plymouth. A list of men in the fort was obtained from an old Eddy Note Book "quoted from Mercy Bennett, whose grandfather was on the list and she had the information from him." (Hist. of Middleboro, p. 34.) They remained in Plymouth until the trouble was over. Obadiah was one of the first to return to Middleboro. His home, like all other houses in Middleboro prior to King

*Note.—American Ancestry gives the name of the wife of Obadiah in one place as Sally Paddock and in another as Sally Bennett, but gives no authority for either statement, but in a deed in Plym Co. (21, 64) Obadiah Eddy says that his wife is Bennett Eddy and she signs her name to the deed.

Philip's War, had been built of hewn logs. This had been burned by the Indians, but nothing daunted he set out to rebuild it, not far from the site of the original house. An article in the Eddy Genealogy of 1881 thus describes the location: "He lived in that part of Middleboro, now Halifax, near Winetuxet River. It was hard by two appletrees in the field back of Nathan Fuller's house." The hearthstone of that old house was taken from the cellar and is now part of the foundation of one of the houses in Eddyville, built by one of his descendants.

Obadiah was admitted a Freeman June 3, 1683, but did not take the oath until 1688. In 1683 he was one of those chosen to lay out a road from Middleboro, Bridgewater, and other places toward Boston and in 1687 he was one of twelve men chosen as a jury to decide cases arising from the laying out of highways. Since all records of previous times had been burnt in King Philip's War, questions of boundaries and ownership arose.

On Oct. 14, 1695 the four brothers agreed to divide the lands which they had inherited from "their honored father Samuel Eddy, late of Swansea, deceased." Obadiah and Zachariah agreed to take those lands on the east side of Namasket River; that is the "26 Men's Purchase." Since Zachariah had already left Middleboro and settled in Swansea, he sold his portion to Obadiah. This land was on the north side of the road from Namasket to Plymouth, between the Namasket River and Mahutchet brook (with the exception of two acres). By several other purchases Obadiah became a large landholder. From time to time as his sons grew up he sold portions of his holdings to them. The Plymouth Registry of Deeds contains many transactions. Among them is one which is of especial interest because it gives the first name of Obadiah's wife. On Jan. 21, 1701/02 Obadiah Eddy of Middleboro deeded to Thomas Parlor of Beverly in Essex Co. . . . 50 acres in the 26 Men's Purchase . . . "in witness whereof I and my wife Bennett Eddy have hereunto set hands and seals." Signed by Obadiah Eddy with a mark and by Bennett Eddy, who spelled her name, Benenet.

Among some old papers owned by the Leonard family is one dated July 1704, written by Major George Leonard, clerk of the Chartley Iron Works, west precinct of Taunton, to his father, Capt. Thos. Leonard . . . "Loving ffather . . . I have now sent a tun of Iron by Obadiah Edy . . . there is 29 bars ffor Mr. Pole of Boston, being 1500 and half." (New Bedford Library.)

In 1694 the First Church of Middleboro was organized. For several generations this was one of the largest and most influential in the colony. In the founding of this Obadiah had his part and was one of its staunch upholders as long as he lived The church still stands and has recently received extensive repairs. Every summer on "Forefather's Sunday" a great audience fills the building to commemorate the families who were its founders.

Obadiah's will was not recorded, but a copy is on file (Plym. Co. Prob. file 7086). It is dated May 18, 1722 and a codicil was added Dec. 17, 1726 and on Nov. 6, 1727 two of the witnesses testified that they saw Obadiah sign the codicil. This will mentions son Samuel; son Benjamin; daughter Elizabeth Delano; granddaughter Sarah, daughter of my son Joel Eddy; granddaughter Mehitable Eddy, the daughter of my son John Eddy; daughter-in-law Malatiah Eddy, the wife of my son Samuel Eddy; son John Eddy, son Jabez Eddy, daughter Hasadiah Samson, deceased; daughter Bennet Woodward, daughter Hannah Clark. Note that neither Mary, who is given by the 1881 Genealogy as the wife of Benjamin Fuller nor Mercy, who is given as the wife of S. Sampson is mentioned in this will. They are added below to the list of children on the authority of the 1881 Genealogy. They are mentioned as Obadiah's children in the Savery Genealogy, p. 30, and Giles Memorial, p. 383. (See Bulletin for the complete will.)

49 John Eddy (Samuel, John, William), b. probably about 1666; d. July 26, 1694, at Watertown (V.R.); m. July 6, 1693, at Watertown (V.R.), Sarah Woodward; dau. of George and Elizabeth (Hammond) Woodward. She was b. Oct. 3, 1674.

He was a turner by trade. The Watertown records contain one reference to him (Vol. V, p. 119): "Admitted to the Lord's Supper, John Edy." At his death his widow Sarah Eddy was made administratrix of his estate and Samuel Eddy, Sen'r was one of the bondsmen on Oct. 22, 1694. His property was appraised on Sept. 7, 1694 and the inventory entered Oct. 4, 1694. The inventory shows a dwelling house and ½ acre of land. On Mar. 13, 1696/97 (Watertown Rec., Vol. II, p. 111) the court paid "Widow Eddy 3 sh-4d." Without doubt this is Sarah Eddy, widow of John. Since the death of John occurred so soon after his marriage and since his father in his will, dated Aug. 6, 1702, made no provision for any children of his son John, it is probable that he died without issue. Sarah married for her second husband, Isaiah Whitney of Cambridge. His will is on file (Whitney Gen., p. 23 and p. 31).

Among the deeds of Middlesex Co., Mass. is one dated Aug. 24, 1700 in which Samuel Eddy, Jr. of Watertown, cordwainer, and Elizabeth Eddy his wife, and Isaiah Whitney of Cambridge, husbandman, and Sarah Whitney, his wife sold "land late in ye occupation of Widow Elizabeth Woodward bounding . . . on Samuel Eddy, Sr." This confirms the statement that the brothers John and Samuel Eddy married sisters, who were daughters of George and Elizabeth (Hammond) Woodward.

50 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, John, William), b. June 4, 1668, at Watertown (V.R.); d. probably Aug. 6, 1746, at Oxford, Mass. (V.R.). He m. Dec. 7, 1693 (Blake and Torrey Gen., p. 145), Elizabeth Woodward; dau. of George and Elizabeth (Hammond) Woodward. She was b. May 8, 1664, in Watertown (V.R.).

Samuel first appears on the records in 1684 as a drummer-boy, whom the town refused to pay. From a deed recorded in 1700, we learn that he was a cordwainer, like his father, and that he had some education since he was able to write his name. His wife, Elizabeth, signed with her mark. In Jan. 14, 1714/15, his name appears on "a list of those who are proprietors, who are in possession of the first granted house lotts in Watertown" (Watertown Rec.). He was the public sealer of leather in Watertown for the years, 1719, 1720, 1721, 1722 (Watertown Rec., Vol. II, pp. 260, 266, 278, 286).

On Mar. 8, 1716/17 it was "Ordered That 2 of the Selectmen do seeke for a convenient Place where James Holland A Person maintained by the Towns Charge may be entertained wher it may be best for said Holland, and for the Town. And to make report of their doings at next Meeting." Mar. 18, 1716/17 the above Selectmen return "That they have been with Samuel Eddy and treated with him in order to taking of James Holland on such terms as the said Samuel Eddy shall agree upon." The sd. Samuel Eddy met the Selectmen at the above sd meeting and made an agreement with them, as follows "That the said Samuel Eddy taketh the sd James Holland and to find and provide for him sufficient housing, meat, Drinke, washing, nursing and all other such necessarys as may be nedfull for him under his present curcomstances, and to be allowed 8 Shillings pr weeke and the . . . selectmen are desired to take care & move the sd Holland to Samuel Eddies as soon as they can conveniently." (Watertown Rec., Vol. II, p. 245.) July 1, 1717, "Ordered That the Town Treasurer do forth with pay to Samuel Eddy 40 sh. in part fot his cost & charge in looking after James Holland A Poore man Committed to him to tak care of." (Watertown Rec., Vol. II, p. 247.)

On October 10, 1717, "Ordered to pay to Samuel Eddy the sum of four Pounds towards his keeping James Holland one of the Town's poore." (Watertown Rec., Vol. II, p. 250.)

Samuel Eddy, Jr. of Watertown, cordwainer, & Elizabeth Eddy, his wife, Isaiah Whitney of Cambridge, husbandman, & Sarah Whitney, his wife, for £25 sold to Edward Goddard of Watertown, weaver, 1 piece or parcel of upland & meadow being 2/3 part, containing 7 acres, late in ye occupation of Widow Woodward. Bounds mentioned are Caleb Church, Richard Bliss, and Samuel Eddy, Sen'r; west with highway and east with Mr. Sam'll (or Mrs. Sarah) Parris (this is probably Pierce, the writing is very illegible). In addition "rights in one mansion house now standing upon the same" were sold. Samuel signed his name and Elizabeth signed with a mark. Dated Aug. 24, 1700 (Middlesex Co., Deeds).

Children, b. in Watertown (V.R.):

+123 John Eddy, b. May 6, 1696.
124 Elizabeth Eddy, b. July 28, 1697; bapt. Sept. 12, 1697 (Cambridge Rec.); d. young.
+125 Sarah Eddy, b. May 21, 1700.
+126 Samuel Eddy, b. Aug. 14, 1701.
127 Elizabeth Eddy, b. July 29, 1703: m. Feb. 5, 1719, at Medford, Joshua Wheat of Watertown (V. R.).
+128 Ebenezer Eddy, b. Jan. 9, 1704/05.
+129 Benjamin Eddy, b. Nov. 30, 1707.
130 Perhaps also the Ruth Eddy, who was "received on Dec. 22, 1728 in full communion with the First Church of Christ in Watertown (Vol. V, p. 181 of Watertown Rec.).

51 Sarah Eddy (Samuel, John, William), b. Oct. 31, 1670, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.); d. Nov. 7, 1711; m. Nov. 15, 1699, Thomas Coolidge, b. Apr. 24, 1670; d. May 15, 1737. He m. (2) Jan. 15, 1712/13, Mary Smith of Boston (N.E.H.G.R., Vol. LXXVII).

The following record is taken from the Watertown Records, Vol. V., p. 130:

The marriage of Thomas Coolidge and Sarah Eddy was consummated att my House. Att ye same time was ye Consumation of ye marriage of Jonathan Stone & Ruth Eddy all Four of Watertown. Dated Nov. 15, 1699 and signed by Rev. Henry Gibbs.

Thomas Coolidge was son of Nathaniel^{2} (John^{1}) Coolidge and his wife Mary Bright. (Note. President Calvin Coolidge traces his ancestry to this same John Coolidge as follows,—Calvin^{10}, John Calvin^{9}, Calvin Galusha^{8}, Calvin^{7}, Capt. John^{6}, Joshua^{5}, Obadiah^{4}, Obadiah^{3}, Simon^{2}, John^{1} Coolidge.)

He was a selectman of Watertown in 1726 and 1733–1735 and an inn-holder. In his will dated April 8, 1734, proved May 30, 1737, he mentioned his daughter Tabitha Stratton. His wife Mary was appointed executrix and Nathaniel Harris and Lieut. Joseph Coolidge his executors (Middlesex Prob. Files, 5153).

Children, by first wife; b. at Watertown:

i Sarah Coolidge, b. Sept. 1700; m. at Watertown, Jonathan Parks, Jr. of Newton.

ii Tabitha Coolidge, b. Nov. 2, 1702; m. at Watertown, Apr. 29, 1725, Jabez Stratton of Watertown. They moved to Sherborn about 1735.

iii David Coolidge, b. June 25, 1704/05; d. Dec. 20, 1772; m. about 1736, Mary Mixer, b. at Watertown, Oct. 25, 1714 and d. there May 14, 1786. She was dau. of Deacon Joseph and Anne (Jones) Mixer.

Mrs. Ella Almira (White) Ford traces her ancestry to Tabitha Coolidge as follows. Jabez and Tabitha (Coolidge) Stratton had a daughter Sarah, b. Nov. 29, 1734, at Sherborn, Mass.; d. Oct. 12, 1815; who married June 2, 1755, Jonas Greenwood, b. Apr. 25, 1727; d. May 28, 1802. Their son, Jonathan Greenwood, b. Nov. 12, 1755; d. Dec. 30, 1821, at Gardner, Mass., married May 4, 1780, at Sherborn, Sybil Holbrook, b. May 21, 1760; d. Sept. 7, 1842, at Gardner and they had a son Jonathan Greenwood, Jr. b. Apr. 18, 1786 at Gardner; d. Oct. 24, 1846, at Templeton, who m. May 30, 1807, Phebe Temple, b. Apr. 5, 1789; d. Dec. 25, 1856. Their daughter Louisa Harriet Greenwood, b. June 2, 1808; d. June 5, 1840; m. June 8, 1828, at Templeton, Charles Ward Greenleaf, b. May 11, 1805, at Templeton; d. Apr. 5, 1896, at Cleveland and they had a daughter, Almira Louisa Greenleaf, b. Feb. 27, 1837, at Woodstock, Vt.; d. Sept. 19, 1900, at Cleveland, O., who m. Nov. 2, 1858, Thomas Howard White, b. Apr. 26, 1836; d. June 22, 1914, at Cleveland. Ella Almira White, their daughter, was b. Jan. 9, 1883 at Cleveland and m. May 9, 1908, Horatio Ford who was b. June 23, 1881. They have six children, Clark, Andrew, Windsor, Jonathan, Almira, and Baldwin.

52 Benjamin Eddy (Samuel, John, William), b. Sept. 16, 1673, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.); d. Dec. 19, 1729, at Oxford, Mass. (V.R.); m. Dec. 7, 1707, Abigail Holden of Watertown. She d. soon and he m. (2) on Dec. 7, 1713, at Watertown (V.R.), her sister Grace Holden, b. Aug. 13, 1681; d. Nov. 9, 1714, at Watertown (V.R.). He m. (3) Nov. 7, 1716, Elizabeth Phillips of Watertown (V.R.); dau. of Theophilus and Mary (Bennet) Phillips (Phillips Gen.). She d. Sept. 25, 1759, aged 77 years (Watertown Rec.).

On Jan. 14, 1714/15, Benjamin Eddy's name is on the list of those, "Who are proprietors, who are in Possession of the first granted House Lotts in Watertown." (Watertown Rec.)

In a deed in the files of Middlesex Co., Mass., dated Apr. 22, 1718, Benjamin Eddy of Watertown was called a turner and the place which he sold was on the road leading through Watertown to Cambridge and near Beaver Brook. Land of Daniel Benjamin was one of the bounds mentioned. His wife Elizabeth signed the deed.

It is probable that he went to Oxford about 1723 or 1724, for the birth of his son William is recorded there in Feb. 1724, and on June 4, 1724 the following deed is recorded in Watertown.

Benjamin Eddy of Watertown, Turner for £400 sold to John Whitney, blacksmith, Homestead containing a mansion house & a barn & a shop & 13 A of land adjoining & is orchard, plow & meadow land, bounded by land belonging to Mr. Caleb Church, late of Watertown, dec'd, east by Ebenezer Willington, south & west by Highway; also 10 A. of upland . . . bounded north & east by land of Sam'l Eddy, etc. (3) ly a part of a dividend lott being 9 A. by estimate bounded southerly by squadron line. Dated June 4, 1724. Wife Elizabeth signed with X. (Middlesex Co. Files.)

He became one of the proprietors in the new frontier town of Oxford. The following are abstracts from two deeds showing sales of land in Oxford by Benjamin Eddy (Middlesex Co., 41, 120; 41, 122).

Benjamin Eddy of Oxford, farmer, for £40 sold to Joseph Phillips of Oxford, farmer, 60 A. of swamp in 2nd range of the 60 A. lying on a hill called Prospect Hill in Oxford, being the 14th lot in number. Bounds mention Joshua Barton and Elisha Barton and Richard Moore. Dated June 15, 1726. Ack. August 14, 1727. Witnesses, Ebenezer and Deborah Learned.

Benjamin Eddy of Oxford, husbandman, sold to Capt. Ebenezer Learned of Oxford, yeoman, "20 A. on a hill in Oxford Village commonly called and known by name of Prospect being a part of the 28th fifty acre lot in the second range." Mention is made of Jonathan Pratt, and Ebenezer Learned. Witnesses were Ebenezer Lamb and John Campbell. Dated August 14, 1727. No wife signed.

Child, by second wife; b. at Watertown (V.R.):

+131 Grace Eddy, b. Oct. 24, 1714.

Children, by third wife (Watertown and Oxford V.R.):

iii ABIGAIL ALLEN, b. Sept. 9, 1705; m. . . . NEWLAND. They went to Norton in 1735. iv JOSIAH ALLEN, b. Mar. 31, 1708; m. June 15, 1733, ELIZABETH SANGER.
v PHINEAS ALLEN, b. May 1710. vi JOHN ALLEN.

55 Ruth Eddy (Samuel, John, William), b. Nov. 3, 1681, at Watertown (V.R.); d. Oct. 13, 1702; m. Nov 15, 1699, Jonathan Stone of Watertown (V.R.); son of Simon and Mary (Whipple) Stone. They lived in the old homestead of Deacon Simon Stone in Watertown.

Child:

JONATHAN STONE, Jr., b. Sept. 19, 1702, also given Oct. 4; d. Oct. 27, 1725; m. Feb. 25, 1725, HANNAH JENNISON; dau. of Samuel and Mary (Stearns) JENNISON. She was b. July 17, 1702. See Simon Stone Gen. for further account of this line.

56 Joanna Eddy (Samuel, John, William), b. Apr. 24, 1685, at Watertown; m. at Watertown, by Rev. Henry Gibbs, on Dec. 14, 1720, to Thomas Phillebrown of Weston, Mass. (V.R.). She was his second wife. In 1723 they lived in Weston. They were dismissed from the church in Boston in February, 1736/37 to Norton. They were in Norton in 1738 and joined the church in Boston again in 1746.

Children (Fillebrown Fam.):

i ABIGAIL FILLEBROWN, b. July 15, 1721. ii SAMUEL FILLEBROWN, bapt. Mar. 3, 1722.
iii LYDIA FILLEBROWN, b. Aug. 1725.

57 Elizabeth Stubbs (Abigail Benjamin, Abigail Eddy, William), m. in 1674, James Stimson, b. 1644; d. 1692; son of Jonathan Stimson. The following descent from Elizabeth Stubbs was furnished by Mrs. Marion Kilpatrick of Beatrice, Neb.

Child:

JAMES STIMSON; m. Jan. 1, 1698/99, BETHIAH MANSFIELD; dau. of Samuel and Sarah (Barsham) Mansfield. Their son James Stimson was b. Dec. 8, 1702 and m. on May 1, 1729, Sarah Cutler, who was b. May 23, 1709; dau. of Ephraim and Deborah (Stone) Cutler. Anna Stimson, dau. of James and Sarah was b. Nov. 27, 1733 at Weston, Mass. and m. in 1754, Lemuel Jones, who was b. in Weston. Their son Amos Jones was b. in Weston, Jan. 21, 1755 and m. May 31, 1779, at Weston, Azubah Russell, b. Mar. 27, 1760, at Weston; dau. of Thomas and Hepzibah (Nichols) Russell. Ann Jones, dau. of Amos and Azubah was b. in Weston, Dec. 15, 1781 and m.

Oct. 27, 1806, Parker Emerson, of Lexington. He was b. Apr. 5, 1775; son of Parker and Rebecca (Pollard) Emerson. Esther Emerson, dau. of Parker and Ann was b. Jan. 2, 1814, at Boston and m. Nov. 29, 1838, James Lewis Jones, b. Oct. 31, 1816, at Boston; son of Lewis and Elizabeth (Dickson) Jones. To them was b. on Dec. 14, 1839, a son, Edward Lewis Jones, who m. Adelaide Howard Field, b. at Gloucester, Mass., Mar. 20, 1839, dau. of Timothy Davis and Mary Douglas (Gooding) Field. Their dau. Marion Douglas Jones was b. at Chelsea, Mass. and m. on Dec. 28, 1881 at Beatrice, Neb., Robert Jackson Kilpatrick, son of Samuel and Rachel (Thompson) Kilpatrick. Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick have three children; Marion H. who was b. and d. in 1883; Adelaide Davenport, b. July 15, 1884 and m. Irving C. Hancock; and Katherine Rachel, b. Sept. 14, 1887 and m. Charles L. Sherwood.

61 Joseph Benjamin (Joseph Benjamin, Abigail Eddy, William), b. in 1666, in Barnstable; bapt. June 30, 1668, at Stonington, Conn.; d. 1738, at Preston, Conn.; m. Aug. 28, 1698, at Stonington, Conn. Elizabeth Cooke of Norwich, Conn. She was the dau. of Richard Cooke.

Children:
+138 JOSEPH BENJAMIN, b. Aug. 15, 1699; bapt. June 7, 1702, at Preston, Conn.
139 OBED BENJAMIN, bapt. June 7, 1702, at Preston, Conn.
+140 ELIZABETH BENJAMIN, b. Aug. 15, 1701.
141 HANNAH BENJAMIN, bapt. Mar. 3, 1706.
142 SARAH BENJAMIN, b. Jan. 17, 1707.
143 GRACE BENJAMIN, b. Jan. 10, 1709.
144 JEDEDIAH BENJAMIN, b. July 15, 1711.
145 DANIEL BENJAMIN, b. Sept. 17, 1714.
146 ABIEL BENJAMIN, b. Dec. 16, 1716.

62 John Benjamin (Joseph Benjamin, Abigail Eddy, William), m. 1705, Phoebe Larrabee.

Children (probably others):
+147 JOHN BENJAMIN.

69 Eles Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. May 3, 1659; m. Mar. 16, 1682, as his second wife, Benjamin Hatch (Falmouth V.R., Vol. I, p. 122). He was b. 1655; son of Jonathan and Sarah (Rowley) Hatch of Barnstable. Benjamin Hatch's first wife was Mary Hamblin and his third was Experience, widow of Jabez Davis of Barnstable. Some genealogists consider Eles as a spelling for Alice, and others a short form for Elizabeth. Since John had a daughter Elizabeth, it seems more likely that Eles and Alice were the same name in this case.

Children (Falmouth Rec.):
i NATHANIEL HATCH, b. Feb. 7, 1684.
ii BENJAMIN HATCH, b. Oct. 17, 1686.
iii JOHN HATCH, b. Feb. 16, 1689.
iv ELIZABETH HATCH, b. Mar. 25, 1692.
v MELETIA HATCH, b. Oct. 4, 1693. vi TIMOTHY HATCH, b. Oct. 19, 1695. vii HANNAH HATCH, b. May 7, 1698. viii EDDEY HATCH, b. Aug. 2, 1700.
ix SOLOMON HATCH, b. May 7, 1704.

71 Elizabeth Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. abt. 1663; m. Dec. 11, 1683 at Barnstable to Jonathan Lambert (Lombard) a carpenter. He was b. Apr. 28, 1657 at Barnstable. He was the son of Joshua Lambert (son of Thomas and Joyce Lambert) and his wife Abigail Linnell (Banks' Hist. of Marthas Vineyard, Vol. III). The Lombards came from Tenterden, Kent County, England and settled in Scituate, Mass. In 1640 they went to Barnstable.

Children of Elizabeth (Eddy) Lombard (Lombard Family, Cape Cod Hist. & Gen., No. 54):

i JONATHAN LOMBARD, b. Nov. 20, 1684. ii ALICE LOMBARD, b. Oct. 19, 1686; m. JOSEPH NEWCOMB; or DEACON JOHN NEWCOMB (Andrew Newcomb Gen.).
iii EBENEZER LOMBARD, b. Feb. 4, 1688; unmar.
iv ABIGAIL LOMBARD, b. July 12, 1691; m. ROBERT PARKER.

Children, by a second wife:

v SAMUEL LOMBARD, b. 1693. vi HANNAH LOMBARD, m. NATHANIEL DAVIS.
vii BEULAH LOMBARD, b. 1704, unmar.

72 Hepzibah Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. about 1665, at the Vineyard; m. May 9, 1686 (Otis Gen. Notes, p. 471), Deacon Moses Hatch, b. Mar. 4, 1662. He was son of Jonathan[2] (Thomas[1]) Hatch and his wife Sarah Rowley. He m. for a second wife, Oct. 18, 1699, Elizabeth Thatcher of Barnstable; dau. of Col. John Thatcher. She d. May 18, 1716, and he m. (3) Hannah (Scudder) Bangs, widow of Joshua Bangs.

Children of Moses and Hepzibah (Eddy) Hatch:

i ABIAH HATCH, b. Feb. 1, 1686/87; d. Feb. 13, 1686/87.
ii M . . . HATCH, son, b. Feb. 1, 1686/87; d. Feb. 16, 1686/87.
iii MOSES HATCH, b. Oct. 6, 1688; d. Oct. 23, 1688. iv HEPZIBAH HATCH, b. Feb. 16, 1690; m. BENJAMIN NYE of Falmouth (N. Y. Hist. and Gen. Reg., Vol. XLII, p. 257).

73 Hannah Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. 1670, at the Vineyard; d. Oct. 24, 1724; m. John Manter, b. about June 1656 or 1658; d. May 26, 1744. He was son of John and Martha (Lombard) Manter. He lived at Tisbury where he was an ensign in the militia. He is mentioned in the will of John Eddy and so also is his son Samuel Manter. To John and his wife Hannah the care of the aged parents fell and in return they received the property which had been given to Benjamin Eddy by the parents for this purpose.

SAMUEL MANTER, b. Dec. 29, 1693, at Tisbury.

74 Amy Eddy (John, Samuel, William), m. Joseph Daggett (or Doggett) about 1685. She was living in 1712 (Deeds II, p. 349), but is not mentioned in her father's will in 1714, either because he had already provided for her or because she had died.

Children (Banks' Hist. of Marthas Vineyard):

i, ii Two daughters, names not known.
iii ELIZABETH DOGGETT, m. JOHN MERCHANT, as his second wife.
iv AMY DOGGETT.
v JOHN DOGGETT.
vi TEMPERANCE DOGGETT.
vii JOSEPH DOGGETT.
viii HEPZIBAH DOGGETT; m. ENOCH NORTON.

75 Beulah Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. abt. 1680; m. abt. 1701, Enoch Coffin. He was b. abt. 1678, at Nantucket and d. in 1761, at Edgartown. He was the son of John and Deborah (Austin) Coffin. Another authority gives Sarah Austin of Marthas Vineyard as wife of Lieutenant John Coffin and mother of Enoch. Enoch was Chief Judge of Duke's County. All of his children lived to old age; six of them were over 80; two over 90; and the rest over 70 at the time of their deaths.

Children (Tisbury and Edgartown, V.R.); (Hist. of Coffin Family) (N.E.H.G.R., Vol. XXIV):

148 Love Coffin, b. 1702 at Edgartown; m. Thomas[4] Daggett; (Thomas[3], Thomas,[2] John[1]); b. abt. 1692. (Daggett Gen., p. 100).
+149 Hepsibah Coffin, b. 1704.
150 Elizabeth Coffin, b. 1706.
151 Abigail Coffin, b. 1708; m. Grafton Gardner.
152 John Coffin, b. 1710.
+153 Enoch Coffin, b. 1712.
154 Deborah Coffin, b. 1715.
155 Benjamin Coffin, b. 1718.
156 Daniel Coffin, b. 1720.
157 Beulah Coffin, b. 1726.

76 Benjamin Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. probably about 1685; d. May 9, 1709, at Tisbury, Marthas Vineyard, in his 24th year (Tisbury Rec.); m. Hannah . . . . She is probably the Hannah Eddy, who on June 22, 1710, m. Thomas Cole in Boston (Boston Rec., Com. Reports, XXVIII, 277).

On June 21, 1706 he received from his father probably all the estate which the latter possessed, and agreed to care for his parents in return.

> Know all men by these presents that I John Eddy of the Town of Tisbury in Dukes County in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England Blacksmith, for and in consideration of the love and naturall affection which I have and bear unto my naturall Son Benjamin Eddy of the Town County and Province aforsd have given . . . to him the sd Benjamin Eddy my Son . . . all my effects in lands lying & being in the Townshipp of Tisbury . . . my house lot with the house and barn now standing thereon and all other divisions of land thereunto layed out, as also all my right in common or undivided lands in sd Tisbury . . . also all my right in lands lying in the Townshipp of Middleborough in the County of New Plymouth, and also my right and title to certain meadow land and other lands lying in the Town of Chilmark in Dukes County, as also all my right title and interest in a certain neck of land lying in Edgartown in Dukes County commonly caled felix neck; together also I the sd John Eddy have given to the sd Benjamin Eddy my son all my stock of cattle sheep and horses. . . . and in witness and confirmation hereof I the sd John Eddy have caused this my deed of gift to be made and have hereunto put my hand and seal this twenty first day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and six; . . . .

Benjamin Eddy appears in the Records of the town of Tisbury (p. 52) where there is an order for a "division of Charls His neck Allias seconquet into four quarters . . . and Benjamin Eddy a half share . . . the third quarter"; and again as a signer of an agreement in regard to this land on Mar. 23, 1707. On Mar. 25, 1708, he was chosen by the town as "fence vuer."

His early death without an heir, removed all possibility for any male descendants of John Eddy of Tisbury, for so far as has been discovered Benjamin was his only son. On June 4th, 1709, Hannah Eddy, widow of Benjamin, transferred the entire property to John Manter, in consideration of his assuming the "agreement between John and Benjamin Eddy about his son to the value of £9 annually for the support of John Eddy and wife living in one end of the house" (Dukes Probate, I, 27).

The will of Benjamin Eddy was probated in Boston, May 26, 1709. A copy is on file in Dukes Co., Mass. It mentions father and mother, John and Hepzibah Eddy and wife Hannah.

77 Abigail Eddy (John, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 1687; d. Feb. 14, 1717/18; aged 29 yrs. 5 mos.; m. Jan. 18, 1716/17 (Tisbury, V.R.), Thomas Trapp, Jr. He was b. 1683; son of Thomas Trapp. Thomas Trapp, Jr. m. for his second wife, Jean Cathcart. They went to Norwich, Conn.

Child (probably others):

+158 Eddy Trapp, b. 1718.

78 Zachariah Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 10, 1664, at Middleboro,; d. in Glocester, R. I., Apr. 12, 1737; m. (1) Feb. 13, 1683/84, at Middleboro, Mass., Mercy Baker of Swansea (V.R. also East Bridgewater V.R.). She was living, on Oct. 11, 1703, when she signed a deed (B.C.D. 9. 469). He m. (2) Anphillis . . . .

Proof is lacking of the maiden name of Anphillis, but it is thought that she was the widow of Noah Whipple, who died in 1703. If so, she was Anphillis Smith; dau. of Edward and Anphillis (Angell) Smith, and was the second wife of Noah Whipple, whom he had married soon after the death of his first wife, Susanna, by whom he had had four children, Susanna, Enoch, Noah, and Daniel. Noah died very soon after his marriage to Anphillis Smith, and it is thought that she soon married Zachariah Eddy. There is recorded in Glocester in 1739 the marriage of Ann Eddy to Thomas King. It is possible that Zachariah's widow is the Ann of the record, but it is just as probable that it is the daughter Ann, who was b. in 1708, and who at the time of her father's will in 1737 was not married.

Until about 1706 Zachariah lived in Swansea, in the section where Swansea Village is now situated. On Mar. 10, 1695 he purchased of Joseph Lewis a piece of land "on the Highway near Zachariah Eddy's dwelling place," so it is likely that in the first years of his married life he lived in a house, situated on his father's land. In Dec. 1696 his father Zachariah Eddy deeded to him a piece of property (B.C.D., 2, 57) which can easily be located at the present time in Swansea Village. It is the section south of the highway and west of the estate of Mrs. Frank Stevens. It included the place where the Swansea Dye Works are now located, and it excepted "the Burying Place on the premises." This same year Zachariah received from his father another piece, which his father gave to him with the words,—"To my dutiful son, Zachariah Eddy, Jr."

At first Zachariah Eddy, Jr. was a farmer or yeoman as it was called but as his father grew older Zachariah assisted him in running the fulling mill which the elder Zachariah had built on one of the streams so that in the later deeds Zachariah, Jr. bears the title "ffuller." Zachariah added to his holdings by purchases. In 1703 he sold a piece of land to Thomas Lewis. His wife Mercy Eddy signed this deed on Oct. 11, 1703.

On Mar. 23, 1705/06 Zachariah Eddy of Swansea purchased from his brother Ebenezer Eddy of Providence a "dwelling house and 25 acres in Providence about four miles from salt water and harbor, a part of the land which John Thornton (now dec'd) purchased of one called Deacon Parks of Roxbery, Mass., and is part of a hill called Nootaconkonitt . . . bounds are marked trees and stones . . . and south on the highway." The witnesses of the deed were Caleb Eddy and Joshua Eddy (Prov. Deeds).

The following year on May 1, 1707, Zachariah Eddy, ffuller of Swansea sold to Ebenezer Eddy, blacksmith, "my messuage, saw-mill and farm near Mattapoisett, 90 acres, bounded on the northeast corner by the highway . . . head of Spring Brook, salt water—another brook and the Mattapoisett farm line . . . and the Highway to Mattapoisett Neck . . . north by a country road . . . except the burial place for my father's posterity as my said father hath bounded it and with a convenient way to the said burying place." Dated May 1, 1707. No wife signed this deed, so it is probable that Mercy had died some time since Oct. 11, 1703. [B.C.D. 5.418] It is likely that Zachariah moved to Providence in the spring of 1707.

On May 4, 1708, Zachariah was admitted a freeman to the Colony of R. I.; on June 5, 1710, he was chosen way-warden (Vol. II, p. 147 Prov. Early Records); on April 27, 1711, he was chosen to treat about fish (Vol. II, p. 155, Early Records); on Apr. 28, 1709, he was called upon to appraise a mare (Vol. IX, p. 176, Early Records); on Oct. 1, 1716, he was appointed to administer the estate of Zachariah Coman (Vol. XII, p. 52, Early Records). In 1710 he appeared before the court and asked that a road be laid out to Connecticut (p. 272).

For a better understanding of the locations mentioned in the early R. I. deeds it is well to keep in mind that the Seven Mile Line so often referred to in the deeds was settled upon in 1660. "The bounds of the town of Providence for the 1st division shall be set from the Hill called ffoxes hill, seven miles upon a west line and at end of the west line to go upon a straight line north to Pawtucket river and upon a straight line south to Pawtuxett river. It extended this width up the Pawtucket river for a distance of about eight miles." This is the line which separates the western boundry of the present towns of Cranston, Johnston and Smithfield, from the eastern boundary of Scituate and Glocester. At that time Providence included Johnston and Cranston, Smithfield included North Smithfield and other lands to the east; Glocester included Burrillville, and Scituate included Foster.

The following grants and deeds by which Zachariah acquired land are of interest.

June 10, 1710. "Laid off to Zachariah Eddy 10 acres in that tract of land that was bought of Deacon Parks, it being James Thornton's part in that Place, . . . bounded as followeth beginning at a little red oak tree standing in the stone wall which Thomas Burden formerly made and rangeth south"—etc. Oct. 18, 1712. "Laid out to Zachariah Eddy, 50 acres of land on the west side of the seven mile line, said land being near the river called Chepattset and on easterly side of the said river and is bounded as follows . . . Laid out in the 50 acre division of the right of James Ashton, Thomas Olney Jr. surveyor in behalf of sons of Noah Whipple, deceased, namely Enoch and Daniel. Recorded May 13, 1714. (Note. This statement "in behalf of sons of Noah Whipple, dec'd, namely Enoch and Daniel," suggests that the two boys were in the family of Zachariah Eddy and is one bit of circumstantial evidence which suggests the name of the second wife of Zachariah. The compiler also wishes to note that later in the records there is a Daniel Eddy and a Noah Eddy, for whom she has been able to find no parents and wishes to suggest that these two Whipple boys might have taken the Eddy name.) In addition to these pieces which were laid out to him, Zachariah bought another piece on the westerly side of Neutaconkinitt from William Crawford and another one from Zachariah Field in the present town of Smithfield. "Zachariah Field to Zachariah Eddy, now resident in Providence, cloathier, 98 acres situate lyeing and being within the township of Providence on the eastwardly side of the seven mile line and on the southwardly side of a brook or small stream of water that cometh down from Wayunkhege . . . and ½ a right of common between the seven mile line and the four mile line," etc.

The Chepattset River and Wayunkhege Hill of these deeds are in the present towns of Glocester and Smithfield.

The exact time when Zachariah left the more settled sections of Providence for the more remote parts in the north is not known. The first deed that shows residence there is dated 1731 when Zachariah Eddy sold land to Samuel Burlingame to be laid out either in the township of Scituate or Glocester. This land was on the border between the two towns. He also owned land on the dividing line between Rhode Island and Connecticut in the western part of Glocester. He appears in other transactions both as grantor and grantee, in the Glocester, R. I., Registry of Deeds.

Zachariah Eddy, Sen'r and Zachariah Eddy, Jr. both of Glocester, yeoman, sold to John Mash, yeoman, . . . "land which lyeth adjoining to the dividing line between the colonies of Connecticut and Rhode Island and is the lot of land on which John Mash now dwells." (Glocester Deeds, p. 26.)

In Feb. 1735/36 he deeded "for the love and parental affection which I have and do bear towards my son, Elisha Eddy, 100 acres, situate in the township of Glocester, the which land lieth where I now dwell . . . It is bounded on son Joseph's land and is near the river." From this description it would seem that Zachariah's homestead was in the present village of Chepatchet on the river bank. That is the section where the descendants of Elisha have lived from generation to generation and some are still there today. (Glocester Deeds.) Zachariah Eddy sold to son Joseph Eddy, 100 acres in the township of Glocester, where Joseph Eddy dwelleth—bounds mention the river. Dated Feb. 9, 1735/36.

Zachariah Eddy's will dated Feb. 25, 1736/37 and proved June 4, 1737, is on file in Glocester, R. I. It mentions sons Elisha, Joseph and Zachariah, and daughters: daughter An; daughter Jemima Harding; wife Annphillis and grand-daughter Alce Jenk.

Children, by first wife:

159 Alice Eddy, b. Nov. 28, 1684; d. Sept. 24, 1692.
160 Eleanor Eddy, b. May 16, 1686; not mentioned in her father's will.
161 Jemima Eddy, b. Aug. 5, 1688; m. Apr. 21, 1707, Stephen Harding. They went to New London, Conn.
+162 Zachariah Eddy, b. Sept. 13, 1691.
+163 Alice Eddy, b. Jan. 5, 1694. The Swansea V.R. in book A has this record, A . . . d. of Zachariah and Mercy Baker Eddy b . . . 94.

Children, by second wife:

164 Anna Eddy, b. Dec. 27, 1708, at Providence (V.R.). See Will.
+165 Elisha Eddy, b. Nov. 14, 1710, at Providence (V.R.).
+166 Joseph Eddy, b. Feb. 14, 1713, at Providence (V.R.).
167 Samuel Eddy, b. Dec. 21, 1715, at Providence (V.R.) not in father's will; probably died young.

79 John Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 10, 1666 (Plym. V.R.); d. in Newport, in Nov. 1726 (Newport Probate Rec.). He m. (1) Mary . . . . She was living July 8, 1700, when she signed a deed (B.C.D., 5, 414) but died later that same year. She is buried in the Eddy Burial Ground in Swansea Village where her stone bears the inscription M E ye W of J E 1700. John m. (2) Hopestill (Butterworth) Luther, b. Jan. 22, 1663 (Descendants of John Hill of Dorchester, Part 2, p. 36, by Bartlett). She was the dau. of John Butterworth, and widow of John Luther; son of Hezekiah and Sarah (Butterworth) Luther (N.E.H.G.R., Vol. XLI, p. 194), whom she m. June 25, 1687 and by whom she had four children, John, b. Aug. 10, 1690; Nathaniel, b. Apr. 17, 1692; Job, b. Dec. 3, 1694; and Patience, b. Jan. 8, 1697. John Eddy's marriage to Hopestill must have been about Jan. or Feb. 1701. He m. (3) Elizabeth . . . . In all probability she was Elizabeth Bond, whose marriage is recorded to a John Eddy in Boston (V.R.) on Nov. 26, 1711. The Bond family in Watertown was neighbor to [illegible] Hopestill, ([illegible]) Bound wid of Wm Bound Bond the Eddys of Watertown and it seems likely that this was the link which connected the Eddys of Swansea with them. Elizabeth died in Newport in 1747, probably in November. She d. intestate and Ann Thompson a grand-daughter seems to have been her only heir.

There were so many John Eddys living at this time and there has been so much confusion in the past that it seems wise to quote from the records quite fully to prove the identity of John, the son of Zachariah, with the John who married both Mary and Elizabeth and who went to Newport, and to separate him from the other Johns of this period. Between 1680 and 1710 there were at least eight John Eddys. There was John Eddy of Watertown and his son John; John Eddy of Tisbury, the son of Samuel of Plymouth; John Eddy, the son of Zachariah of Swansea; John Eddy, who was the son of Obadiah Eddy of Middleboro, and lived in Taunton; and another John Eddy of Taunton and his son John Eddy; and John Eddy of New Jersey.

On July 8, 1700 Zachariah Eddy of Swansea sold to "my well-beloved son John Eddy of Swansea, blacksmith . . . 40 acres at a place called Shawomet—the bounds mention trees and marked stones . . . and like wise 10 acres more, being two five acre lots purchased of James Bell and Richard Winslow, both adjacent to the 40 acres." His wife Abigail signed off her dower rights (B.C.D. 3.223). This deed was witnessed by Thomas Seamans, Daniel Wilbur and John West. [Shawomet Neck was the land between the Taunton River and the Mattapoisett River, now called Lees River.] The same day John Eddy of Swansea, blacksmith, sold to Caleb Eddy, cordwainer, "20 acres, being a certain piece or parcel of land, situate and lying and being at a place commonly called and known by ye name of Mattapoiset within the township of Swansea aforesd . . . and is bounded northerly by ye Common or undivided land; easterly on ye land of Zachary Eddy, Sen'r; southerly by Shawomet Purchase line; westerly on ye said Zachary Eddys land . . . etc." John Eddy signed and his wife Mary released her dower rights. This deed was witnessed by the same three men as the other, namely, Thomas Seamans, Daniel Wilbur and John West. (B.C.D. 5.414.) Again this same day, July 8, 1700 (B.C.D. 3.224) Daniel Wilbur of Swansea one of the above witnesses, sold to "John Eddy, blacksmith, land at Shawomet, in Swansey, being about 5 acres . . . at the north east corner a stake, then running southerly to the Great Meadow . . . there being a driftway on the northerly side and the land was laid out in the first division of said land, and is in No. 15." The witnesses to this deed were Thomas Seamans, Caleb Eddy and John West, two of whom were the witnesses to the earlier deeds quoted and the third, Caleb, was the grantee in one. This was recorded Mar. 28, 1707. These three deeds taken together prove without question that the John Eddy who m. Mary . . . was the son of Zachariah.

John Eddy made his first purchase of land from Zachariah Joanes (or James, or, as one genealogist interpreted the writing, Frances) (See B.C.D., 2.59).

On Mar. 20, 1696/97 Zachariah Joanes sold to John Eddy of Swansey "one 20 acre lot lying and being in Swansey near to Mattapoisett, which said lott of land was sold to me by division made between my eldest brother Robert Joanes and myself Zachariah Joanes of our dec'd father's estate 1695. This land is bounded eastward on land belonging to Zachariah Eddy, southerly on Shawomut Purchase, westwardly on land of Zachariah Eddy and northerly on a highway." On the next page is a purchase from Robert Joanes (the brother) of the same piece (B.C.D., 2.59).

John Eddy made his next purchase of land from Robert Benet of Portsmouth, R. I. (B.C.D., 3.40) who sold on May 20, 1699 to "John Eddy of the town of Swansey, blacksmith, five acres in the tract of land commonly called Shawomet Purchase in Swansey . . . [bounds mention trees, stones, a little pond] . . . and near to the bank or waterside, the lot being 27th lot in number in Shawomet Purchase. . . . the five acre lot lieth among the five acre lots in ye tract of land called Shawomet Purchase and lyeth near the place called the Narrows in Swansey in ye first division."

On Jan. 7, 1705/06 Zachariah Eddy again sold to "my well-beloved son John Eddy of Swansey, blacksmith, a 5 acre piece and a 3 acre lot, I bought of J. Little . . . and also all my meadow lying on the southward side of the line which runneth between my son Joshua Eddy and my son John Eddy to the middle of the land as it there runneth." (B.C.D., 8.35). There are several other records of purchases by John Eddy, among them the following.

John Jones of Marshfield to John Eddy of Shawomet and is lot number 24 in 1st Division of the west neck of Shawomet. Dated Mar. 8, 1702/03. (B.C.D. 4, 351).

Samuel Sprage of Marshfield to John Eddy of Swansey, lot number 22. Dated June 10, 1702. (B.C.D., 4.352). And again, lot number 31 which was originally Major Church's. Dated Dec. 17, 1703. (B.C.D. 4.353).

Nathaniel Winslow to John Eddy, blacksmith, 5 A. in Shawomet westward end of great meadow. Dated Feb. 17, 1702. (B.C.D., 5.91).

Elizabeth Burton of Middleboro to John Eddy of Swansea lot number 33. Dated March 26, 1708. (B.C.D., 5.335).

Thomas Turner, shipwright, to John Eddy, Blacksmith, 5 A in 1st Division in the Great Neck and is number 26. Dated May 23, 1713. (B.C.D., 8.24).

He witnessed deeds of Zachariah Eddy Jr., to brother Caleb Eddy on Apr. 13, 1702; of Ebenezer Eddy to Caleb Eddy on Oct. 13, 1707; and of Caleb Eddy to Obadiah Eddy in July 1707.

Besides selling to his brothers, John Eddy sold in 1702 (B.C.D. 3.367) to Peleg Sherman of Portsmouth on Rhode Island a part of a fiveacre lot lying in Shawomet Great Neck being the 15th lot in number and then in January of 1714 John Eddy exchanged with Major James Brown of Newport all his lands in Swansea for a piece in Newport.

The deed was signed on Jan. 8, 1713/14 and wife Elizabeth Eddy added her signature. On the 28th of January it was acknowledged in Newport, by both John and his wife.

Entered October 25 1714 by John Cary Recorder.
From Book 8, Pages 556 & 557 Bristol County Northern District Land Records.

On the first day of January 1713/14, James Brown of Newport for the sum of £270 to him paid by John Edy of Swansea in the Co. of Bristol etc. Blacksmith hath sold unto the sd John Edy . . . a certain Lott of Land in Newport Aforesd Bounded Easterly on Spring Street, Southerly on Daniel Pearce his lott Westerly on Sanford's Orchard, northerly on John Odlins Lott. etc. This deed was acknowledged in Newport on Jan. 18, 1713/14. (Manuscript copy p. 190 of old R. I. records on file in the R. I. Historical Society in Prov.)

These two deeds identify the John Eddy of Newport with John, son of Zachariah Eddy of Swansea and so prove that the John Eddy of New Jersey was not his son. It was supposed for a long time that John Eddy the blacksmith upon selling his estate in Swansea went to New Jersey, and it was not until the deed was found in the manuscripts in the R. I. Historical Society that this supposition was proved incorrect.

John Eddy was admitted Freeman to Newport on May 4, 1714 (R. I. Colonial Rec., Vol. IV).

On Sept. 8, 1725 John Eddy, blacksmith, of Newport and wife Elizabeth sold land in Newport bounding easterly on Spring St. . . . together with my now dwelling house and buildings. (Town Records No. 2, p. 75 at the Newport Hist. Society.) John Eddy died in Nov. 1726 leaving a will, which is on file at the Newport Hist. Soc. in a somewhat damaged condition.

When the British evacuated Newport in October 1779 the manuscript records of the town, being in the charge of Walter Chaloner, the Tory Sheriff, were carried off by the troops in a small vessel accompanying the British Fleet. This vessel sank in Hell Gate and the records were under water for several days. Through the efforts of General Washington to whom Gov. Greene explained the loss of the records, they were recovered and deposited in New York, remaining there unopened until the Newport Town Council sent a request for their return on July 26, 1782, which was granted in Dec. 1782 and the Records were recovered. The will of John Eddy was among these papers, as follows:

In the Name . . . Amen The 19th . . . George . . . ng over . . . Britain and . . . anno Dom 1726

I John Eddy of Newport . . . Colony of Rhode Island & P . . . Sick in Body . . . and . . . memory . . . to the mercy of God . . . through . . . & . . . of Jesus Christ to obtain full pardon from . . . of all my sins . . . and in him eternal life and . . . & ordain that all . . . shall be in . . . paid as they shall . . . funeral charges being deducted. I will that the real due of all and singular my estate be disposed in . . . form following.

Viz. I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Elizabeth all my estate of what nature or kind soever either Real or personal whereever the same may be found to her and her heirs excepting twenty shillings in Bills which I give and bequeath to each of my children being . . . which sd sum of twenty shillings . . . to pay to each of my said children in some convenient time after my decease and alsoe appoint my said wife my sole executrix, in this my last will and testament expecting that she will see the same performed according to the true intent and meaning thereof. In testimony whereof I have hereunto sett my hand and Seal ye day and year aforsd Jno Eddy Seal

The will is on file in the Newport Hist. Soc. Town Council Rec. Bk. 4, p. 149. An inventory follows on p. 150, with affidavit attached, p. 151.

Elizabeth Eddy died in Newport in 1747 probably about November. On Dec. 7, 1747 Ann Thompson, granddaughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Eddy, dec'd, appeared in Council and chose Henry Sowle as her guardian, she being of age to choose her guardian (Town Council. Bk. 9, p. 268). On this same day an inventory of the estate of Elizabeth Eddy late of Newport, Dec'd, a widow, who died intestate, was filed and Henry Sowle was made administrator. About a year later he rendered an account, in which is the item "To cash paid Ann Thompson—her account of Sundries"—In Newport is the record of a marriage of Ann Thompson to John Hicks, on Oct. 9, 1760 by the Rev. Gardner Thurston. This is probably Ann Thompson, granddaughter of John and Elizabeth Eddy.

82 Ebenezer Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 5, 1675, at Swansea (Plymouth V.R. in M.D.); d. in Swansea before Aug. 8, 1726, when Caleb Eddy was made guardian of Ebenezer over 14 years and of Mary and Benj. under 14. (Bristol Co. Probate, 5, 297). Inventory of his possessions was taken Dec. 27, 1726, and Jonathan Kingsley, for whom Caleb Eddy and Obadiah Eddy, husbandmen, both of Swansea, went bonds, administered on his estate Dec. 22, 1727. In the settlement, Caleb Eddy was paid for funeral charges and payments were also made to Obadiah Eddy.

He m. June 17, 1701, Sarah Harding of Providence, R. I. (Middleboro Rec. in M.D., Vol. I, p. 220). Ebenezer was a blacksmith and rather a restless individual, if one can judge from the many changes in his residence. He probably spent his early married life in Middleboro, for on Apr. 13, 1702, his father Zachariah of Swansey, Bristol Co., sold to Ebenezer Eddy of Middleboro, my son, blacksmith, land in Middleboro, alias Nemasket, 1 lot of 60 A. which I purchased of T. Savory & Benj. Eaton (called ye Major's Purchase) and a right in South Purchase and 3 acres of Meadow I bought of Robert Ransome and right in Assawamsett Neck and gusset of land of 12 acres granted by court of Plymouth which is where my house stands and all the rights in townships. . . . etc. The deed is witnessed by John Eddy and Thos. Kinnicut (Plymouth Co. Deeds, 6. 55). In 1707 Ebenezer sold this to Thomas Palmer, and Zachariah, his father, gave up all claims he might have in said piece (Plymouth Co. 7, 212).

The year previous, Mar. 23, 1706, Ebenezer purchased from James Thornton land in Providence "consisting of a Dwelling House and 25 acres about 4 miles from salt water and harbor" and is "part of a Hill called Nootaconkonitt. It bounds south on the Highway and contains fruit trees, orchards, meadowns, etc." But the following year Ebenezer Eddy of Providence sold this to his brother Zachary Eddy of the town of Swansea, May 1, 1707 (Prov. Deeds). The witnesses to this deed were Caleb Eddy and Joshua Eddy, and on this same date, May 1, 1707, Ebenezer took in exchange from Zachariah Eddy of Swansea, ffuller, the paternal homestead. To Ebenezer Eddy, blacksmith, Zachariah sold "my messuage, sawmill and farm near Mattapoisett 90 A. Bound N. E. Corner by highway. . . Head of Spring Brook—Salt water—west another brook & Mattapoisett farm line . . . Highway to Mattapoisett Neck country road. . . . a burying place for my father's posterity, being only excepted as my said father hath bounded it and with a convenient way to the said burying place, also 3A of salt marsh" . . . etc., dated May 1, 1707. Caleb Eddy, Joshuah Eddy and John West witnessed the deed, which is recorded Sept. 10, 1708. In 1707 Ebenezer sold this piece with the burying ground to his brother, Caleb Eddy, cordwainer.

Ebenezer occupied the farm in Providence only a short time. His wife, Sarah Harding, was a Providence woman and her relatives were there, but for some reason Ebenezer went back to Swansea where he purchased land in Swansea of Caleb Luther (B.C.D., 13, 87); of James Luther (B.C.D., 14, 106); of Aaron Bowen (B.C.D., 15, 625); of John Thurber (B.C.D., 17, 248).

He was a blacksmith by trade, but at one time he owned a saw-mill which he sold to his brother Caleb, cordwainer, together with the land on which it stood and also rights on the brook for logs etc. for the saw-mill (B.C.D., 9, 196). At one time he owned a farm on Little Neck, which he sold to Esek Brown (B.C.D., 9, 603).

The records contain many other transactions of Ebenezer and his wife Sarah. They sold various parts of their farm lands and swamp lands. Finally Feb. 1, 1721, he sold "messuage, where I now dwell at Mattapoisett, 70 A on County road leading from Bristol to Taunton. Bounds are a spring, Thophilus Luther's land, Mattapoisett River, and freeman's land."

He then moved to Rehoboth, but in Oct. 1724 sold that farm "where I now dwell in Rehoboth, easterly side of a place called Moniheage place on west of Moniheage swamp, which I purchased of Richard Round." He then went back to Swansea to live, but soon sold to John Child, a house and lot in Swansea, near ferry called Humphrey's Ferry . . . and "also the smith's shop and privilege of a way of a Rood wide to the Highway that leads to the said Ferry." Dated Mar. 14, 1725. (B. C. D., 16, 372.)

In the old records of the First Church in Swansea on p. 218 is a record concerning Ebenezer Eddy.

Dec. 5, 1720. At a Church Meteing the Church made choice of Bro. Theophilus Luther and Bro. John Round to notify Bro. Ebenzr Eddy to appear before ye Church ye next Church Meeting then and there to answer to Such things as shall be alleged against him.

Jan. 5, 1720/21. Bro. Ebenzr Eddy having been notified to attend the Church Meeting Did accordingly this day make his appearance before ye Church and did there acknowledge yt he had done much amiss and was very thankful yt ye Church had taken Such Care concerning him and desired ye Church to forgive him and desired also yt he might refrain from coming to ye Lord's Table till he had made up some Difference with some particular Brother or Brethren and untill (by his life and Conversation) he had given some further manifestation of his repentance, all wch ye Church Granted advising him to take ye Rule of God's Word to make up ye breaches which were betwixt him and any of his brethren.

Mar. ye 2, 1720/21. Ebenezer Eddy notified to attend ye next Church Meeting to then and there answer to such things as shall be alledged against him.

Apr. 6, 1721. Ebenezer Eddy appeared and not having given ye church satisfaction for his irregular walk, ye Church exhorted him to forbear his unruly word and actions and to labor after moderation, repentance and reformation and endeavor to come to and keep his place in ye Church.

At his death Ebenezer left six minor children. His brother Caleb became guardian for Ebenezer, Mary and Benjamin and Jonathan Hill for Stephen, Sarah and Phoebe.

Children:

178 Lydia Eddy, b. Mar. 5, 1703, Swansea (V.R.); m. . . . Bullock of Freetown. She sold some of her father's land in the South Purchase to Joshua Eddy of Middleboro.
+179 Ebenezer Eddy, b. Oct. 28, 1706 (Bristol Co. Prob. 5, 297).
180 Nathan Eddy, b. June 19, 1709; probably died young. No guardianship papers were taken out for him.
181 Phoebe Eddy, b. Dec. 25, 1712 (Bristol Co. Prob.). She was over 14 on Nov. 16, 1731. She m. May 17, 1733, at Rehoboth, William Sabin.
182 Sarah Eddy, b. before 1717 (Bristol Co. Prob. 7, 239).
+183 Stephen Eddy, b. after 1717. He was under 14 on Nov. 16, 1731.
184 Mary Eddy, b. after 1712 (Bristol Co. Prob. 5, 297).
+185 Benjamin, b. after 1712 (Bristol Co. Prob. 5, 297).

83 Caleb Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 21, 1678, at Swansea, Mass.; d. Nov. 21, 1748, at Swansea, where he is buried; m. Jan. 11, 1703, Bethiah Smith, daughter of Dermit (or Jeremiah, for which Dermit was a nickname) and Abigail Smith. This Abigail Smith was the second wife of Caleb's father, Zachariah (Will of Abigail Eddy in Bristol County Probate).

Caleb Eddy learned the trade of a cordwainer, but as time went on he became a farmer. His homestead was in the southern part of Swansea, in what is now Swansea Village.

His first purchase of land was from his brother John Eddy on July 8, 1700, when he bought 20 acres at Mattapoisett bounded on land of Zacary Eddy, Sen'r on the east; north on the common, west on Zacary Eddy and south on the Shawomet Purchase line (B.C.D., 5.414).

On Oct. 13, 1707 when the brothers were exchanging their properties he sold to Obadiah Eddy, his brother, 12 acres near a place called Mattapoisett in Swansea. One of the bounds was a heap of stones in the middle of Rocky Run Brook, so called, in the Indian line, which is the south-west corner, etc. (B. C. D., 7, 211), and he purchased from Ebenezer Eddy (B. C. D., 5, 417) "at a place called Mattapoysett within the township of Swansea . . . 25 acres bounded north by the highway ranging by Spring Brook to the salt water; bounding westerly by a brook and the Mattapoysett farm line by the way which leadeth to Mattapoisett Neck. . . . A burying place to be excepted as it is bounded by our honored father in his will, with a way to it . . . and also a way for Ebenezer to get to his meadows" . . . This deed was signed by Ebenezer and his wife Sarah.

On Jan. 27, 1710/11 Zachariah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, sold to son Caleb Eddy, cordwainer, "homestead, houses, etc. at Mattapoisett being 50 acres of upland, meadow and salt marsh . . . at the head of Spring Brook and thereby Spring Brook to the salt water, then rounding by low water to the stake in the little cove before my door . . . other bounds are the brook near the Indian line, the edge of Rocky Run Brook the country road. . . ."

It seems likely that Zachariah and Abigail from this time on made their home with Caleb and Bethiah Eddy, their son and daughter. Caleb purchased several other pieces of land, one being from his brother Zachariah and another from William Salisbury of Swansea, which were two lots, nos. 30 and 31 laid out in the 10 acre division, bounding north on the Highway . . . other bounds were Jeremiah Child, Caleb Eddy and Nathaniel Luther. Caleb appears on the records many times as grantor; generally selling to members of his own family. At one time he seems to have been in partnership with Benjamin Fiske for together they sold to Thomas Seaman, Jr. lot No. 79, "land laid out in the 10 acre Division in the right of Zachary Eddy."

On Apr. 13, 1734, he sold to Daniel Hill, who married his daughter Elizabeth, lots No. 30 and 31 in the 10 acre division (B. C. D., 22, 134). On March 25, 1735/36 he sold a piece of the Amendment Division, bounding south on the Highway and west on Joseph Hix and north on his own land (B. C. D., 27, 522).

On May 11, 1728 he sold to "my son Edward Eddy of Swansea, husbandman land at Mattapoysett . . . 60 acres on the highway that leads to Shawomet" . . . bounds mention Rocky Run Brook and Obadiah Eddy (B. C. D., 20, 84).

On April 15, 1745 he sold to "son Michael Eddy, yeoman, a farm lying in Mattapoisett in Swansea being 40 acres, at the head of Spring Brook and to the salt water and across ye brook—to ye farm line—Jeremiah Luther and the country road were the other boundaries." (B. C. D., 36, 398.) By this deed the ancestral property surrounding the Eddy burial plot passed into the hands of Michael Eddy.

Two other deeds are of interest. On Nov. 14, 1738 Caleb sold to William Case land on the west side of the New Meadow River, near Kickamuit, about 12 acres in all. The bounds mention the School line, the highway that leads from Kickamuit to Miles Bridge (B.C.D., 28, 144) and on Jan. 1, 1738/39 he sold to John Mason . . . land and hill called Brown's hill in Swansea, bounds are William Case and the highway to Miles Bridge (B. C. D., 28, 146).

On the various deeds Caleb appears as cordwainer, farmer, yeoman and husbandman. He does not seem to have taken any part in the political life of the town. His name appears on the records on Aug. 8, 1726 as guardian of Ebenezer, Mary and Benjamin, three of the minor children of his brother Ebenezer and as bondsman for Jonathan Kingsley who was administrator on Ebenezer's estate. When the estate was settled Caleb received payment for the funeral charges. His name is signed as a witness to several deeds and he was a witness to the will of Obadiah Bowen and was one of the appraisers of the estate. He was executor to the will of his mother-in-law, Abigail Eddy. The old Church Book of Swansea has an entry of the baptism of Bethiah Eddy on July 17, 1744.

Caleb left a will which mentions wife, Bethiah; son, Elisha, son Edward, son Michael; dau. Ann Kinnicutt, dec'd and her five children, Elizabeth, John, Abigail, Ann, Daniel; dau. Abigail Child, wife of John Child; dau. Almy (or Amy) Harding, wife of John Harding; dau. Elizabeth Hill, wife of Daniel Hill; dau. Bethiah Anthony, late wife of Job Anthony and her two children, Eunice and Job. Son Michael was the sole executor. Job Eddy was one of the witnesses to the will. It was probated Jan. 5, 1748 and the inventory taken Feb. 4, 1748. This showed the total value of his estate to be £5162 10sh. 6d.

His stone in the Eddy Burial Plot is marked IN MEMORY of CalEb Eddy who diEd NoVEMbEr ye 21 1748 in ye 71 year of His AGE.

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):

+192 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Jan. 8, 1717/18.
+193 Bethiah Eddy, b. Feb. 21, 1720/21.

84 Joshua Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 21, 1680, at Swansea, Mass. (Plymouth Rec.); d. at Glocester, R. I., Nov. 13, 1768; m. May 3, 1708, at Swansea, Hannah Stevens. She d. Oct. 22, 1757.

Joshua learned the cooper's trade (B.C.D., 8.507). Just before his marriage, he received from his father a large tract of land (B.C.D. 7.479). Zachariah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, "for the great love which I bare to my son Joshua Eddy, cooper . . . land and meadow at Mattapoisett, . . . and also salt meadow which I purchased of Hugh Cole being about 2 acres." Dated Jan. 7, 1705/06.

(B. C. D., 8, 509). On Aug. 22, 1713 John Winslow of Swansea for £300 sold to Joshua Eddy of Swansea, cooper, a certain parcel of land lying in Shawomet Purchase in Swansea, aforesaid . . . about 67 acres, 116 rods . . . bounding northerly on a way and easterly on a way, south on John Winslow's land and west on the salt water or freeman's meadow. The deed was signed by John and Mary Winslow and witnessed by Sylvanus Soule and William Anthony.

(B. C. D., 8, 507) John Winslow, farmer, "bought of Joshua Eddy, Cooper, 67 acres . . . bounding northward on John Winslow's, easterly partly by John Eddy's and southerly partly by said John Eddy's and partly by the salt water . . . ." His wife Hannah Eddy signed this deed.

In Feb. of 1722/23, Joshua and William Anthony made partial exchanges of lands. (B. C. D., 15, 215) William Anthony of Shawomet, ffarmer, "for £940 sold to Joshua Eddy of Shawomet Purchase, ffarmer, a house and land in Shawomet Purchase,—about 91 acres—bounding easterly on Peleg Sherman's and partly on salt water and partly on salt meadow northerly partly on land of Peleg Sherman and partly on land of William Sleade; westerly, partly on William Slead and partly on Daniel Wilbor and southerly partly on the great meadow and partly on salt water. The Book of Records show a driftway thro' a part of said land." (B. C. D., 15, 437) Joshua Edy of Shawomet Purchase, ffarmer, for £800 to William Anthony "sold my homestead, house and lands in Shawomet Purchase 69 acres . . . bounding north by a driftway, south by land of William Slade and westwardly by the salt water." Hannah Eddy signed this deed. Dated Feb. 23, 1722.

(B. C. D., 16, 103) Joshua purchased of Daniel Wilbour of Swansea, "for £40 . . . salt meadow in the freeman's privilege lying on Shawomet Neck, being ½ of the 9th lot of ffreeman's meadow, being the south west end of the 9th lot . . . and called by the name of Decross Meadows." Dated Dec. 24, 1724.

(B. C. D., 17, 374) Joshua Eddy for £45 sold to Stephen Borden of Freetown "½ moiety of a lott of salt meadow in Swansea at Shawomet Neck . . . being ½ of the 9th lott of ffreman's meadow."

(B. C. D., 19, 63). On Aug. 3, 1729 Joshua Eddy of Swansea sold to Peleg Sherman his house and land "being 91 acres . . . bounding east on Peleg Sherman, other bounds mention William Slade, Daniel Wilbour, great meadow salt water, etc."

This was the last holding which Joshua had in Swansea and this date probably marks the time of his removal to R. I. Hannah signed the deed. He was now nearly fifty years of age. His brother Zachariah had already been living in R. I. for twenty years and probably urged his brother to join him.

On Aug. 26, 1729 Joshua purchased of Peter Place "100 acres at Wayunkheague" which land was east of the 7 mile line and was his homestead; and three days later he purchased of Stephen Harding 150 acres east of the 7 mile line. This land was probably in the western part of Smithfield not far from the Glocester border. In 1733 Joshua added to this by purchasing of Peter Place "land in Smithfield near where Joshua now dwells" and by purchasing from Stephen Harding "6 acres in Smithfield and adjacent to the easterly side of the farm which I sold to Joshua Eady at Wayankheague and adjacent to land of Resolved Waterman and is on the south side of the River that runs thro the farm on the original right of Daniel Brown and of the 40 acre division." Dated Dec. 11, 1733. In 1739 he added two more acres on the west. This land was in Glocester and purchased from Hosanna Brown, "land now adjoining the westward part of the dwelling place of me and adjacent to the southward part of the dwelling place of Hosanna Brown, . . . a small brook runs through my homestead place."

Later in this same year he sold to his son Daniel Eddy of Smithfield, husbandman, 100 acres in Smithfield, "being the southerly part of my homestead farm where I now dwell . . . a river runs through said farm." Dated Aug. 24, 1739. This was just before Daniel's marriage to Lydia Olney.

On July 15, 1741 he purchased a large tract of land in Salisbury, Conn. (Vol. I, p. 76 of Salisbury Land Records) "James Beebe of Canaan, Conn. to Joshua Eddy of Smithfield, R. I., one share or allotment of the 25 into which the town was divided exclusive of the college grants of the General Assembly" etc.

Again in 1742 he purchased 75 acres more in Salisbury, and in 1744, 225 acres more; and finally in 1746 he purchased 150 acres. At various times he gave this land to three of his sons, Zachariah, James and Peter.

(Vol. I, p. 356, Salisbury Land Records.) Joshua Eddy of Providence, R. I. sold to "well-beloved son, Zachariah Eddy of Salisbury" . . . 200 acres . . . laid out in Salisbury on the Sharon bounds. Sept. 23, 1745.

(Vol. II, p. 42, Salisbury Rec.) Joshua Eddy of Glocester, R. I. to Zachariah Eddy of Salisbury, Husbandman, about 100 acres in a place called the Great Hollow . . . on the Sharon Boundary. . . . Sept. 24, 1746.

(Vol. II, p. 126, Salisbury Rec.) Joshua Eddy—to his loving son James Eddy of Salisbury, Conn.—three parcels of land in Salisbury, 325 acres in all. Dated Oct. 11, 1748.

(Vol. II, p. 127, Salisbury Rec.) Joshua Eddy . . . "to my loving son Zachariah Eddy" 1/3 of his right in the undivided land of the propriety of Salisbury.

(Vol. III, p. 46, Salisbury Rec.) Joshua Eddy of Glocester, R. I. yeoman, to my loving son, Peter Eddy, carpenter, four parcels of land, . . . about 245 acres in all. May 4, 1750.

On the 4th of November 1743 Joshua Eddy, yeoman of Smithfield sold to Benjamin Wilkinson of Scituate, R. I. "a farm at wayunkheague, where I dwell on the south side of the river—being 200 acres in all except the highway that leads to Killingly. He must have moved to his other purchase in the northern part of Scituate for in the next year on Mar. 14, 1743 the Scituate town records have the following:

"The ear mark wherewith Joshua Eddy marks his cattle is a slash cut in the top of the left ear" (Scituate Records). The following year on May 1, 1744, Joshua was made a freeman in the town of Scituate.

According to the records Joshua of Scituate sold for £3500 to William Rhoads land in Scituate and in the part called Westconaid—being the farm where I now dwell. Hannah Eddy wife, signed the deed May 21, 1745.

On Nov. 20, 1745 Joshua Eddy of Scituate, yeoman, bought another farm in Glocester. It was 250 acres in extent and had been the homestead farm of Elisha Knowlton (Glocester Deeds 2, 124). It is likely that he spent the rest of his life on this farm, which in his will he states he has deeded to his son, John. He was made a freeman in Glocester in 1752. All the later land transactions give his residence as Glocester. In 1759 (Glocester Deeds, 6, 474) he sold to James Eddy, his son, "the northerly part of the farm where I now dwell" and on Jan. 26, 1760 he sold 20 A. the south east portion of his farm to son John Eddy. Although a man of means, he does not seem to have taken any part in the political life of his town. His name appears only once in the records of Smithfield (Bk. 3, p. 24) when he was chosen to lay out a highway. His life was spent in cultivating his farm and in bringing up his large family of boys. There were ten of them. They all grew up and married. The descendants of Joshua Eddy of Glocester, R. I. number more than those of any other Eddy of his generation.

Joshua's will states that he has already given to William and Nathaniel their portions, but as yet no record of such gift has been found. On the same day as he made his will he deeded a second piece to son James Eddy (Glocester Deeds 7, 129).

His will mentions the following children except Hannah and speaks of Nathaniel as deceased.

Children, b. in Swansea:

+194 Benjamin Eddy, b. Mar. 5, 1709/10.
+195 Jonathan Eddy, b. Jan. 20, 1711/12.
+196 Daniel Eddy, b. Nov. 7, 1713.
+197 Nathaniel Eddy, b. Apr. 14, 1716.
198 Hannah Eddy, b. June 21, 1718, probably d. young; not in will of her father.
+199 Zachariah Eddy, b. July 23, 1720.
+200 Thomas Eddy, b. Aug. 14, 1723.
+201 James Eddy, b. June 21, 1725.
+202 Peter Eddy, b. Aug. 4, 1727.
+203 William Eddy, b. Mar. 6, 1729.
+204 John Eddy, b. Dec. 25, 1731.

85 Obadiah Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 2, 1683, at Swansea, Mass. (Plymouth, V.R.); m. Dec. 9, 1709, Abigail Devotion, b. in Brookline in 1688. She was the dau. of John^2 Devotion (Edward^1) and his wife Hannah Pond.

The Devotion family was well-educated. Her father was a graduate of Harvard College and her brother John was the first school teacher in Swansea. In the Swansea records it is written under date of 1715, "John Devotion shall teach our youth to Read Inglish and Lattin and write and sifer as there may be ocation." Some of the Devotion family went later to Suffield, Conn.

Although Obadiah Eddy learned the trade of a tanner, he spent most of his life as a farmer. From his father he received a large piece of land (B.C.D. 7, 637).

Zachry Eddy . . . to son Obadiah Eddy, tanner, . . . 90 acres . . . the north west corner at or near the brook on the Indian line, part of the meadow I purchased of John Burthon and 7 acres I purchased of Bethiah Little and 15 acres adjacent and also other land . . . and my land called the amendment and the 20 acres I purchased of Timothy Brooks . . . but Obadiah could not sell any of this "during my lifetime without my approbation." Dated Jan. 27, 1711 and acknowledged Apr. 13, 1711. Recorded July 29, 1713.

Just before his marriage he purchased from his brother Caleb Eddy of Swansea, cordwainer for £5, "12 acres near a place called Mattapoisett in Swansea, bounded by a heap of stones in the middle of Rocky Run Brook, so called in the Indian line, which is the south-west corner." This deed was dated July 1707 and witnessed by John Eddy and John West. (B. C. D., 7, 211.)

On Mar. 26, 1708 (B. C. D., 5, 415) Obadiah Eddy, husbandman, purchased of Elizabeth Burton of Marshfield, . . . "land in Shawomet Great Neck it being in the last dividend of Shawomet Great Neck . . . bounded by the twelfth lot in that division . . . on the west by the Swansey line" . . . the 14th lot; a little brook and a Highway were the other boundaries.

On Mar. 4, 1711/12 (B. C. D., 7, 212) he purchased of William Slead of Swansea, "22 acres in Swansea in the last Dividend" . . . lots 11 and 12, and again (B. C. D., 7, 452) he purchased of Mr. Barker of Scituate . . . land in Shawomet Great Neck . . . the 14th lot in the last division lying near a place called Hix his landing place in the Constabulerist of Swansea . . . bounds mention Widow Burtons land . . . the Swansea line—land of Obadiah Eddy, which is the 15th lot—and south by the country road that leads to Nir—ginnsett.

On Oct. 1720 (B. C. D., 16, 208) Obadiah Eddy of Shawomet, yeoman, purchased of John Devotion, school master and Priscilla his wife, 6 acres of salt marsh meadow in Swansea, which bounded west on the New Meadow Road and on the land of Thomas and Hezekiah Bowen.

There are other purchases of land by Obadiah Eddy in the land registry in Bristol Co. He sold most of this to his sons during his lifetime. The following deeds are of interest:

(B. C. D., 24, 82) Obadiah Eddy of Swansea, Yeoman, "to son, Ichabod Eddy, 20 acres in Swansea on the highway going down to Samuel Chases" . . . other bounds are Jonathan Hill, Constant Eddy and Edward Eddy. Dated Sept. 25, 1734.

(B. C. D., 24, 68) Obadiah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman—to my son Constant Eddy, Yeoman—land in the Mendment Division in Swansea, 20 A . . . north on the Highway.

(B. C. D., 37, 446) Obadiah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman—"for the love I bear to my son Job Eddy of Swansea, cordwainer," 30 acres in Swansea, . . . Dated Oct. 16, 1747.

(B. C. D., 38, 74) Obadiah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, for £3000 to Constant Eddy of Groton, Co. of New London, Conn., yeoman, a farm in Swansea,—120 or 130 acres where I now dwell—bounded south on the Highway and northerly on Eleazar Chase and Job Eddy and east on Jonathan Slade and John Sherman . . . also 12 or 15 acres of upland and salt meadow . . . bounds are Michael Eddy, Rocky Run Brook—thence westerly down stream of said brook to the salt water—land which has been known as the Old fields and lies between ye river, and ye farm with the highway between . . . and also a piece of 3 or 4 acres of salt-meadow and upland, bounded by Robert Shearman's land.

On Mar. 23, 1736/37 (B. C. D., 26, 269) Obediah Eddy and Oliver Earl of Swansea, yeoman, sold to Samuel Millerd of Swansea, shipwright . . . two lotts in the right of Robert Jones in Brooks pasture in the second division in Swansea . . . bounded southerly by a highway leading to the ferry . . . on the east by Hugh Cole to the salt meadow or Ditch Fence . . . and land of John Paddock.

Obadiah lived quietly on his farm. He seems to have taken very little part in the town's activities. In 1727 he was bondsman for J. Kingsley who administered on the estate of Ebenezer Eddy. His name appears as witness on a few deeds and also as a person to whom money is due, when several estates were settled.

Abigail Eddy is buried in the Eddy Burying Ground in the present village of Swansea. Her stone is marked as follows:

Hear : L : Ye : body : of A E : Ye : W : of : O E : died : March
Ye : 14 : 1730.

In all probability Obadiah lies by her side in the grave which is marked by a headstone and a foot stone, neither of which has any inscription.

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):

+205 Constant Eddy, b. Sept. 9, 1710.
+206 Ichabod Eddy, b. June 1, 1713.
+207 Alice Eddy, b. Feb. 24, 1715.
+208 Mary Eddy, b. Nov. 10, 1716; m. May 16, 1737, George Cornel of Dartmouth. (V.R.)
209 Abigail Eddy, b. Oct. 14, 1721; m. Mar. 12, 1748, Joseph Burdon (Friend's Church Rec.). He was son of Joseph and Sarah Burdon of Freetown. She is mentioned in the will of her brother Constant Eddy of Groton, Conn.
+210 Hannah Eddy, b. Jan. 23, 1723.
+211 Job Eddy, b. July 23, 1726.

86 Caleb Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, William), b. May 29, 1672, at Swansea (Plym. V.R.); d. 1747; m. June 5, 1696, Sarah Butcher of Boston (Boston Registry Office). She died May 15, 1711. He m. (2) Hannah Brown on Sept. 25, 1711 (Boston V.R.). It is thought that she was a daughter of Joseph Brown of Swansea. After Caleb's death she m. on Nov. 13, 1749, Ebenezer Clap of Boston, a shipwright (Boston V.R.). She d. in 1750.

Caleb is mentioned in the will of his father as "elder son," to whom he bequeathed "one musket and cutlash, the Reason why I give no more now of my Estate to my son Caleb is; I have gave him a Certain Tract of land by a deed of gift."

Caleb Eddy was a shipwright and merchant in Boston as early as 1708 and in 1710 he rented the shipyard on the lower side of Battery St., formerly Capt. Gillam's (Suffolk Co. Deeds, 46.96). In 1708 he received from his father the latter's share of lands, divided and undivided, in the 16 Shilling Purchase and Assawampsett Neck, both of which he sold in 1717 to Jacob Tomsen of Middleboro (Plymouth Co. Deeds, 12.190 and 10.83). This was the half share which Caleb Eddy, Sen. had received from his father, Samuel, and had held in common with his brother John Eddy of Tisbury, Mass. Jacob Tomsen bought from John Eddy the other half share in this piece.

On Jan. 31, 1708, he bought of John Alline, a piece of land at the south part of Boston. This was Eddy's shipyard, which in 1842 was known as Tileston Wharf. On Sept. 16, 1712, he sold this land to Richard Gridley.

(Suffolk Co. Deeds, 26, 240) "Caleb Eddy of Boston, shipwright and Hannah his wife sold to Capt. Richard Gridley . . . land at the southerly end of Boston; land and wharfs, bounded on the north west by a rope walk, formerly belonging to John Harrison and now in occupation of James Barton. . . . down to low water mark."

On Jan. 30, 1730, Caleb and John Clough bought for £100 of his Excellency Jonathan Belcher land bounding partly on the highway leading into Orange St. He hired of Samuel Phillips for £9 per year the shipyard of Samuel Gillam on the lower end of Batterymarch Street, Boston.

On Mar. 2, 1730, Gov. Belcher's wife conveyed to Caleb Eddy and others a piece of land upon which the Hollis Street Church was later erected. Caleb was greatly interested in the building of this church and during his whole life was a very influential member of the congregation. His pew was No. 4, and it was appraised at a value of £52. "At his decease his total estate was valued at £2430. In the inventory was included a "Negro woman" named Luce, valued at £100. There was also a "Silver Tankard," which went to his son Caleb. In 1880 this was in the possession of Robert Henry Eddy of Boston. It was marked "Caleb and Martha Eddy, 1747." It was decorated with beautifully engraved armorial bearings." (1881 Edition of the Eddy Gen.)

Caleb's will does not mention this silver tankard nor is it mentioned specifically in the inventory of his estate taken Jan. 1748, but it may be included in 39 oz. 8 pwt. 12 gr. of silver plate worth £108, which appears in the inventory. But in the inventory of the possessions of his brother Benjamin Eddy taken in 1738 there is an item, "Tankard, 2 spoons and a porringer, 36 oz. Silver" and worth £45.

In the inventory of the estate of Caleb's son, Caleb Eddy, Jr., taken Jan. 1753 is the item "1 Silver Tankard, wt. 26 oz. 15 pwt." listed among other articles of silver.

Children, b. Boston (V.R.):

+212 Samuel Eddy, b. Apr. 5, 1716.
213 Hannah Eddy, b. Nov. 5, 1718; m. Feb. 7, 1761, John Simpson (Boston V.R.).
+214 Caleb Eddy, b. Mar. 30, 1721.

87 Samuel Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, William), b. July 15, 1675, at Swansea, Mass. (V.R.); d. Mar. 27, 1744, at Swansea (V.R.); m. Apr. 10, 1707, Sarah Easterbrooks.

He is mentioned in the will of his father, from whom he received "one End of my Dwelling house and home lott and meadow belonging thereto Togather with a lott of land lyeing between the land of John Paddock and John Wheaton's land and also all my Right of undivided lands or Commons within ye Township of Swansey and allso my Sword. The Reason why I give no Cattle to Samuel is; I gave him Cattle at the time of his Marriage and I allso Give to my son Samuel all my Carpenter Tools and Allso all my Iron working Gear, Horse Chaines, Plows, Carts and all Iron things belonging to husbandry work and furthermore I Engage my son Samuel to take full care of his mother to Provide all things necessary and Comfortable for her Subsistance and Support in this life Dureing the time she Remains my Widow." (Bristol Co. Prob. 3.123.)

He spent all his life in Swansea, where he was a weaver. On Nov. 21, 1709, he sold to Hezekiah Luther, "land on the East Side of New Meadow River at Mattapoisett" (B.C.D. 6.123) and again on June 9, 1715, Samuel Eddy, weaver, and Joseph Butterworth, yeoman, both of Swansea, sold to John Butterworth of Bristol, land in Mattapoisett, (B.C.D. 9.335). On Feb. 1, 1731, Samuel Eddy, weaver, and wife Sarah, sold land near New Meadow River (B.C.D. 24.152). Three other deeds (B.C.D., 25.354; 27.454; 27.555) show that Caleb's estate was partly on the east side of New Meadow River and also on the west side of Kickimuit River and he had also 60 acres near Capt. John Brown on the Highway from Kickimuit to Miles Bridge. Before his death he sold much of this property to his son.

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):

218 Hannah Eddy, b. Mar. 14, 1715/16; m. bef. May 18, 1744, John Bullock, (Warren, R. I. Deeds).

88 Benjamin Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, William) d. bef. 1730; m. Nov. 13, 1712, Mary Hallowell (Boston, V.R.). After his death she m. David Law on May 25, 1736 (Boston V.R.).

Benjamin is mentioned in the will of his father Caleb. From him he received "40 acres in Swansey lyeing to the East of Mattapoiset and one Musket" (B.C. Prob. 3.123). He was a shipwright and mariner in Boston, as early as 1719, and it is probable that he accompanied his brother, Caleb, to Boston and was either employed by Caleb or in company with him as early as 1710 or 1711 (Suffolk Co. Deeds).

Suffolk Co. Deeds (33.250; 38.3; 41.139; 41.140) show land transactions of Benjamin and wife, Mary, during the years 1718 and 1719.

94 John Eddy (Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 22, 1669 (Eddy Gen., p. 207); d. between 1722, when Obadiah, his father, made his will and Feb. 7, 1731, when Seth, Obadiah and Mehitable Eddy, his children, sold land which they had inherited from him (B.C.D. 34.472). He m. Sarah Stacey, youngest dau. of Richard Stacey (B.C.D., Vol. X, p. 24).

Both John and Sarah were living on Mar. 6, 1713/14 when "Samuel Haskins, Sr. of Taunton, whose first wife was Abigail Stacey, daughter of Richard Stacey of Taunton, dec'd; Samuel Haskins, Jr., son of said Abigail; Samuel Cobb with wife Lydia, daughter of said Abigail, Thomas Linken, grandson of Thomas Linken and wife Mary, daughter of Richard Stacey; Morgan Cobb, Jr. and wife Sarah; James Woodward and wife Hannah, daughter of Richard Stacey and Edmund Andrew and Esther his wife (Sarah and Esther daughters of Esther Stacey, daughter of said Richard Stacey) together with John Eddy and Sarah his wife, who was the youngest daughter of said Richard Stacey," signed a deed.

John Eddy is mentioned in his father's will, dated May 18, 1722 and proved Nov. 6, 1727 (Plymouth Co. Prob. Office, No. 7086), "Item, I have heretofore given unto my son, John Eddy . . . full part and portion which I intended . . . of my estate." The will also mentions "grand-daughter, Mehitable Eddy, daughter of son John."

John Eddy of Taunton for £9 to John Hascal of Middleboro two lots of land lying in the south purchase, Middleboro, one in fourth division, lot No. 96 and other in fourth division, lot No. 101, both containing 90 A. Feb. 1, 1699/1700 (Plym. Deeds, Vol. X, p. 385).

John settled in Taunton, amid the descendants of John Eddy of Taunton, the carpenter. He owned 20 acres on the Three Mile River, which his three children later sold to Edmund Andrews (B. C. D., 34, 372). The bounds mentioned are "land that was formerly Samuel Haskins, . . . land that was formerly Mr. Samuel Danforth's to ye brook then running down said brook to ye old cartway; then by said cartway till it comes to William Briggs Land . . . Edmund Andrews, his dwelling house . . . the highway laid out to ye river called Seketeganset River." Dated Feb. 7, 1731.

Another deed (B. C. D., 42, 504) given by Seth Eddy, son of John, shows the location of the homestead of John. " . . . The south west part of my homestead scituate and being in said Taunton which homestead was my honored father's, Mr. John Eddy's of Taunton, dec'd, bounded south west by Hoskin's land and on ye North west by ye meadows of Morgan Cobb 2nd.—and south-east by land of Hoskins"—etc. Still another deed shows that the land was in Taunton (B. C. D., 43, 57) and about "four miles from ye Meeting House."

John Eddy's name is on the Roster of the First Military Company of Taunton, on May 30, 1700 (Hist. of Taunton, Emery, p. 354). Among the Capt. Thomas Leonard Papers is a record dated 1691. "Accounts of First Mil. Co. of Taunton."

"An accompt of all the fines I ever gathered as Military Clarke in Taunton and disbursements,—John Edy (his name is one of eight)—6 shillings besides in a general way of repairing all the drums of yours, which by law comes to about £10 out of which must be taken one shilling on Edy."

A fac-simile of his signature may be seen on page 160 of the History of Taunton by Emery. He signed as witness to a bond which has been preserved.

"On the Expedition to Little Compton 1691, King William's War (City Hall Papers), an account of who of Taunton went with Mr. Samuel Goodin to Little Compton and how long they were out, they and their horses, except Sabbath day, and what money they spent:
Uriah Leonard and his horse, 6 days . . .
John Eddy's horse." (Hist. of Taunton, p. 397.)

Here follows one other mention of this John Eddy in the old papers.

"The lists of the heads of families in Taunton in 1709, besides those belonging to the North Purchase Military Co. and the South Purchase and the farms over the river as high as James Phillips, Eleazar Eddy, John Eddy, Joseph Eddy, etc."

Children (B.C.D. 54, 472):
227 Mehitable Eddy, mentioned in her grandfather's will and was of age in 1731 when she sold land. She m. Benjamin Knapp on Feb. 17, 1731/32 (Taunton V.R.).
+228 Obadiah Eddy, bef. 1710.
+229 Seth Eddy.

96 Samuel Eddy (Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. 1675; d. 1752 (Eddy Gen. 1881, p. 207); m. Feb. 3, 1702/03, Melatiah Pratt of Middleboro (May. Des., Vol. II, p. 43). She was b. Dec. 11, 1676;

d. 1768 or 1769, in her 93rd year (Boston Transcript, for Aug. 1921). She was dau. of Jonathan^2 Pratt (Joshua^1) and his wife Abigail Atwood, who was dau. of Stephen and Abigail (Dunham) Atwood.

"He was a wheelwright and owned and occupied that part of his father's estate which included most of what is now known as Eddyville. His house stood by the great pear-trees, long a landmark, and famous in all the region for their size and fruit. It stood on a gentle knoll with a spring at its foot, the soil being fertile and easy of tillage, and well-watered.

"His home was burned to the ground about 1721, so he built another a little farther to the south of the site of the first. This is the one that is now standing in Eddyville, the oldest house existing in this line of ancestry and today it is in good preservation, cheerful and homelike." (Eddy Gen. 1881).

Melatiah was born in the fort where the inhabitants of Plymouth had taken refuge in the first year of King Philip's War. When she was an elderly woman she used to tell about the "times when the Indians were ten to one of the whites." Her parents died when she was young and she was brought up in the family of Ebenezer Tinkham, who was one of the deacons of the First Church when it was organized in 1694. Melatiah was admitted to the church on May 20, 1715. She was very religious. It is said of her that when her children were sick, she knelt down and prayed with them. She had a very frail constitution and always felt that her life would be short, but she outlived her husband, who was far more robust.

By a codicil added to his father's will on Dec. 17, 1722, Samuel was made executor. He appears on the town records when he and his brother Benjamin with others on Mar. 30, 1717 purchased of James Soule "two acres of land in the 26 Men's Purchase to be used for a Parish Burying Ground." This land is opposite the First Church and contains the graves of many of this branch of the family. Samuel was admitted to the First Church June 12, 1715. In the years between 1744 and 1748 there was a great dissension in the church at Middleboro between the "New Lights" and the "Old Lights." Samuel was one of those chosen to serve on a committee to devise some means to settle the differences.

In March 1734, Benjamin White, Samuel Eddy and Joseph Bumpus and two others petitioned the court for their "free consent to build a slitting mill on the Nemasket River on land of Moses Sturtevant." This permission was granted, but the dam was not built until later. They left "a sufficient opening for the passing of the herring up to the great ponds."

The earliest record of the First Military Co. of Middleboro, taken Jan. 19, 1710/11 has on its list, Serg't Samuel Eddy, and also the name of Benjamin Eddy. (Hist. of Plymouth Col.)

"He was a man of uncommon strength and robust constitution, his frame being very large. Tradition has preserved remarkable proofs of his powers." (Eddy Gen. p. 208.)

Children, b. Eddyville, Middleboro, Mass.:

+230 Samuel Eddy, b. 1710.
+231 Zachariah Eddy, b. 1712.
232 Melatiah Eddy, m. Mar. 23, 1730, Samuel Tinkham of Middleboro.
233 Bennett Eddy, m. William Redding, on Feb. 7, 1738; son of Ebenezer Redding.
234 Fear Eddy, m. George Williamson, Nov. 7, 1738. They went to New Jersey.

97 Zachariah Eddy (Obadiah, Samuel, William), d. Dec. 9, 1711, at Hatfield, Hampshire Co., Mass.; probably unmar.

(Hampshire County Probate, 323) "Letters of Administration on the estate of Zachariah Edy late resident in Hatfield, for ye County of Hampshire deceased were granted to Samuel Edy and Israel Woodward, they having given bonds." Dated June 28, 1712.

"Know that I, Obadiah Eddy of Middlebery in the County of Plimouth, yeoman, have ordered my well beloved son Samuel Eddy of Middlebury in Plimouth, wheelwright and my son-in-law, Israel Woodward of Swansey, Bristol Co. attorneys for me to receive goods or other estate sometime belonging to my beloved son Zachariah Eddy, late resident in Hatfield, Hampshire Co., deceased." Dated June 16, 1712. Signed by Obadiah Eddy, with a mark.

A true inventory of the goods of Serg't Zechariah Eddy, a transient person dec'd at Hatfield, Dec. 9, 1711. Appraised at Hatfield, Dec. 30. An inventory of clothes follows, (Book III, p. 303).

98 Jabez Eddy (Obadiah, Samuel, William), m. Mary Rickard (Plympton V.R., also Jennings Gen.). She was b. Oct. 27, 1677 (M.D. Vol. II, 19); dau. of Deacon John^2 Rickard (Giles^1), who mentions her in his will, and his wife Mary.

Mary, the wife of Deacon John Rickard is said to have been the daughter of William and Rebecca (Brown) Snow of Bridgewater and granddaughter of Peter Brown of the Mayflower.

Jabez Eddy resided in Plympton and in Carver. In 1731 he and his two sons appear on the records as subscribers to the Congregational Church in Plympton. In 1734 and 1735, Jabez was "one of three chosen to take care that there be no stoppage in the South Meadow River in Carver, to obstruct or hinder the course of the fish either going up or down the said stream" (Hist. of Carver).

Jabez is mentioned in his father's will as having already received his share. His name occurs many times in the Plymouth Registry of Deeds where his many land transactions are recorded.

Children (Plympton V.R., also May. Des., Vol. V.):

+235 Jabez Eddy, b. Apr. 14, 1700.
+236 Mary Eddy, b. Jan. 24, 1701/02.

240 Hazadiah Eddy, b. Mar. 20, 1711; m. Shubael Lewis.

99 Benjamin Eddy (Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. about 1673, in Middleboro; d. Sept. 24, 1744, at Halifax, Mass. (V.R.); m. Nov. 8, 1716, Abigail Pratt (Scituate, Mass. V.R. also May. Des., p. 45). After his death she married Elisha Hayward on July 31, 1747 (Int. June 11, 1747, at Halifax). For her third husband she m. James Smith in 1752.

Benjamin is mentioned in his father's will. He spent the earlier part of his life in Middleboro, where he was a member of the First Military Co. on Jan. 19, 1710/11 (Hist. of Plym. Col.). On Mar. 30, 1717, he was one of a group who purchased a tract of land in the "26 Men's Purchase" to be used for a Burying Ground. He owned land in both Middleboro and Plympton. About 1733 he became a resident of the town of Halifax, where he died.

108 Joseph Marion (John Marion, Sarah Eddy, John, William), b. June 10, 1686; in Boston (Savage); d. Oct. 11, 1761. He is buried at the Granary Burying Plot in Boston, where his stone bears the inscription, "aged 75 yrs., 3 mo. 21 da."; son of John Marion, Jr. He m. June 7, 1711, at Boston (Boston Marriages, p. 36) Ellen Bridge; dau. of Rev. Thomas and Elizabeth Bridge. She is buried at the Granary Burial Plot. Her stone states that she d. Jan. 20, 1744, aged 56 years, 3 mo., 12 da. (See No. 1648 and 1649).

Elinor by Rev. Thomas Bridge Prob.

Bridgman's History of Families has the following statement:—"Mr. Joseph Marion was very aristocratic and exclusive, valued himself on his pedigree, had a genealogy of his family upon parchment illuminated and painted as though it had just come from the limner's and printer's hands. He was the first person who put tablets or monuments upon the church walls in Boston." His home in King Street was destroyed by fire, after which he lived with his son-in-law, William Story, whom he told where he wished to be buried—the exact spot. When digging the grave on this spot a tomb was found with room for one person.

Child, b. in Boston:

+251 ELIZABETH MARION, b. Sept. 22, 1721.

117 Isaac Marion (Samuel Marion, Sarah Eddy, John, William), b. Nov. 8, 1694; m. July 17, 1717, Rebecca Knight, bapt. 11-9-1694.

Children (incomplete):

+252 i IGNATIUS MARION, b. 8-15-1724. (He spelled his name Meriam.)

ii MARY MARION, mar. Dec. 24, 1741 JOSEPH WHITMORE, b. Sept. 19, 1719 at Woburn. Both died in Ashburnham. Their son, Isaac Whitmore, b. 1758 in Leominster; m. Rebecca Foster. Their son, Col. Enoch Whitmore, b. Sept. 8, 1796 in Ashburnham; m. June 7, 1818, Clarissa Willard, b. June 30, 1800. Their daughter, Eliza R. Whitmore; m. Nov. 18, 1841, Horace Eames; b. 123 John Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. May 6, 1696, at Watertown; bapt. Sept. 12, 1697, at Cambridge (Watertown and Cambridge Records); d. 1762, at Oxford. His will, dated Jan. 21, 1762, was probated Apr. 20, 1762, at Oxford, Worcester Co. He m. Jan. 20, 1725, at Marlboro, Mass., Marcy (also called Mary) Bellows (V.R.). She was b. Mar. 28, 1705 and died Apr. 23, 1747, at Oxford (V.R.). She was the dau. of John and Hannah (Newton) Bellows (Newton Gen., p. 40). He m. for his second wife Patience Towne, widow of Edmund Towne of Oxford. She was the dau. of Samuel and Margaret (Stone) Gould, and was b. Aug. 25, 1709; m. June 18, 1747; d. in 1767. Her will was proved on Dec. 17, 1767 (Family of Zacheus Gould of Topsfield and Worcester Probate).

Soon after his marriage John Eddy joined his Uncle Benjamin Eddy in Oxford, where he lived the remainder of his life, enjoying all the advantages and suffering all the privations of a new town on the frontiers of civilization. His will mentions wife Patience; son Hezekiah; son Josiah; son Edmund; dau. Mary Moore, wife of Richard Moore; dau. Hannah Eddy and in a codicil, dau. Esther. After the proving of the will sons "Josiah, aged 17; Edmund, aged 16; sons of John Eddy, late of Oxford" chose Samuel Harris for their guardian. The will of Patience dated July 4, 1766, mentions "my beloved sons, Josiah and Edmund." John Towne was made the executor of this will on Dec. 14, 1767. On May 31, 1770, the children came to an agreement which was signed by Hezekiah Eddy; Esther Eddy (her mark); Edmund Eddy; Richard Moore and Mary Moore, his wife; Thomas Eddy and Hannah Eddy, his wife; and Josiah Eddy.

Children, by first wife; b. at Oxford (V.R.):

iii Joseph Hurd, b. June 19, 1738; d. Jan. 31, 1820, aged 81 yrs. He m. Dec. 15, 1763, Mary Livermore, b. June 19, 1738; d. Jan. 3, 1820 (Oxford V.R.).
iv Sarah Hurd, b. Apr. 30, 1740; d. May 7, 1816, aged 76. Unmar.
v Mary Hurd, b. Jan. 28, 1744/45.

126 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Aug, 14, 1701, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.); d. Aug. 4, 1763, at (Oxford V.R.); m. Jan. 30, 1727 (Oxford and Marlboro V. R.), Elizabeth Bellows of Marlboro, b. Feb. 12, 1700; dau. of John and Hannah (Newton) Bellows (Newton Gen.). She was living in 1762.

The V.R. give the date as 1763 for the death of John but the probate records show that Elizabeth refused on Aug. 30, 1762 to administer the estate of her husband and requested that her son Samuel should be appointed in her place.

Samuel Eddy was a husbandman. Soon after his marriage he sold all his holdings in Watertown to his brother Ebenezer Eddy and joined his brother John Eddy at Oxford. Neither Samuel nor his wife could write. All the deeds are signed with a mark. The following abstract is of interest,— > (Middlesex Co.) Samuel Eddy of Watertown, Husbandman, for £300 sold to Ebenezer Eddy of Watertown, Husbandman, 30 acres, a dwelling house, barn . . . bounded on the county road and north east upon a town road partly and partly on lands lately of Elnathan Whitney, dec'd, northerly on the watering place and lands of John Woodward and on the west and north by John Stowell and south west by lands of Ebenezer Eddy and Deacon John Coolidge. Dated Mar. 16, 1727/28. Signed by Samuel and Elizabeth with marks.

Children, b. in Oxford (V.R.):

266 Elizabeth Eddy, Nov. 24, 1728; d. about 1782, unmar. She lived in Ward, Mass. In Sept. 1784, Samuel Eddy, Levi Eddy, and Joshua Merriam of Oxford, who married Abigail Eddy, and John Hart asked for a settlement of the estate of Elizabeth Eddy of Ward, spinster, who had died about two years previous (Worcester Probate).
267 Samuel Eddy, b. July 3, 1731; d. Sept. 26, 1736, aged 5 yrs. (Oxford V.R.).
268 Ruth Eddy, b. Oct. 23, or 26, 1733; m. (Int. July 10, 1762) John Hart of Leicester, Mass. (Oxford V.R.). John Hart was guardian of Jemima and Ruth Eddy, children of Ebenezer Eddy.
+269 Jonathan Eddy, b. Dec. 23, 1735, also called John.

+270 Samuel Eddy, b. July 31, 1738.
+271 Abigail Eddy, b. Dec. 5, 1740.
+272 Levi Eddy, Apr. 25, 1745.

128 Ebenezer Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Jan. 9, 1704/05, at Watertown, Mass. (V.R.); d. Dec. 15, 1768, Oxford, Mass., in his 63rd year (V.R.); m. Apr. 4, 1737, at Oxford (V.R.), Ruth Ward of Newton, b. May 19, 1710; dau. of Eleazar and Deliverance (Trowbridge) Ward (Ward Gen., p. 20).

In the early part of his life he lived in Watertown where he was much interested in the church. The records state that on Apr. 24, 1732, Ebenezer Eddy had a side gallery pew in the meeting house in the East Precinct in Watertown. In the latter part of his life he moved to Oxford where two of his brothers were already living. He settled at Elliott Mill Place. He was a soldier in the French and Indian War. His service as found in the Mass. Archives was as follows,—

(Vol. XCV, page 32) Ebenezer Eddy appears as a private from Oxford on a Muster Roll sworn to Boston Feb. 17, 1757, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Learned. Entered service, Sept. 24 . . . Served until, Nov. 11, 7 weeks. . . . Endorsed 1756. On Crown Point Expedition.

(Vol. XCV, page 518) Ebenezer Eddy appears as a private on a Muster Roll sworn to Worcester ss. Jan. 5, 1759, of men detached out of Capt. Edward Davis' Co.; Col. John Chandler, Jr's Reg't., which marched on the alarm for the relief of Fort William Henry in August, 1757. Under the Command of said Capt. Davis. Impressed, Aug. 10. Returned Aug. 18. Marched from Oxford to Sheffield. Distance travelled, 105 miles. Time in service, 16 days. Allowed for horsekeeping 8d. per day. 8d.

From the Worcester Probate Records (18705) it is learned that Ebenezer left a wife Ruth, who refused to administer his estate and desired that her son Thomas Eddy be appointed in her place. The children mentioned are eldest son Thomas Eddy; son Abel; and dau. Sarah Gleason, wife of Joseph Gleason; dau. Tabitha Towne, wife of Samuel Towne; dau. Eunice and two minor daughters, Jemima and Ruth, who chose John Hart for their guardian. He was the husband of their cousin, Ruth Eddy. On Jan. 18, 1769, Thomas was made administrator and about a year later, on Feb. 12, 1770, he bought the rights to the property from all his brothers and sisters, thereby owning the property in common with his mother who still kept her thirds.

Ebenezer Eddy settled the estate of his brother-in-law, Jonas Ward, on May 1748, at Oxford, Mass. He charged for a journey which he was obliged to make to "Exeter and Portsmouth to collect wages due to Mr. Ward." From his father-in-law, Eleazar Ward, he received interest in a grist-mill in Oxford (Ward Gen.).

129 Benjamin Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Nov. 30, 1707, at Watertown, Mass.; d. May 2, 1799, at Newton, Mass. (V.R.); (Int. Nov. 13, 1733); m. Nov. 17, 1733, at Newton (V.R.) Elizabeth Truesdale, b. Mar. 12, 1709, at Newton; d. Nov. 15, 1751, at Newton (V.R.). She was the dau. of Samuel and Elizabeth (Hammond) Truesdale. He m. (2) Hannah Day, b. about 1714 and d. Feb. 24, 1794, aged 80 years (Newton V.R.). They were mar. Apr. 12, 1753, at Newton (V.R.).

Benjamin was a tailor by trade. He did not follow his brothers to Oxford, but settled in Newton, after selling all his Watertown property. He first bought land in Newton in 1731, when he purchased a piece of property upon which there was a "Mansion House." It was a little north of the centre and not far from the school house. Before his death he sold part of his large estate to his son, Benjamin, and to several others. Since the town of Newton was so near to Boston, it was especially aroused by the events leading up to the Revolutionary War. On the 17th of June, 1776, the town of Newton voted, "In case the Honorable Continental Congress should declare the American Colonies Independent of The King of Great Britain the inhabitants of this town solemnly engage, with their lives and fortunes to support them in the measure." Benjamin Eddy lent the town £52 in 1777, so that the soldiers could be paid. This was one twentieth of the amount which Newton raised in part redemption of that promise. This generous subscription of Benjamin's shows us the important place which Benjamin held both in influence and in wealth in the town.

Although sixty-eight years of age, he marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775 (Hist. of Newton from 1630 to 1800 by Francis Jackson).

Benjamin Eddy, Newton. Private Capt. Amariah Fuller's Co., which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, to headquarters at Cambridge; service, 1 day; reported as belonging to the alarm list; also, Lieut. Joseph Crafts's co., which marched to join Col. Crafts's regt. at Boston Dec. 9, 1776; service, 9 days.

(Middlesex Deeds) Benjamin Eddy, "Taylor, and Hannah, my wife" sold to Henry Gibbs "a piece of land upon the plain, so called in Newtown, near the school-house in said town—containing 5 A. bounded easterly on the road from Watertown to Dedham, south on land of Timothy Cheney, and west on land of Benjamin Eddy, and north on land of Henry Gibbs. Dated Apr. 13, 1756.

(Middlesex Deeds) Benjamin Eddy, tailor, for £200 "To my son Benjamin Eddy, Jr., tailor, three pieces of land" . . . Signed by Benjamin and wife, Hannah. Dated Apr. 14, 1785.

vii JACOB COMINS, b. Jan. 21, 1766/67. (There is some question as to whether this Jacob is a son or grandson.)

136 William Eddy (Benjamin, Samuel, John, William), b. Feb. 5, 1725, at Oxford, (V.R.); d. Mar. 16, 1805, at Oxford (V.R.), aged 80 years. His marriage intentions were published Nov. 1746 and he m. on Jan. 21, 1746/47, at Oxford, Sarah Bellows of Southboro Mass.; dau. of Eleazar and Sarah Bellows (V.R.). She was born Nov. 14, 1725; d. Jan. 20, 1808, at Oxford (V.R.).

He was a soldier in the French and Indian war. In the Mass. Archives the record is as follows.

(Vol. XCV, p. 518) William Eddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to Worcester ss. Jan. 5, 1759, of men detached out of Capt. Davis' Co., Col. John Chandler, Jr's Reg't., which marched on the alarm for the relief of Fort William Henry in August, 1757—under the command of said Capt. Davis. Quality, Private. Impressed, Aug. 10. Returned, Aug. 18. Marched from Oxford to Sheffield. Distance travelled, 105 miles. Time in service, 16 days.

When the Revolutionary War broke out he enlisted as a private. His service follows:

William Eddy, Shutesbury. Private, Capt. Oliver Coney's co., Col. Sears's regt.; enlisted Aug. 12, 1781; discharged Nov. 15, 1781; service, 3 mos. 10 days, travel included; company raised to reinforce Continental Army for 3 months. Roll sworn to at Ware.

When the 1790 Census was taken he was living in Oxford, the head of a household consisting of one male and two females. William was a farmer in Oxford.

In the Worcester Registry of Deeds there are several on record given by William, of which the following are of interest:

(100.67) William Eddy of Oxford, yeoman, to my son Jonas, yeoman, dated 1781. Wife, Sarah Eddy signed. (100.60) William Eddy of Oxford . . . sold to son, Reuben, dated 1784.

His will was probated Apr. 2, 1805, at Worcester. It mentions wife Sarah; eldest son Jonas; sons Silas, Pearley, Reuben; and dau. Persis Barton, wife of John Barton; Lydia Burnet, wife of Isaac Burnet; and Rachel Cummings, wife of Elisha Cummings. Reuben was the executor of the will.

Children, b. at Oxford (V.R.):

+289 JONAS EDDY, b. Nov. 10, 1747.

317 Sarah Coffin, b. 1758.

158 Eddy Trapp (Abigail Eddy, John, Samuel, William), b. 1718; d. 1751; m. 1745 or 1746, Elizabeth Vincent.

Children, (incomplete list):
Hannah Trapp.

162 Zachariah Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 13, 1691; d. after July 15, 1743 (Glocester Deeds, 5.332) and before Nov. 1, 1749; m. Ruth Thornton who died after 1770. She m. (2) before Nov. 1, 1749 Valentine Inman, whose first wife was Barbara Ballou. Thomas Thornton of Freetown, Mass., whose wife was Mehitable Tripp, left a will, which was proved Apr. 21, 1730, in which he mentions "daughter Ruth Eddy" (Austin, p. 201).

At the end of a deed to Joseph Aldrich on file in Glocester, R. I., the following is added,—

> "I, Ruth Inman, late wife to Zachariah Eddy of Glocester . . . release all right of dower in the farm which he did purchase of Zachariah Eddy . . . which lieth in Glocester; the which deed was dated in said Glocester, Oct. 6, 1731, and I do give unto the said Joseph Aldrich a clear acquitance from the beginning of the first day of Nov. 1749." This was signed by Vlnn In-nn and by Ruth Inman with a mark, and witnessed by William and Thomas Wood. This deed was given to Joseph Aldrich by Zachariah Eddy, Jr. of Glocester on Oct. 6, 1731 but as Ruth had not signed off her dower rights she did so in 1749 in the addition to the deed.

Zachariah was probably married when he left Swansea for Providence. He first purchased land in Providence on Oct. 28, 1714 from Edward Hawkins, "on the east side of the seven-mile-line, which was to be laid out in the original right of Mr. Joseph Williams." He also received a piece from his father which he sold back to him and later he purchased 90 acres in the original right of Benjamin Smith on the west side of the seven-mile-line. It would seem that his only residence in R. I. was in the Glocester section of Providence, which later became the town of Glocester. He was admitted freeman to Providence on May 2, 1727.

He does not seem to have held any town offices. His name appears as witness to deeds and very many times in land transactions. He owned large tracts of land which he purchased of various individuals. This was generally undivided land on the west side of the seven-mile-line, some in the original rights of Christopher Unthank, of Richard Scott and of Benjamin Smith.

Two deeds are of especial interest.

(Glocester Deeds, Bk. III, 218.) Zachariah Eddy, Jun'r of Glocester, husbandman, to Joseph Whipple of Newport, merchant, "¼ part of a right of Richard Scott's original right, which was given to me by my honored father, Zachariah Eddy of Glocester." Dated Sept. 13, 1732. Signed by Zachariah and acknowledged in Newport by him.

(Glocester Deeds, I, 332.) Zachariah Eddy, Jr. of Glocester yeoman "to my son Eliphalet Eddy of Glocester 50 acres . . . "at a white oak near pascoague sawmill and to extend south-east to a corner of land of Joseph Whipple of Newport," etc. Dated Feb. 14, 1736/37. This deed was witnessed by Joseph Eddy.

The following abstract gives the location of his home:

(Glocester Deeds, p. 28.) Zachariah Eddy, Jr. of Glocester, yeoman, to Joseph Aldrich of Smithfield for £220 . . . "70 acres of land lying in Glocester and is the farm where Zachariah now dwelleth . . . Hosanah Browns line . . . pascogue swamp, together with the dwelling house thereon." Dated Oct. 5, 1731.

There is no authentic record of the names of all the children.

Children, order of births not known:

+318 Enoch Eddy.
+319 Thomas Eddy.
+320 Eliphalet Eddy.
321 Ruth Eddy, m. Jan. 3, 1750, Oziel Inman (Glocester V.R.).
322 Alice Eddy, m. Oct. 14, 1745, John Inman (Glocester V.R.)
323 Probably Elizabeth Eddy, who m. May 20, 1746 at Glocester (V.R.) Edward Evans.
324 Perhaps Zachariah Eddy.

Query,—Are the Sarah and Mary Eddy mentioned in the will of Valentine Inman, children of Zachariah?

163 Alice Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 5, 1694; m. May 21, 1713, at Providence (V.R.), Obadiah Jencks (or Jenks); son of Gov. Joseph Jencks. She was his second wife. He d. Sept. 26, 1758, at Providence.

Obadiah Jenckes received from his father 139 acres which he and Alice later sold to Peter Wells on Nov. 10, 1725. After the death of Obadiah "Ellis Jenckes, widow on July 2, 1759 purchased of the Estate of Obadiah Jenckes dec'd for £992 all the deceased's right in the land and tenement dwelling house and slaughter house and wharf, a little west of Weybosset Bridge, bounding north on a Gangway; south on a line parallel with the north side of Long Wharf . . . the town st."

By his first wife Annah Blake, Obadiah had two sons, Jeremiah and Ebenezer and probably a daughter, Martha.

Children of Obadiah and Alice (Eddy):

+325 Obadiah Jenckes.
326 John Jenckes.
+327 Zachariah Jenckes.
+328 Alice Jenckes.

165 Elisha Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 14, 1710 (Prov. V.R.); d. Jan. 27, 1764; m. Dec. 2, 1734, at Glocester, R. I. (V.R.), Sarah Phetteplace, dau. of Walter and Joanna (Mowry) Phetteplace. She is mentioned in her father's will, Jan. 15, 1751. She d. Nov. 9, 1795, leaving a will dated Aug. 16, 1795. In her will she makes bequests to Sarah Eddy, widow; to granddaughters, Sarah Greene and Rebecca Eddy and to grandsons George Eddy, Enos Eddy, Eli Eddy, John Eddy, and to Abigail Pain, granddaughter, and wife of Zattee Pain; and two sons Jesse and Amasa. The will was witnessed by Duty Smith and John Eddy. Elisha was a farmer and lived on the farm which had been his father's and which his father gave to him shortly before his death.

(Glocester Deeds, p. 212.) Zachariah Eddy of Glocester, Yeoman, for the love and parental affection which I have and do bear towards my son Elisha Eddy . . . 100 acres situate in the township of Glocester, the which land lyeth where I now dwell . . . bounds mention "My son Joseph's land . . . a maple tree near the river" . . . etc. Dated Feb. 9, 1735/36.

Somewhat later he sold this to his brother Joseph Eddy.

(Glocester Deeds I, 340.) Elisha Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, . . . to my brother Joseph Eddy . . . 100 acres—and is my homestead farm. Dated Mar. 10, 1738. He then bought another larger farm of 200 acres of Richard Sayles where he lived the rest of his life. He deeded to his son a half of this in 1761.

(Glocester Deeds.) Elisha Eddy of Glocester, Yeoman, to Enos Eddy, husbandman, . . . 100 acres on the west part of the land I bought of Capt. Richard Sayles. Dated Aug. 13, 1761.

When Elisha died he left a will dated June 20, 1763 of which his son Enos and wife Sarah were executors. He requested that he should be buried in "my father's burying place," and he set aside a plot "six poles square on my now homestead farm for a burying place, where it is now." To his son Jesse he left the south westerly part of his homestead farm, 12 acres on Beaver Dam on the Pascoag River on the easterly side. To son Stephen and son Amasa, he left other portions. These two were not yet sixteen years of age.

Elisha Eddy seems to have taken very little part in the town's affairs. He was an executor of Isaiah Inman's will, and he was a witness to a few deeds. He took the oath of freeman in Glocester in 1733 and again in 1747. The census of 1774 records Widow Eddy as the head of a household in Glocester, consisting of two males over 16, and one female over 16. In all probability this refers to Sarah, widow of Elisha and her two younger sons.

Children (wills):

+330 ENOS EDDY.
+331 JESSE EDDY, b. Sept. 15, 1751.
+332 AMASA EDDY, b. Mar. 19, 1754.
+333 STEPHEN EDDY.

166 Joseph Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 14, 1713 (Prov. V.R.), d. before Sept. 19, 1781, m. Nov. 23, 1735, Barsheba Smith (V.R.); dau. of Joseph Smith and his wife Patience Mowry, who was daughter of Nathaniel and Joanna (Inman) Mowry. She was living Sept. 19, 1781, when she signed the following deed in Glocester.

Barsheba Eddy, widow of Joseph Eddy, late of Glocester. . . . We suppose by law I have a right of thirds in that farm which Benjamin Brown, George Brown, Israel Brown and Ezekiel Brown and Joseph Brown are all now owners . . . I release all my rights . . . etc. Dated Sept. 19, 1781 and witnessed by Sarah Eddy and William Ross.

Bathsheba Eddy, another spelling for Barsheba wife of Joseph Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, for £70 sold to . . . Harris the full ¼ part portion and divident of a tract of land containing in the whole 150 acres, which Mr. Joseph Smith, late of Smithfield, by his will gave to his four daughters, Susanna Aldrich; Abigail Harris; Rebecca Smith, and Barsheba Eddy. Dated Apr. 26, 1744.

Joseph was made freeman in Glocester in 1735 and again in 1750 he took the oath of freeman. At the time of the R. I. Census of 1774 there was a Joseph Eddy in Glocester as the head of a family consisting of two males over sixteen and one female. This may refer to this Joseph or to his son, Joseph. During the French and Indian Wars he served in the campaigns of 1760 and 1761 from R. I.

In nearly all of the deeds Joseph calls himself yeoman. On July 6, 1754, he sold to Noah Aldrich and Israel Sayles ½ of the forge or iron-works and is known as the Chepachet forge with right and title I said Joseph Eddy have and all beds of iron mines or bog oar in the forge yard with the dam and the tools. This would seem to show that he was at one time a manufacturer of iron and perhaps utensils made of iron (Glocester Deeds 6.220).

Soon after his marriage he received from his father 100 acres in Glocester. This was near a river, and there was a highway across the piece It was where Joseph was then living. In 1753 he sold "the homestead farm whereon I Live to Jeremiah Ballou," and bought another but after a short while sold that also. It was on the Pascoag River. In June of 1765 Joseph of Glocester, yeoman, "for the love I bear to my son-in-law Abraham Brown of Glocester, husbandman . . . a part of the farm where I now dwell in Glocester, including my dwelling house . . . 80 acres on the Pascoag River" etc. (Glocester Deeds, 7.472), and again he sold "the northerly part of my farm on the western bank of the Pascgue River from Abraham Browns corner" etc. . . . to Andrew Herendeen (7.499). These deeds give in a general way the location of his homes. It would seem that his first home was on the Chepachet River about where the present village of Chepachet now is situated (Deed 6,198 mentions Killingly Road, Chepachet River and Forge Pond). Then he probably moved farther north and made his home on the bank of the Pascoag River.

The Glocester Registry of Deeds contain many in which Joseph Eddy appears as grantor and grantee. But it is not always known whether it is Joseph senior or his son Joseph since the date of the death of the former and the date of the birth of the latter are not known. It is probable that Joseph and his wife were Quakers as all his children belonged to that faith.

There is no authentic list of his children, but it would seem that the following is accurate as far as it goes. There may have been others.

Children, order of births not known:

+334 JOSEPH EDDY.
+335 ZILPHA EDDY.
+336 ELISHA EDDY.
+337 JACOB EDDY.
+338 GIDEON EDDY.
+339 ELIAKIM EDDY.

168 Samuel Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 13, 1690 (Swansea V.R.); m. Sept. 4, 1730, Deborah Lewis of Swansea (V.R.). She was b. Mar. 4, 1699/1700; dau. of Thomas^3 Lewis (Thomas^2, Edmund^1) and his wife Elizabeth^2 Brooks (Timothy^1). Thomas Lewis was a weaver. In his will dated Aug. 12, 1717 and probated Nov. 4, 1717, he left a legacy to "Deborah when of age." (Lewis Gen. p. 13.) Elizabeth Lewis, his wife, died in 1731 and she left a will in which she mentioned "daughter Deborah, wife of Samuel Eddy, and their daughter Abigail Eddy." The Lewis family was a well-to-do and prosperous family in Swansea and Deborah was a woman very well educated for the times. She was noted as a writer of both prose and poetry.

One story, handed down, is that Deborah m. (2) . . . WHIPPLE and had several children by him. Another is that she married Nathan Angell and had two children by him. No proof of either story has been discovered except that the various lines of descendants think that she married a second time.

Samuel Eddy was a blacksmith by trade. He spent the early part of his life in Swansea. In 1723 he witnessed a deed given by his brother Seth (B.C.D. 22.178). In 1741 he bought land of Benjamin Eastabrooks of Bristol (B.C.D., 30.446) 1/3 part of two 10 acre lots . . . in Swansea on the south side of the road leading to Taunton. In 1743 he sold this tract to "Jeremiah Eddy, mariner," his brother and in 1747/48 he purchased another tract in Swansea.

Upon the death of Seth Eddy he was made guardian to Enos, a minor son of Seth, over 14 and of Mercy Eddy, dau. of Seth under 14 (Bristol Co. Prob.).

After the death of his brother Seth Eddy and of the latter's wife Patience who had married Meletiah Martin for a second husband, Samuel was given charge of the affairs of their children. In the Bristol Co. files is the "account of Samuel Eddy, etc. . . . it being the account of what came to his hand of the administration of Patience Martin, also dec'd, the late widow and administratrix of aforesaid Seth Eddy, shipwright, for her first husband." Another paper on file is a notice sent by the court to "Samuel Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, . . . your brother Seth Eddy . . . and Patience, his widow, since dec'd," . . . etc. Dated July 19, 1743 and also Oct., 1744.

Samuel Eddy went to R. I. after 1752 and before Mar. 20, 1758, the date upon which he witnessed a deed given by Daniel Eddy and his wife Lydia at Providence (Deeds 16.23). He settled in Glocester. Like his father he was a blacksmith and it is worth noting that the trade of a blacksmith has been handed on from generation to generation until the present, in one line of his descendants.

Children, b. in Swansea:

340 ABIGAIL EDDY, b. 1731 (Swansea V.R.).
341 ABIGAIL EDDY, b. Aug. 22, 1733; m. Aug. 8, 1756, at Glocester, R. I. (V.R.), THOMAS IRONS.
+342 LEWIS EDDY, b. May 28, 1735.
+343 SAMUEL EDDY, b. June 17, 1736.
344 DEBORAH EDDY, b. Feb. 17, 1738, m. Sept. 12, 1756, JOHN ALDRICH.
345 WEALTHY EDDY, b. Oct. 7, 1739. She witnessed a deed May 31, 1759, of Benajah Whipple to Job Waterman.

346 Patience Eddy, b. Apr. 22, 1741. Query—did she marry on Sept. 24, 1761 James Woodmansee (V.R.) or did she marry Ezra Bowen?
347 John Eddy, b. June 7, 1743. It is possible that this is the John Eddy who went to Dutchess Co. and later to Saratoga Co. See No. 12230.

169 Jeremiah Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), birth not recorded; d. Feb. 9, 1758 in the 61st year of his age (Gravestone); m. July 30, 1724, Elizabeth Pierce, b. 1700; d. Sept. 11, 1801, at the age of 101 years (Newspaper—The U.S. Chronicle). She was the dau. of Ephraim Pierce (Pearse) and his wife Mary Low.

Jeremiah was a mariner. On Mar. 1, 1735 he bought of his brother Seth Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, a house and twenty acres of land where "Jeremiah Eddy now dwells, bounded on the north by the Taunton Road and easterly by land of Stephen Cornell and on the west by Seth Eddy" (B.C.D., 27.64). Somewhat later he purchased from his brother, "Samuel Eddy of Swansea, blacksmith, 1/3 part of a piece of land laid out to Samuel Thurber."

On the 10th of Dec. he and wife Elizabeth sold to Luther Thurber of Swansea, joiner, a piece of land on the Taunton Great Road. This deed was acknowledged by Capt. Jeremiah Eddy on Dec. 17, 1757 and witnessed by Stephen Eddy. This same month he made his will (B. C. Prob. XVI, 72).

I, Jeremiah Eddy, mariner, being in perfect health and bound on a voyage to sea, etc. . . . give to my eldest son, Peleg Eddy, all my homestead, . . . to son Barnard Eddy, ½ of two ten-acre lots, lying on the north side of Taunton Great Road; to son, Esek Eddy, the other half, . . . The will also mentions eldest daughter, Mary Chase, and daughters, Rhoda Martin, Elizabeth Eddy, and Phebe Eddy. His wife Elizabeth and son Peleg Eddy were the executors.

Jeremiah never returned from this voyage for the stone erected to his memory in the Eddy Burial Plot in Swansea states that he died in Maryland on Feb. 9, 1758. The son Peleg died the same spring at Surinam (Dutch Guiana) on Mar. 18, 1758, as the same stone records.

Although the birth of Jeremiah Eddy is not on record, there is no question of his parentage, for Mercy Eddy, daughter of Seth Eddy, whose birth is recorded and whose parents were John and Mary Eddy, after the death of her father Seth, chose "my uncle Jeremiah Eddy to be my gardine" on Oct. 5, 1747. Jesse Eddy, son of Seth Eddy left a will probated in 1752 and he gave "to my uncle Jeremiah Eddy, 1 silk and cotton handkerchief and to my aunt Elizabeth Eddy, 1 large silk handkerchief and two beaker glasses; to my cousin Rhoda Martin, a cotton handkerchief, to my cousin Barnard Eddy my broad ax." "Uncle" Jeremiah Eddy was the executor of the will. These two records prove that Jeremiah was a brother of Seth Eddy.

Another record of interest concerning Jeremiah Eddy is found in the records of Newport, where it is stated that Jeremiah Eddy, Master on Sloop, Sarah and Esther, entered Newport Harbor on July 18, 1744. The Sloop was of 30 tons. He again entered the harbor on Dec. 21, 1745. Soon after the death of Jeremiah and Peleg the two remaining sons left Swansea and went to Providence. Elizabeth, the mother accompanied them. Her father Ephraim Peirce lived in Glocester, R. I. At his death he made Barnard Eddy executor of his will, wherein he made a bequest, to "my daughter Elizabeth Eddy of Providence, of ten acres of land on the south east corner of my homestead" etc. Later by deed "Elizabeth Eddy, widow of Jeremiah Eddy, etc." sold to Ephraim Peirce of Glocester, land given to me by my father in his will. Dated Apr. 16, 1773 and acknowledged at Providence July 15, 1774. Joseph Eddy was one of the witnesses of the deed (Glocester Deeds 9.439).

U. S. Chronicle, Sept. 17, 1801, Prov. "On Friday morning last Mrs. Elizabeth Eddy, relict of the late Mr. Jeremiah Eddy, aged 101 years, 3 months, 2 days. It may be justly said of the aged lady that through life she possessed many of the best qualities and above all that of a sincere Christian. She was a member of the Baptist Society 77 years. Her funeral was attended on Sunday (15th) afternoon by a numerous train of her Progeny down to the fourth generation. The corpse was conveyed to the Rev. Mr. Snow's meeting house where a discourse adapted to the occasion was delivered before a large assembly by the Rev. Mr. Gano, after which her remains were deposited at the westerly part of the town." The U. S. Gazette states that the funeral would be from the house of Mr. Joseph Eddy.

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):

348 Mercy (or Mary) Eddy, b. Apr. 11, 1725; m. Oct. 6, 1745, at Swansea, Barnabas Chase, son of Hezekiah Chase.
349 Peleg Eddy, b. Dec. 7, 1726 (V.R.); d. Mar. 18, 1758, in Surinam, Dutch Guiana.
+350 Barnard Eddy, b. Oct. 11, 1729.
+351 Esek Eddy, b. Dec. 14, 1731.
+352 Rhoda Eddy, b. June 3, 1734.

353 RUTH EDDY, b. Apr. 3, 1737; d. Nov. 14, 1756 (Gravestone in Swansea Village).
+354 ELIZABETH EDDY.
355 PHOEBE EDDY, m. JOSEPH EDDY; son of Benjamin Eddy. (See No. 411.)

170 Thomas Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 15, 1694, in Swansea (V.R.). Nothing is known about him. He may have been the Thomas Eddy who served on the Bermuda privateer "Popple" (named for Governor Popple of Bermuda) which was commissioned Dec. 31, 1739. The boat came into New York Harbor on May 17, 1740 (R. I. Privateers in King George's War, by Howard Chapin, p. 178). He may have been the Thomas Eddy who was a carpenter on board the privateer "Reprisal" in 1745 (List of R. I. Soldiers and Sailors in King George's War 1740–1748 by Howard Chapin). He probably was Thomas who m. Joanna . . .

356 THOMAS EDDY, b. in Swansea, Feb. 22, 1730.

171 Seth Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. May 12, 1697, in Swansea (V.R.); d. Dec. 30, 1737, in Swansea (V.R.); m. Sept. 20, 1722 in Swansea (V.R.), Patience Millard (also spelled Miller). She mar. (2) on Dec. 24, 1739, Meletiah Martin. She died before Nov. 15, 1743 (B.C. Prob. 10, 381–386).

On Dec. 27, 1723, Seth Eddy of Swansea and Patience his wife sold for £5 to Samuel Millerd of Swansea, shipwright, and Ruth his wife, 1/9 part of 8 acres in Swansea. Samuel Eddy and Charles Eddy were witnesses of the deed. This was probably some land inherited by Patience. There are numerous other land transactions on record in the Bristol Co. Registry of Deeds, from which it is evident that Seth lived most of the time in Dighton, but owned land in Swansea even as far south as the salt water. At one time he lived in Freetown and at another in Swansea Village. When he died in 1737, he left several minor children. Seth's brother Samuel became guardian of Enos, over 14 years of age (B. C. Prob. 10, 381) and of Mercy who was under 14. Later Mercy chose her uncle Jeremiah Eddy for her guardian. In 1743 Samuel Miller was guardian of Jesse, over 14 and of Thomas and Seth, under 14. Later Benjamin Miller was guardian of Seth (Warren, R. I. Prob. 1, 58).

Patience Martin, the mother, died soon after her second marriage so that the care of Seth's children and estate was put into the hands of Samuel Eddy who filed his account,—"it being the account of what came into my hand of the administration of Patience Martin, also deceased, the late widow and administratrix to the estate of Seth Eddy, shipwright, for her first husband."

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):
+357 JOHN EDDY, b. Aug. 13, 1723.
+358 ENOS EDDY, b. Apr. 19, 1725.
359 PATIENCE EDDY, b. Mar. 31, 1728; d. probably before 1743 as no guardians were appointed, when her father and mother died.
+360 JESSE EDDY, b. Nov. 2, 1729.
361 MERCY EDDY, b. Dec. 9, 1732. It is possible that she married Luther Thurber and was his wife in 1757 (B.C.D., 45.522). This deed refers to land near Mary Eddy, wife of Luther Thurber. (NOTE. She is also called Marcy Eddy.)
+362 SETH EDDY, b. Feb. 10, 1734/35.
363 THOMAS EDDY, b. not recorded; d. before Sept. 5, 1757 (Warren Records 1.580), when his brother petitioned for powers of administration. He had Samuel Miller for guardian Nov. 15, 1743. He may have been the Thomas Eddy who served on the privateer "Popple" and on the privateer "Reprisal." (See account under Thomas Eddy, No. 170.)

172 Jean Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. in Swansea; m. May 24, 1721, at Newport, Richard Morris of Newport (Records of Trinity Church). She was his second wife. They lived for a while in Newport, but later moved to Milford, Conn. On Apr. 30, 1738, Jean joined the Congregational Church, in Milford (N.E. H.G.R., Vol. LXXI). In his will, dated Mar. 24, 1759 and proved in May 1759, Richard Morris named his wife Jane and his son John and referred to other children unnamed (New Haven Prob., Vol. IX, p. 247). Before leaving Newport, Richard Morris sold land and Jane relinquished her dower rights (Newport Deeds, Vol. II, p. 159 and Vol. VII, pp. 122 and 144).

Children of Richard Morris:

i JOHN MORRIS, m. at Woodbridge, Conn., Nov. 12, 1750, SYBIL NEWTON.
ii SUSANNA MORRIS, m. SAMUEL BASSETT. iii MERCY B. MORRIS, d. Mar. 25, 1778.
iv Probably also the THOMAS MORRIS who d. at Cheshire, Conn., Apr. 21, 1777; the v JOSEPH MORRIS, who d. at Milford, Jan. 3, 1778; and the vi GEORGE MORRIS, who d. at Milford, Mar. 10, 1776.

173 Oliver Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 17, 1701, at Swansea (V.R.). He was bapt. when an adult at St. Michael's Church in Bristol, R. I., on Feb. 7, 1733/34; d. Feb. 4, 1734/35 at Bristol, R. I. (V.R.). He m. Feb. 16, 1723/24, at Bristol, Sarah Munro, b. Feb. 23, 1705/06; dau. of George and Mary Munro. She was bapt. when adult in St. Michael's Church, on Aug. 2, 1724.

Children, b. in Bristol, R. I. (St. Michael's Church Records):

364 PHOEBE EDDY, b. Nov. 10, 1725; bapt. Dec. 6, 1725; m. Mar. 3, 1745, HENRY BOSWORTH (V.R.).
365 MARY EDDY, b. July 7, 1727; bapt. July 16, 1727.
366 LYDIA EDDY, bapt. May 24, 1729; d. Dec. 23, 1729 (V.R.).
367 WILLIAM EDDY, bapt. Jan. 24, 1730/31; d. May 24, 1731, in Bristol (V.R.).
368 MARTHA EDDY, b. May 23, 1732; bapt. June 11, 1732.

174 Charles Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 14, 1703, in Swansea (V.R.); d. Feb. 1, 1771, at Glastonbury, Conn.; m. (1) Susanna Hill on Apr. 24, 1727, at Suffield, Conn. She d. July 6, 1734, aged 27 years and is buried at the Center Church Cemetery in Hartford, Conn. He m. (2) about Sept. 12, 1739, Mary Meakins of Hartford; dau. of "Joseph and Mary Meakins, both dec'd." She d. Aug. 1, 1743, aged 29 years. He m. (3) Hannah Loveland Jan. 11, 1743/44; dau. of John and Keziah (Williams) Loveland. She was b. June 14, 1712.

There is very little trace of Charles Eddy in Swansea. He witnessed a deed given by his brother, Seth Eddy in 1723 (Bristol Co. Deeds, 22, 178). From Swansea, he probably went next to Suffield, Conn. where he married. There were others from Swansea in this town, among them John Devotion, Jr. In Springfield, Mass. in the Registry of Deeds in Book E, 371 is filed the following deed.

Charles Eddy and Susanna Eddy alias Susanna Hill, of Suffield, in consideration of £80 by our father-in-law (father-in-law often meant step-father), Edward Foster . . . land in Suffield being 20 acres on the west side of the road leading to Windsor . . . north bounds formerly Zerubbabel Filer, now Edward Foster. Dated Sept. 30, 1729. Signed by Charles Eddye and Susanna Eddye. Witnessed by John Ashley, Susanna Weeb and Elizabeth Adams. It was acknowledged the same day.

From Suffield he went to Hartford where he was living in 1731. While in Hartford he became involved in an action at law, which is recorded under the number 102 in volume M of the Hartford Co. Court Records, Feb. 1731/32. He brought action against James Eno, Jr. of Windsor, in a plea of debt due by note dated Sept. 15, 1731 for the sum of sixteen pounds. The record seems to state that the suit was begun by writ January 24, 1731/32 etc. The defendant appeared by attorney and confessed judgment for fifteen pounds, three shillings and seven pence and cost whereupon the court rendered judgment accordingly and granted execution February 22, 1731/32.

(Hartford Land Rec. 6. 397) Charles and Mary Eddy on Sept. 5, 1740 sold to their brother Joseph Meakins land which had previously belonged to their honored father, Joseph Meakins, late of that place.

(Hartford Town Rec., 7, 25.) Charles Eddy of Hartford on Nov. 22, 1742 sold to Benjamin Roberts, for five hundred pounds, "land situated on the Hockanum River together with a dwelling house, being the same land which he had purchased from David Smith in 1740."

It was doubtless about this time that he removed from Hartford to Glastonbury; for it appears from an entry in the Hartford County Court Records, under date of June 1743, that a suit on a note was then pending which had been brought against Joseph Spencer of Hartford by Charles Eddy, described as of Glastonbury, formerly of Hartford. Glastonbury was formerly a part of Wethersfield and is located on the east side of the Connecticut River. It was incorporated between 1690 and 1693.

From this time on he conveyed to different grantees several pieces of land in Glastonbury. In 1770 on June the 11th he sold to his son Charles, twenty acres at the place where he then dwelt.

After his death in 1771 there appears on the Glastonbury Town Records a deed in which his widow Hannah, his daughter Anne, with her husband, Daniel Andrews, and his daughter Hannah, with her husband, Remembrance Brewer, "Being all the persons interested in his estate" united in conveying to Thomas Eddy of Chatham, Conn., a piece of land which undoubtedly belonged to the estate of Charles.

Children by first wife, Susanna; b. at Suffield, Conn.:

+369 Asa Eddy, b. Oct. 4, 1727, in Suffield, Conn. (V.R.).
+370 Thomas Hill Eddy, b. Oct. 2, 1729, in Suffield (V.R.).
371 Ann Eddy, b. 1731; d. Oct. 16, 1736, aged 5 years (MS. of Julius Gay, Vol. I, p. 236).

Child by second wife, Mary:

+372 Anna Eddy, b. Apr. 25, 1740.

Child by third wife, Hannah:

+373 Hannah Eddy, b. June 11, 1746.
+374 Charles Eddy, b. Aug. 22, 1748.

175 Joseph Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 6, 1706, in Swansea (V.R.) m. (intentions Oct. 5, 1728, Bristol, R. I.) Mary Smith. When his father went to Newport in 1714 he probably accompanied him, since the marriage intentions call him Joseph Eddy of Newport. On April 20, 1736 he witnessed a deed between Edward and Caleb Eddy (Warren Deeds 25.104).

On Nov. 21, 1737 Joseph Waldron, a shopkeeper of Bristol, late of Swansey, sold to Joseph Eddy of Swansea, shipwright, "all right in the house of Ephraim Andrews, late of Swansea, and set off to me by virtue of an execution Oct. 7, 1731." One of the bounds mention Peleg Carr of Newport.

On Apr. 28, 1743 Peleg Carr of Newport sold to Joseph Eddy of Swansea a house in Swansea and adjacent to the house of said Eddy, being obtained by execution of father, Peleg Carr. In 1749 (Warren Deeds 1, 116) Joseph sold this to William Hill and his wife Mary signed the deed. On Feb. 10, 1746/47 Joseph Eddy took the "oath of bribery" at Bristol. On Apr. 9, 1754, he sold to George Thurell one certain part of a dwelling house and land thereto belonging, situate in Bristol . . . bounded as follows . . . fronting on Queen St., 66 ft., till it comes to that piece of land which I bought of Charles Munro . . . then to the land of Samuel Smith, etc. Wife Mary signed the deed and Joseph Eddy, Jr. witnessed it. One other deed in Warren (2, 266) is of interest. Joseph Eddy, "ship-carpenter, for the love of my son Oliver . . . my household goods, etc. . . . after the decease of me and my wife." Dated Oct. 27, 1769. It would seem that he lived in Warren in the latter part of his life.

Children:

+375 Joseph Eddy, b. Feb. 24, 1729.
376 Charles Eddy, b. Mar. 1, 1731, Warren, R. I.; d. before 1792 when administration was granted to his brother Jeremiah. Inventory of goods on file. It is not known whether he married and had a family or not.
377 Mary Eddy, b. Mar. 23, 1733/34; d. young.
378 Abigail Eddy, b. Dec. 7, 1736.
379 Patience Eddy, b. Sept. 28, 1738.
380 Mary Eddy, b. Mar. 16, 1739/40.
+381 Oliver Eddy, b. Mar. 15, 1741.
382 Jeremiah Eddy.

176 Parker Eddy (John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 24, 1716/17, in Newport, R. I.; m. at Charlestown, Mass. (V.R.), on Jan. 11, 1738 to Abigail Waters. Very little has been found about Parker Eddy. He died before 1759, when Benjamin Waters, baker, of Salem, Essex Co. and Abigail Eddy of Charlestown, widow, sold a house lot in Charlestown. Dated Sept. 5, 1759. Benjamin Waters and his wife Esther and Abigail Eddy signed.

In Vol. I, p. 318 of Charlestown Genealogies is the following item, "Abigail Edye (widow) claims loss by the enemy in 1775." The date of her death is not known.

Children (Charlestown, Mass. Rec.): probably others.

+383 Benjamin Eddy, bp. Sept. 2, 1739.

384 Abigail Eddy, bp. Aug. 2, 1741; m. John Williams, in 1766 at Charlestown (V.R.).

385 Elizabeth Eddy, b. 1741.

179 Ebenezer Eddy (Ebenezer, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 28, 1706, in Swansea. The Penn. Gazette, July 31, 1735 advertises as follows "Ran away on the third instant from Thomas Crossdale of Burlington, a servant man, named Ebenezer Edey, born in New England; a thin spare man of swarthy complexion, short brown hair, by trade a ship-carpenter, etc. . . . and he has taken with him some ship carpenter tools." (New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. XI, p. 424).

It seems likely that the Ebenezer Eddy of the advertisement and this Ebenezer Eddy are the same, but proof is lacking.

183 Stephen Eddy (Ebenezer, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. 1720 (Bristol Co. Prob., Vol. XVII, p. 333), d. about Sept. 3, 1759 on a campaign (Bristol Co. Prob.); m. Sarah . . . His name is found on a deed given by Jeremiah Eddy on Dec. 10, 1757, which he witnessed (B.C.D. 43,522). On Nov. 1, 1731 he chose Jonathan Hill for guardian (B.C. Prob.), being a minor under 14 yrs.

Benjamin Eddy, brother of Stephen, applied to the court Mar. 13, 1760, saying "My brother Stephen Eddy died in campage last summer without any will, and has none left only his widow," whereupon the court summoned Sarah.

To Sarah Eddy, Greeting, . . . Benjamin one of the brothers of your late husband, Stephen . . . You are cited to appear. Dated Mar. 13, 1760.

Sarah was appointed administratrix and Jonathan Hill, Ezek Brown and Jeremiah Luther were chosen to take the inventory. In Sarah's report to the court she speaks of "Cash received for his wages as he was a soldier, £8, 12 sh. 2 d." Dated Apr. 7, 1761 (B. C. Prob. 17, 333).

The service of Stephen Eddy as recorded on the muster rolls on file in the Mass. Archives is as follows:—

(Vol. XCIII, p. 199.) Stephen Eddy appears on a Return made by Col. Thomas Bowen to Lieut. Gov. Spencer Phips, of the men enlisted and impressed out of said Bowen's Reg't., for the expedition against Crown Point, agreeable to the order of His Honor Spencer Phips, Esq., of Sept. 8, 1755. (Vol. XCVII, p. 405a) Stephen Eddy appears on a Billeting Roll of Capt. Job Williams' Co., 1st battalion, Col. Ruggles's Regt., sworn to at Taunton, April 1, 1760. Billeting commenced May 1, year not given, probably 1759. Date of receiving King's provision, May 10. Year not given, probably 1759. 9 days billeting allowed.

Children (incomplete list):

386 Daniel Eddy, b. Mar. 6, 1757. No further record.

185 Benjamin Eddy (Ebenezer, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. between 1712 and 1726 (B.C. Prob. 5, 297). He was under 14 years of age in 1726. He m. Feb. 14, 1744/45, Mary Hill, in Swansea (V.R.). Their marriage intentions were filed at Freetown Nov. 30, 1744. Her residence is given Freetown and his Swansea. His name appears on the Bristol Co. Probate Rec. in 1760 when he petitioned the court to appoint an administrator for the estate of his brother Stephen. No more records concerning him have been found except the births of his children.

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):

387 Martha Eddy, b. Dec. 11, 1745; m. Nathaniel Toogood of Swansea, Dec. 14, 1766 (V.R.).

+388 Mary Eddy, b. June 22, 1748; m. William Morse, Feb. 18, 1768. (Note. A copy of the Swansea Records gives the name as Morel. It seems to the compiler that the spelling of the name is wrong, for the following reasons. The Morse family records contain the marriage of William Morse to a Mary Eddy of Swansea on this same date. It does not seem likely that there were two Mary Eddys living in Swansea at this time, both of whom were married on the same day, one to William Morse and one to William Morel. Moreover, Morse was a common name in Swansea at this time and Morel has not yet been found by the compiler in any other record as early as 1770 in Swansea or thereabouts.)

389 Elizabeth Eddy, b. June 17, 1749 (Swansea V.R.).

390 Hannah Eddy, b. Aug. 17, 1750; m. Daniel Shearman, March 11, 1773.

392 Caleb Eddy, b. Sept. 9, 1757. No further record.

186 Edward Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 8, 1703; living on Jan. 27, 1750, when he signed a deed (B.C.D. 37, 445). He m. Oct. 12, 1726, Elizabeth Comins (Swansea V.R.). She also signed the deed (B.C.D., 37, 445) on Jan. 27, 1750.

On June 20, 1746 Edward Eddy of Swansea, yeoman and Elizabeth Eddy his wife, sold to John Shepard of Boston, yeoman, and Mary Shepard, his wife, . . . all rights which they the said Edward and Elizabeth have in 1/5 part of two twenty-acre lots situate in Swansea bounded by the highway . . . Nathaniel Toogood . . . James Cole . . . lots 79 and 80 as by records (B.C.D., 37.495).

Edward's home was in Swansea where he had purchased a piece of land from his father. On Dec. 4, 1749, he sold 60 acres which he owned in that part of Swansea called Mattapoisett, where one of the bounds was the highway leading to Shawomet, . . . Rocky Run, etc. (B.C.D., 37.445). Edward Eddy was mentioned by Samuel Eddy, when he settled the estate of Seth Eddy. His name appears several times as witness to deeds. He held no public office so far as is known.

Children, b. Swansea (V.R.):

+393 Robe Eddy, b. Oct. 28, 1728.

394 Martha Eddy, b. Apr. 20, 1732; m. Nov. 17, 1751, Giles Luther of Swansea (V.R.). It is possible that the Eddy Luther whose name appears in the Revolutionary War records was their son. No proof of the fact at present.

+395 Edward Eddy, b. June 7 or 9, 1735.

+396 Caleb Eddy, b. June 25, 1738.

187 Ann Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 8, 1705, in Swansea (V.R.); d. Sept. 8, 1735, in Swansea (V.R.); m. Feb. 3, 1725, John Kinnekat (also spelled Kinnecutt and other ways). He was b. in 1700 and d. in 1783; son of John and Elizabeth (Luther) Kinnecutt. She is mentioned in the will of her father as deceased.

The names of her five children are given. They lived in Warren R. I.

Children (Will of Caleb Eddy):

i Elizabeth Kinnecutt. ii John Kinnecutt.
iii Abigail Kinnecutt. iv Ann Kinnecutt.
v Daniel Kinnecutt, b. 1735; d. 1817, m. Hannah Kent. They had a son Josiah, whose son Benjamin was father of Mary Leonard Kinnecutt. She was the mother of George A. King, who is an authority upon the earlier history of Taunton.

188 Abigail Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 11, 1708, in Swansea, Mass. (V.R.); d. Mar. 7, 1794 (Child Gen., p. 693); m. Oct. 11, 1726, John Child (See Cole Gen., p. 78 and Child Gen., p. 693). He was son of John and Margery (Howard) Child. He was b. 1702, in Swansea and d. Jan. 17, 1788. She is mentioned in the will of her father.

Children (Child Gen., p. 693):

i Cromwell Child, m. Roby Eddy; dau. of Edward and Elizabeth (Comins) Eddy. ii Calfb Child.
iii William Child.
iv James Child.
v Jeremiah Child.
vi Abigail Child, m. Edward Eddy; son of Edward and Elizabeth (Comins) Eddy. vii Ann Child.

189 Elisha Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. May 2, 1711, in Swansea (V.R.) m. Hannah . . ., b. about 1707 and d. Sept. 23, 1765 in her 58th year (Swansea V.R.).

The maiden name of Hannah is not known. Mrs. Morris, a descendant through the daughter Bethiah, thinks that Hannah was a daughter of Isaac Mason, who m. for her first husband . . . Loin (Also spelled Lewin). It is also possible that she belonged to the Barnard or Hale families.

(B. C. D. 41, 339) Elisha Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, and wife Hannah sold to John Lewin of Swansea, joyner, land in Swansea on Dec. 8, 1748.

(B. C. D. 54, 275) Elisha Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, sold to John Loewin, Jr. "my homestead farm, etc. in Swansea, in a place called Leonard's Neck in ye Freeman's purchase containing two 16 acre lots . . . and all my salt marsh . . . down to low water . . . and two lots numbered 8 and 9 and bounded east on lot 7, south on the river or salt water down to low water . . . west on the 10th lot north on ye head of ye half mile or ye Bride Way," etc. Dated Mar. 2, 1772. (These two deeds add a little to the evidence that Hannah was the widow of John Lewin when she married Elisha. The form of the first deed suggests that the piece of property was Hannah's and that she was selling to her son who was then of age.) Elisha witnessed a deed of Constant Eddy (B. C. D. 32, 40).

Elisha Eddy was a farmer in Swansea. He held no public office, but it is claimed that although about 60 years of age he served in the Revolutionary War, with the following service:

Elisha Eddy. Private, Capt. Peleg Shearman's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's (Bristol Co.) regt.; service from July 23, 1777, to Aug. 25, 1777, 34 days, including travel from Providence and North Kingston home; credited to town of Swanzey; also, same co. and regt., service from Oct. 13, to Oct. 18, 1777, 6 days, including travel from Swanzey to Howland's Ferry, on a secret expedition against Rhode Island at request of Gen. Spencer.

Children, b. in Swansea (V.R.):

+397 John Eddy, b. Aug. 23, 1742.
398 Elisha Eddy, b. Dec. 7, 1746. No further records. Possibly he is the Elisha of the Rev. War record quoted above.
399 Barnard Eddy, b. Dec. 7, 1746; d. Dec. 28, 1746 (twin).
+400 Bethiah Eddy, b. Dec. 28, 1748.

191 Michael Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 25, 1715; in Swansea (V.R.); d. May 23, 1801; m. Jan. 1, 1740 (Swansea V.R.) Jael (also spelled Jale) Chase, who d. May 19, 1814 at the age of 90.

Jael Eddy accompanied some of her children to western Massachusetts. She died there at the age of 90 years and was buried in Cheshire Cemetery. On her stone in Cheshire there is also added "In memory of Michael Eddy who died at Swansea May 16, 1801 aged 85 years. He was buried in Swansea." His stone is in the Eddy Cemetery in Swansea Village.

Michael Eddy was mentioned in the will of his father, and was made the sole executor. He lived in Swansea on part of the estate which had been his father's. The plot containing the burial place was in his possession. He was a farmer and although greatly respected in the town, he held no public office. He and his wife Jael sold a portion of their property.

(B. C. D., 68, 252) Michel Eddy of Swansea Yeoman for 300 Spanish milled dollars to Israel Gardner, land in Swansea . . . at a turn in the highway near Gardner's land. Dated May 16, 1783. Witnessed by Christian Chase and David Peirce.

(B. C. D., 71, 257) Michael Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, quitclaimed to James Trott all right in ¼ acre in Swansea near James Brians. Dated May 6, 1791. Signed by Michael and Jael. Witnessed by Hezekiah Eddy and Ruth Hill.

(B. C. D., 79, 218) Michael Eddy, Yeoman . . . to my son Michael Eddy, Jr., laborer; of Swansea. Dated Apr. 15, 1786.

(B. C. D., 80, 140) Michael Eddy of Swansea yeoman . . . to my son, William Eddy. Dated Apr. 22, 1799. Witnessed by Thomas Lewin.

Michael Eddy's name appears on records as witness (B. C. D., 37, 445). He served in the Revolutionary War. In the record listed below, he is probably the one mentioned in the early enlistment and the son Michael in the later one.

Michael Eddy (also given Jr.), Swanzey. Private, Capt. Peleg Shearman's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's (Bristol Co.) regt.; service from Oct. 13, to Oct. 18, 1777, 6 days, including travel from Swanzey to Howland's Ferry, on a secret expedition against Rhode Island at request of Gen. Spencer; also, Capt. Joseph Cole's co., Col. John Jacobs's regt.; enlisted July 1, 1778; service, 6 mos., at Rhode Island; enlistment to expire Jan. 1, 1779; also, Capt. Peleg Peck's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; enlisted Aug. 4, 1780; discharged Aug. 9, 1780; service, 6 days; company marched on an alarm to Tiverton, R. I.; by order of Col. Slead all the men in Swanzey were joined in one company under Capt. Peck, the other officers refusing to serve; roll sworn to at Rehoboth.

At the time of the 1790 Census Michael Eddy was a resident of Swansea, with a family consisting of one male over 16 and two females. He left a will dated 1793 and probated July 7, 1801 (Bristol Co. Prob.) It mentions "Jael, my wife," grand-daughter Betsey, dau. of Hezekiah; grandson Hezekiah, son of Hezekiah; son William; dau. Anna, wife of Brooks Mason; grandson William, son of William; and grand-daughters, Amie, Anna, Roba, Sibel, Unice, Patience and Mary, all daughters of William; dau. Jael Read; dau. Sibel; grand-daughter, Betsey, and son Michael. Michael was made the executor.

Children, b. Swansea (V.R.):

+401 Ann Eddy, b. Dec. 13, 1741.
+402 Hezekiah Eddy, b. Apr. 2, 1744.
+403 William Eddy, b. Mar. 9, 1748.
404 Jael Eddy, b. Jan. 20, 1750; d. Nov. 3, 1756.
405 Jael Eddy, b. May 6, 1763; m. . . . Read (Father's will.) (William Heath is given in the Boston Transcript of Oct. 1924.)
406 Sibel Eddy, b. Sept. 19, 1757.
+407 Michael Eddy, b. Nov. 1, 1760.

192 Elizabeth Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 8, 1717/18 in Swansea (V.R.); m. Daniel Hill, a shipwright (Will of father and also deed B.C.D., 22.134). Daniel Hill purchased land of Caleb Eddy in 1734 and he was a witness to a deed of Constant Eddy on Sept. 16, 1737 (B.C.D., 32.40). In the will of her father Elizabeth is spoken of as wife of Daniel Hill. She was a member of the Friends Meeting and was under discipline for marrying out of the Meeting and was disowned 10–7–1741.

Children (incomplete list):

Sarah Hill, m. John Eddy, son of Peter^5 Eddy (Joshua,^{4} Zachariah,^{3} Samuel,^{2} William^1).

193 Bethiah Eddy (Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 21, 1720/21; d. July 2, 1743; m. Job Anthony (Will of father).

i Eunice Anthony.
ii Job Anthony.

194 Benjamin Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 5, 1709/10; d. 1761/62; m. Elizabeth . . . He died intestate. Barnard Eddy was administrator (Providence Probate, Feb. 16, 1762). The Providence Gazette of Mar. 27, 1781, records the death of Elizabeth Eddy, widow of Capt. Benjamin Eddy, late of this town. A later paper states that Elizabeth Eddy, relict of Capt. Benjamin Eddy, who died Mar. 27, 1781, was interred on the 30th after a sermon by President Manning of Brown University.

Benjamin Eddy learned the trade of a ship carpenter and started in his business in Warwick, where he probably married. On Sept. 12, 1734 he was a resident of Warwick, R. I., when he purchased a piece of land in East Greenwich, R. I., of Benjamin Carr of East Greenwich. The land was between the Country Road and the sea or Salt water, and was known as lot No. 25. He was made freeman in East Greenwich in 1735. On Apr. 13, 1737 he and his wife Elizabeth sold this piece to William Wall of Prudence I., Portsmouth, for £200 (Book, 5,279).

Benjamin Eddy then bought a piece of property in Warwick, R. I. on Aug. 19, 1737 on the edge of the water so as to carry on his trade.

(Warwick Deeds 5, 431) John Gibbs of Warwick, boatman, sold to Benjamin Eddy of Warwick, Ship-carpenter . . . "the land is between the bridge at Aponage (Apponaug) and the Wood point to ye northward of ye shipyard adjoining to said yard . . . bounds mention Joseph Gorton, Benjamin Gorton and Peter Green." Dated Aug. 19, 1737 and witnessed by Philip Arnold and Susanna Arnold. On May 24, 1739, Benjamin Eddy sold this piece . . . "It is what I bought of John Gibbs lying to the southward of the fulling mill and ye northward of Snoots meadow where I now dwell and is ye half part of the lot No. 42 with my mansion house thereon standing and is on the right of Nicholas Hart." Benoney Waterman and Stephen Low were the witnesses to this deed. It is probable that he went soon after to Providence where on Nov. 26, 1744, he gave a bond to Mercy Arnold, widow, for £96, 1sh. 14d. which he agreed to pay on Nov. 19, 1745.

He established a business on the west side of the Providence River about where Ship St. and the present Eddy St. now come together and was made a Freeman in Providence in 1749. Later his son-in-law Barnard Eddy and Barnard's brother Esek joined him in the ship-building business. This establishment of shipbuilders was the largest in Providence at this time. When Washington wanted ship-carpenters for the building of vessels in the upper Hudson and southerly Lake George he sent to Providence to this firm and Barnard Eddy set out with a company of fifty in response to the call.

On the military list of R. I. the name of Benjamin Eddy appears as Ensign in Providence in 1746–1747; as Lieutenant in 1748, 1749 and 1750; and as Capt. in 1751, 1752 and 1753.

Benjamin served in Col. Hopkins Reg't in 1756 and as 1st Lieut. of Captain Jenckes Co. in 1758 and as Capt. of the 9th Co. in 1759. The R. I. Colonial Rec., Vol. V, state that Benjamin Eddy was made 1st Lieut. of the 5th Co. Mar. 17, 1758 and Capt. on Feb. 26, 1759 to command the troops of this colony.

After Benjamin's death the records state:

Whereas Elizabeth Eddy, widow of Benjamin Eddy of Providence, deceased has refused to accept the administration on said husband's estate, . . . letters are granted to Barnard Eddy. Then Barnard Eddy reported that the estate was insolvent, whereupon George Jackson and Benoni Pearce were chosen to receive claims on the estate and report in six months. Among those to whom money was due were Caleb Potter, Solomon Drown, Barnard Eddy and John Clark. To John Clark he owed for "Filling one barrel of cider and for carting it to where he lived in Providence." When Barnard Eddy sent in his account he spoke of paying "Mother Eddy from Aug. 31, 1761 to June 15, 1761", thereby showing that he had married a daughter of Capt. Benjamin Eddy. Another debt that was paid was to Zachariah Eddy of Johnston.

An inventory of the goods set off to the widow included "a chest with drawers, a plain Chest, a spit, two tables, blue earthernware, andirons, tongs, shovel, old tea-kettle, and bellows, bed, bedstead and four old chairs, wheels, warming-pan, fry-pan, gridiron, tramel, three iron pots, teapot, coffee mill, old tin, pewter, bread-trough, mortar and pestle, knives and forks and glass bottles. (What treasures these would be today!)

Children (order of birth not known):

408 Hannah Eddy, b. Feb. 27, 1734, at East Greenwich, R. I. (V.R.).
+409 Zachariah Eddy.
+410 William Eddy.
+411 Joseph Eddy. See will of Margaret Tyning, dated 1765. (Prov. Prob.)
+412 Benjamin Eddy.
+413 Elizabeth Eddy.
414 Patience Eddy, m. Barnard Eddy, son of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Pierce) Eddy. No. 350.
415 Anne Eddy, m. Feb. 16, 1773, at Providence, Thomas Ellis.
416 Nancy Eddy (perhaps).
417 Lydia Eddy, m. Barnard Eddy, son of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Pierce) Eddy. No. 350.

195 Jonathan Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 20, 1711/12, in Swansea (V.R.); d. Mar. 12, 1791 in Glocester, R. I.; m. June 6, 1732, Sarah Evans, b. May 2, 1709; d. Apr. 17, 1770. She was the dau. of Richard Evans (son of Richard and Mary Evans) and his wife Sarah Hawkins (dau. of John and Sarah Hawkins). From a deed in Glocester in which Jonathan and wife Sarah sold land to their son Jonathan Eddy it is learned that Sarah was "the daughter and only lineage of Richard Evans, Jr., late of Providence, Deceased."

Jonathan first purchased land in Glocester in 1734. From this time on he appears in the records as grantor and grantee many times. Often he sold to his sons and his wife Sarah Eddy signed the deeds. He was a farmer and was made freeman in Glocester in 1736. He took the oath again in 1752. At the time of the R. I. Census in 1774 his household consisted of two males over 16, one female over sixteen, and one under 16. His name appears on the military census of R. I. in 1777 as a resident of Glocester and over 60 years of age. He does not appear in the Census of 1790 by name but may be included in the registration of the household of one of his sons, perhaps Jonathan. The History of Glocester (p. 127) states that Jonathan and his wife were members of the old Baptist Church at Chepachet in 1780 and that he went to church even though he had to walk miles. His family has the tradition that he was a very religious man and very upright. It is related of him that on the morning of his death he called the family together, addressed each one of them and then told them that he was going to die at sunset. Death came just as he foretold it.

Children, b. in Glocester:

418 Abigail Eddy, b. Mar. 9, 1733; d. July 6, 1764.
+419 Lucretia Eddy, b. Mar. 30, 1735.
+420 Richard Eddy, b. Dec. 11, 1736.
421 Hannah Eddy, b. Jan. 30, 1739; d. Oct. 19, 1743.
422 Jonathan Eddy, b. June 16, 1741; d. Jan. 29, 1744.
423 Sarah Eddy, b. Dec. 29, 1743; m. Apr. 15, 1764, J. Mathewson (Eddy Gen., p. 147).
+424 Jonathan Eddy, b. Sept. 8, 1746.
+425 John Eddy, b. Oct. 20, 1748 (also given Oct. 31, 1748).
426 Evans Eddy, b. Aug. 18, 1750; d. Mar. 29, 1757.

196 Daniel Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 7, 1713, in Swansea (V.R.); d. at Johnston, Jan. 7, 1793. The Gazette of Jan. 26, 1793 (a newspaper) speaks of the death of Daniel Eddy on Jan. 24, and states that he was of "an advanced age." (The Probate of Will gives date of death as Jan. 7, 1793.) Daniel Eddy married three times. His first wife was Mary Plummer of Smithfield, R. I., whom he married on Dec. 12, 1734 (V.R. Smithfield). She was the daughter of Samuel and Mehitable (Evans) Plummer. Mehitable Evans was the daughter of Richard and Mary Evans. After the death of Samuel Plummer, his widow Mehitable married Thomas Steere. In her will dated Jan. 4, 1737 (she died June 28, 1741), Mehitable Steere left "£6. to her grandson Zephaniah Eddy, when he became of age" (Austin p. 191).

On Sept. 13, 1739 (Prov. V.R.), Daniel Eddy married for his second wife, Lydia Olney; dau. of Thomas and Patience (Burlingame) Olney. She was b. June 2, 1711; d. Mar. 4, 1782 (Olney Gen., p. 24). The will of Thomas Olney which was proved at Providence, Sept. 26, 1752, mentions "Son-in-law, Daniel Eddy" (Austin p. 355). Thomas Olney was one of the wealthiest men in Providence, at that time. His two daughters inherited his property. On Nov. 12, 1786 (Prov. V.R.) Daniel married Amy Brown, widow of George Brown, who died Mar. 7, 1798 (Prov. Prob. Rec. A. 1880). James Larsher was appointed to administer her estate, on March 31, 1798. (See also Johnston Prob. Rec. 1.194.)

pp. 263, 266, 258). The following is a partial abstract: I, Daniel Eddy of Johnston, R. I., Yeoman, to my son Thomas Eddy, I give 60 acres; to wife Amy my little farm I purchased of Nathaniel Day; . . . daughter Patience Manton; dau. Mary Eddy; dau. Esther Waterman; son Olney; son Zephaniah; son Daniel. To son Thomas he gave a log chain, iron-bar, cross-cut saw, small draught-chain two sets of harrow teeth and farming utensils . . . and all my carpenter tools. There is a fine inventory of his goods on file. In this inventory is a list of the goods which his wife Amy had when he married her. Wife Amy and son-in-law Daniel Manton were the executors of the will. On Jan. 28, 1793 Amy Eddy and Daniel Manton of Johnston as principals and Daniel Thornton and Daniel Wilbor of Johnston as sureties gave bonds for £400 as executors of the will of Daniel Eddy, late of Johnston, dec'd. This document was signed by Amy Eddy with a cross.

Daniel came to Providence with his father. On Aug. 24, 1739 Joshua sold for £700 "to my son, Daniel Eddy of Smithfield, husbandman, 100 acres in Smithfield, being the southerly part of my homestead farm, where I now dwell, . . . a river runs through the farm." In 1740 Daniel was made a Freeman in Smithfield and was living there as late as 1748 in District No. 15, where he was obliged to work on the highway of the town for a few days, as every male over twenty-one was obliged by law to do. (Hist. of Smithfield, p. 30.) In 1758 he was living in Providence. Early in 1759 he sold his homestead in Smithfield and purchased a place near Tripptown Bridge (Johnston Deeds 1, 1) and became a resident of Johnston. He was chosen a member of the Town Council in April 1759. The meeting of the Council frequently was held at his home. Once he was chosen to be one of the directors of a lottery held to obtain money for the building of a Baptist Church in Johnston, which was to be erected on the land of Daniel Manton. Some time later he removed to Glocester, where he resided for a time and then returned to Johnston. At the time the R. I. Census of 1774 was taken he was a resident of Glocester, with a household consisting of two males over 16, one under 16, three females over 16. In 1790 his household numbered one male over 16, one under 16 and three females. He was then a resident of Johnston.

One of the descendants of this Daniel Eddy states that a silver spoon once owned by Mary Plummer was later owned by her son Zephaniah Eddy, who gave it to his son, Zephaniah Eddy. He gave it to Charles Giles Eddy, who gave it to his brother, Zephaniah Carey Eddy.

The following abstracts of deeds are of interest.

(Smithfield Deeds) Hannah Arnold of Smithfield, R. I., widow of William Arnold, late of Smithfield for £130 sold to "David Eddy of Smithfield and son of said Hannah, . . . land I bought of Caleb Buxton."

(Smithfield Deeds) "Uriah Mowry and wife Hannah Mowry for the love and good will to our son, Stephen Eddy, yeoman, a farm of 25 acres . . . south-east corner on Benedict Remington,—bank of river called Branch—David Buffum's land where Stephen Eddy now dwells." Dated Jan. 1, 1785.

Children, born in Smithfield (V.R., also Hist. of Woonsocket):

434 Mary Eddy, b. Dec. 7, 1739.
435 Ruth Eddy, b. Jan. 4, 1742. (Query—Did she marry Israel Tifft, Tafft?) (See Smithfield Deeds, 9,459.)
+436 Stephen Eddy, b. May 18, 1745.
+437 David Eddy, b. Oct. 23, 1747.
438 Mary Eddy, b. Feb. 16, 17 . . . probably 49/50; m. Richard Thornton. She died on Mar. 27, 1787.

199 Zachariah Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 23, 1720, in Swansea, Mass.; d. before Aug. 7, 1781, when his will, dated June 6, 1780, was proved; m. Marcy Burch of Stonington, Conn., on May 9, 1741, according to Stonington Rec., but May 9, 1743, according to Arnold's V.R. of Smithfield where name is spelled Burik. She was b. Aug. 18, 1717 at Stonington; dau. of Jonathan and Mary (Rathbun) Burch (Stonington Rec.).

From Swansea Zachariah went to R. I. with his father, Joshua, and settled in Glocester. About the time of his marriage his father, Joshua, bought some land in the northwestern part of Connecticut, and Zachariah left Rhode Island and settled in Salisbury, upon a portion of this land.

(Salisbury Land Records, Vol. I, p. 356) Joshua Eddy of Providence, R. I., sold to "my well-beloved son Zachariah Eddy of Salisbury, Conn. . . . two parcels of land containing 200 acres in the first lot of land which was laid out in the 4th Division of land granted, to be laid out in Salisbury, to Sharon bounds." Dated Sept. 23, 1745.

(Salisbury Land Rec., Vol. II, p. 42) Joshua Eddy of Glocester, R. I., yeoman, sold to "Zachariah Eddy of Salisbury, Conn., Husbandman, . . . about 100 acres in a place called the Great Hollow, being the ninth lot in the third division of the town and on the Sharon boundary." Dated Sept. 24, 1746.

(Salisbury Land Rec., Vol. II, p. 127) Joshua Eddy sold "to my loving son, Zachariah Eddy of Salisbury, 1/3 of one right in undivided land of the proprietary of Salisbury." Dated Oct. 11, 1748.

Whether Zachariah Eddy did not find success attending his endeavors is not known, but for some reason he returned to R. I. in 1749.

(Glocester Rec.) John and Obadiah Brown sold to Zachariah Eddy of Salisbury in the County of New Haven in Conn., on Oct. 10, 1749, 200 acres in Glocester, besides meadow. The bounds mention Richard Waterman, Benjamin Waterman, Samuel Winsor and Resolved Waterman and heirs of John Tracy.

Sometime before 1759 Zachariah received from his father a portion of his estate which was in the town of Johnston, probably in its northernmost part, adjacent to Glocester. Here he lived for a while but on Sept. 3, 1759, he sold to William Hawkins a part of this farm, namely the land opposite Job Waterman's farm, "an estate of inheritance and is the farm where I now Dwell." (Johnston Deeds, Book 1, 21.)

NOTE.—When Mercy, his wife, signed off her dower rights, sometimes she spelled her name Marcy and sometimes Mercy.

[illegible] Zachariah Eddy of Johnston, yeoman, bought for [illegible] from Benjamin Waterman, Jr. 173 acres in Johnston west of Gideon Waterman's and is the farm left to Benjamin by his grandfather Benjamin Waterman. (Johnston Deeds.)

On the Military Lists of R. I. Zachariah Eddy of Johnston appears as a Lieutenant in [illegible] and as Captain in [illegible].

[illegible] Zachariah Eddy, now called Capt. Zachariah, bought another piece in Johnston south of Zachariah Eddy's sawmill, and this same year [illegible] Zachariah Eddy of Johnston, gentleman, sold to Benjamin Waterman of Johnston some of his land in Johnston. Richard Eddy witnessed this deed. During this period Zachariah Eddy's name appears on the deed of John Brown to Aaron Cox and the deed of Joseph Field to Daniel Eddy.

[illegible] Zachariah Eddy left Rhode Island [illegible] found a home in [illegible] Massachusetts at Belchertown. He was established there by Jan. 25, [illegible], when he bought [illegible] (Springfield Deeds [illegible]). [illegible]

He was too old for active service in the Revolutionary War, but he served on the Committee of Safety in 1775 (Historical Address at the Centennial Celebration of East Hampton, Mass., given by Payson W. Lyman on July 4, 1876, and printed at Springfield, 1877, p. 86). Moreover on the twelfth day of the 12th month "The town [Belchertown] voted to allow Capt. Zachariah Eddy for his horse's journey to Providence to fetch powder for the town's use."

He died in Belchertown, Mass. His will mentions Mercy Eddy, his wife; son Daniel; son Newbury; dau. Mercy; dau. Rhoda; son Abner; son Asaph who is made the sole executor. In the latter part of the will his wife is called Marcy Eddy. The witnesses of the will were Isaac Stacy and Elizabeth Stacy and Joseph Scott. It was probated Aug. 7, 1781 (Probate of Hampshire Co., 13:418).

Children (Will of Zachariah):

- 439 DANIEL EDDY, b. Feb. 28, 1741–42 in Salisbury, Conn. (Hist. Assoc. Rec.).
- 440 NEWBURY EDDY, b. Jan. 2, 1743–44, "ye second son."
- 441 ASAPH EDDY (also called Asa Eddy), b. about 1745 or 1746.
- 442 ABNER EDDY, b. Feb. 28, 1747.
- 443 RHODA EDDY. (Query—Did she marry David Shumway, who d. [illegible] aged 78 years and were her children Eddy Shumway and Reuben Shumway?)
- 444 MERCY EDDY.
- 445 ANNA EDDY.

200 Thomas Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 14, 1723, at Swansea, Mass. (V. R.); d. July 21, 1795, at Johnston, R. I., aged 72 yrs. (U. S. Chronicle). He m. (1) Elizabeth Bowen, b. Mar. 26, 1723, dau. of Aaron and Experience (Whitaker) Bowen. She died before Mar. 26, 1791, at Coventry, R. I., in her 72nd year. The Providence Gazette of Mar. 26, 1791 and the U. S. Chronicle of Mar. 31, 1791 record the death of Elizabeth Eddy, wife of Capt. Thomas Eddy at Coventry, R. I. The diary of Elisha Fish, quoted in the N. E. H. G. Register, Vol. LVI gives under the date of Mar. 1791, "The 20th of this month I was at the funeral of Elizabeth, the wife of Thomas Eddy of Coventry, R. I." Thomas Eddy m. (2) Rosanna (or Roxanna) Hicks.

The will of Thomas Eddy reads: "I, Thomas Eddy, late of Coventry, [illegible]

Thomas Eddy served in the Colonial Wars. As early as 1755 the Colonial Records mention Capt. Thomas Eddy of Coventry, R. I. It would seem that he is the Thomas of the following records.

Thomas Edy—1st Co., 3rd Regt., Capt. Dyer. Enlisted Sept. 15, 1755, discharged Dec. [illegible]

In Nov. 1756 Thomas Eddy enlisted in or near Pomfret, Conn., in a company raised for the defence of Fort Edward [illegible]

When Thomas Eddy bought land in Coventry on the 28th of Aug. 1749, he gave his residence as Coventry, so he must have left home earlier. Perhaps he established himself there after his return from King George's War. His land was on the east side of the Moosup River. It was 54 acres in extent and was the piece which Richard Herendeen sold to Colegrove. In 1761 he bought the piece on the opposite side of the river. This was bounded on the north by the Scituate town line. (Coventry Rec., 3.393, also 2.121.) At another time he bought land, with a corn-mill on it, from William Love. This also was on the Moosup River.

When the 1774 Census of R. I. was taken, Thomas Eddy was in Coventry with a household consisting of one male over 16 and two females. In 1777 he was listed as between the ages of 50 and 60 and able to bear arms. When the U. S. Census of 1790 was taken he was still in Coventry with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16; one female over 16, and five others.

After the death of his first wife, Thomas was alone in the world since he had no children. It seemed to Thomas that he should have some one to care for him The Records tell how he solved the problem.

(Coventry Deeds, 8, 97) Thomas Eddy of Coventry, yeoman, in consideration of the love, good-will and affection which I have to and bare to my well beloved friend Rose Hicks, now residing in Johnston,—single woman—I sell one piece of land in Coventry bounded northerly on the line between Coventry and Foster, east on the Moosup River, south on Pardon Pearce and west on the land of Richard Herendeen, deceased. Dated Mar. 29, 1792.

(Coventry Deeds 8, 117) Thomas Eddy, late of Coventry, Yeoman and Rosanna Eddy, wife of said Thomas, both now residing in Johnston. "Know ye that the said Thomas and Rosanna Eddy for . . . and in consideration of the marriage which hath heretofore been had and solemnized between the said Thomas and Rosanna and for promoting our joint and common interest, happiness and advancement in life do sell to Theodore Foster of Providence 84 acres of land in Coventry, the same land, described in a deed to Rosanna, etc." Dated Aug. 14, 1792. Again on Jan. 27, 1795 Thomas and Rosanna sell the old Mill Dam. Thomas Eddy, Jr. was one of the witnesses to this deed. There are one or two other records of purchases and sales, but they are of no genealogical interest.

No children.

201 James Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 21, 1725, at Swansea, Mass. (V.R.); d. in Palmer, Mass. before Oct. 6, 1795, when his will was proved. He m. Oct. 11, 1748, Anne Burch of Stonington, Conn. (Glocester, V.R.). She was living Dec. 18, 1775, when she released her dower rights to a piece of land (Deeds at Springfield, Mass. 14, 253). He m. (2) before Oct. 6, 1791 Abigail . . . , who survived him and is mentioned in his will.

James left Swansea and went to R. I. with his father. He lived in Glocester until the spring of 1748, when he left to look over the lands in Connecticut, which his father had purchased. He returned to marry as the record in Glocester states that James Eddy of Salisbury married Anne Burch of Stonington, Conn. On the day of the marriage Joshua gave to James as a wedding gift, three parcels of land in Salisbury, consisting in all of about 325 acres. The stay in Salisbury must have been short, if he returned there after his marriage, since in 1751 he was again a resident of Glocester, R. I. and in 1754 he purchased the homestead of James Tourtellot and added to this farm on Apr. 19, 1757 (Glocester Deeds). Two years later James Eddy of Glocester for the sum of £4000 sold to Brother William Eddy 70 acres of farm, where I dwell. Wife Anne signed the deed with a cross. In 1762 James Eddy of Glocester, yeoman sold "To my father, Joshua Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, a small part of the farm where I now dwell in Glocester" (Glocester Deeds, 7.129) In 1766 he sold all of his holdings in Glocester and went to Wilbraham, Mass., where he purchased a home in which he lived nearly all the remainder of his life. He must have lived in Palmer during the last three or four years since his will gives Palmer as his residence.

The following abstracts are of interest.

(Glocester Deeds 3, 196) Joshua Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, for £1000 sold "to James Eddy, my son, of Glocester, yeoman, the southerly part of the homestead, where I now dwell." Dated Feb. 10, 1748 and the northerly part on Dec. 10, 1759.

(Salisbury, Conn. Land Rec.; Vol. II, p. 126) Joshua Eddy sold to his loving son, James Eddy of Salisbury, Conn., 3 parcels of land in Salisbury, first; the 14th lot in the 1st Division, being 100 acres; 2nd; 75 acres, being my second pitch in the 6th Division of the proprietors land in the township of Salisbury; 3rd, 150 acres being my whole part in the seventh Division together with 1/3 of my right or single share in the proprietor's undivided land in Salisbury. Dated Oct. 11, 1748.

(Glocester Deeds) James Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, sold to Elijah Cook of Smithfield "all my farm in Glocester, where I now dwell—215 acres—being all my land by virtue of two deeds from my honored father dated Dec. 10, 1759 and Jan. 29, 1762 and one from Richard Tucker, Jan. 28, 1760 and one from Obadiah Brown." One of the bounds was Jonathan Eddy. Dated Mar. 31, 1766. Anne Eddy signed with a mark.

(Springfield Deeds, 8, 42) Daniel Lamb of Wilbraham sold to James Eddy of Glocester, R.I., "yeoman, land in Wilbraham and formerly in Springfield." Dated June 24, 1766.

(Springfield Deeds, 8, 501) James Edy of Wilbraham bought land "on the East side of the Connecticut River now in Wilbraham, formerly in Springfield."

(Old records of Brimfield; p. 433, at Springfield) Lands were laid out to James Eddy in the 8th Division in Robert Old's right in Palmer. Dated Feb. 23, 1775.

(Springfield Deeds, 14, 255) James Eddy of Wilbraham sold "to my son Caleb Eddy of Wilbraham, land in Wilbraham." Bounds mention Chicopee River and Charles Eddy. Dated Feb. 20, 1776.

(Springfield Deeds, 14, 256) James Eddy of Wilbraham sold to son Charles Eddy of Wilbraham—185 acres on the Boston Post Road on Feb. 20, 1776.

(Springfield Deeds, 14, 257) James Eddy sold to Caleb Eddy, 132 acres, the north east corner of my farm bounding east on the line between Palmer and Wilbraham. Dated Sept. 15, 1774.

(Springfield Deeds, 14, 254) "I, James Eddy of Wilbraham for the love and good-will . . . to my son Joshua Eddy of Wilbraham, yeoman . . . sell 42 acres—bounding southerly on the Boston Post Road—the home lot on which I live, being a corner of a piece I gave to my son before and all the buildings thereon, reserving to myself the use and occupation of the same during my life." Dated Feb. 20, 1776.

(Springfield Deeds, 31, 41) James Eddy of Wilbraham sold land in Palmer, 60 acres—bounds mention Joshua Eddy, Caleb Eddy's heirs—and is the land bought of Joshua Eddy. Wife Abigail Eddy released her dower rights. Dated Oct. 6, 1791. The will of James Eddy mentions wife Abigail, to whom he gives "My great Bible which is to be returned to Charles Eddy at her decease." Son Joshua and son Charles are also mentioned and grandchildren, James, Caleb, Adbeel and Charles. The will was dated Aug. 5, 1793 and proved Oct. 6, 1795 (Probate Rec. 19, 171).

When the Revolutionary war broke out he offered his services. His service was as follows:

James Eddy, Wilbraham. Private, Capt. Reuben Munn's co., Col. Nicholas Dike's regt.; pay abstract for travel allowance, etc., dated Roxbury, Sept. 17, 1776; also, same co. and regt.; pay abstract for travel allowance, etc., dated Boston, Nov. 26, 1776.

James Eddy. Private, Capt. Ephraim Chapin's co., Col. Ruggles Woodbridge's regt.; enlisted Aug. 23 (also given Aug. 15), 1777; discharged Sept. 30, 1777; service, 1 mo. 12 (also given 1 mo. 15) days, travel included, under Gen. Gates in Northern department. Roll sworn to in Hampshire Co.

When the 1790 Census was taken his household in Wilbraham consisted of two males over 16; two under 16; and two females.

Children, b. in Glocester, R. I. (V.R.):

+446 JOSHUA EDDY, b. Nov. 2, 1749.
+447 CALEB EDDY, b. Mar. 24, 1750/51.
+448 CHARLES EDDY, b. Jan. 24, 1755.

202 Peter Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 4, 1727, in Swansea, Mass. (V.R.); d. Nov. 9, 1799, in Clarendon, Vt. His gravestone is in the Chippenhook Cemetery in the western part of Clarendon about eight miles south of Rutland. He married Dec. 5, 1751, at Scituate R. I. (V.R.) Mary Round; dau. of John and Mary (Seamans) Round, of Scituate, R. I.

Peter Eddy left Swansea with his father Joshua Eddy and lived with him in Glocester until his marriage. Joshua had purchased lands in Salisbury, Conn. He had already given to Zachariah and James a portion. When Peter became of age he deeded the remainder to him.

(Salisbury, Conn. Land Records; Vol. III, p. 46) Joshua Eddy of Glocester, R. I., yeoman, to my loving son Peter, carpenter, four parcels of land.—(1) 75 acres which was first part in pitch on 5th Division which was the 18th pitch in draught drawn by Proprietors. (2) 75 acres being second part of Eddy's pitch in the 6th Division. (3) 75 acres and is the first pitch of the 6th Division. (4) 20 acres being in the pitch laid out to James Beebe. Dated May 4, 1750.

Whether Peter ever joined his brothers in Salisbury and lived there for any time has not been ascertained, but the fact that his father gave him this suggests that he joined them expecting to stay and so was given the land. But if he ever did take possession in person it is evident that he did not settle for in 1751 he was married in Scituate, R. I., and then settled in Smithfield, R. I., where he lived until 1756, when he bought land in Scituate.

(Scituate Deeds, 4, 308) Peter Eddy of Smithfield, yeoman, bought of Richard and Jeremiah Knight . . . on the Westconaide Purchase on the original right of John Jones. Peter of Smithfield sold this piece on Mar. 23, 1756 (Scituate Deeds, 4, 339) and on Apr. 4, 1757 he purchased another piece in Scituate near the line dividing it from Providence (4, 367).

In 1758 Peter was living in Scituate where he was admitted Freeman in May. In this year he purchased more land.

This farm was partly in Scituate and partly in Glocester, so that this may account for the fact that from 1759–1761 Peter gave his residence as Glocester.

(Glocester Deeds, 7, 242) Peter Eddy of Glocester, wheelwright, for £2225 sold to Nathan Herendeen of Scituate, "All my farm on which I now dwell in Glocester, being 54½ acres." Mary, wife of Peter yielded her dower rights. Dated June 24, 1760.

(Glocester Deeds, 3, 506) Peter of Glocester, yeoman, for £1600 sold to James Round, 51 acres—land I purchased from David Thurber.

Peter then purchased land in Scituate adjacent to the east side of the Punhungansett River near James Seamans and Peleg Round. Dated May 31, 1763. He immediately sold this and purchased other land (5.327). Again in 1765 he sold the land where he did lately dwell on the east side of the Punhungansett River (5.615) and again (5.676) he sold to David Hopkins, 60½ acres east of the Punhungansett River and near a small brook that runneth to the River, called Round Hill River.

When the Census of 1774 was taken Peter was living in Scituate with a family consisting of one male over 16; 2 under 16; 2 females over 16; and 1 under. In the Revolutionary Records of Vermont it is found that Peleg Eddy, who was the son of Peter, enlisted on Dec. 28, 1776 at Clarendon for service in the Revolutionary War. These two items would place the date of Peter's removal to Vt. as probably the early spring of 1775. He took with him all of his sons except John whom he left with John Round, his wife's brother, who brought him up.

Peter first attempted to settle near Rutland, but he and his family were driven farther south by the Indians, and they took up their abode on the banks of the Otter Creek. The following account taken from a letter written in 1915 brings Peter and his wife Mary very close to the present. Eleanor Wade, who was then eighty-five years old and next to the youngest of seventeen children of Polly (Eddy) Wade was living in Chatauqua, N. Y. Her Aunt Sally (Eddy) Fisher told her that she had been the favorite granddaughter of Mollie (Round) Eddy and that her grandmother often told to her stories of the Indians. The one about the Indians coming to massacre the Eddys ran as follows: "Grandmother Eddy said, 'David, after being friends so long with us you surely are not going to kill us, are you?' David said, 'No, but you go away.' Whereupon the Indians began to ruin everything. They ripped up the feather beds and let the feathers fly away and then they proceeded to set fire so that our grandparents were glad to escape with their lives."

This accords with a tradition handed down in another line from Peter which is that Peter and his family with the exception of one son came to Vermont from R. I. and settled near Rutland, Vt., but that the Indians very soon drove them farther south. Another descendant, Jonathan Eddy, in a letter to Mr. B. B. Horton about 1910 said, "We were so fortunate as to get the story of Peter's life and family from the living lips of his grand-daughter Sally Eddy Fisher, my own great aunt, who was a pet of her grandmother, Peter's wife. Sally remembered her grandmother very well."

Another branch has the tradition that the grandfather of Anice Eddy, who married David Hawthorne, moved to Rutland at the time of the Revolution but the Indians very soon drove him off. Still another branch has the story that Molly arrived in Vermont riding on a pillion behind her husband, Peter, carrying a flat-iron in her lap.

When the call came for soldiers to man Fort Pittsford, Peter and all his family gave aid. His service follows:

Peter Edy. Private, pay roll of Capt. Abraham Salisbury's company in Otter Creek, raised in Clarendon, by advice of com. of safety and principal inhabitants of the towns of Wallonford, Clarendon, Rutland, and Pittsford, on being alarmed by the enemy's coming to Pittsford. Service, at Pittsford, Oct. 17 to Oct. 23, 1777.

Peter Eddy. Private, pay roll of Capt. Thomas Sawyer's company; Col. Gideon Warren's regt. of militia under command of Levi Colvin, Ensign, in the service of this, and the United States. Enlisted Nov. 7, 1778; discharged Nov. 11, 1778: service, 5 days; also, same co. service at Pittsford, Oct. 17th to Oct. 23, 1777. Service, 6 days at one dollar per day.

In Feb. 1781 a list of those who had taken the Freeman's oath was made. Peter Eddy's name is eleventh on the list (Clarendon Records). On May 9, 1781 he bought land of Joseph Smith for £60 on the right of Jeremiah Whitemore, 100 acres in extent (Bk. 1, p. 257). In Sept. 1782, the town laid out more land for him in Clarendon (Vol. I of Town Records).

He was a carpenter and wheelwright by trade, a strong, energetic man, fearless and capable, a pioneer in the true sense of the word with a fitting helpmate in Mollie Round. He lies buried in the Chippenhook Cemetery in Clarendon, Vt. His stone bears this inscription, "In memory of Mr. Peter Eddy, who died Nov. 9, 1799, aged 72." His son Peleg is buried by his side.

Children, b. in Scituate or Glocester (order of birth unknown):

+449 JOHN EDDY, b. about 1754.
+450 PELEG EDDY, b. about 1759.
+451 JAMES EDDY, b. July 8, 1764.
+452 JONATHAN EDDY.
+453 ZERVIAH EDDY.
+454 MARY EDDY.

203 William Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 6, 1729, in Swansea, Mass. He was living in 1788 (Smithfield Deeds). He m. Aug. 12, 1756 (Smithfield V.R.), Hadassah (Sprague) Angell, widow of Stephen Angell, Jr. whom she had m.

Oct. 21, 1750. She was b. June 2, 1732; dau. of Capt. Hezekiah^4 Sprague (Jonathan^3, Jonathan^2, William^1) and his wife Sarah^4 Smith (Edward^3, Edward^2, Christopher^1) (Sprague Family, p. 161). She was living in 1788 (Smithfield Deeds).

When the Census of R. I. was taken in 1774, William Eddy was in Glocester as the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, four under 16; two females over 16, and two under 16 years; and in 1777 he is listed as between the ages of 16 and 50 and capable of bearing arms. He is possibly the William Eddy who is Ensign in Glocester in 1789 and Capt. in 1790 (Civil and Military Lists of R. I.). He was a private in Capt. N. Blackmar's co. in the Rev. War.

On Dec. 7, 1759 he purchased from his brother James Eddy and wife Anne a piece of land in Glocester upon which he dwelt until 1788 when he sold it to Stephen Keech. This deed was signed by both William and Hadassah Eddy.

We, William Eddy, yeoman and Dacie Eddy of Glocester to Hanan Winsor of Glocester, husbandman, quit-claim to right of dower or power of thirds to the farm in Smithfield, 50 acres—the farm that Stephen Angell, Jun., former husband of said Dacie Eddy dyed seized of, which he received from his father. Dated Jan. 17, 1771. Signed by William Eddy and Hadassah Eddy and witnessed by William Eddy and Andrew Brown (Smithfield Deeds, 7, 22).

William Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, sold to Stephen Keech, "the farm where I now live in Glocester purchased of James Eddy." Dated July 3, 1788, signed also by Hadassah Eddy and witnessed by Noah Eddy.

No authentic record of the names of the children of William and Hadassah Eddy has been found. The Eddy Genealogy of 1881 confuses this William of Glocester with the William Eddy of Scituate, R. I. and ascribes to him the children of the Scituate William. From the two censuses of 1774 and 1777 it is clear that he lived in Glocester and had a family. It is possible that the Noah Eddy who witnessed one of the above deeds was one of his sons and perhaps also the William who witnessed the other. This latter William may also be the Ensign and Capt. spoken of above.

204 John Eddy (Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 25, 1731, at Swansea (V.R.). The gravestone at Uxbridge gives the birth date as Dec. 25, 1730. He d. Mar. 21, 1823, at Northbridge, Mass. His wife was Sarah Angell. Stephen Angell in his will, dated Mar. 27, 1771, mentions his daughter Sarah Eddy (Johnston, R. I. Probate).

He settled in Glocester and in 1760, he purchased from his father 20 acres on the south-eastern part of the farm of his father, bounded on the land that his brother James had just bought (Glocester Deeds 6, 505). In the distribution of his property which the father Joshua made just before his death, John received 100 acres more (Glocester Deeds 8, 117) "Joshua Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, for the love I bear to my son John Eddy of Glocester all my farm where I now dwell, situate in said Glocester, 100 acres, bounding northerly on my son James . . . and is all my said farm, that I have not before disposed of." Dated Feb. 4, 1762. In 1762 he served in a campaign.

In 1770 John of Glocester, gentleman, for £480 sold to Simeon Smith, all my farm where I dwell —160 acres. Bounds mention Daniel Eddy's land on the Baker Farm, the dividing line between grantor and grantee, Winsor land and Burlingame land. Wife Sarah Eddy signed. Deed dated Apr. 9, 1770. John then purchased land in Smithfield, R. I. and lived there for about five years. On Nov. 4, 1775, John Eddy of Smithfield, yeoman, sold the land "I bought of Benjamin Lapham in Smithfield, 100 acres, where I now dwell" (Smithfield Deeds 6, 453). This date probably is the time of his removal to Northbridge, Mass., where he was a resident at the time that the 1790 Census was taken. He was then the head of a household which consisted of two males over 16, one under 16 and two females.

He left a will (Worcester Prob.) in which are mentioned wife Sarah; son Jesse; dau. Huldah Bowen; dau. Hannah Mosher; heirs of son Thomas. These are omitted because Thomas received his part of the estate during his life. The will was dated Jan. 1, 1803 and filed Apr. 1, 1823.

Children:

455 HULDAH EDDY, b. May 27, 1756; m. . . . BOWEN.
+456 THOMAS EDDY, b. Jan. 25, 1759.
457 ASA EDDY, b. Dec. 4, 1760; d. young.
+458 HANNAH EDDY, b. May 29, 1763.
+459 JESSE EDDY, b. Nov. 29, 1769.

205 Constant Eddy (Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 9, 1710, in Swansea, Mass. (V.R.); d. Nov. 16, 1784, in Groton, Conn.; m. Dec. 16, 1733, in Swansea (V.R.), Mary Winslow, b. Apr. 26, 1716; d. Sept. 7, 1784.

He spent the early part of his life in Swansea as a farmer. He received a piece of land from his father in the Mendment Division (B.C.D. 38, 74) and there are several land transactions on file in which he took part. His name occurs as witness to deeds. In the inventory of Seth Eddy's estate, he is mentioned as having received money. He is mentioned often in connection with other Eddys. Once it is recorded that he received money for digging a grave.

On Jan. 28, 1769, Constant, Devotion, and Tisdale Eddy, all of Swansea, sold to Peleg Slead, land in Swansea, (B.C.D.; 52, 404) and on Jan. 30, 1769, the three sold land in Swansea to James Luther (B.C.D. 52, 270).

The year 1769 is probably the time of his removal to Groton for a deed dated Apr. 6, 1769 from John Spicer of Groton, Conn., was given to "Constant Eddy, late of Swansea, Province of Massachusetts Bay and now residing in Groton."

On Dec. 1, 1769 Constant Eddy and Tisdel Eddy, both of Groton, Conn., sold to David Luther, land in Swansea. Wife Mary Eddy signed and Obadiah Eddy was a witness to the deed. It is probable that Constant and Tisdel left Swansea in the spring of 1769 for Groton (B.C.D.; 54.56), where they spent the remainder of their lives.

In the Records of the state of Conn., Vol. II, p. 512, is the following record which without any doubt refers to Constant Eddy although the name is given Consid'r.

"At a meeting of the Governor and Council of Safety held at Lebanon, Mar. 27, 1780, it was voted as Follows, 'Permitted Consid'r Eddy of Groton to drive out to Swansey in Mass., a yoke of oxen for the use of his son, on a farm he owns there.'"

The Catalogue of Deaths in the Second Society of Groton, Conn. 1770–1815 gives the date of Constant's death as 1784. His will is on file in Groton, Conn. It was executed Oct. 30, 1784. Son-in-law Simeon Button was the executor. It mentions son Devotion; dau. Silva Avery; dau. Jemima Chapman; dau. Mary Spicer; dau. Ruth Button; dau. Elizabeth Winslow; grand-dau. Lois Edey; grandson Avery Edey; sister Abigail Burdon. A codicil added on Nov. 6, 1784 mentions son Obediah Edey, grandchildren Sible, Humphrey, Hannah, Nancy Edey, children of deceased son Tisdel Edey and daughter Abagail. The Inventory showed 20 pounds. A claim of Jacob Avery and wife was allowed by the court. A deposition of Sherman Eddy of Schaghticoke, Albany Co., N. Y., is on file and in this the names of Jacob and Silvia Avery appear.

468 RUTH EDDY, b. July 11, 1765; m. SIMEON BUTTON. Mr. A. L. Button who lives in Melrose, N. Y. on the farm which Simeon Button purchased says that Ruth Eddy was born July 12, 1759. The Spicer Gen. gives the birth date of Ruth as July 11, 1744 (Hudson and Mohawk Valley Genealogies, N. Y. under Eddy and Spicer lines of Royal Descent, p. 589).

206 Ichabod Eddy (Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 1, 1712, in Westport (V.R.). (The Swansea V.R. give the birth date as June 1, 1713.) He d. Feb. 26, 1795, Westport (V.R.). He m. (1) May 30, 1737 (Freetown Rec.) Sarah Winslow; dau. of Richard³ Winslow (Job,² Kenelm¹). She was b. June 8, 1716. The Freetown V.R. give the date of birth as May 8, 1716. Perhaps the June date is the date of baptism. Ichabod mar. (2) Mrs. Mary Cornell on Nov. 24, 1779. She was the widow of Job Cornell and daughter of John and Abigail (Chase) Davis (Westport V.R. and Chase Gen., p. 11). Ichabod Eddy was a farmer.

He lived at first in Swansea, then in Tiverton, R. I. and later in Westport, Mass. where he died. When the French and Indian War broke out he entered service as trumpeter. His service as recorded in the muster rolls in the Mass. Archives is as follows (Vol. XCII, p. 43). Ichabod Eddy appears on a Muster Roll date not given—of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jonathan Peck . . . Troop of horse. Quality, trumpeter. Residence, Swansea. Entered service, Sept. 29, 1746. Served until Oct. 5, 1746. Length of service, 1 week. He also served in Capt. Smith's Co. in the R. I. forces at Louisbourg in 1745. (Chapin.)

A descendant of Ichabod, Orson Eddy, who was born in 1829, writing in 1905, stated that he had learned from his parents that at one time Ichabod followed the sea, that he sailed out of New Bedford and often was gone for several years on whaling voyages and would return with large cargoes of whale-oil and whale-bone. In this way he amassed quite a fortune for those times. After the death of Ichabod he says that his grandfather Henry Eddy took his share of the estate and moved to Easton, N. Y., where he purchased a large tract of land, a portion of which he possessed at his death. He continues in this letter "I often heard my father (Russell Eddy) in a bragging way say that his father in his young days used to go over to Marthas Vineyard and shear a hundred sheep and return home to the main land in one day. He said that his father always advocated short handled hoes, so that the slaves could get close to their work. He was quite a slave owner. He passed seven of them over to my father (Russell) who freed them. Mother said that when grandfather was eighty years old, he married a second wife, who was thirty years younger. They lived together about five years when he died and was buried in the family burying ground on his own farm. My father was laid to rest beside him."

It is very probable that he became interested in the Society of Friends about 1750. They were very numerous at this period in Tiverton. His wife was one of their number and most of his children became Friends also. This faith has been retained by their descendants in many branches to the present day.

On Apr. 13, 1734 he witnessed a deed given by Caleb Eddy (Bristol Co. Deeds, 27, 520). In 1739 he sold his land in Swansea to Constant Eddy (Bristol Co. Deeds, 27, 520). The bounds mention Edward Eddy, Constant Eddy and Obadiah Eddy. This is the land that he had received from his father in 1734.

The following abstracts also are of interest:

(28, 384) John Tillinghast of Newport sold to Ichabod Eddy of Tiverton, yeoman, orchard, etc. . . . a part of Stephen Gifford's farm.

(71, 214) Ichabod Eddy of Westport, Bristol Co., yeoman, sold to Daniel Tripp ¼ acre on the East Branch of the Acoakeset River. Dated Mar. 17, 1792.

(73, 488) Mary Eddy of Westport, Bristol Co., widow and relict of Ichabod Eddy, late of Westport, dec'd for 30 pounds sold to Zephaniah Eddy of Dartmouth, yeoman, and to Ebenezer Eddy of Westport, yeoman, sons of Ichabod, . . . all my dower rights. Dated Apr. 17, 1795. Mary signed with a cross.

When the Census of 1790 was taken Ichabod was in Westport, with a family consisting of one male and one female.

His will dated Jan. 1, 1794, mentions wife Mary; sons Ebenezer, Henry, Zephaniah, Nathan; grandson Ichabod, son of David Eddy, dec'd; Hope and Mary, daughters of David; granddaughter Prudence Davis; dau. Betty Lion or (Linn) and her dau. Eunice; dau. Lois Gifford; dau. Rhoba Anthony, dec'd; grandsons George Lion, Nathan Lion and Edward Lion (or Linn). He signed the will Ichabod Eddy Eddy.

(V.R.), Patience Phillips; dau. of James Phillips. He was a cordwainer and also a farmer and lived all his life in Swansea. He was one of the witnesses to Caleb Eddy's will. (B.C. Prob. 11.624). In 1747 he received 30 A from his father, bordering on Capt. Slade, Edward Eddy and Eleazar Chase (B.C.D. 37, 446).

It is not known whether all the following references to Job Eddy belong to Job Eddy of Swansea, but it seems probable that they are records of his service.

(Vol. XCII, p. 76) Job Edy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, January 25, 1747/8 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. David Cargill. Quality, Centinel. Residence, not given. Entered service, July 29, year not given, probably 1747. Served until Jan. 20, year not given, probably 1747/8. Length of service, 25 weeks, 1 day.

(Vol. XCII, p. 91) Job Edy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, August 12, 1748, of a company in his Majesty's service under the command of Capt. David Cargill. Quality, Centinel. Residence, not given. Entered service, Jan. 21, year not given, endorsed 1747/8. Served until Mar. 10, year not given, endorsed 1747/8. Length of service, 7 weeks, 1 day.

(Vol. XCII, p. 123) Job Edy appears on a Muster Roll, dated Boston, August 13, 1748, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. David Cargill. Quality, Centinel. Residence, not given. Entered service, Mar. 11, year not given, probably 1747/8. Served until July 28, year not given, endorsed 1748. Length of service, 20 weeks.

Residence, not given. Entered service, July 29, year not given. Served until Dec. 12, year not given. Endorsed 1748. Length of service, 19 weeks, 4 days.

(Vol. XCIII, p. 27) Job Bedey appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Oct. 30, 1749 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Lieut. Alexander Nickels. Quality, Centinel. Residence, not given. Entered service, Dec. 13, year not given, probably 1748. Served until Sept. 12, year not given, probably 1749. Length of service, 39 weeks, 1 day. Service at Sheepscott (Probably).

(Vol. XCIV, p. 227) Job Eddy appears on a List dated Swansey, May 29, 1756, returned by Capt. Obadiah Baker of persons within the limits of his Co. who are Quakers and decline to do militia service.

When the census was taken in 1790 Job Eddy was the head of a household consisting of 3 males over 16 and 2 females.

In a deed which Job Eddy gave to Weston Earl (B.C.D. 82.391) he mentioned "my sister Westcot." When Job Eddy died Silas Chase, Jabez Pratt, Sylvester Chase, Job Eddy, and Joshua Eddy said that they thought that their mother was not capable of administering the estate and asked that their brother Preserved might be appointed. He was appointed on Jan. 30, 1800 and Reuben Chace was made guardian of the son Zachariah, who was "non-compos."

(3) Mar. 8, 1764, Lucy Clark (Boston V.R.). He was a tallow chandler. Nothing more is known about him except that Sept. 30, 1749, he united with his mother, Hannah Eddy, widow, and with Caleb Eddy, trader, in selling a piece of land. Caleb's wife, Martha, signed, but as no wife of Samuel signed, probably Mary had died previously. (Suffolk County Deeds 77.118.)

He began business as a tallow chandler and shopkeeper on Orange St., Boston, and as business increased he became a trader on a larger scale, and was interested in shipping. He owned a share in "The good Briganteen, Polly and Molly" of 116 tons, of which he sold one sixth part on Sept. 27, 1748. He was in partnership for a time with John Rider. The Suffolk County Deeds show a number of transactions in land, many of which are signed by wife, Martha. We have also evidence that he was interested in music and poetry. He signed an agreement for a Singing School. (See John Leigh Fam., p. 168.) Several poetical compositions have been handed down, of which the following is a sample:—

"Long have I sought that wish of all,
True happiness to find,—
That some would health, some pleasure call,
And some a virtuous mind;
Sufficient wealth to keep away
Of want, that doleful scene,
And joy enough to gild the day
And make life's cares serene;
Virtue enough to ask my heart,
Art thou secure within?
Hast thou performed that honest part,
Hast thou no private sin?
Now these, and these alone possessed,
Will raise a noble joy!
Will constitute a happiness,
That nothing can destroy!"

From the Muster Rolls on file in the Mass. Archives (Vol. XCI, p. 328) it is learned that Caleb Eddy entered upon an expedition against the Spanish West Indies. His name appears on a list of men sworn to, at Boston, July 29, 1740, who engaged to serve in the expedition against the Spanish West Indies, under Capt. Stephen Richard. Age 21. Birthplace, Boston. Calling, Mariner. Time of enlistment, July 27. Year not given, probably 1740. Remarks: Reported—List of volunteers. Capt. Stephen Richard raised a company of volunteers to proceed upon the expedition to the Spanish West Indies but their services not being required they dismissed themselves (See Vol. LXXII, pp. 547 and 559).

On Dec. 27, 1751, his widow, Martha, presented her account as administratrix of his estate. She speaks of him as mariner. Upon the death of Martha, Hannah Gardner, daughter of Caleb, succeeded as administratrix to his estate. One deed in particular shows the great care which was given to division of estates.

(Suffolk County Deeds). Hannah Gardner of Boston, widow, to John Parker, shopkeeper, sold one moiety of a certain room or kitchen which is 17 ft. in length and 11 ft. in width, of dwelling house now in occupation of John Parker, also ½ part of chamber over kitchen of same dimensions, also one moiety of a small part of a Garret in Westerly side of said house, which is partitioned off, with a privilege in the stairway to pass to and from the said chamber and garrett, also one moiety of the third part of the cellar which said part is next to the foot of the cellar stairs, also a privilege in the entry way at the southerly end of said house to pass in and out, also one moiety of 13 feet, and ½ of the land in the front, butting easterly on Orange St., southerly on John Martin's land, 35 ft. westerly on other land of estate where it measures 13½ ft. and northerly in the yard or passage-way where it is 35 ft., also a privilege in passage way to and from the shop to street to cart wood and all buildings in same. Land which my father Caleb Eddy died seized of. Dated July 7, 1781, Hannah Gardner.

215 Caleb Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 2, 1708/09, Swansea (V.R.); d. Feb. 19, 1793, aged 83 yrs. 11 mo. 7 days (Bible record from affidavit made by Elkanah Eddy for pension. R. I. State House. Revolutionary Archives); m. June 18, 1730 (Swansea, V.R.), Mehitable Luther, b. Apr. 11, 1712; d. Jan. 4, 1780, aged 67 yrs. 8 mo. 24 d. (Elkanah Eddy's pension affidavit).

In the land transactions, he is called Caleb Eddy Junior, and also Caleb the second. He was a farmer and husbandman in Swansea near Kickemuit Bridge where he made his home until about 1752, when he moved to Scituate, R. I. Between 1746 and 1752, deeds are found in Warren, R. I. since that part of Swansea was ceded to Rhode Island and became the town of Warren. In Warren is recorded Caleb's earmark for cattle, Apr. 1, 1747, "which is a slit in the top of the right ear and a crop on the left ear," and he was made Freeman in Warren in 1747 and again in 1748 he took the Freeman's oath in Warren. In Scituate, R. I. is recorded on May 17, 1753, "The earmark with which Caleb Eddy marks his creatures is a crop of the top of the left ear and a slit in the top of the right ear."

Abstracts from deeds. (B. C. D. 25, 355) Caleb Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, son of Samuel Eddy to Caleb Cole—10 A. of land and dwelling-house in Swansea—bounds John Cole, Jr.—brook—Nathaniel Cole; dated Sept. 9, 1737.

(B. C. D. 34, 452) Caleb Eddy of Swansey Jr. yeoman, to Walter Haile—land lying on "highway that leads from Kickamuit to Miles Bridge"—dated Dec. 21, 1738, acknowledged Nov. 5, 1741 (B. C. D. 28, 84). He bought this back in 1739.

(B. C. D. 28, 162) Caleb Eddy, son of Samuel of Swansea, yeoman,—to Joseph Mason 17½ A—bounds William Case—School land—heirs of Thomas Easterbrooks—John Mason; dated Nov. 8, 1739.

(B. C. D. 38, 355) Caleb Eddy, yeoman, to Oliver Salsbury of Swansea, joiner, land in Swansea, —4 A of land originally laid out to John Brown—bounds mention, Benjamin Cole—Caleb Eddy—Capt. Joseph Mason—Oliver Salsbury; dated Nov. 19, 1740; wife Mehitable signs also.

(B. C. D. 34, 453) Caleb Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, to Benjamin Millerd of Swansea, blacksmith—10 A on west side of Kickemuit Creek—dated May 3, 1743. Witnessed by Elkanah Bullock and Sarah Bullock.

(B. C. D. 36, 111) Caleb Eddy, the second, of Swansea to Joseph Mason—23 A., bounds—easterly on a highway—Nathaniel Cole—Benjamin Cole, Benjamin Miller—Easterbrooks—Isaac Wheaton—and partly on a part of land belonging to my honored father, Samuel Eddy, deceased, and partly on John Cole. Dated Mar. 20, 1744/45, and signed Caleb Eddy, 2nd.

(B. C. D. 33, 262) Caleb Eddy, Jr. of Swansea to Caleb Cole, 20 A. on west side of Kickamuit Creek which he buys back (B. C. D. 34, 339) describing it as "a house and tract of land containing about 20 A. being said Caleb Eddy's homestead by or near Kickamuit Bridge in Swansea."

(B. C. D. 37, 231) Caleb Eddy of Warren of Road Island, yeoman, to John Cole of Warren—20 A. of land in Swansea; wife Mehitable signed; dated Feb. 3, 1749.

It is probable that Caleb left Warren in the fall of 1751, since he sold to John Cole in August of that year most of his property in Swansea.

(Scituate, R. I. Deeds 4, 329) Joseph Cole to Caleb Eddy of Warren in county of Bristol, for £1600, 65 A. in Scituate, R. I.; dated July 16, 1752; witnessed by Samuel Eddy.

(Scituate, R. I. 3, 194) Caleb Eddy to Bays Manchester, yeoman, 30 A. and is the eastern part of farm whereon I now live. Dated and witnessed by Elkanah Eddy, May 20, 1754.

(Scituate, R. I. 4, 450) Caleb Eddy of Scituate for the natural affection which I bear to my son, Samuel—10 A. of the south-east corner of my farm at Samuel Gorton's northeast corner—unto him my son. Dated Feb. 1, 1758.

(Scituate, R. I., 5, 420) Caleb Eddy of Scituate, yeoman, to Bays Manchester, yeoman, for £84 "farm where he dwells," boundaries mention James Thomas, Samuel Eddy, Phoebe Thurston, and William West. Dated Apr. 20, 1763.

(Scituate, R. I. Deeds) Caleb Eddy of Scituate to Bays Manchester for $600, land near William West's line and Phoebe Thurston's. Signed by wife Mehitable Eddy and witnessed by William Eddy.

The above abstracts give absolute proof that the descendants of Samuel Eddy who married Rachel Smith, who are later found in Vt., trace back their ancestry to Caleb Eddy who m. Elizabeth Bullock.

He was made guardian of Simeon Read Apr. 13, 1743, who chose "my unkel Caleb Eddy Jr. to be my guardian." Mehitable Eddy witnessed the document.

Children:

495 Caleb Eddy, b. Dec. 31, 1730, at Swansea; d. Sept. 14, 1750, Warren. He was buried in Kickemuit Cemetery in Warren where his stone is still standing.
+496 Elkani Eddy, b. Jan. 31, 1732, at Swansea (V.R.).
+497 Samuel Eddy, b. Nov. 8, 1736, at Swansea (V.R.).
+498 Mehitable Eddy, b. May 22, 1739, at Swansea (V.R.).
+499 William Eddy, b. Apr. 25, 1746, at Warren (V.R.).
+500 Caleb Eddy, b. May 2, 1751, at Warren (V.R.).

217 Sarah Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 8, 1713, at Swansea; m. Nov. 5, 1730, in Swansea to Daniel Carpenter; m. (2) Elkanah Bullock before May 18, 1744. (Warren Deeds, 1.8.)

John Bullock and Hannah Bullock, my wife, Elizabeth Eddy, spinster, Elkanah Bullock and Sarah Bullock, my wife, all of Swansea, sold "to our brother Caleb Eddy of Swansea . . . all belonging to our honored father Samuel." Dated May 18, 1744, Warren, R. I.

Among their children was a daughter, Hannah Bullock, who m. John Simmons. Their son Constance Simmons m. Lydia Briggs, whose son John Simmons m. Hannah Howe, whose daughter Frances Simmons m. Charles Estes of Warren. Mr. Estes is a genealogist and compiler of the genealogy of the Estes family.

220 Benjamin Eddy (Benjamin, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 15, 1721; d. at Jamaica in West Indies before Aug. 29, 1764. (Boston Prob.) (Eddy Gen. 1881 Edition, p. 234).

He was a sailor and in 1751 was a resident of Somersetshire in England. (B.C.D., 41. 169.) "I, Benjamin Eddy of Somersetshear in old England, mariner to Samuel Baker of Swansey, 2/5 of a certain lot lying in easterly part of Swansea, land laid out to Caleb Eddy,—bounds—Isaac Chase—Nathaniel Toogood—Mary Shepard." Dated Oct. 13, 1751. Before going on his next trip he made Benjamin Hallowell his attorney, and in that capacity Hallowell sold to Joseph Eddy of Boston, mariner, all interest of Benjamin Eddy of Boston, mariner, in house and lands in tenure of Mary Sheppard. Dated Oct. 19, 1759.

221 Nathaniel Eddy (Benjamin, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 22, 1723 (Boston, V.R.); m. June 24, 1746 (Boston, V.R.), Mary Obins (or Obbins).

He began business as a shipwright in Boston and in Jan. 24, 1750 sold out all his rights in land in Swansea (B.C.D. 38,125). Nathaniel Eddy to Ezekiel Chase of Swansey . . . 1/5 part of two 20 A. lots in Swansey laid out to Caleb Eddy. But he soon purchased at auction, house and lands in Battery March St. formerly Capt. Benjamin Gillam's, where he opened a retail store. He sold this in 1762. Wife Mary signed. Nothing further is known of him. It is possible that the Nathaniel Eddy, who mar. Oct. 31, 1782 in Boston, Sarah Calden, was his son.

222 Joseph Eddy (Benjamin, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 24, 1727 (Boston, V.R.). Very little is known of him except that he was a mariner and lived in Boston.

(Suffolk County Deeds 80.208.) Joseph Eddy of Boston, mariner, to Mary, wife of John Sheppard of Boston, mariner, my sister, all my rights being ⅕ part etc. . . . also (Suffolk County Deeds 93.151).

I, Joseph Eddy, now residing in Boston, mariner, for love and affection, I bear my sister, Mary Sheppard of Boston, widow, etc. . . . all my rights which I today purchased from Benjamin Hallowell, the attorney of my brother Benjamin. Dated Oct. 19, 1759. No wife.

It is possible that he is the Joseph Eddy, mariner, who was in Salem, Mass. in 1762, but as yet no proof has been found to establish this as a fact. See No. 12358.

505 Levi Cole.

228 Obadiah Eddy (John, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. before 1710 in Taunton. (He signed a deed in 1731. B.C.D., 34.472), d. bef. May 12, 1748; m. Aug. 1, 1730, at Rehoboth (V.R.) (The Attleboro V.R. give the date of m. Aug. 20, 1730), Susanna Hill of Rehoboth, b. Mar. 14, 1711. She was the daughter of George and Susanna (Grime) Hill (N.E.H.G.R., Vol. LVIII). He was a husbandman and lived in Rehoboth, probably in the extreme northern part and in Attleboro.

On Feb. 7, 1731, he joined with Seth Eddy and Mehitable Eddy in selling land, which was a part of their inheritance from their father (B.C.D. 34.472).

Obadiah, Mehitable, and Seth Eddy to Edmund Andrews—Land lying and being on 3 Mile River, so called—containing 20 A. . . . beginning at south east corner of said land that was formerly Samuel Hoskins, then ranging on said Hoskins line to a black oak tree for a corner bound, then bounded by land that was formerly Mr. Samuel Danforth's to ye brook, then running down said brook to ye old Cartway, then by said Cartway till it comes to William Briggs land, then turning westerly in line of William Briggs, his land till it comes to a rock with stones upon it for a common bound, then turning and ranging to a great oak tree on ye hill north east from said Edmund Andrews, his dwelling house . . . highway that was laid out to ye River that was called Seketeganset River, then turning and ranging westerly by side of said highway to ye first mentioned line. Dated Feb. 7, 1731.

(B. C. D., 24, 248) Obediah of Attleboro, husbandman, to Nathaniel Daggett, land near Daggetts dwelling house. Dated Mar. 17, 1731/2. Susannah signed with a mark. Witnessed by Nathan and Nathaniel Cobb.

(B. C. D., 37, 420) Obediah Eddy of Rehoboth, husbandman, to Josiel Perry of Rehoboth, Cooper, land in Rehoboth and Attleboro, which was Josiel Perry's, now Nathaniel Daggetts . . . bounds mention—William Hoskins—to northerly bounds of Rehoboth. Dated Aug. 30, 1739. Susannah signed.

(B. C. D., 32, 13) Obadiah Eddy of Rehoboth, husbandman, to David Perry of Rehoboth, tract with my homestead in Rehoboth, William Joslin . . .Nathan Cobb—John Titus—Josiel Perry—William Hotchkiss. Dated 1741/2. Wife, Susannah signed.

In 1732 Obadiah and wife Susanna were admitted to communion in the church at Norton. When Obadiah died he left minor children, for two of whom, Obadiah and Susannah, "James Hill of Attleboro became guardian." Susannah Eddy may have mar. (2) Peter Hoskins, Mar. 24, 1763, but it is more likely that Peter Hoskins mar. the dau. Susannah Eddy.

Children:

506 John Eddy, b. Mar. 28, 1731 (Attleboro V.R.).
+507 Obadiah Eddy, over 14 on Aug. 30, 1749, when he chose James Hill of Attleboro as guardian.
508 Susanna Eddy, under 14 May 12, 1748, when James Hill became her guardian. She is probably the Susanna Eddy who m. Peter Hoskins of Taunton, Mar. 24, 1763 (Taunton V.R.).
509 Sarah Eddy, b. abt. 1736; d. June 10, 1750, aged 14 yrs. (Norton, V.R.).

229 Seth Eddy (John, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. before 1710; living May 29, 1761, when he acknowledged a deed (B.C.D. 50.206); m. Patience (Fisher) Simons of Taunton; the daughter of Eleazar and Hannah (Eddy) Fisher. She is mentioned in her father's will as Patience, wife of Seth Eddy; and a deed (B.C.D. 43.415) states that she inherited land from her father Eleazar Fisher, deceased. She died before May 24, 1757.

After the death of his wife Patience, he m. Sept. 22, 1758 Joannah Hoskins, 2nd, of Taunton. He left a will dated May 14, 1761 (B.C. Prob., 17.611), in which he mentions wife Joannah, sons Abiall and John, and daughters Lydia, Rhodah, Joanna, and Bethiah. The will was probated June 8, 1761.

(B. C. D., 42, 562) Seth Eddy of Norton, yeoman, to Thomas Carpenter . . . land set out to Patience Eddy, deceased; for her part of her father's estate to where it comes to Eleazar Fisher's. . . . Joseph Hodges . . . to Mary Darby for her portion out of her father's estate, bounds also mention Nathan Fisher, John Gray, Charity Carpenter, John Fisher.

(B. C. D., 43, 415) Seth Eddy of Norton, land in Norton bounded by land of my wife, Patience Eddy, deceased, for her part of her father Eleazer Fisher's, deceased, estate, and land set out to Marcy Darby for her portion of her father's estate. Dated May 17, 1759.

Seth Eddy was a husbandman and lived most of the time in Attleboro, where he and his wife were members of the Second Congregational Church. He was a soldier in the colonial wars.

The following items are taken from the Massachusetts archives:—

(Vol. XCV, p. 224) Seth Eddy appears on a list dated April 9, 1757 of the 1st Company of Militia in the town of Norton, commanded by Major George Leonard, Jr. comprising the Train band and alarm list,—of men between 16 and 60 years. Rank, private. Reported belonged to the train band.

(Vol. XCV, p. 527) Seth Eddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to—[not given] of Lt. Col. Daniel Carpenter's Co., Col.—Not given—Regt., which marched on the alarm for the relief of Fort William Henry in August, 1757. Quality, private. Entered service, Aug. 16. Returned,—not given. Bounds mention Nathaniel Cobb's swamp, Samuel Stacey's Swamp, etc. Nathaniel Cobb and Obediah Eddy were witnesses to the deed, dated Feb. 24, 1734/5.

(B. C. D. 42, 504) Seth Eddy of Taunton, husbandman, sold to Samuel Hoskins, husbandman, 5 A. of land being ye southwesterly part of my homestead scituate lying and being in said Taunton which homestead was my honored father Mr. John Eddy's of said Taunton, deceased, bounded on ye south west by Hoskins land and on ye north west by ye meadows of Morgan Cobb, ye second of said Taunton and on ye south easterly side by land of said Hoskins and to extend into said Eddy farm. Dated Apr. 25, 1734.

(B. C. D. 43, 57) Seth Eddy of Attleboro, husbandman, to Morgan Cobb 3rd of Taunton, land in Taunton about 4 miles from ye meeting house, bounded by land of John Stacy, deceased, Nathaniel Burt, and land of Samuel Hoskins, Nathan Cobb, and Morgan Cobb, Seth and Patience Eddy. Signed by Seth Eddy and wife Patience. Dated Oct. 18, 1737.

Children:

+510 Abiel Eddy, b. Nov. 3, 1737 (Attleboro, V.R.).
+511 John Eddy, b. Oct. 9, 1739.
512 Lydia Eddy, m. Feb. 25, 1762, Aaron Pratt of Norton (V.R.).
513 Rhodah Eddy, m. Apr. 21, 1763, David Stacy, Jr. of Taunton (Norton V.R.).
514 Joanna Eddy, bp. May 21, 1761.
515 Bethiah Eddy, m. Abiel or Caleb Briggs. She was over 14 on Nov. 8, 1762 when she chose Aaron Pratt for her guardian. (Mar. Rec. gives Caleb Briggs as her husband, m. Nov. 29, 1764 (Norton V.R.).

230 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. abt. 1710, at Middleboro; d. Nov. 3, 1746, aged 36, at Middleboro, Mass.; m. Lydia Alden, b. Dec. 18, 1710; d. Mar. 1, 1803, aged 92 yrs. She was daughter of John^3 Alden (Joseph^2, John^1) and his wife, Hannah White. After Samuel's death she m. Apr. 27, 1762, John Fuller, b. Mar. 20, 1692. He was son of John and Mercy (Nelson) Fuller, d. at Halifax, Mass. in 1766, aged 74 (Alden Gen. p. 17).

Samuel's home was near that of his father in Eddyville, in the house now known as the Clark house. He was admitted to the church June 12, 1735. Lydia also was a member. In 1745 Samuel's name was on a list of those who agreed to build a new meeting house. In 1746 he was appointed executor to the estate of John Alden, since both executors named by him in his will, namely wife Hannah and son David were dead. Samuel also died before he made his report and his eldest son Nathan was appointed in his place. (Plym. Co. Prob. Rec., 10.298). The Probate Records (10.436) contain an inventory of the possessions of Samuel showing a value of £1550-2-0 old tenor. His brother Zachariah was appointed to administer his estate (Plym. Prob., 10.238). When he filed his account, (Plym. Prob. 15.400) the estate was valued at £245; the house and the most westerly part of the land where the house stands was worth £145 and the easterly part that is separated by a cartway was valued at £100.

Some fifty years later a person who knew him well said of him,—"He was among the best hopes of the church which he joined at an early age." We find his name in every important connection and especially in the troublous times which followed Mr. Thacher's death, he was relied on as well-qualified to meet the crises. The Committee of the General Court said "We could not understand the difficulties until Samuel Eddy came before us." The old people have told us, "we had no member of so much intelligence, firm and constant piety and sound discretion in the things of the kingdom." His early death was much lamented. Such are the tributes handed down by friends and neighbors.

Lydia received her papers of dismissal from the church at Middleboro to join the church at Halifax upon her removal thither. All Eddys who can trace their descent back to Samuel and Lydia (Alden) Eddy, are eligible for the Mayflower Society.

Children, b. at Middleboro:

+516 NATHAN EDDY, b. Sept. 8, 1733. (M.D. Vol. XIII, p. 6.)

Zachariah received from his father the old homestead; here he passed all the days of his life. This was the same land that the first Samuel had received as his share in "The 26 Men's Purchase" and it had come down through Obadiah and Samuel to Zachariah, for Samuel ten years before his death gave this land to Zachariah "in consideration of the love and good affection I have and do bare unto my son, Zachariah," the right of use and occupation being reserved to the parents during their natural life. He and his wife were staunch members of the church. Zachariah Eddy was among those who on Feb. 17, 1745 agreed to build a new meeting house. It is written of him that he was a well-informed man for his day. His general character was that of a mild, sedate and discreet man. He served the town in many ways. He was an ardent Whig, and several stories of his tilts with Judge Oliver, a staunch Tory, have been handed down in his family. He died of the small-pox in 1777.

Children (incomplete list):

Mary Rickard, b. 1733 or 1734; m. Joseph Lucas.

241 Joel Eddy (Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 27, 1717, at Middleboro, Mass. (M. D. Vol. III); d. 1776, in service while living at Woodstock (V.R.); m. Mar. 1, 1741/42, Rachel Vose of West Bridgewater; b. abt. 1718; d. July 22, 1788. She is buried in East Woodstock Cemetery.

Somewhere about 1750, Joel left Middleboro and made his home in northeastern Connecticut. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Joel was on the Lexington alarm list from the town of Woodstock and served 22 days. He enlisted in the 7th Co. of the 3rd Regt. (Gen. Putnam's) on May 10, 1775 and was discharged Dec. 15, 1775. (Conn. Rev. War. Rolls). His will executed Feb. 10, 1776 and filed Nov. 4, 1777 states that he is now in the Continental Service at Cambridge. It mentions sons, Jonathan, Levi, Benjamin; daughters, Rachel, Olive, and wife Rachel. Levi and Benjamin were the executors (Conn. State Library Papers).

Children (Eddy Gen. of 1881, also, V.R.):

540 Hannah Eddy, b. Nov. 17, 1742, at Halifax, Mass.; bapt. Jan. 16, 1743, at West Bridgewater, Mass. Not mentioned in father's will in 1776.

John Chandler's Regt., which marched on the alarm for the relief of Fort William Henry in August, 1757, under the Command of said Capt. Davis. Quality, Private. Impressed, Aug. 10. Returned, Aug. 18. Marched from Oxford to Sheffield. Distance travelled, 105 miles. Time in service, 16 days. Allowed for horse-keeping, 8d. per day. 8d.

(Vol. XCIX, p. 392) Samuel Eddy appears on a list of Officers commissioned for the 1st Regt., of Militia in the County of Worcester, 1757, Rank, Lieutenant, Capt. Joseph Phillips' (2d Oxford) Co., Col. John Chandler's Regt.

According to the Genealogy of 1881, he kept a public house in Oxford during the time of the Revolutionary War. There seems to be no record of any service as a soldier of a Samuel Eddy of Oxford or Ward. He inherited the estate of his father. When the Census was taken in 1790 his home was in that part of the original town of Oxford known as Ward. He was the head of a household consisting of three males over 16, one under 16, and four females. The Worcester Registry of Deeds contains several purchases of land which he made, one of them being from Joshua Meriam in 1762, soon after his marriage. Samuel was always known in the early days as Lieut. Samuel Eddy, and when the inventory of his property was made after his decease he is spoken of as Capt. Samuel Eddy, so it is possible that he saw service in the Revolutionary War.

His will, dated Jan. 5, 1793, mentions sons, Samuel, John, and Rufus, and daughters, Susannah and Ruth. This was proved Oct. 2, 1798. The inventory contains a reference to a pew which he owned on the "northeasterly wall of the lower floor in the meeting-house in Ward."

Children, b. in Oxford (V.R.):

607 Isabella Eddy, b. Mar. 27, 1761; not mentioned in her father's will, in 1793.
+608 Samuel Eddy, b. July 11, 1764.
609 Elizabeth Eddy, bapt. June 16, 1765 (C.R.); not mentioned in her father's will in 1793.
+610 John Eddy, b. May 31, 1768.
611 Jonathan Eddy, bapt. Mar. 4, 1770 (C.R.); not mentioned in his father's will.
+612 Rufus Eddy, b. Apr. 6, 1772.
613 Ruth Eddy, bapt. Sept. 11, 1774. Query—Did she marry William Meriam on Aug. 27, 1795?
614 Susannah Eddy, bapt. Sept. 11, 1774 (C.R.).

271 Abigail Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Dec. 5, 1740, at Oxford (V.R.); d. Nov. 28, 1768, in her 28th year (Town of Lexington Gen.). She m. Jan. 2, 1759, at Oxford (V.R.), Joshua Meriam, Jr. of County Gore, Mass., b. Aug. 18, 1734; d. Jun. 7, 1784. He was son of Joshua and Susannah (Gleason) Meriam. In the Worcester Probate under Elizabeth Eddy, who died about 1782, is a statement signed by Joshua Meriam and others in which he says that he married a sister of Elizabeth Eddy spinster, who was also a sister of Samuel and Levi Eddy.

Children (Oxford Records):

i Jonathan Meriam, b. Mar. 4, 1760. He was a Revolutionary soldier.
ii Abigail Meriam, b. July 18, 1761; m. (1) William Forbes; m. (2) John Plummer of Thompson, Conn. iii Lydia Meriam, b. Feb. 15, 1765; m. Jonathan Nichols.
iv John Meriam, b. Nov. 6, 1768.

272 Levi Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Apr. 25, 1745, at Oxford; d. May 6, 1821, at Auburn, Mass. His gravestone in Auburn gives his age as 76 years. He m. Sept. 24, 1766, at Charlton (V.R.), Sarah Smith, but the Oxford records give the name as Sarah Stone. From the fact that a daughter was named Sarah Smith Eddy it seems more likely that her name was Smith. He m. (2) Sept. 13, 1780, in Auburn, Mass., Mrs. Molly Pratt, who d. May 3, 1821, aged 61 years (Auburn V.R.).

At the death of his father in 1762, Levi Eddy, a "minor of 16; son of Samuel, late dec'd", chose Ebenezer Eddy late of Oxford as his guardian. (Worcester Prob.). When the 1790 Census was taken he was in that part of Oxford which was known as Ward, with a family consisting of one male over 16, five under 16, and three females.

He was one of the Minute Men who marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775. His service follows:

Levi Eddy. Private, Capt. John Crowl's co. of Minute-men, Col. Learned's regt.; which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775; service, 6 days; company reported as belonging to the new parish taken off from Leicester, Worcester, Sutton, and Oxford, later named Ward.

The Registry of Deeds in Worcester Co. shows transactions beginning in 1773. Beside owning land in Oxford and Ward, he also had a piece of 66 A. in the 4th Div., lot No. 6, which bordered on the so-called Great Farm. This he sold in 1772 (Hampshire Deeds 12,130).

His will dated June 24, 1805 and presented June 5, 1821 (Worcester Co., 18748) mentions son David; son Levi; son Isaac in Newfane, Vt.; son Artemas; son Amos; son Harvey; son Amasa; son Jesse of Ward; dau. Abigail Brayton; dau. Betsey Gillat; dau. Polly.

Children, by the first wife (Oxford and Auburn V.R.):

615 Sarah Smith Eddy, bapt. May 17, 1772, at Oxford; d. Mar. 19, 1802, at Peterboro, N. H., aged 37 years (V.R. of Peterboro).
+616 David Eddy, b. Jan. 1, 1768.
+617 Abigail Eddy, b. May 4, 1771.
618 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Aug. 22, 1773, according to Oxford Records; but Aug. 11, 1773, according to the Auburn Records. She m. Abraham Gillat, according to the records at Adams on Dec. 25, 1803; but according to Cheshire Records the date was Jan. 10, 1803.
+619 Levi Eddy, b. Apr. 2, 1776.
620 Eliphalet Eddy, b. May 22, 1778, probably died young; not in father's will.

Children, by the second wife:

+621 Jesse Eddy, b. May 18, 1781.
+622 Isaac Eddy, b. Nov. 27, 1782.
623 Luke Eddy, b. Nov. 12, 1785; d. Aug. 5, 1786 (Auburn V.R.).
+624 Artemas Eddy, b. Sept. 22, 1787.
+625 Amos Eddy, b. Oct. 7, 1789.
626 Polly Eddy, b. Aug. 27, 1792; m. Aug. 15, 1811, William Savary (Oxford V.R.).
+627 Harvey Pratt Eddy, b. Sept. 1, 1794.
628 Amasa Eddy, b. Mar. 19, 1798; d. Dec. 3, 1870 (Worcester Prob., also Gravestone Rec. and Auburn V.R.). He m. Demaris . . . , who d. July 8, 1870 (V.R. and Gravestone Rec.). He had no children. His will dated July 24, 1870 gives legacies to William Amasa Copp of Grafton and Eliza J. Meriam, for Irving and Frank Meriam, and to others.

274 Thomas Eddy (Ebenezer, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Mar. 15, 1738/39, at Oxford; m. May 16, 1762, at Oxford (V.R.), Hannah Eddy, b. Mar. 28, 1738, dau. of John and Marcy (Bellows) Eddy. He left Oxford and purchased land in Belchertown, a part of which he and wife Hannah sold in 1792 (Hampshire Co. Deeds). He was a farmer and one of the first to settle in this section of Mass.

He was a soldier in the French and Indian War. His service as recorded in the Mass. Archives was as follows:

(Vol. XCVI, p. 108) Thomas Eddy appears on a Receipt dated Coldspring (Belchertown), June 1, 1758, given by said Eddy and others in Capt. David White's Co., Col. Joseph William's Regt. in the intended expedition against Canada, for billeting money. Remarks:—Said Eddy signs as having received £1, 17sh. 4d. Residence, Oxford.

(Vol. XCVI, p. 311) Thomas Edey appears on a Billeting account sworn to Worcester ss. Dec. 9, 1758, rendered by Robert Claflin for billeting soldiers on their return home in Sept., Oct., and Nov., 1758. Capt. Newell's Co., Col. Bagley's Regt., Charged with one meal.

(Vol. XCVI, p. 488) Thomas Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Feb. 20, 1759, of a company of foot in His Majesty's service under Capt. David White in Col. Joseph William's Regt., raised by the province of Massachusetts Bay for the reduction of Canada. Of what town,—Oxford. Quality, Private. Entered service, Apr. 1, 1758. Length of service, 8 mos., 10 days. Days travel, 20. Remarks: Reported—Charged £3 for arms not returned.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 339) Thos. Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, February 1, 1760, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jeremiah Learned. Quality, Centinel. Residence, not given. Entered service, May 7, 1759. Served until Dec. 11, 1759. Length of service, 31 weeks, 2 days. Remarks:—Father or Master Eben'r Eddy. Endorsed:—Co. in the Expedition to Crown Point.

His service as a soldier in the Revolutionary War is as follows:

Thomas Eddy. Private, Capt. Joseph Hooker's co., Lieut. Col. Samuel Williams's regt.; enlisted Dec. 15, 1776; discharged March 18, 1777; service, 3 mos. 14 days' travel included; roll dated Morristown; also, Capt. Elijah Dwight's co., Col. Elisha Porter's (Hampshire Co.) regt.; discharged Aug. 19, 1777; service, 5 days; company ordered out on an alarm at Bennington, Aug. 17, 1777.

The Worcester Co. and the Hampshire Co. Registry of Deeds contain several land transactions of Thomas and Hannah Eddy. When the 1790 Census was taken he was a resident of Belchertown, Mass., with a household consisting of two males over 16, four under 16, and five females. From this it would seem that there were other children born after he left Oxford who should be added to the following list.

Children, b. Oxford (V.R.):

629 Mary Eddy, b. May 21, 1762.
630 John Eddy, b. May 4, 1764. Query—Did he marry Elizabeth Scott of Auburn (Ward) Oct. 20, 1791?
631 Amy Eddy, b. Sept. 7, 1766 (One account gives this name as Lucy) d. Jan. 15, 1769, at Oxford at the age of 3 years (V.R.).
632 Hannah Eddy, b. May 12, 1768.
633 Ebenezer Eddy, b. Mar. 24, 1770.
634 Esther Eddy, b. Apr. 2, 1773.

275 Abel Eddy (Ebenezer, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Apr. 19, 1741, at Oxford (V.R.); m. Dec. 2, 1769 (Christian Science Monitor of Feb. 17, 1916), Abigail Conant, b. Mar. 4, 1752, at Dudley, Mass.; dau. of Benjamin and Lydia (Lamb) Conant (Hampshire Co. Deeds, 10.682).

In 1769 Abel sold out his property to his brother Thomas (Worcester Co. Deeds, 61.73) and moved to the new country of Warwick, Mass. Here he purchased a piece of land and gradually acquired a very good farm. He settled near the parents of his wife from whom she inherited a portion of a farm. The Hampshire Co. Deeds on file at Springfield have this record.

(Book 10, 682) We, being heirs of the estate of our father, Benjamin Conant, late of Warwick, dec'd, sell to our brother Ezra Conant, etc. Among those who signed the deed were: Benjamin Conant, Abijah Conant, Abel Eddy and Abigail Eddy; and Asa Conant. Dated June 26, 1770.

(4. 147) Abel Eddy of Warwick bought 120 acres in Warwick—lot No. 18 and No. 26. Dated Sept. 27, 1777.

(13. 517) Abel Eddy of Warwick yeoman . . . to my son, Ebenezer of Warwick, yeoman, for $430—as his portion out of my estate—half part of my farm. 80 acres bounded by Benjamin Conant and Jesse Warwick, Eleazar Wheelock, etc. Dated Mar. 6, 1791.

(18. 620) Abel and Ebenezer Eddy sold . . . lot No. 18 and a part of lot 26. This deed was signed by Abel and Abigail Eddy and Ebenezer and Sarah Eddy and witnessed by Lucy Eddy. Oct. 24, 1803.

When the 1790 Census was taken he was in Warwick, the head of a household consisting of two males over 16, four males under 16, and four females.

Children, b. in Warwick (probably not in order of birth):

+635 Ebenezer Eddy.
+636 Abijah Eddy, b. June 1, 1776.
637 Benjamin Eddy. He was a drum major in the war of 1812. He d. at Eaton, N. Y.
+638 Asa Eddy, b. Aug. 11, 1786 (according to a record sent in by a descendant, but the 1850 Census says he was 59 years old in 1850).
+639 Phineas Ward Eddy, b. May 13, 1790.
640 Warner Eddy.
641 Ezra Eddy.
642 Lucy Eddy. Unm. in 1803, when she witnessed a deed (18.620 Hampshire Co.).

The Registry of Deeds at Worcester 61.72 contains a deed given by her before marriage, "Eunice Eddy of Oxford, spinster, sell to my brother Thomas Eddy of Oxford, husbandman, that part of the estate received from my honored father, Ebenezer Eddy, late of Oxford, dec'd and also the dower of my mother Ruth Eddy." Dated May 9, 1769.

280 Ruth Eddy (Ebenezer, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Apr. 17, 1755, at Oxford (V.R.), d. Jan. 30, 1838, Auburn, Mass. (Livermore Gen.). She m. Mar. 30, 1775, at Leicester (V.R.), Elisha Livermore, b. May 20, 1751, at Leicester, Mass.; d. Sept. 1836, at Auburn. He was a private in Capt. Seth Washburn's Co., May 10, 1775. He was then living in Brookfield.

In 1769 John Hart was the guardian of Ruth Eddy, aged 14; dau of Ebenezer Eddy (Worcester Prob.).

Children (Livermore Gen.):

i RUTH LIVERMORE, b. May 12, 1776; m. Jan. 8, 1839, her cousin, SALEM LIVERMORE.

xi LUCY LIVERMORE, b. Sept. 16, 1802.

284 Benjamin Eddy (Benjamin, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Oct. 21, 1739; d. June 11, 1832, at Royalston, Mass. (V.R.), at the age of 92 years. He m. (1) Dec. 23, 1760, Sarah Holland (V.R.) at Newton. He m. (2) Nov. 13, 1810, at Winchendon, Mrs. Tabitha Bixby, widow of Levi Bixby (Bigsby). She died Feb. 10, 1845 at the age of 96 (V.R.).

He was a soldier in the French and Indian War with the following service as shown by the Massachusetts Archives:

(Vol. XCVI, p. 323) Benjamin Eddy appears on a billeting Roll dated Watertown, Nov. 13, 1758, of Capt. Jonathan Brown's Co., Col. William Williams' Regt. Enlisted, Apr. 21, year not given, probably 1758. Roll made up to May 24, year not given, probably 1758. Day of receiving King's allowance. Number of days, 33. Amount, 16sh. 6d. Remarks: Residence, Newton.

(Vol. XCVI, p. 409) Benjamin Eddy, Jr. appears on a Muster Roll endorsed Boston, Feb. 8, 1759, of a company of foot in His Majesty's service under Capt. Jonathan Brown in Col. William Williams' 8th Regt., raised by the province of Massachusetts Bay for the reduction of Canada. Of what town, Newton. Quality, Private. Entered service, April 21, year not given, endorsed 1758. Served until Sept. 24, year not given, endorsed 1758. Length of service, 5 mos., 17 days. Days travel, 13. Remarks: Reported Discharged Sept. 11. Father or Master Benjamin Eddy.

(Vol. XCV, p. 377) Benjamin Eddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to Boston, May 14, 1759 of Capt. Joshua Fuller's Co., Col. Wm. Brattle's Reg't which marched on the alarm for the relief of Fort William Henry in August, 1757. Quality, Private. Impressed,—Not given. Returned not given. Marched from Cambridge, Aug. 16 (1757) to Springfield. Distance travelled 180 miles. Time in service, 14 days. Allowed for horse-keeping 8d per day—0. Remarks: Father or Master,—Benja. Eddy.

He purchased land in Newton from his father. In 1796 he and wife Sarah sold this land and it is likely that he moved farther north at about this time.

When the Revolutionary War broke out he enlisted. His service follows:

Benjamin Eddy, Newton. Corporal, Capt. Jeremiah Wiswall's co., which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, to Lexington; service, 1 day; also, Corporal, Capt. Jeremiah Wiswall's co., Col. Hatch's regt.; service, 5 days; company marched at the taking of Dorchester Heights, March 4, 1776, by request of Gen. Washington; also, Corporal, Lieut. Joseph Crafts's co., which marched to join Col. Crafts's regt. at Boston Dec. 9, 1776; service, 5 days; also, 1st Sergeant, Capt. Joseph Fuller's co., Col. Samuel Bullard's regt.; enlisted Aug. 20, 1777; discharged Nov. 29, 1777; service 3 mos. 10 days, at Stillwater; also, Corporal, Capt. Joseph Fuller's (2d Newton) co., Col. Thatcher's regt.; entered camp Sept. 2, 1778; discharged Sept. 4, 1778; service, 3 days; company marched to Cambridge to guard British troops.

When the 1790 Census was taken he was in Newton with a family of two males over 16, two under 16, and five females.

Children, b. in Newton (V.R.):

+644 ELIZABETH EDDY, b. Apr. 29, 1761.

+655 SAMUEL EDDY, b. Mar. 4, 1784; d. 1827.

286 Samuel Eddy (Benjamin, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Apr. 29, 1744, at Newton, Mass. He went to Detroit as early as 1764.

There was a Samuel Eddy at work in a ship yard in Detroit from Dec. 1777 to Apr. 24, 1778, where he was a carpenter, or blacksmith; probably the former (Vol. VIII, p. 411 of Michigan Hist.). It seems very likely that he was this Samuel, son of Benjamin. The other references to an Eddy at this early time in this section are as follows. Probably they all refer to this branch of the Eddys, and so are given in this place. On Apr. 6, 1780, it was ordered to deliver to James Eddy, Neil Jones and Robert Landers, etc. of the 2nd Reg't, each one shirt.

1793, Concerning an expedition to Detroit,—Four British officers came from the garrison, namely Crawford, Vandelene, Ross and Eddy, for a treaty with the Indians.

Vol. VIII of the Hist. of Michigan states that in 1795 Samuel Eddy is on the Tory list. He is living on the Detroit River.

287 John Eddy (Benjamin, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Sept. 25, 1745, at Newton, Mass. (V.R.); d. Aug. 13, 1786, at Newton (V.R.). He published his intentions to marry Ann Jeffries of Boston on Sept. 22, 1782, Newton (V.R.). She d. Mar. 23, 1793 at Newton at the age of 44 (V.R.). She was the dau. of David Jeffries, Esq. of Boston. He was a scholar and studied for the ministry. Owing to ill-health he preached for only a short time. He became private secretary to Mrs. Henry Gibbs. After her husband's decease, he had the management of her large estate. At her death she left this estate to him.

The Middlesex and Suffolk Co. Registry of Deeds have transactions on file made by this John Eddy. At one time John Eddy of Newton, in the Co. of Middlesex, Gentleman, purchased a parcel of land situate in Boston, with a brick ware-house and three brick tenements thereon standing bounding northerly on Cornmarket, so called, westerly on land and warehouse of Edward Bromfield, dec'd etc. Dated Dec. 20, 1780 (158, 119).

(142, 112) John Eddy of Newton, Gentleman and Ann my Wife, for £750 sold the brick warehouse. Jonathan Homer and Anna Homer witnessed this deed. After the death of the mother, Jonathan Homer was made the guardian of "Gibbs Wadsworth Eddy, Sarah Jaffrey Eddy, and John Eddy, minors and children of John Eddy, late dec'd of Newton." Their property in Newton was 70 acres on the country road leading from Watertown to Dedham, one of the bounds was Prentice Lane. This contained the mansion-house, barn and several other buildings. There was also other property on Mill Lane.

Children, b. in Newton (V.R.):

656 GIBBS WADSWORTH EDDY, b. Aug. 28, 1783; d. June 11, 1805, at Newton (V.R.).
657 SARAH JEFFRIES EDDY, m. Sept. 20, 1810, DR. JOHN DIX of Boston, at Providence. Their son Dr. John Dix was the owner and manager of the Hotel Pelham, the first family hotel on this continent.
658 ANN EDDY, b. May 5, 1787; d. young.
659 JOHN EDDY, b. May 5, 1789; d. May 1, 1805. He was drowned at Boston at the age of 16 years (V.R.).

288 Ward Eddy (Benjamin, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), b. Feb. 5, 1747/48, at Newton (V.R.); m. (1) (Int. published July 31, 1774) Susannah Draper. He m. (2) on July 28, 1779, at Dublin, N. H., Rebecca Greenwood.

He was a physician. He died about 1831 in New Hampshire. He was a Revolutionary soldier, with the following service:

Ward Eddy, Buxton. Sergeant, Capt. Jeremiah Hill's co., Col. James Scammon's (30th) regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 3, 1775, service, 12 weeks, 6 days; also, company return dated Sept. 27, 1775; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Oct. 26, 1775.

When the 1790 Census was taken, he was a resident of Stoddard, N. H. and head of a family consisting of two males over 16, and one female.

Dec. 26, 1770, at Charlton (V.R.), Lucy Oakes of Charlton, who d. Sept. 10, 1822, at Oxford (V.R.). He lived all his life in Oxford. When the Revolutionary War broke out, he enlisted. His service follows:

Jonas Eddy. Corporal, Capt. John Town's co., Col. Jonathan Holman's regt.; service, 5 days; roll dated Providence, Jan. 20, 1777, sworn to in Worcester Co., and endorsed "marched on an alarm to Rhode Island in Dec., 1776"; also, Sergeant, Capt. Jeremiah Kingsbery's co., Col. Jonathan Holman's regt.; service, 38 days, on an alarm; roll dated Providence, Jan. 20, 1777, and sworn to in Worcester Co.; also, Corporal, same co. and regt.; enlisted Sept. 27, 1777; service, 30 days; company marched to reinforce Gen. Gates at the Northward; roll dated Oxford.

And also the following, though given "Jonah."

Jonah Eddy, Oxford. Corporal, Capt. Moore's co., 1st Mass. regt.; return of men raised to serve in the Continental Army dated Jan. —, 1781; residence, Oxford; enlisted Jan. 1, 1777; enlistment during war.

In 1790 when the U. S. Census was taken, he was a resident of Oxford, and head of a family consisting of two males over 16, four under 16, and three females. He left a will dated Oct. 5, 1821, in which he speaks of Reuben as dec'd and of his children "if any are alive or should be alive at my decease and apply for same within four years of my decease." He was always known as Lieut. Jonas Eddy.

296 Parley Eddy (William, Benjamin, Samuel, John, William), b. Aug. 14, 1763, in Oxford North Gore (V.R.); d. Dec. 13, 1831, at Oxford (V.R.); m. Dec. 18, 1786, at Oxford (V.R.), Amity Parker; dau. of Aaron and Abigail (Covel) Parker. She was b. June 12, 1762; d. Sept. 19, 1801, at Oxford (V.R.). He m. (2) June 27, 1804 (Int. Mar. 31, 1804 Leicester V.R.), Hannah Nichols; dau. of Thomas and Dorothy (Boyden) Nichols.

He lived most of his life in that part of Oxford known as the North Gore. He served in the Revolutionary War, and was always called Capt. Parley Eddy. His service follows:

Parley Eddy. Private, Capt. Benjamin Alton's co., Col. John Rand's regt.; enlisted July 9, 1780; discharged Oct. 10, 1780; service, 3 mos. 11 days, at West Point; company raised for 3 months; roll sworn to at Charlton; also, Capt. Alton's co.; order for wages for 3 mos. service in 1780, dated Oxford, April 2, 1782.

When the Census was taken in 1790, he was living in the North Gore with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16 and two females.

Parley's will dated Dec. 6, 1851, and probated Aug. 5, 1856, mentions wife Hannah; son Rufus; son Alexander; son Thomas Flint; dau. Lydia; dau. Laura; dau. Clarissa Shumway (Worcester Prob.).

Children, by the first wife; b. in Oxford:

689 Polly Eddy, b. Feb. 7, 1787; d. Mar. 3, 1803, at Oxford (V.R.).

ix Luman Cummings, b. Mar. 10, 1812 (twin).
See Cummings Gen. for their descendants.

300 Elijah Benjamin (Joseph Benjamin, Joseph Benjamin, Joseph Benjamin, Abigail Eddy, William), b. June 8, 1725; m. Hannah Taft.

Children (incomplete list):
+698 Chester Benjamin, b. Feb. 9, 1752, at Norwich, Conn.

308 David Benjamin (John Benjamin, John Benjamin, Joseph Benjamin, Abigail Eddy, William), m. in 1769, Lucy Parke.

Children:
+699 Parke Benjamin, b. 1770.
700 Stephen Benjamin.
701 Elijah Benjamin.
702 Moses Benjamin.
703 Lucy Benjamin.

309 Jane Coffin (Enoch Coffin, Beulah Eddy, John, Samuel, William), b. in 1740 or 1741, at Edgartown, Mass; d. Mar. 7, 1830; m. Cornelius Butler, b. 1734; d. 1794, in the West Indies. He was son of Nicholas and Thankful (Marchant) Butler of Edgartown.

Children:
704 Beulah Butler, b. about 1771.
705 Abigail Butler.
+706 Jane Butler.

318 Enoch Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about 1721; d. Nov. 1783; m. Hannah Lippitt, who d. 1798. Her parentage has not been ascertained but probably she was closely related to Moses Lippitt who sold land to Joseph Eddy in Glocester, in 1756 (Glocester Deeds, 2.127).

In the old Church Book of the Swansea Church is the entry (p. 241) "Baptized Enoch Eddy, Aug. 24, 1742." In 1740 Enoch was witness to a will. When the 1774 Census was taken, he was a resident of Glocester, R. I., the head of a household containing two males over 16, three under 16, one female over 16, and three under 16. In 1777 he was listed as unable to bear arms. The tradition is that he lost an arm, when young. In 1782 his household consisted of one male and one female over 50, one female between 16 and 22, and two males and one female under 16.

Children, probably all born in Glocester (list may be incomplete):
707 Lois Eddy; m. John Howland, of Glocester. The Glocester Registry of Deeds contains several transactions in which John Howland and wife Lois take part about 1784 and 1786. Eddy Howland witnessed one of these deeds in 1786. Probably he was a son. Eddy Howland was on a commission to lay out a highway from John Howland's near the Buck Hill road.
708 Rhoda Eddy or Rhoba Eddy. Unmar.
+709 Zachariah Eddy.
+710 Lippitt Eddy, b. Feb. 17, 1755.
+711 Willard Eddy, b. Jan. 26, 1760.
+712 Hannah Eddy.

713 Mary Eddy. Unmar.
+714 John Eddy, b. June 6, 1766.
+715 Enoch Eddy.
+716 Renew Eddy, b. 1772. (Howland Gen.)

319 Thomas Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), d. Dec. 21, 1751, in Glocester; m. Dec. 22, 1749, Jemima Inman; dau. of Valentine and Barbara (Ballou) Inman. She is mentioned in the will of her father, Valentine Inman, who gave to her the house where Thomas Eddy did lately dwell for the bringing up of her child. When the 1774 Census was taken Jemima Eddy was the head of a household in Glocester consisting of two females over 16.

Child:

717 Ruth Eddy, b. about 1750; m. Apr. 10, 1791, John Smith, Jr., son of Samuel Smith (Johnston Rec., Vol. XVII, p. 438).

320 Eliphalet Eddy (Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), m. (1) Nov. 10, 1737, at Glocester, R. I., Phebe King (See James King's will); dau. of James King and his wife Phebe^3 Ballou (Peter^2, Maturin^1). He m. (2) Oct. 14, 1745, Tabitha Inman; dau. of Valentine Inman and his wife Barbara^3 Ballou (Peter^2, Maturin^1) (See will of Valentine Inman). She was living in 1753 (Glocester Deeds, 6.308).

James King's will dated Oct. 15, 1762 and proved Apr. 4, 1763 mentions his grandchildren Eliphalet, Jerusha and Mercy Eddy.

Valentine Inman's will mentions his dau. Tabitha Eddy and farther on speaks of Mary Eddy and Sarah Eddy without giving their relationship. To these two he leaves a small bequest. It seems likely that they are Tabitha's children.

Note. Valentine Inman had, according to his will, four children, John, Oziel, Tabitha and Jemima. These four children married four of the children of Zachariah Eddy of Glocester, and when Zachariah Eddy died, his widow Ruth Eddy married Valentine Inman, who was a widower. The first wedding was a double one. Eliphalet Eddy married Tabitha Inman and Alice Eddy married John Inman on Oct. 14, 1745. The next marriage was between the widow Ruth and the father Valentine Inman. Then on Dec. 22, 1749 Thomas Eddy married Jemima Inman and the following June 3, 1750, Oziel Inman took Ruth Eddy for his wife.

In 1736/37 Zachariah Eddy, Jr. deeded to "son Eliphalet Eddy" land in Glocester "at a white oak near pascogue saw-mill." This would place the date of the birth of Eliphalet as probably preceding 1715. On May 25, 1741, Ebenezer Cook sold land to Eliphalet Eddy, yeoman, at a place near Pascogue Falls (Glocester Deeds, 6, 255).

On this same date Eliphalet Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, for £143 sold to Josiah Arnold late of Smithfield . . . 50 acres lying in Glocester, being the farm on which Eliphalet lately dwelt, near a place called Passcegue Falls . . . also a dwelling house, . . . (Glocester Deeds, 1, 464).

On Mar. 12, 1743, Eliphalet Eddy of Glocester, husbandman, bought of Ananias Mowry 55 acres to be taken up on the west side of the 7 mile line. Zachariah Eddy witnessed this deed.

On Sept. 7, 1745 Eliphalet Eddy, husbandman, for £290 sold to Philip Phetteplace . . . 47 acres of my homestead place . . . and a tract at the southerly end of Pascoag swamp (Glocester Deeds, 2, 91).

On Oct. 3, 1751, Eliphalet Eddy of Glocester, husbandman, for £130 sold to Nathaniel Bowdish, 20 acres, where Nathaniel Bowdish dwells with a dwelling house (Glocester Deeds, 5, 20).

On Apr. 7, 1753, Eliphalet Eddy sold to James King of Glocester "all the farm where I dwell, 49 acres . . ." Tabitha Eddy signed the deed (Glocester Deeds, 6, 308). There are several other deeds which give additional proof that he owned large tracts of land and farms of considerable value in Glocester.

The Deeds in Scituate, R. I., contain a record of the purchase of land by Eliphalet Eddy of Glocester, which land lies in the north part of the town and "is the land where Henry Jones now dwells" (4, 252) and later (4, 371) Eliphalet Eddy of Glocester, gentleman, sold Thankful Collins of Warwick, land partly in Glocester and partly in Scituate—73½ acres—house, shop and building, where "I now live."

Eliphalet was made a Freeman of Glocester in 1738 and again on May 1, 1744 his name appears on the Freeman's list and once more in 1754. In 1756 he was made Captain of the West Co. of Glocester, and he served in Capt. Kimball's Co. in 1761 in the French and Indian War. The date of his death has not been found. He does not appear in the Census of 1774 or 1777 in R. I. [It is possible that he is the Eliphalet Eddy who took the Freeman's oath in Clarendon, Vt. in Feb. 1781. It does not seem likely that Eliphalet Jr. was in Clarendon in Feb. 1781 and made a Freeman there and later in the same year served from Glocester in the Revolutionary War. So far as known these are the only two Eliphalet Eddys of adult age at this time.]

A full list of his family is not known.

Children, by first wife (James King's will):

+718 Eliphalet Eddy, Jr., b. abt. 1739.
+719 Jerusha Eddy, b. Aug. 7, 1740 (Angell Gen.).
+720 Mercy Eddy.

Children, by second wife (Appendix of 1884 Edition of Eddy Gen.):

+721 Thomas Eddy, b. 1754.
722 Sarah Eddy (probably) (See will of Valentine Inman).
723 Mary Eddy (probably) (See will of Valentine Inman).
724 Dorcas Eddy, m. Asa Ray.
725 Phebe Eddy.
726 Barbara Eddy, m. Nathan Place.
727 Thankful Eddy, m. Jan. 4, 1789, at Clarendon, Vt., John Congdon.

325 Obadiah Jenckes (Alice Eddy, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), d. Sept. 13, 1750; m. Mar. 5, 1734, Meribah Herenden; dau. of William and Deliverance Herenden.

Children:

i William Jenckes, b. July 26, 1735. ii Martha Jenckes, b. Oct. 25, 1737; m. 1752, William Harmon.
iii Freelove Jenckes, b. Nov. 15, 1740. iv John Jenckes, b. Aug. 14, 1743.
v Meribah Jenckes, b. Nov. 20, 1748; m. June 11, 1769, Simeon Hatch.
vi Mehitable Jenckes.

327 Zachariah Jenckes (Alice Eddy, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), m. Deborah . . . .

Children:

i Deborah Jenckes.
ii Zachariah Jenckes. iii Ellen Jenckes. iv William Jenckes.
v Mary Jenckes. vi Deborah Jenckes.

328 Alice Jenckes (Alice Eddy, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), m. Joseph Wilkinson of Scituate, R. I.

Children:

i Anne Wilkinson, b. Mar. 17, 1743, at Scituate.
ii Alice Wilkinson, b. Oct. 26, 1744.
iii Anne Wilkinson, b. Mar. 23, 1748.
iv Joseph Wilkinson, b. Mar. 11, 1750.
v Martha Wilkinson, b. June 15, 1755.

330 Enos Eddy (Elisha, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. between 1737 and 1740, in Glocester, R. I.; d. June 25, 1782, in Glocester; m. Aug. 30, 1761, Sarah Brown of Glocester. His will dated May 28, 1782, mentions wife Sarah, and Sarah's father, called "Father Brown"; two sons, George and Enos, not yet 21 years of age; and two dau. Rebecca and Sarah under 18 years. His brother Jesse and wife Sarah were executors.

He was made a Freeman of Glocester in 1750 and again in 1760, and his name appears on the Civil and Military lists of R. I. When the Census was taken in R. I. in 1774 he was a resident of Glocester with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, one female over 16, and two under 16. In 1777 he was living in Glocester and between the ages of 16 and 50 years. In 1782 he had two sons and two daughters under 16. On Aug. 2, 1769, he witnessed a deed given by Gideon Eddy (Glocester Deeds 8.450). On Dec. 11, 1775, a road was laid out near Enos Eddy's house in Glocester (Hist. of Gloc.).

Children:

+728 George Eddy, b. before 1774.
729 Rebecca Eddy, b. before 1774.
730 Sarah Eddy, b. before 1774, m. . . . Green.
+731 Enos Eddy, b. June 6, 1774.

331 Jesse Eddy (Elisha, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 15, 1751; d. Oct. 23, 1826; m. Lydia Brown, b. May 28, 1751; d. Oct. 28, 1832; dau. of Jeremiah and Abigail Brown. Jeremiah[4] Brown was son of Jeremiah[3] (Daniel[2], Chad[1]) Brown. (N.E.H.G.R. for April 1926.)

He does not appear in the Census taken in R. I. in 1774, but in 1777 he appears as a resident of Glocester between the ages of 16 and 50 years and capable of bearing arms. In 1782 he had one son and one daughter under 16. When the Census of 1790 was taken he was still in Glocester with a household consisting of one male over 16, three under 16, and one female.

He is mentioned in the will of his brother Stephen in 1782. On July 16, 1792 his wife Lydia joined with him in selling the farm in Glocester "where I now live," bounded on Ezekiel Sayles, Thomas Owen, and Amasa Eddy, about 128 acres in extent. This is about the date of his departure for western Massachusetts. In Adams, Mass. (3.124) a deed given on Aug. 1, 1793 speaks of Jesse Eddy of Glocester, R. I. and one of Oct. 24, 1793 (3.444) calls him Jesse Eddy of Cheshire, Mass., so probably he left Glocester in the late summer of 1793. The former deed was witnessed by George Eddy and Zattee Pain.

Children (order of birth not known):

+732 Levi Eddy, b. Jan. 5, 1776.
733 David Eddy.
734 Lydia Eddy.
735 Abigail Eddy; probably m. Zattee Pain. (See will of her grandmother, Sarah Eddy.)
+736 Jesse Eddy, b. Aug. 23, 1787.

332 Amasa Eddy (Elisha, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 19, 1754; d. Sept. 10, 1843, in Glocester; m. Oct. 8, 1770, Abigail Harrington, b. Apr. 15, 1755; d. Oct. 4, 1806.

He is not mentioned in the Census of 1774 or 1777, but in 1790 he was a resident of Glocester, the head of a household with one male over 16, four under 16, and three females. In the old Amasa Eddy farmhouse which is situated on the Putnam Pike about one mile north-west of Chepachet, there used to hang a register upon which had been copied the births and deaths of Amasa's children. This was framed like a picture. The following, with the exception of the statement concerning Elisha which has been added, is a copy. This register contained also the birth, marriage and death dates of the parents.

Children, b. in Glocester:

737 Marcy Eddy, b. Jan. 13, 1776; d. Sept. 30, 1810. (She mar. her cousin Eli Eddy.)
738 Elisha Eddy, b. Aug. 14, 1777. (He left home and was never heard from again.)
+739 Stephen Eddy, b. Mar. 2, 1779; d. Jan. 14, 1874.
740 John Eddy, b. July 23, 1780; d. Sept. 18, 1797.
+741 Amasa Eddy, Jr., b. Jan. 30, 1783; d. Oct. 12, 1874.
742 Anna Eddy, b. Nov. 14, 1785; d. Feb. 24, 1800.
743 Abigail Eddy, b. May 2, 1796; d. Mar. 20, 1818.

333 Stephen Eddy (Elisha, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), d. May 12, 1782; m. Zeruah Ross; d. Feb. 7, 1857, at the age of 96 yrs. 10 mo. 18 days. A great-grandson says that he feels sure that she married a second time a man by the name of Blackmar.

He is mentioned in the Census of 1777 as between the ages of 16 and 50 and capable of bearing arms. On Dec. 19, 1775, he purchased of his mother a piece of land in Glocester (Glocester Deeds 9,413). His will dated Mar. 28, 1782, mentions wife Zeruah; mother Sarah Eddy, a widow; his sons, Eli and John, to whom he left his homestead farm; two brothers, Jesse and Amasa, and states that his children are not of age.

Children:
+744 Eli Eddy, b. Apr. 13, 1779.
+745 John Eddy.
+746 Rowena Eddy.
Another daughter.

334 Joseph Eddy, Jr. (Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. probably about 1740, perhaps a little earlier or a few years later; m. Mary . . . He was of age to buy land, from his brother Gideon Eddy in 1767 (Glocester Deeds, 8.118). He was mar. before Mar. 7, 1769, when he sold a piece of land and wife Mary signed off her dower rights (Glocester Deeds, 9.231).

The maiden name of Mary has not been ascertained. Dr. Charles Eddy said that it was Harrington and that the children were those given in the list below. The names also suggest a Sprague ancestry, for Mary, Peter, Stephen, William, Silas, Elias, Roby, and Bethany are all common in that family. The "Chronicle" of Mar. 13, 1794 notes the death of Mary Eddy, wife of Joseph. It is probably this Joseph who is thus mentioned. Joseph was a husbandman in Glocester and lived for a time near Brandy Brook on the farm which he purchased from Gideon Eddy. The Glocester Deeds contain many transactions of this Joseph as well as those of his father. When the 1774 Census was taken in R. I., Joseph Jr. lived in Glocester with a family consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, one female over 16, and one under 16. His name does not appear in the Census of 1777 or 1790.

Children (Dr. Charles Eddy Ms.):
+747 Naboth Eddy, b. Feb. 15, 1770 in Smithfield, R. I.
748 Peter Eddy.
749 Stephen Eddy.
750 William Eddy.
751 Alfred Eddy.
752 Silas Eddy.
753 John Eddy.
+754 Elias Eddy.
755 Roby Eddy.
756 Bethany Eddy.
Perhaps Jacob Eddy, No. 765.
Perhaps Joseph Eddy, No. 11742.

335 Zilpha Eddy (Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), m. Apr. 19, 1765, at Glocester (V.R.), Abraham Brown. They settled in Adams, Mass. They were Quakers.

Children:
i Luke Brown, b. Jan. 3, 1766.
ii Mercy Brown, b. Mar. 26, 1767.
iii Chad Brown, b. Mar. 4, 1770.
iv Daniel Brown, b. Feb. 16, 1772.
v Jesse Brown, b. Aug. 17, 1774. vi Elisha Brown, b. Nov. 10, 1776.
vii Abraham Brown, b. Feb. 16, 1779. viii George Brown, b. Apr. 25, 1781.
ix Joseph Brown, b. Sept. 21, 1785.
x William Brown, b. June 18, 1788.

336 Elisha Eddy (Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. in Glocester, R. I.; m. (1) Rachel . . . (Query, Was she a Sprague?), who was living on Nov. 29, 1791, when she signed a deed (Adams, Mass. Deeds); m. (2) July 15, 1796, at Adams, Mass., Sarah Baker (V.R.).

He was a farmer and bought land in Adams, June 9, 1790 (Deeds 2. 345). He sold a part in 1791 and another part in 1800. About 1805 he went to Farmington, N. Y. He was a Quaker. At the time of the 1790 Census he was in Adams, Mass. and the head of a household which consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and five females. It is possible that the following record of the children is incomplete. In 1823 and 1824 Elisha was in Palmyra, N. Y., where he sold land.

Children, by first wife:

+757 Isaac Eddy.
758 Molly Eddy, m. . . . Maynard.
759 Lydia Eddy, m. Nov. 29, 1804, Elihu Cheseborough; son of Sylvester and Hannah (Carpenter) Cheseborough of North Kingston, R. I. Elihu's first wife was Anne Chase (Cheseborough Gen.).

Children, by second wife; probably all b. in Adams:

760 Phebe Eddy, b. 1796.
761 John Eddy.
762 Asa Eddy.
763 Esther Eddy.
764 Serena Eddy.

337 Jacob Eddy (Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. in Smithfield or Glocester, R. I.; m. Oct. 28, 1770, Susannah Sprague; dau. of Joseph and Mary (Thompson) Sprague.

In 1773 Jacob bought land of Joseph Eddy of Glocester (Glocester Deeds, 9, 120). On Apr. 30, 1772, Jacob Eddy of Glocester sold to Ezekiel Burlingame "the farm where I now dwell, my dwelling house and 60 acres." Susannah signed off her dower rights (Glocester Deeds 9, 46). On Nov. 14, 1773, Jacob Eddy and Susannah sold to John Smith, 60 acres on Buck Hill in Glocester.

Sometime between 1774 and 1780, Jacob left R. I. and settled in Danby, Vt. In 1780 Jacob Eddy and Joseph Sprague were chosen jurymen in Danby. From 1785 to 1788 Jacob was town clerk. In 1788 he was chosen town moderator. In 1790 he was a resident of Danby with a family of two males over 16, two under 16, and seven females. He appears in Danby on the list of Freemen in 1800 and the Census of 1800 gives his household as one male under 10, one from 16 to 25, one from 25 to 45, and one over 45. There were four females under 16, one between 16 and 25, and one over 45.

Many of the earliest settlers of Danby were Quakers. Jacob belonged to this sect. He first settled on a farm, later owned by Phillips, and there he taught a select school expressly for young men to prepare them for teaching. He was a very quiet, unobtrusive Quaker gentleman, but very strong in his belief. Between 1800 and 1805, he left Danby with most of his family and finally settled in that part of Hamburg, N. Y. known as Potter's Corners, where the Quaker element soon began to locate and become very conspicuous.

Turner's History of the Holland Purchase, N. Y. (p. 460) states that Jacob Eddy was located in the 7th Range of township No. 9 in 1805. He is said to have been the first white settler of Orchard Park. He was buried in the Quaker burial ground where, according to the custom of the early Quakers, no stone marks his grave.

Children:

+765 Jacob Eddy, b. Feb. 7, 1771. (Birth date taken from a paper in an old Bible in the possession of Mr. Levi Eddy of Williamson, N. Y. There is no proof as yet that this Jacob is son of above Jacob, but everything points to a close relationship.
766 John Eddy.
767 Hosea Eddy. His name is on a list of Freemen in Danby in 1800.
+768 David Eddy.
769 Bersheba Eddy, m. Mar. 7, 1802, at Danby, Vt. (V.R.), Josiah Davis.
770 Mary Eddy. She accompanied her brothers David and Aaron to East Hamburg and there kept house for them. In 1806 a lot was set apart for a school and Mary Eddy became the teacher (Hist. of Holland Purchase, p. 474). She later married a man by the name of Thorn and had a son Abram Thorn, who was a well-known lawyer in Erie Co. of which county he was for some years a surrogate The Thorn family have since kept up the traditions and are now well known lawyers of Hamburg and the surrounding sections.

771 ANN EDDY, m. . . . GRIFFIN. They had a son who was a physician in Philadelphia, having been a professor in a medical college. He was a leader from the first in the great anti-slavery movement.
+772 SARAH EDDY, b. Dec. 16, 1779, at Danby, Vt.; m. SPENCER NICHOLSON. They lived in or near Danby. He was a deacon in the Baptist Church, of which both were members. They had a daughter Orpha who was a school teacher. She m. . . . Rudd. Their other children were Ira, Arnold, Russell, Hiram, Julius, David E. and Anson A. Nicholson.
773 AARON EDDY, b. Mar. 6, 1783, at Danby, Vt. (V.R.) He accompanied his brother David to East Hamburg in 1804 and helped him to build the first log house in that section (History of Holland Purchase, p. 475).
774 LYDIA EDDY, b. Feb. 1, 1785, at Danby, Vt. (V.R.) m. . . . THORN.
+775 CLARA EDDY.

338 Gideon Eddy (Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), d. before Feb. 13, 1808, in Glocester (Glocester Deed); m. Apr. 4, 1769, at Glocester, Rachel Bowditch (also spelled Bowdish); dau. of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (King) Bowdish.

On Oct. 22, 1765, he purchased of Andrew Herendeen a parcel of land in Glocester. In 1767 he purchased of Joseph Eddy the 100 acre farm, at Cobling Rock, where Joseph then dwelt (Glocester Deeds 8.82).

In 1769 he sold a piece a little west of Wolfe Hill. In the following years he sold parts of the farm upon which he dwelt. Several of these transactions were signed by wife Rachel. One deed was witnessed by Enos Eddy and Joseph Eddy. In 1774 he sold to Abraham Brown land in Glocester . . . "where I dwell on the west bank of the Pascogue River" (Glocester Deeds 9,201). He was living as late as Apr. 29, 1794 when he signed a deed (Glocester Deeds, 12.452).

When the Census of 1774 was taken in R. I., Gideon was a resident in Glocester with a household consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and one female. He is listed in the Census of 1777, as between the ages of 16 and 50. In 1782 he had two sons and one daughter under 16 and in 1790, his household consisted of one male over 16, two under 16, and five females. The name of only one child is known.

Gideon Eddy's name appears on a pay abstract in the 4th Vol. of Military Papers on file in the R. I. Historical Rooms.

Children (incomplete list):
+776 JIRAH EDDY, b. Mar. 1, 1772, in Glocester, R. I.

339 Eliakim Eddy (Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), birth date not known, but b. probably about 1745; d. in Farmington, N. Y. in 1831; m. Eunice Farrand, who was living in N. Y. in 1844.

He probably left Glocester at about the same time as his brother Elisha and perhaps as early as his brother Jacob, who settled in Danby, Vt. He lived in Adams, Mass. as one of the rather large Quaker colony there. He became a Quaker preacher and brought up his family in accordance with the simple and plain rules of that group of believers. About 1806 he moved to Genessee Co., N. Y.

When the 1790 Census was taken he was the head of a household in Adams, Mass., consisting of one male over 16, and three females. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War in the Berkshire County Regiment. His service follows:

> Eliakim Eddy, Adams. Private, Capt. Levi Brown's co.; Col. Asa Barnes's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted Oct. 30, 1781; discharged Nov. 7, 1781; service, 9 days; company detached on the alarm of Oct. 30, 1781, and joined army under Gen. Stark, at Saratoga.

Children (order of birth not known):
777 PRUDENCE EDDY, m. TIMOTHY ALLEN. They had a son Marvin Allen, who mar. Mary Gardner.
+778 LORINDA EDDY, b. Nov. 5, 1788, at Adams, Mass. (Bible Rec.).
+779 SALOME EDDY, b. Aug. 13, 1792.
780 CYNTHIA EDDY. Query—Did she marry . . . Sheffield?
781 MARY ANN EDDY, m. . . . RANDOLPH.
+782 AUGUSTUS EDDY, b. Oct. 5, 1798, at Adams, Mass.
783 EMMA RILLA EDDY, m. . . . HARRIS.
784 ELI EDDY. He lived in Wayne Co., N. Y. not far from the lake.

342 Lewis Eddy (Samuel, John, Zachariah, Samuel, John), b. May 28, 1734, in Swansea, Mass.; m. June 6 or June 15, 1760, in Johnston, R. I. (V.R.), Lydia Reccords.

He inherited the literary talents of his mother. He was a very good scholar. The tradition is that he lost his mind through overwork.

He witnessed a deed of Daniel and Lydia in Providence in 1758. He resided in Johnston, but in 1760 he was living in Glocester. He was a blacksmith like his father and grandfather. In 1756 he served in Col. Angell's Co. and in 1758 in Capt. Jenckes Co. In 1759 he is registered as a drummer. At the time of the 1774 Census in R. I., he lived in North Providence as head of a household consisting of three males over 16, one female under 16, and one over 16.

Children, b. in Glocester (V.R.):

785 Patience Eddy, b. Aug. 9, 1764.
786 Joseph Eddy, b. Aug. 27, 1766.
787 Lydia Eddy, b. Mar. 20, 1769; m. Mar. 28, 1790, at Foster, Caleb Clarke; son of William and Mary Clarke of Foster (Clarke Gen., p. 275).

343 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 17, 1736, in Swansea (V.R.); d. Aug. 1, 1804, in Thompson, Conn. He is buried in the West Thompson Cem. He m. Peggy McDonald in 1758. She was b. Feb. 27, 1739; d. May 24, 1822, in Thompson, Conn., aged 83 years.

Samuel was a blacksmith and owned a farm in Glocester (now Burrillville) on Buck Hill near a pond called Eddy pond (now Wakefield pond). He carried on quite a trade in repairing and making farm implements. He also conducted a saw and gristmill. In 1790 he purchased land of Stephen Brown near the Rhode Island line in Thompson, Conn. The house where he lived was on the Connecticut side, and about 300 rods south-west of the house on a sunny knoll on the Burrillville side is the burying ground, which is known to this day as the Eddy Burying Ground.

Peggy McDonald was the daughter of an officer in the British army, who was killed during the French and Indian Wars. Tradition says that one of her brothers was killed in the Revolutionary War on Lake Champlain. She was a tailoress by trade and as was the custom of the times, worked in the homes of her patrons.

Samuel was in Nova Scotia, a short time before the Revolution, but returned to the states just before its outbreak. At the time of the R. I. Census of 1774, he was a resident of Glocester, R. I. with a family consisting of one male over 16, four under 16, one female over 16, and two under. In 1790 his household consisted of two males over 16, three under 16, and six females. He sold land in Glocester to Esek Eddy, blacksmith, and to Samuel Eddy, Jr., blacksmith, between the years 1791 and 1796.

Children:

788 Deborah Eddy, b. Jan. 13, 1759; d. Jan. 30, 1759 (also given 1769).
789 Lewis Eddy, b. Jan. 28, 1760; d. June 10, 1766, in Glocester.
+790 Esek Eddy, b. May 27, 1762.
+791 Barack Eddy, b. Apr. 21, 1765.
+792 John Eddy, b. May 30, 1767.
+793 Alice Eddy, b. Jan. 1, 1770.
+794 Samuel Eddy, b. Mar. 6, 1772.
795 Peggy Eddy, b. Jan. 21, 1774; d. Aug. 3, 1794.
+796 Lavina Eddy, b. Feb. 12, 1776.
+797 Asel Eddy, b. Dec. 5, 1778.
798 Patience Eddy, b. July 19, 1781; d. June 1, 1821, in her 40th yr. She is buried in West Thompson Cem. Unmar.
799 Anna Eddy, b. Aug. 14, 1783; d. Mar. 27, 1794.

350 Barnard Eddy (Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 11, 1729, in Swansea; d. Aug. 21, 1776 (Prov. Church Rec.). His first wife was Lydia Eddy, whose marriage to Barnard Eddy on Feb. 23, 1752, in Providence is given in Prov. V.R. The parents of Lydia have not been ascertained. Probably she was daughter of Capt. Benjamin Eddy. No other reference to Lydia has as yet been found. His second wife was Patience Eddy; daughter of Capt. Benjamin Eddy. They were married about 1753. She d. after May 12, 1769, when she signed off dower rights to land in Swansea (B.C.D. 52.346). He m. (3) Mary Barber (or Barker) of Rehoboth, July 2, 1770 (Rehoboth V.R.). She d. in Mar., 1775. (Gazette of Mar. 18, 1775.)

The Gazette of Sept. 7, 1776 has the following, "Capt. Barnet Eddy, who left this place (Providence) some time since with carpenters to build vessels on the lake, died near Albany, N. Y. of the Small Pox."

Just how early Barnard left Swansea and settled in Providence is not known, but it was probably soon after 1754. He was made a Freeman of Providence in 1757 in May (R. I. Col. Rec., Vol. V.). He was Ensign in the Prov. 5th Co. in 1758 and served until 1763, when he became Captain. He appears as a captain in 1763 and 1768.

When the French and Indian War broke out Barnard Eddy volunteered on the alarm of Aug. 1757 (List of R. I. Soldiers and Sailors in the Old French and Indian War, by Howard Chapin).

When Barnard and Esek Eddy came to Providence the first piece of land they purchased was in 1756 at Muddy Dock. This was about where Ship St., Eddy St., and Dyer St. now come together. Zachariah Eddy, the brother of Barnard's wife, her father, Capt. Benjamin Eddy, and three other sons, Joseph, William, and Benjamin, were all shipwrights. It is very likely that they all were engaged in building ships at this shipyard. Probably as Capt. Benjamin grew older he relinquished the management of the business to Barnard. From all the records it seems that Barnard was the most prominent one among them. It is this group of Eddys that has given the name of Eddy Street to one of the most important streets in Providence.

On Mar. 16, 1759, Barnet Eddy and Esek Eddy of Providence sold to Luther Thurber of Swansea two lots in Swansea; one containing 20 acres bounding northerly on a country road, westerly on a highway, southerly on land laid out to Mary Eddy, easterly on land of Luther Thurber and also one acre, bounding north on the country road, west on Luther Thurber, south on land laid out to Marcy Eddy and east on land of Barnard and Esek Eddy. Pacience Eddy ye wife of Barnet Eddy and Mary Eddy ye wife of Esek Eddy signed the deed (Bristol Co. Deeds, 43, 526). Zachariah Eddy was a witness.

On June 18, 1759 Barnard and Esek Eddy of Providence with their wives Pacience and Mary and with Zachariah Eddy again as witness sold to Benjamin Hix land in Swansea bounding southerly on the country road, west on the highway, north on Elisha Cornell and east on Hezekiah Chase (Bristol Co. Deeds, 48, 344).

(Bristol Co. Deeds, 51, 269) Barnard Eddy bought from Esek Eddy of Providence, shipwright, lands in Swansea. Esek's wife, Mary, signed the deed.

On May 12, 1769 Barnard Eddy of Providence, shipbuilder, for £60 sold to Luther Thurber, land in Swansea on the Taunton road and bounding on Elijah Cornell's land. Wife Pacience signed (Bristol Co. Deeds, 52, 346).

On July 11, 1768 Ephraim Peirce and Ephraim Peirce, Jr. both of Glocester, R. I. sold to Barnard Eddy of Providence, shipbuilder, 82 acres in Glocester, land where they now dwell and is on the southerly side of the farm; bounds mention Gideon Mowry of Glocester and Abram Sanders. Mary Peirce, wife of Ephraim Peirce, Jr. signed and Samuel Ingraham was a witness of the deed (Glocester Deeds). This same year Barnard and the two Peirces united on Oct. 11, 1768 in trying to get a highway laid out in Glocester.

On Oct. 30, 1770, Barnard Eddy sold to Elizabeth Eddy, widow, land at a place called Cow-Pen point at or near the end of Ship St. and the land is to extend to low water mark. Wife Mary Eddy signed the deed. Recorded in 1783, Feb. 12.

The Providence Deeds contain several transactions of Barnard Eddy, but they all have to do with land in this section except one piece which he bought of Gideon Comstock on the north side of Plainfield road about a mile west of the compact part of Providence, in 1762. This was about 12 acres in extent.

In Feb. 1762 Benjamin Eddy, his wife's father, died intestate and Barnard was appointed administrator (Prov. Probate, W. 5.299).

The name of Barnard Eddy appears several times in the records of Providence. On Feb. 18, 1754 Barnard Eddy shipwright and wife Pacience who were of Swansea took a poor boy as apprentice (No. 238 of Providence Town Papers).

On Jan. 10, 1761 Barnard Eddy was taxed £1–10 sh. for freight on a large water engine, then in transit from London where he had purchased it for the use of the town in case of fire (No. 344 of Town Papers). The town treasurer's report for 1765 shows that £310–13 sh.–11d. had been paid him for construction work in the town, probably for bridges and highway work.

On Feb. 2, 1775 Barnard Eddy was appointed by the town to find a road and stop all traffic from passing Widow Brown's where a smallpox patient had been taken. From these items it would seem that Barnard Eddy was what today would be called City Engineer and Highway Commissioner.

When the Revolutionary War broke out Barnard Eddy was called upon for the defence of the town. On May 15, 1775 he served three nights as a watchman to prevent the town from being taken by surprise (Providence Town Paper No. 803). On the 6th of Sept. 1775 he was chosen to take a list of men's names, guns, bayonets, cartridges, cartridge boxes, flints, powder and balls, swords and pistols which he found in the hands of the people of Providence, so that the strength of the town might be known, and on Feb. 9, 1776 he was one of those listed in whose hands powder and arms might be found. Later in the spring Barnard Eddy was given charge of the construction of the fortifications which were to be built at Field's Point and at Sassafras Point. These became known as Fort Independence and Robin's Hill Fort. In the summer of this same year he was appointed by the Continental Congress, captain of a company which he was to raise. This was to be a company of carpenters who were to be taken to the regions of the upper Hudson and Lake Champlain where they were to construct ships for the defence of those regions.

The following is an interesting letter, copied from the Archives of the American Forces. (Vol. I, Fifth Series, p. 377; and p. 378.)

> To the President of the Congress. July 16, 1776.
> I have appointed Captain Barnard Eddy, a very suitable person, the chief carpenter. He has already enlisted twenty men who are to be provided well with tools and arms at the same rate at which the Marine Committee have enlisted those at Philadelphia. He informed me that he shall be able to procure the whole number required of us and march with them on Monday or Tuesday next at the farthest. He proposes to send off baggage on Saturday.
> Governor Nicholas Cole.
> Providence, R. I.

Captain Eddy to General Gates. "On Saturday last I was honored with the command of the General Congress to procure fifty ship carpenters to build ships for the defense of the lakes."

(Vol. I, Fifth Series, p. 1003.) A letter dated Aug. 17, 1776 at Williamstown contains the following. "Sir, I am requested by Captain Eddy, commander of a company of ship carpenters from Rhode Island, to inform you that said captain and company having been exposed to take the small-pox on their march from Rhode Island have since been inoculated and are now sick with some disorder in Williamstown, and that Captain Eddy . . . despairs of his life, but is still most anxious for the welfare of his soldiers."

The Military Census of R. I. taken in 1774 lists Barnard Eddy as the head of a family consisting of four males over 16 years of age, and two under 16, and four females over 16, and three under 16.

In the R. I. Historical Rooms in Providence there are two cups and a pewter tankard which were given by Barnard Eddy to the Fruit Hill Church in 1774. The tankard bears the inscription

A GT to YE CH by BD EY #1774#

At his death Zachariah Eddy, brother of his wife, was appointed administrator on June 10, 1778. On March 3, 1783 Zachariah was released from further administration on account of ill health and Jeremiah Eddy and Joseph Grafton were appointed to serve in his place.

On Feb. 12, 1783, widow Elizabeth Eddy sold to her grandchildren Elizabeth, Rhoda, Jeremiah, Patience, Barnard, Abigail, Eunice, and Ruth Grafton, wife of Joseph Grafton, children of my son Barnard Eddy, the land which Barnard had sold to her in 1770. Joseph Eddy and William Eddy witnessed this deed (20.701). Later, after the death of Elizabeth and Eunice Eddy, and Ruth Grafton, the others divided this land. This was in 1794.

Children, b. in Providence (order of birth not known):

800 RUTH EDDY, d. before 1794; m. JOSEPH GRAFTON.

351 Esek Eddy (Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 14, 1731, at Swansea; d. Aug. 23, 1820 (Prov. Gazette); m. Sept. 12, 1758, at Providence, Mary Perry; dau. of Thomas and Martha (Sabin) Perry of Rehoboth, Mass. She was b. July 7, 1738; d. Apr. 12, 1826 (Newspaper). (All dates also in Family Bible.)

With his brother Barnard Eddy he came to Providence somewhere about 1752. In 1759 Esek united with his brother Barnard Eddy in selling to Luther Thurber a part of their inheritance in Swansea (Taunton Deeds, 43.526 and 48.344), and Esek sold the rest to Barnard (Bristol Co. Deeds, 51.269).

Esek Eddy of Providence, shipwright, to Barnard Eddy of Providence shipwright for £1000 quitclaims a certain small farm in Swansea of 20 A. with a dwellinghouse, bounding north on the highway, east and south on Stephen Cornell and west on Luther Thurber's. Dated Mar. 1, 1762. Wife, Mary, signed the deed.

On Dec. 8, 1760 Esek Eddy sold to Barnard Eddy, lot on the west side of Weybosset bridge and a workshop on a dock . . . (Prov. Deeds) and again in 1770 Esek sold . . . a certain lot of land lying and being in said Providence on the west side of the Salt river opposite the long wharfs and on the west side of the Main St. beginning at the north east corner of my Mansion House where I now dwell . . . to land of Mr. John Larcher, etc. (Prov. Deeds, 19.117).

On Sept. 9, 1771 Esek Eddy of Providence, boat builder, sold to Benjamin Eddy of Providence, shipwright, a lot of land bounding southerly on Westminster St. which runneth from the Great Bridge directly up to the westward on which said street, said lot fronts 40 ft. and extends back northerly to low water mark in the Salt Cove, easterly bounding on Jacob Whitman and westerly on a lot of Solomon Drowne . . . together with a store or workshop thereon (Providence Deeds, 20.217).

Esek went surety for Joseph Shaw, when the latter was settling the estate of David Shaw. Upon the records of the Town Council the statement is found that "Esek Eddy is appointed to remove David Brown's shop that stands in the Highway and to rebuild the Chimney and lay the account thereof before the Council as soon as may be."

There are several other transactions on the books which show that he was a man of means. He was made a Freeman of Providence in 1760. He witnessed the will of John Martin on July 14, 1763 (Prov. Prob. 5.403) and the will of Jonathan Ballou on Aug. 13, 1770 (Prov. Prob. 5.539). When the Census was taken in R. I., his household consisted of three males over 16, two under 16, three females over 16 and five under 16. In 1777 when the population of Prov. was taken for military purposes his name did not appear because he was already enrolled in the army. At the time of the 1790 Census his household contained two males over 16, one under 16, and 5 females.

When the Revolutionary War broke out he enlisted and in 1777 his name appears as Ensign Esek Eddy on the Providence lists and he was chosen to command the Alarm Co. in Prov. (Prov. Col. Rec., Vol. VIII, p. 564).

Esek Eddy. Captain of a company of artificers acting as boatmen; engaged Aug. 8, 1778; service, 28 days, on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

Esek Eddy, Providence. Ensign, alarm co. Prov. June, 1779; David Howell, Capt., Samuel Blake, 1st lieutenant.

In 1794 Esek sold to Esek, Jr. on the southerly side of Westminster St. a half mile west of the Great Bridge next to Barzillai Richmond, and again in 1800, land between Weybosset and Westminster St. bounded by Daniel Arnold, Job Carpenter . . . (Prov. Deeds, 23.341 and 32.32) and in 1814 he sold to Peleg Eddy, shipwright, land on the southerly side of Pawtuxet St. In this way he disposed of much of his property before his death.

Children, b. in Providence (Family Bible):

+808 Mary Eddy, b. Oct. 12, 1759.
+809 Peleg Eddy, b. Mar. 1, 1762.
810 Lydia Eddy, b. Feb. 28, 1764; d. Aug. 5, 1839.
+811 Esek Eddy, b. Feb. 25, 1766.
812 Abigail Eddy, b. Dec. 28, 1767; d. Oct. 5, 1795; m. Rufus Hawkins (Chronicle of Feb. 23, 1792).
813 Thomas Eddy, b. Dec. 28, 1767 (twin); d. Jan. 6, 1768.
814 Sarah Eddy, b. Jan. 14, 1770; d. Mar. 3, 1806 (Prov. Phoenix).
815 Martha Eddy, b. Jan. 12, 1772.
816 Amy Eddy, b. Apr. 2, 1774; d. Apr. 6, 1774.
817 Cyrus Eddy, b. Apr. 2, 1774 (twin); d. Apr. 3, 1774.
+818 Cyrus Eddy, b. Sept. 21, 1775.

352 Rhoda Eddy (Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 3, 1734, in Swansea (V.R.); m. Apr. 5, 1752, Peleg Martin of Swansea (V.R.); b. Aug. 30, 1731; son of Melatiah Martin, Jr. and his wife Abigail (Martin Gen.).

Children:

i Abigail Martin, m. 1785, in Killingly, Conn., Zephaniah Greenman. ii Elizabeth Martin, m. (1) Sept. 21, 1777, Benjamin Buffington; m. (2) Oct. 31, 1792, Richard Webber. iii Ruth Martin.
iv Rhoda Martin.
v Mary Martin, called Polly, m. her cousin Samuel Eddy; son of Joseph and Phebe Eddy. (See No. 910.)

354 Elizabeth Eddy (Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), m. Samuel Ingraham, Nov. 8, 1761, at Providence (V.R.). He was a blacksmith. Richard Anthony was appointed guardian of his daughter Elizabeth Ingraham and of the estates of Samuel when the latter became incapable of caring for them.

In the Probate files of Prov. there are many original papers, showing accounts with several members of these Eddys of Providence, namely Jeremiah, Esek, Barnard, Elizabeth, Patience, Peleg Eddy and Zephaniah Andrews.

Child:

Elizabeth Ingraham, d. Aug. 27, 1849, aged 82 yrs.

357 John Eddy (Seth, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 13, 1723. Nothing more is known about this John. He may have died before his father as no guardian was appointed for him in 1743. He may be the John Eddy who was in Providence in 1749 and 1750, with a wife Grace (Prov. Deeds). He may be the John who with a wife Frances had a son John, born in Swansea, Mar. 3, 1742. (V.R.)

358 Enos Eddy (Seth, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 19, 1725, in Swansea (V.R.), m. Elener Fuller. Int. Jan. 31, 1745/46 (Freetown V.R.).

He was a cordwainer and lived in Dighton, Mass. On Nov. 15, 1743, Enos Eddy, son of Seth Eddy, late of Swansea, shipwright, over 14 years of age, chose Samuel Eddy as guardian. (B.C. Prob., 10,381–386.) Samuel Millar and Edward Eddy gave bonds for Samuel Eddy. On Apr. 21, 1747 he prayed for a division of his parent's estate, stating that his father had been dead about ten years and that he was now twenty years old.

On May 5, 1745 Enos Eddy cordwainer, mortgaged to Ezra Richmond of Dighton 1/3 part of a parcel of land situate in Swansea, containing 120 acres, bounded south on Isaac Chase; west on Easterbrooke's land; north on "ye King's High Road; east on Jeremiah Eddy, . . . ye tract of land that my father Seth Eddy of Swansey died possessed of." Enos Eddy was in Boston when he acknowledged this deed on May 8, 1746. Joseph Marion was one of the witnesses. It was recorded June 24, 1746 (B. C. D., 34.328). In Aug. 1747 Enos Eddy, now resident in Dighton, cordwainer, sold to Jeremiah Eddy, mariner, 21 acres in Swansea, bounded north on the highway, west on Jeremiah Eddy, and south on Marcy Eddy. On Oct. 17, his wife Elener Eddy, signed and on that date both Enos and Elener Eddy acknowledged the deed in Boston (B. C. Deeds, 36.157). All further trace of this line is lost.

360 Jesse Eddy (Seth, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 2, 1729, in Swansea, Mass.; d. 1752.

He left a will dated Aug. 7, 1752 and probated Sept. 2, 1752 (B. C. Prob., 13.244). It mentions brother Seth Eddy; sister Mary Eddy; uncle Jeremiah Eddy; aunt Elizabeth Eddy; cousin Rhoda Martin and cousin Barnard Eddy. Uncle Jeremiah Eddy was the executor and Samuel Eddy, one of the witnesses. This will is of great importance, because it proves that Jeremiah Eddy, whose sons settled in Providence was son of John Eddy of Swansea and not a son of Ebenezer Eddy of the Taunton line, as was stated in the earlier Genealogy of 1881.

362 Seth Eddy (Seth, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 10, 1734/35 in Swansea (V.R.). On Nov. 15, 1743 he had Samuel Millar as guardian (B.C. Prob., 10. 381–386). On July 3, 1749, he petitioned the town of Warren to appoint Benjamin Millar as his guardian (Warren Prob., 1. 58). In the will of his brother Jesse he is mentioned as not yet 21 (B.C. Prob., 13. 244). On Sept. 5, 1757, he petitioned the town of Warren for permission to administer the personal estate of Thomas Eddy, late of Warren, dec.; said estate being in Warren. In this petition he gave his residence as Warren and his business as "Curier."

369 Asa Eddy (Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 4, 1727, in Suffield, Conn. (V.R.); d. before Jan. 4, 1774, when a guardian was appointed for Josiah Eddy, his son (Great Barrington Records). He. m. Nov. 7, 1749, Ann Evarts of Salisbury, Conn., probably dau. of Jonah Evarts.

On Mar. 18, 1748/49 Daniel Edwards of Hartford sold to Asa Eddy of Suffield in the County of Hampshire and Province of Mass. Bay, 50 acres in the 18th lot in the 1st Division in Salisbury, Conn. (Salisbury Rec., Vol. II, p. 182).

On Dec. 16, 1754, Asa and Anna Eddy quitclaim to Gershom Woodworth, all right in the estate of Jonah Evarts (Salisbury Rec., Vol. III, p. 225). In 1757 Asa Eddy of Salisbury, Conn. sold to Jonathan Chipman about 43 acres in the 18th lot of the 1st Division in Salisbury, Conn.

Children (probably an incomplete list):

819 Susannah Eddy, b. Oct. 9, 175–.
+820 Asa Eddy, b. Sept. 1, 1752.
+821 Josiah Eddy, b. Mar. 9, 1755.
+822 Probably also Briant Eddy, b. Dec. 25, 1760, at Canaan, Conn.; who is in Salisbury at the time of the Revolution.

370 Thomas Hill Eddy (Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 2, 1729, at Suffield, Conn. (V.R.); m. May 16, 1749, at Glastonbury, Conn. (V.R.), Bethiah Fox; b. about 1723; d. July 17, 1789, aged 66 years. She is buried in the Portland Cem. at Hartford (Conn. State Lib. Records). She was the dau. of John Fox.

(Middletown, Conn. Land Rec. 22.144) Oct. 18, 1768, Uriah Fox; Josiah Lomise and Agnes, his wife, of the town of Hartford; Joseph Fox and Martha, his wife; Samuel Williams and Susanna his wife, Joseph Lam and Rhodah his wife; Benjamin Tryon of Glastonbury, Thomas Eddy and Bethiah, his wife of Middletown; Nathaniel Hurlbert and Azuba his wife and Zerviah Fox, . . . unite in acknowledging the £30 paid by Samuel Porter in Middletown.

From an old Bible, which belonged to Asa Eddy, now in the possession of William Billings Eddy, the following list of children, together with the birth dates was taken. One page which probably contained other data was torn out of the Bible.

Children:

+823 Thomas Eddy, b. Dec. 4, 1749.
824 Penelope Eddy, b. Nov. 4, 1751; m. Aug. 10, 1775, S. Pennfield, at Chatham, Conn.
+825 John Eddy, b. Mar. 22, 1754.
+826 Seth Eddy, b. Sept. 13, 1757.
827 Lucy Eddy, b. Sept. 7, 1759; m. Oct. 14, 1784, John Andrews, son of Daniel and Anna (Eddy) Andrews of Glastonbury, Conn. (See No. 372).
828 Asa Eddy, b. Jan. 1, 1762.
+829 David Eddy, b. Apr. 7, 1765.
830 Joseph Eddy, b. Aug. 3 (illegible).

372 Anna Eddy (Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 25, 1740; d. Dec. 10, 1827, at Glastonbury; m. Daniel Andrews (also spelled Andrus and Andros), of Glastonbury, Conn., b. about 1734; d. Dec. 3, 1818.

Children (Hamblin Genealogy):

i John Andrews, m. Lucy Eddy; dau. of Thomas and Bethiah (Fox) Eddy. (See No. 827.)
ii Molly Andrews.
iii Dorcas Andrews.
iv Anna Andrews.
v Phebe Andrews.
vi Rachel Andrews.
vii Charles Andrews.
viii Daniel Andrews.
ix Betsey Andrews.

373 Hannah Eddy (Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 11, 1746, at Glastonbury, Conn.; m. Nov. 14, 1764, Remembrance Brewer of East Middletown, Conn., son of Daniel and Eleanor Brewer. She m. (2) Elisha Hale at Chatham, Conn., July 16, 1775 (Early Conn. Mar. by Bailey).

In Portland Cemetery, Conn. are stones for Elisha Hale, d. July 13, 1805 and Mrs. Elisha Hale, d. May 21, 1822. Probably these are Hannah's and her husband Elisha's stones.

Children:

i Hannah Brewer, b. June 1, 1766, at East Haddam; bapt. Dec. 13, 1767.
+831 ii David Brewer, bapt. Apr. 10, 1768.
iii Jacob Brewer, b. Apr. 8, 1770.
iv Rachel Brewer, b. Aug. 23, 1772.

374 Charles Eddy (Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 22, 1748, at Glastonbury, Conn. (V.R.); d. before Apr. 22, 1819, when his will was proved. He m. Oct. 25, 1770 (Julius Gay Rec., Vol. II), Hannah Kelsey of Weathersfield, Conn.; b. Aug. 14, 1751; dau. of Enoch and Mary (Bidwell) Kelsey. He m. (2) Mary Dobson, widow of John Dobson, and mother of his grandson William's wife. She d. in 1823.

The 1790 Census gives him as a resident of Berlin, Conn. and head of a household of two males over 16, four under 16, and five females. A descendant states that he was a soldier in the Revolution, but the files of the Eddy Family Association do not yet contain his service, so it cannot here be quoted. His will, dated July 8, 1813, is on file and mentions wife Mary and divides property among sons, etc. Son Charles was executor.

His name appears several times in the Registry of Deeds. The following are of interest. Mercy Bass of Berlin, executrix of the will of Samuel Bass, sold to Charles Eddy, Jr. in Aug. 1803, a piece of land in the south part of New Britain Society called Walnut Hill. (Berlin and New Britain Land Records, 3.358.)

(4.412) On Apr. 7, 1800 Thomas Hart sold to Charles Eddy. James North and Abi North were witnesses.

(Glastonbury Land Rec. 8.478) July 7, 1773. To all people . . . we, Charles Eddy, and Hannah Eddy, late wife to Charles Eddy, deceased, Daniel Andrews and Ann Andrews of Glastonbury and Remembrance Brewer and Hannah Brewer of Chatham quitclaim unto Thomas Eddy of said Chatham all our right in and to one piece of land in Glastonbury lying a little west of where said Charles Eddy now dwells, bounded on land of said Charles Eddy and land of Jonathan Hollister, and north on land of William Tryon. Dated Feb. 13, 1771 and signed by Hannah Eddy, Charles Eddy, Daniel Andrews, Ann Andrews and Hannah Brewer.

Note. This deed proves that the Charles Eddy who m. Susanna Hill, and the one who m. Mary Meakins and the one who m. Hannah Loveland are the same person for here are children of the two last wives quitclaiming their rights to a son of the first.

Children, by first wife:

+832 Ruth Eddy, b. Aug. 12, 1771, at Glastonbury, Conn.
+833 Charles Eddy, b. Mar. 26, 1773, at Glastonbury, Conn.
834 Billy Eddy, bapt. Dec. 25, 1774, at Glastonbury; probably d. young.
+835 Hannah Eddy, b. July 11, 1776.
+836 Thomas Eddy, b. Aug. 8, 1778; bapt. Apr. 8, 1781, at New Britain, Conn.
+837 Eunice Eddy, bapt. Jan. 31, 1780.
+838 William Eddy, b. Oct. 20, 1781; bapt. Oct. 3, 1784, at New Britain.
839 Polly Eddy, bapt. Nov. 3, 1782.
+840 Joseph Eddy, b. Feb. 27, 1786; bapt. July 6, 1788, at New Britain.
+841 Jesse Eddy, bapt. July 16, 1788.

375 Joseph Eddy (Joseph, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 24, 1729, at Warren, R. I.; d. 1800 at Corinth, N. Y. (Cem. Rec.); m. June 13, 1756, at Warren (V.R.), Lydia Jolls, of Bristol, R. I. She d. 1807, at Corinth, N. Y., aged 75 years (Cem. Rec. at Corinth). She was dau. of Thomas and Mehitable Jolls. He lived first at Bristol and later at Warren, R. I., adjoining towns. He was a shipwright.

The following abstracts are of interest:

(Warren Deeds, 1.296) Thomas Jolles of Bristol to Joseph Eddy of Warren, land in Warren on the north-west corner of Jolles land and on the east side of a country road and bounding east on Amos Thomas. Dated Dec. 31, 1755.

(Warren Deeds, 1.316) Thomas Jolles to Joseph Edy of Warren, shipwright, land near Joseph Eddy's house-lot and land of Jolles. Dated Jan. 24, 1757.

(Warren Deeds, 3.248) Joseph Eddy of Warren to "my son Jeremiah Eddy of Warren," ¼ of an acre near Nathan Barden. Dated Feb. 5, 1792.

(Warren Deeds, 3.249) Joseph Eddy of Warren to "my son Jeremiah Eddy of Warren, blacksmith," ¼ of an acre with a dwelling house. Dated May 5, 1792.

(Warren Deeds, 3.408) Jeremiah sold this on Apr. 13, 1795. This probably marks the time of the removal of these two, father and son, to Corinth, N. Y.

The R. I. Census of 1774 records Joseph Eddy as a resident of Warren with a household comprising one male over 16, and four under 16; one female over 16, and three under 16. In 1790 there are four males over 16, one under 16, and two females.

Children, b. in Warren, R. I. (V.R. except the last):

842 Caleb Eddy, b. June 27, 1757; d. in 1792. Adm. on his estate granted to brother Jeremiah Eddy. It is probable that the Anne Eddy, relict of the late Caleb Eddy of Warren, R. I. who died Feb. 14, 1833, aged 69 yrs., and who is buried in Swan Point Cem., Providence, was his wife. There is a mar. on Jan. 10, 1790 of a Caleb Eddy to Anna Mason, which is probably his.
843 Betty Eddy, b. Oct. 7, 1759.
844 John Eddy, b. Apr. 15, 1761; d. before Aug. 27, 1793 (Warren Probate Rec.).
845 Roby Eddy, b. Nov. 16, 1770; d. about 1795, and is buried in Corinth Cem. in Corinth, New York.
+846 Jeremiah Eddy, b. Jan. 10, 1772.
847 Ebenezer Eddy, b. June 1, 1773.
848 Samuel Eddy, b. Sept. 4, 1775; d. before Mar. 3, 1800, when Joseph Munro was appointed to administer on his estate in Warren (Warren Probate).
+849 Hope Eddy.

381 Oliver Eddy (Joseph, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 15, 1741, at Warren; d. Apr. 18, 1817 (Warren Probate); m. Dec. 15, 1774, Sarah Wheaton; d. Mar. 20, 1822, aged 71 years. No record of the children of this couple has been found.

When the 1774 Census was taken he was a resident of Warren and his household consisted of one male and one female. He was a shipwright. The following deeds are of interest.

(Warren Deeds, 3.330) Moses Tyler sold to Oliver Eddy, shipwright, . . . lot No. 2 on the Josias Lyndon plat bounding north on King St. and west on Benajah Cole, etc. Dated July 4, 1793.

(Warren Deeds, 6.122) Oliver Eddy, shipwright, sold to James Maxwell, merchant, land with a dwelling house; lot No. 2 on Josias Lyndon Plat, etc. Dated Dec. 18, 1812. In 1816 he sold to the town of Warren land bounding north on King St., west on Benajah Cole, etc., being lot No. 2 on Josias Lyndon Plat.

383 Benjamin Eddy (Parker, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), bapt. Sept. 2, 1739, at Charlestown, Mass. (V.R.). Apart from the fact that he is probably the one who served in the French and Indian War, with the following service nothing has been found concerning him.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 356) Mass. Archives: Muster Rolls.

Benjamin Eddy appears on an Account dated Charlestown, Jan. 22, 1761, rendered by John Foye, against the Province of Mass. Bay, for money paid to and disbursements for invalids and others on the Albany road returning from the Westward. Said Eddy reported as belonging to Boston and to Capt. Martin's Co., Col. Ingersoll's Reg't. Amount charged to him under date of Nov. 22, 1760,—12sh.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 291) Benja' Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Jan. 8, 1760 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Samuel Peck. Quality, Private. Residence, Boston. Entered service, May 7, 1759. Length of service, 28 weeks, 2 days. Remarks: Reported—Servant to O. Curtis. Endorsed—Co. up St. Lawrence River.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 101) Benjamin Edde appears on a Return of men enlisted for His Majesty's service for the total reduction of Canada—1760. Enlisted Feb. 18 by (Capt.) John Bayley. Age,—not given. Residence,—Boston. Remarks,— Reported—Mustered and sworn Feb. 19.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 108) Benja' Eddy appears on a Return of men enlisted for His Majesty's service in the intended expedition against Canada 1760. Residence, Boston. Enlisted, Feb. 18, 1760 under Capt. John Bayley. Sworn, Feb. 19, 1760. Mustered, Feb. 19, 1760.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 294) Benja' Eaddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to Suffolk ss., Feb. 11, 1761, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Marten. Quality, Private. Residence,—Boston. Entered service, Feb. 19. Served until Dec. 8, year not given, probably 1760. Length of service, 42 weeks. Remarks: Reported: 210 miles travel home allowed.

388 Mary Eddy (Benjamin, Ebenezer, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 22, 1748, at Swansea (V.R.); d. July 1, 1843, in St. Lawrence Co., N. Y.; m. Feb. 18, 1768, at Swansea, William Morse (Vital Rec. gives Morel, but this would seem to be a mistake of the scribe). He was b. Apr. 28, 1746, at Newport; d. Feb. 12, 1800, at Pittstown, N. Y. He was son of Joseph and Mary (Tucker) Morse.

395 Edward Eddy (Edward, Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. June 9, 1735; m. Jan. 20, 1760, at Warren, R. I., Abigail Child of Warren; dau. of John and Abigail (Eddy) Child. Agibail was the dau. of Caleb and Bethiah (Smith) Eddy (Warren and Swansea V.R.). His name appears on the roll of Capt. Curtis Cole's Co. in Col. Nathan Miller's Regt., 1781. (Original Fessenden Mss.) From Virginia Baker's "History of Warren."

When the Military Census was taken for R. I. in 1774, Edward was a resident of Warren with a household consisting of one male over 16, three under 16, and one female. In 1777 he was between the ages of 16 and 50 and in 1790 his household comprised four males over 16, one under 16, and one female.

On Nov. 7, 1768, Sarah Eddy, widow of Caleb Eddy, late of Warren, declined to administer on her husband's estate and asked that Ebenezer Cole should be made adm. (Book 1.344). The petition was granted (1.345). On Nov. 17, 1768, an inventory was presented and on Dec 5, 1768, the inventory was accepted. On Oct. 1, 1770, Ebenezer Cole, administrator, together with widow Sarah Eddy prayed for allowance out of her late husband, Caleb Eddy's estate "for supporting my two children, one four months old, the other two years and five months." (These were ages at the time of the father's death.) This was accepted Oct. 8, 1770. Ebenezer Cole adm. on the estate of Caleb, late of Warren, shipwright, was permitted to sell land in 1771.

Children, b. in Warren (V.R.):
+860 Elizabeth Eddy, b. May 16, 1766.
+861 Caleb Eddy, b. June 12, 1768.

397 John Eddy (Elisha, Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 23, 1742, in Swansea, Mass.; d. before Mar. 12, 1770. Administration on his estate was given to Martha Eddy, widow, on Apr. 18, 1770. Inventory was made Mar. 12, 1770. Elisha Eddy and William Buffington were bondsmen. He m. Nov. 29, 1764, Martha Buffington in Swansea (V.R.). She was b. July 24, 1744; dau. of William (or Sam'l) and Susanna (Chase) Buffington. She m. (2) Theophilus Luther, b. May 27, 1734; son of Theophilus and Sarah (Child) Luther.

There is a deed given by David Chase and wife Elizabeth, to Samuel Buffington and John Eddy of Swansea on April 21, 1763, which William Buffington and William Buffington, Jr. witness. The John Eddy mentioned is probably this John Eddy. There is a John Eddy who on May 5, 1788, together with Thomas Lewin, witnessed a deed given by Samuel Buffington and wife Susanna of land in the south-east corner of Rehoboth near the dividing line between Swansea and Rehoboth. Perhaps he was a son of John and Martha Eddy.

400 Bethiah Eddy (Elisha, Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 28, 1748, in Swansea; m. Mar. 20, 1766, John Linn or Lewin. He was b. 1743, and lost at sea. His will was filed in 1793.

(NOTE. Among Andrew Mason's children was Jemima, who m. Sylvester Griswold. Their daughter, Sarah Griswold, m. Bolivar Blood. They had a daughter M. Isabella Blood of Galesburg, Ill., who has in her possession a sampler worked by Ann Eddy in 1755.)

402 Hezekiah Eddy (Michael, Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 2, 1744; d. Apr. 11, 1770, G.S. in the Hortonville Cem. He was lost at sea. He m. Apr. 14, 1768, Lydia Wilbur, b. about 1750; d. Mar. 21, 1822, at Boston, aged 72 years (G.S. in Hortonville, Mass., Cem.). Lydia was made admx. on his estate and Thomas Wilbur and David Pierce went bonds for her (Taunton Probate).

Children:

870 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Sept. 9, 1768.
871 Hezekiah Eddy, b. Sept. 11, 1770.

403 William Eddy (Michael, Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 9, 1748; d. May 3, 1826, in his 79th year; m. Sept. 27, 1770, Amy Eddy, b. about 1751; d. Aug. 11, 1829 in her 78th year (Taunton V.R.). She was the dau. of Elkanah and Patience (Cole) Eddy. William left a will, dated June 17, 1825 and proved July 7, 1826. It mentions wife Amie; son Hezekiah; dau. Elizabeth Eddy; dau. Anna Richmond; dau. Roba Waldron; dau. Sibel Mason; dau. Amie Ripley; dau. Patience Gardner; dau. Mary Kingsley. Son Hezekiah was made executor on May 26, 1826.

William was always known as Deacon William. He and his wife are buried in the Eddy Cemetery in Swansea Village. His service in the Revolutionary War was as follows:

William Eddy, Swanzey. Private, Capt. Peleg Peck's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; enlisted Aug. 3, 1780; discharged Aug. 9, 1780; service, 7 days; company marched on an alarm to Tiverton, R. I.; by order of Col. Slead all the men in Swanzey were joined in one company under Capt. Peck, the other officers refusing to serve.

He lived in the present Swansea Village on a part of the land originally purchased by his great-grandfather, Zachariah, probably to the north of the present Dye Works. To his property he added a piece by purchase from John Brown in 1781.

On Aug. 13, 1781 John Brown and Betty of Warren sold to William Eddy of Swansea, yeoman . . . a certain house and an acre of land in Swansea on the easterly side of the way that leads down the neck . . . bounds mention Edward Slead, Michael Eddy . . . reserving 1/3 part of profit for the use of Margaret Pratt, now wife of John Pratt (60.345).

On Dec. 8, 1801 William Eddy and Amy sold to Stephen Munro 3 A. on the road leading from Slade's Ferry to Warren. . . . Bounds mention Thomas Lewin's land. Thomas Lewin and wife Phebe also sold land here to Stephen Munro on Jan. 22, 1801 (Taunton Deeds, 86.450; 87.55); and again Mar. 31, 1806 William and Amy sold 23 A. . . . bounds mention Elder Michael Eddy's land; salt water—Thomas Lewin's land and others (Taunton Deeds, 86.125).

When the Census was taken in 1790 William was living in Swansea with a family consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, and eight females.

Children, list copied from Amy Eddy's Bible:

872 Anna Eddy, b. Sept. 6, 1772; m. John Richmond (Father's will).
873 Roby Eddy, b. May 20, 1774; m. Sept. 26, 1795, at Swansea (V.R.), George Waldron.
874 Eunice Eddy, b. May 13, 1776; d. 1779.
875 Sybel Eddy, b. Jan. 7, 1778; d. Oct. 23, 1854; m. Feb. 3, 1806, at Cheshire, Mass. (V.R.), Hezekiah Mason.
876 Eunice Eddy, b. Sept. 22, 1779; d. 1801.
877 Amey Eddy, b. May 28, 1781; m. (Int. 1802, at Kingston, Mass.) Apr. 24, 1803, at Swansea, Charles Ripley.
878 William Eddy, b. July 15, 1784. He sailed away on Nov. 26, 1818 and was never heard from again. On June 28, 1806, William Eddy, Jr. of Swansea, mariner, for 200 dollars sold to William Eddy, Sr. "land given me by my grandfather, Michael Eddy, late of Swansea, dec'd, in his will."
879 Patience Eddy, b. Mar. 20, 1786; m. Luther Gardner on Dec. 11, 1806.
+880 Mary Eddy, called Polly; b. Apr. 7, 1790.
+881 Hezekiah Eddy, b. Dec. 10, 1793, in Swansea.
882 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Apr. 12, 1797; d. Sept. 14, 1832; m. Oct. 11, 1827, Salisbury Luther.

407 Michael Eddy (Michael, Caleb, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 1, 1760, in Swansea, Mass; d. June 3, 1835, in Newport, R. I. He is buried in a cemetery on West Broadway, near the Soldiers' and Sailors' monument. He was m. Sept. 27, 1787, to Phebe Wilbour, of Johnston, R. I. She was probably the daughter of Joseph and Phebe Wilbour of Little Compton, R. I. She was b. about 1761; d. Aug. 10, 1855, aged 94 years (G.S.).

(Note. The vital records of Johnston, R. I. give Mary Wilbour as the name of Joseph's wife, but the Swansea Vital Records and a newspaper under date of Sept. 27, 1787 give the name as Phebe. It would seem that the Johnston record is a mistake.)

When the 1790 Census was taken Michael was in Newport with a household consisting of one male over 16 years and two females. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and his wife Phebe was a pensioner. His service follows: (See also Newport Records, 19,492.)

Michael Eddy (also given Jr.), Swanzey. Private, Capt. Peleg Shearman's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's (Bristol Co.) regt.; service from Oct. 13, to Oct. 18, 1777; 6 days, including travel from Swanzey to Howland's Ferry, on a secret expedition against Rhode Island at request of Gen. Spencer; also, Capt. Joseph Cole's co., Col. John Jacobs's regt.; enlisted July 1, 1778; service, 6 mos., at Rhode Island; enlistment to expire Jan. 1, 1779; also, Capt. Peleg Peck's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; enlisted Aug. 4, 1780; discharged Aug. 9, 1780; service, 6 days; company marched on an alarm to Tiverton, R. I.; by order of Col. Slead all the men in Swanzey were joined in one company under Capt. Peck, the other officers refusing to serve; roll sworn to at Rehoboth.

In 1789 Michael Eddy became the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Newport, the duties of which office he continued to carry on for nearly fifty years. "He possessed a liberal mind, was a pleasant companion and in the sick room and at the bedside of death, he excelled in giving comfort. He was respected and beloved by his friends in the church and congregation and by the inhabitants of Newport. During his labors in the church he baptised more than five hundred persons. He was a man worthy of the name Elder Eddy for he was an elder brother to all."

His will, on file in Newport, mentions wife Phebe, and a daughter Pamela, who evidently is an invalid, for whom he makes careful provision. It mentions also daughter Sarah Ann; son Michael Eddy, Jr. and his wife Sarah Eddy; son Joseph W. Eddy and his wife Anna. His great Bible he gave to son Michael after the decease of wife and Sarah Ann. This Bible is still treasured in the family of a descendant, George Albert Eddy of Newport. The inventory gives a minute description of all his possessions, which were to be found in each room of the home. It is a very interesting document. The will was dated June 23, 1830 and presented June 8, 1835 (Newport Probate, 10.227). On Apr. 15, 1786, Michael Eddy, Jr., laborer, purchased from his father, Michael Eddy, yeoman, a piece of land in Swansea (Taunton Deeds, 79.218). On June 1, 1800 Michael Eddy, Jr. of Newport sold to Job Mason. This deed was signed by wife, Phebe. In 1821 he sold to John Winslow land in Swansea "on the road from Swansea to Slades Ferry." Wife Phebe Eddy signed the deed. In Newport he owned a lot on Thames Street running west to the Cove.

Children:

+883 JOSEPH WILBOUR EDDY, b. Mar. 18, 1791, in Johnston, R. I. (V.R.).
884 PHEBE EDDY, b. Sept. 27, 1793, in Johnston; d. May 30, 1816 (G.S. Newport Cem.).
885 PAMELA EDDY, b. Oct. 7, 1796. Living in 1859. She was an invalid and in 1859 was insane, with her sister Sarah for guardian.
+886 MICHAEL EDDY, b. Jan. 24, 1799, in Newport (V.R.).
+887 SARAH ANN EDDY, b. Mar. 23, 1803, in Newport.

409 Zachariah Eddy (Benjamin, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. probably about 1735; d. July 13, 1783; m. Eunice . . . (perhaps Chester), who d. Feb. 16, 1777; m. (2) Apr. 20, 1777, Abigail Perry, b. May 25, 1733, at Rehoboth; dau. of Thomas and Martha (Sabin) Perry.

In his will, dated Apr. 2, 1783, Zachariah mentions sons Benjamin, Nathaniel, Zachariah, and Jonathan, who is not yet 14, and wife Abigail, who is not the mother of his children. In 1753 he was made Freeman in Providence. In 1761 he was a resident of Johnston, R. I. In 1764 he was in Norwich, Conn., where Benjamin was born. Soon after this he returned to Providence and joined with his father and Barnard and Esek Eddy in the shipbuilding trade which they had established at Cowpen Point, at the foot of the present Ship St. He served a few days during the Revolutionary War, but as he was not in good health, his young son Benjamin took his place. His service follows:

Zachariah Eddy. Capt. Esek Eddy's co. of artificers acting as boatmen; enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; service, 20 days, on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

He was appointed adm. on the estate of Barnard Eddy, who was his brother-in-law. On Mar. 3, 1779 he applied to court for permission to sell and divide it. On Feb. 7, 1780 he filed an account of his administration and a few days later on Feb. 16, 1780 he asked to be released as he had business in Connecticut. On Mar. 3, 1783 he presented a final account with a balance and Jeremiah Eddy and Joseph Grafton were appointed to care for the estate in his stead. He asked to be released "on account of his long indisposition and want of health."

The inventory of his possessions contains among other things, one boat and oars, oyster tongs, eel pens, crab spear; also one large Bible (now in Mrs. Harris's possession) and two small ones, Barclay's Apology and several books and pamphlets.

Children (Bible Rec.):

888 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Apr. 25, 1762; d. Sept. 30, 1772.
+889 Benjamin Eddy, b. Feb. 10, 1764.
890 Nathaniel Eddy, b. Oct. 13, 1766. Nothing more is known of him.
891 Zachariah Eddy, b. June 16, 1769. On Jan. 5, 1784, Zachariah Eddy, son of Zachariah Eddy, late of Providence, dec'd, now in his 15th year chose his uncle Benjamin Eddy for his guardian.
892 Chester Eddy, b. Sept. 20, 1771; d. Sept. 18, 1775.
893 Jonathan Eddy, b. Jan. 19, 1774. He probably died early in 1799 for in the old Bible of Zachariah Eddy, is a note, which states "Mar. 8, 1799, Jonathan Eddy, Dr. to Remembrance Jones. . . . Funeral, Digging grave etc. Payment was received from Benjamin Eddy on Feb. 1, 1800."

410 William Eddy (Benjamin, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 26, 1751, at Providence, R. I.; d. Sept. 4, 1835; m. (1) Nov. 15, 1771, Huldah Ide, b. June 11, 1754; d. Aug. 12, 1788; dau. of Josiah and Bethia Ide. He m. (2) Bethiah Hayes on May 12, 1789. She was dau. of Zebedee and Mary Hayes and was b. Oct. 1, 1751 and d. Sept. 30, 1837, at Providence.

He was a shipwright and one of the group of Eddys engaged in shipbuilding at Cowpen Point at the foot of Ship St. and on Eddy lane, which later became Eddy Street. He owned a piece on the north side of Eddy St. and in 1798 he had a house bounding west on Eddy St. It was of wood two stories high, 27′ x 26′, with 16 windows of 24 squares 6 x 8 glass (Tax Book). On Nov. 5, 1793 William Eddy, shipwright, was made guardian of Huldah, John, and Ezra, minors and children of William and of Huldah Eddy, dec'd, late wife of William and grandchildren of Josiah Ide, late of Rehoboth. His name appears in the Providence Registry of Deeds in several transactions. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and was a pensioner. His service follows:

Served May 1775 as substitute and private at Cambridge, Capt. Smith's Co., Col. Ridley, Mass. Cit. On July 1776 enlisted and served 2 mos. as private in Crown Point and Lake Champlain expedition in Capt. Barnard Eddy's R. I. Mil. Co.

William Eddy. Private, Capt. James Hills's co., Col. Williams's rgt.; service from Sept. 29, 1777, to Oct. 30, 1777, at Tiverton, R. I. Roll sworn to at Rehoboth.

William Eddy. Capt. Esek Eddy's co. of artificers acting as boatmen; enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; service, 20 days, on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

When the Census was taken in R. I. in 1774 his household consisted of two males over 16, and one under 16, and one female. He lived in Providence. He does not appear in the Census of 1777 in R. I., probably because he was already a soldier. In 1790 he was a resident of Providence with a household of two males over 16, two under 16, and three females.

Children, by first wife:

+894 William Eddy, Jr., b. Mar. 24, 1773.
895 Patience Eddy, b. Aug. 6, 1775; d. Aug. 9, 1775.
+896 Huldah Eddy, b. Jan. 15, 1778.
+897 John Sweet Eddy, b. Apr. 2, 1780.
898 Pamela Eddy, b. Mar. 22, 1781; d. young.
899 Josiah Eddy, b. May 3, 1783; d. Aug. 1785.
+900 Ezra Eddy, b. July 10, 1785.
901 Hannah Eddy, b. Aug. 4, 1788; d. Feb. 25, 1789.

Children, by second wife:

902 Joanna Eddy, b. Mar. 22, 1790; d. Sept. 12, 1791.
+903 Josiah Ide Eddy, b. Mar. 19, 1792.
+904 Margaret Snow Eddy, b. Nov. 12, 1794.

411 Joseph Eddy (Benjamin, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about 1745; d. Sept. 14, 1809 in his 64th year (Newspaper, Phoenix); m. June 10, 1766, at Providence (V.R.), Phebe Eddy; dau. of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Pierce) Eddy. (See No. 355.)

The following will in the Providence Probate Records has been discovered which proves that Joseph and his three brothers are not sons of Zachariah Eddy, of Glocester, as stated in the 1881 Gen. of the Eddy Family. After several bequests Margaret Tyning gave "to Joseph Eddy, son of Capt. Benjamin Eddy of Providence, late dec'd" £10, when he is 21 years old. This was in 1765.

Joseph Eddy left a will dated Aug. 18, 1809. To his daughter Elizabeth, he gave his household furniture. He then ordered that the house and lot where he lived and his ship-yard lot should be sold and the money divided among his heirs, Joseph Eddy, Elizabeth Eddy, Nancy Taber, Samuel Eddy, Phebe Warner, George Eddy and grandson Asa Eddy, son of my son, Jesse Eddy. To his son Joseph Eddy, he left "my India-joint cane" (Prov. Prob. 10,493 and 494). He appointed his son-in-law, Thomas Taber, and his nephew, John Andrews, as his executors, and in this capacity they sold to Joseph Martin and William Mason two lots of land in Providence, one of which is bounded northerly on Ship St. and extends from Eddy St. to the Channel, and westerly on Eddy St. and is the same which John Field conveyed to Joseph Eddy on May 5, 1772 (Bk. 20,702). The second lot was south of the other one and was purchased in 1784 of John Field (21,40). This transaction was dated May 16, 1810 (33.198).

On the 5th of April 1779 Joseph Eddy sold a piece of land and wife Phebe signed off her dower rights (5.18).

Beside this land Joseph Eddy of Providence, shipwright, purchased of Edward Hawkins, "land in Cranston on the highway that goeth from Providence to Pawtuxet Falls, and bounds northerly on Jonas Wanton's farm where he now dwells." Barnard Eddy witnessed this transaction on May 11, 1770. (Cranston Deeds, 3.11.)

In Oct. 1775 it was decided by the people in Providence that measures should be taken to obstruct the harbor so that the British could not reach the town. Joseph Eddy, Barnard Eddy and John Updike were appointed to block the channel. Joseph gave other service in the War, as follows:

Joseph Eddy. Capt. Esek Eddy's co. of artificers acting as boatmen; enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; service, 20 days, on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

At the time of the 1774 Census, Joseph was a resident of Providence with a household of three males over 16, and two under 16; two females over 16 and three under 16. He appears in the Census of 1777 in Providence as between the ages of 16 and 50 and capable of bearing arms. In 1790 he was a resident of Providence with four males over 16, two under 16, and five females in his household.

Children, order of birth not known:

+905 Joseph Eddy.
906 Elizabeth Eddy.
+907 Nancy Eddy, b. 1769.
+908 Jesse Eddy, b. about 1770.
+909 George Eddy.
+910 Samuel Eddy.
+911 Phebe Eddy, b. 1773 or 1774.

412 Benjamin Eddy (Benjamin, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about 1748; d. Mar. 30, 1831, aged 83 years. He is buried at Swan Point, Prov. He m. Aug. 17, 1766, Lydia Perry, b. about 1743; d. Sept. 20, 1820, aged 77 years; dau. of Thomas and Martha (Sabin) Perry. They lived on Richmond and South Sts., Providence.

When the Census was taken in 1774 in R. I. Benjamin was a resident of Providence with two males over 16, two under 16, two females over 16, and one under 16; in 1790 there were two males over 16, one under 16, and one female in his household.

Benjamin Eddy gave the following service in the Revolutionary War.

Benjamin Eddy. Capt. Esek Eddy's co. of artificers acting as boatmen; enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; service, 12 days, on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

On June 7, 1796 Benjamin Eddy of Providence, shipwright, sold to William Young, mariner, land in Providence, bounding southerly on Westminster St. and northerly by low water mark and west by lot of John Young, with house thereon and shop and other buildings, except the strip in the agreement. Lydia Eddy signed off her dower rights and Esek Eddy witnessed this deed.

Children (perhaps an incomplete list):

+912 Cynthia Eddy.
+913 Nancy Eddy.
+914 William Eddy.
+915 Henrietta Sabin Eddy.

413 Elizabeth Eddy (Benjamin, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), m. July 24, 1763, Col. Zephaniah Andrews, b. Feb. 9, 1739, at Dighton; son of Samuel^3 (John^2, John^1) Andrews and his wife Mary^2 Pitts (Ebenezer^1).

He settled in Providence, where he was one of the first Universalists in the city. He was a man of active mind, a reader and a writer. He was colonel of the Providence Marine Artillery. He left a will in which he mentions wife Elizabeth, to whom he left the portraits of himself and wife; son John Andrews; Elizabeth, widow of son Benjamin, dec'd.; granddau. Elizabeth Richardson, wife of Moses and dau. of son Benjamin, dec'd; granddau. Pamela Whitaker, wife of Josiah Whitaker and dau. of son Benjamin, dec'd; dau. Mary Grinell, dec'd, whose husband was Peter; granddau. Mary A. Grinell; dau. Elizabeth Taylor, widow of William; granddau. Elizabeth Taylor; grandson Charles Andrews Taylor; dau. Susanna, wife of Benjamin Howland; grandson Charles Andrews Howland; son Zephaniah, who is to receive the estate purchased of Thomas Taber and John Andrews as executors of Joseph Eddy and who is to have son-in-law, Peter Grinell and nephew, Thomas Andrews, to care for his share as he is not of sound mind. Dated June 25, 1812.

Elizabeth also left a will in which she mentions several of the above persons.

xi SALLY POTTER, b. Jan. 27, 1778.

420 Richard Eddy (Jonathan, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 11, 1736, probably in Glocester, R. I.; d. Oct. 20, 1784, in Providence, R. I.; m. July 10, 1765, Martha Comstock, b. Feb. 24, 1744; d. Dec. 8, 1802. She was dau. of Samuel and Anna (Brown) Comstock. After the death of Richard, Martha m. (2) Feb. 15, 1786, Capt. Daniel Bucklin.

He settled in Johnston, R. I. where he resided until 1783. He was a cooper. In 1758 he was admitted as Freeman (R. I. Col. Rec. Vol. VI) in Glocester, but later moved to Johnston, R. I., where he resided until 1783 when he moved to Providence to become Steward of Brown University, which position he occupied at his death. His widow was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by his death until the end of the year. She is probably the first woman to be officially connected with Brown University.

According to the Town Council Papers on file at the City Hall, Prov., Richard Eddy was present at a meeting of the Town Council in July 1772 and Feb. 1773. His name appears in various land transactions in the town of Johnston from 1761 until his death. He was a cooper by trade and seems to have lived on the south side of the road leading to Killingly, Conn., perhaps somewhere near the present village of Manton. In 1759 and 1760 he was an Ensign and became a lieutenant in 1761. When the Census of 1774 was taken he was a resident of Johnston, with a household of three males over 16, three under 16, two females over 16, and one under 16, and his name appears in the Census of 1777 as between the ages of 16 and 50 and able to bear arms. In 1777 he was chosen by the town of Johnston to make the list of those between the ages of 16 and 50. His service in the War follows:

Richard Eddy. Private, Capt. Generals Cavaliers co., for service in the expedition to the Island of R. I., from July 24 to Aug. 31, 1778, 21 days service.

Children, b. in Johnston, R. I.:

+925 Moses Eddy, b. Mar. 26, 1766.
+926 Samuel Eddy, b. Mar. 31, 1769.
927 Jonathan Eddy, b. Jan. 21, 1772; d. Aug. 25, 1800, of yellow fever (Gazette).

424 Jonathan Eddy (Jonathan, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 8, 1746, in Glocester; d. July 15, 1832, at Glocester, R. I. (Newspaper); m. Apr. 12, 1772, Lydia Randall; dau. of Job and Elizabeth (Mathewson) Randall.

In the R. I. Civil and Military Lists, he is called Capt. Jonathan Eddy. His service in the Revolutionary War follows:

Jonathan Eddy. Private, Capt. Generals Cavaliers co., for service in expedition to Island of R. I. from July 24 to Aug. 31, 1778; rec'd pay for 4 da. service.

In the Census of 1774, the household of Jonathan Eddy, Jr. consisted of one male over 16, one female over 16. His name is not mentioned in the Census of 1777. In the Census of 1790 he was the head of a household of two males over 16, three under 16, and three females. The Glocester Registry of Deeds contains several transactions in which he had a part. It would seem that at one time he ran a forge, for on Nov. 11, 1785, he sold 25 acres and part of the forge known as Hopewell, which he had purchased of Job Randall.

Children, b. in Glocester, R. I. (V.R.):

928 Sarah Eddy, b. Jan. 9, 1775.
929 Job Eddy, b. Jan. 9, 1775 (twin).
+930 Lydia Eddy, b. Oct. 20, 1776.
+931 Betsey Eddy, b. Feb. 3, 1778.
+932 John Mathewson Eddy, b. Feb. 14, 1780.
933 Cyrus Eddy, b. Apr. 28, 1782.
+934 Thomas Randall Eddy, b. Sept. 22, 1783.
+935 Richard Eddy, b. Jan. 16, 1786.

425 John Eddy (Jonathan, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 31, 1748, in Glocester, R. I.; d. Jan. 21, 1821, in Dudley, Mass. (Dudley V.R.); m. in 1773, Deborah Winsor, b. Mar. 31, 1756; d. Apr. 3, 1815, at Dudley, Mass. She was the dau. of Rev. John Winsor of Smithfield, R. I. and a descendant of Roger Williams.

He lived in Glocester until the latter part of 1777 or early 1778, when he removed to Dudley, Mass. He was prominent in public matters. In 1761 he was an Ensign; in 1763 he was made Lieutenant; and in 1765, Captain. He fought in the Revolutionary War, and served from Glocester. On three pension depositions he is referred to as Capt. John Eddy. At the time of the Census of 1774, he was a resident of Glocester, as head of a family comprising one male over 16, one under 16, and one female. In 1777 he was still in Glocester and rated among those capable of bearing arms between the ages of 16 and 50. In 1790 he was a resident of Dudley, Mass. and his family had two males over 16, three under 16, and five females. A deed dated Mar. 25, 1777 and signed by John and Deborah Eddy probably shows the date of the removal to Dudley. He sold the land next to his brother Jonathan's to John Matthewson. His will dated Feb. 14, 1816 was filed Mar. 6, 1821.

Children, first two b. in Smithfield, others in Dudley:

936 Augustus Eddy, b. May 6, 1774; d. Apr. 16, 1855; m. Dec. 17, 1796. He published his int. to marry Hannah Day of Dudley on Nov. 14, 1796. She was b. Sept. 6, 1778; d. June 29, 1866; dau. of Jonathan and Mary (Mayo) Day. They had no children. On a pension affidavit, Augustus says that Capt. John Eddy had a Co. and served one year from 1778 to 1779 and he remembers perfectly hearing his father and Joseph Arnold, father of William and Rhoda Arnold, recount their experiences. (2nd page in blue paper in Ms. at R. I. Hist. Soc.) His name appears often in the Worcester Co. Registry of Deeds and his will is on file at Worcester.
+937 Richard Eddy, b. Sept. 20, 1775.
+938 Sarah Eddy, b. June 25, 1777.
+939 Horatio Eddy, b. Apr. 30, 1779.
940 Martha Eddy, b. Jan. 1, 1782; d. before 1816; not mentioned in father's will.
+941 Deborah Winsor Eddy, b. Jan. 2, 1784.
942 Alcey Eddy, b. Feb. 22, 1786; d. 1836, at Woodstock.
+943 John Eddy, b. Feb. 12, 1789.
944 Stephen Eddy, b. April 9, 1791; m. Oct. 5, 1817, at Charlton, Mass., Maria M. Rider (Ryder). He was a Justice of the Peace and a sheriff. His name appears many times in the Worcester Registry of Deeds. He had a beautiful voice and it is said that he sang a patriotic song, standing upon the cornerstone of the Washington Monument, when it was laid with Masonic ceremonies on July 4, 1848, and that the account of these proceedings can be found in the Library of Congress, among works pertaining to the City of Washington. They had no children.
+945 Eaton Eddy, b. Feb. 26, 1793.
946 Erasmus Eddy, b. Oct. 28, 1795; d. June 25, 1806.
947 Pascal Paoli Eddy, b. Jan. 21, 1798; d. Nov. 12, 1805.

427 Zephaniah Eddy (Daniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. between 1734 and 1737; m. (1) Ellis (or Alice) McDonald; m. (2) Prudence . . . . From 1763 to 1769 Ellis signed deeds; Prudence signed in 1807.

He is mentioned in the will of Mehitable Steere. In 1759 he was admitted Freeman in Glocester, R. I. In 1763 he was made Ensign and he appears on the Civil and Military lists of Johnston, R. I. In 1790 he was a resident of Glocester, R. I., the head of a household, consisting of one male over 16, three under 16, and six females. Zephaniah Eddy appears on the Smithfield Alarm List as drafted on Aug. 1, 1778 for service in the Revolutionary War. Zephaniah also appears in the Land Registry of Johnston, and Glocester, R. I. and also in Chenango Co., Cayuga Co., and Ontario Co., N. Y. Except in those cases where the wife signs off her dower rights, it is not possible to tell whether the Zephaniah is the father or son Zephaniah. In Oct. 1807 Zephaniah Eddy, a blacksmith, and wife Prudence, conveyed land which he "had inherited from my father, Daniel Eddy." At this time he was a resident of Middlefield, Otsego Co., N. Y., and the land was in Glocester, R. I.

Children (perhaps incomplete):

948 Lydia Eddy, b. about 1755; d. Feb. 9, 1844, aged 88 yrs.; m. Simeon Smith; son of John and Sarah (Arnold) Smith. He d. Mar. 14, 1836.
+949 Zephaniah Eddy. (No birth record has been found.)
+950 Mary Eddy, b. 1761.
+951 Adfur Eddy, b. 1763.
952 Freelove Eddy; d. unmar. She lived with Simeon Smith's family.
+953 Desire Eddy.
954 Prudence Eddy.

428 Daniel Eddy (Daniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William); m. Nov. 2, 1782, at Johnston, R. I., Elizabeth Mackay (V.R.). It is likely that she is the Elizabeth Eddy who d. Apr. 26, 1786 (Arnold's Rec., Vol. X, for the Congregational Church).

Very little is known of this Daniel Eddy. On Feb. 3, 1787, Daniel Eddy, Jr. of Johnston, of adult age had Edward Manton appointed as his guardian. In 1770 he lived in Glocester, when he purchased land west of the Ponagansett River in Scituate (6.83, Scituate Deeds).

On May 15, 1786, Daniel Eddy, Jr. of Johnston, yeoman, sold 47 acres lying in Foster, R. I. "which I purchased of Joshua Winsor." (Foster Deeds).

On May 21, 1795 he sold more land near this same place.

On Feb. 21, 1827 Esther Waterman of Johnston sold to Jemima Bowen "all rights we have as heirs at law to Daniel Eddy, formerly of Foster, but late of Killingly, dec'd." This deed is signed also by Amos Eddy.

From these deeds it would seem that Daniel Eddy, Jr. lived in Johnston, Glocester, Foster, R. I. and Killingly, Conn. and that he died without children since his sister and a brother's son were among the heirs. He was still living in Mar. 1795 (Foster Deed).

429 Patience Eddy (Daniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about 1743; d. Dec. 6, 1820, in Johnston (also given as Dec. 11). She m. in 1759 Daniel Manton of Johnston; son of Edward and Tabitha Manton.

He was a captain in a troop of R. I. Light Horse Cavalry, during the Revolution and later a colonel. He was a deputy in the Colonial Legislature and very conspicuous in the civil and religious matters in his own town. The whole family became so prominent in the town's business that a section bears their name today.

Children, b. in Johnston, R. I.:

i EDWARD MANTON, b. May 27, 1760.
ii JEREMIAH MANTON, b. Feb. 13, 1763.

Laban Waterman, b. 1745; d. Apr. 25, 1795, aged 42 years; son of John and Mary (Whipple) Waterman. He left a will dated Apr. 15, 1795.

Children:

i BETSEY WATERMAN; m. EARL KNIGHT.
ii BENONI WATERMAN; d. before 1807.
iii RESOLVED WATERMAN.

431 Thomas Eddy (Daniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about 1750; d. Mar. 29, 1810, at Kinderhook, N. Y. in his 60th year (Providence Gazette); m. (1) Anne Jenckes. He m. (2) Rosanna . . . (Query—Was she the young widow of his Uncle Thomas?)

At the time of the 1774 Census he was a resident of Scituate with a household consisting of two males over 16, three under 16, and two females over 16. In 1790 he was a resident of Smithfield with a household of four males over 16, one under 16, and two females. On Dec. 31, 1770 he purchased from Chad Brown land near the north-western part of the Moswansicut River in Scituate, R. I. (6.140). Daniel Eddy witnessed the deed. On June 12, 1778, he sold a part of this and wife Anne signed the deed. In 1794 he got a divorce from Anne. He testified that he was "Thomas Eddy, formerly of Glocester, but now of Johnston, a cooper," and that in Jan. of 1768, he married Anne Jenckes, but "she had an uneasy and restless temper and notwithstanding the utmost condescension on the part of the petitioner, she eloped April 1791."

On Jan. 27, 1795 Thomas Eddy sold land. Rosanna signed this deed and Thomas Eddy, Jr. was a witness. The father is doubtless the Thomas Eddy mentioned in the following records:

Thomas Eddy. Private, 2nd div. Joseph Kimball's Co, of Scituate; Feb. 7 to Mar. 8, 1777; dated Warwick, Mar. 8, 1777.

Thomas Eddy. Private, Alarm companies, Samuel Wall, Capt., July 1, 1778; payroll of Capt. Sam'l Wall's co. in Col. Archibald Kasson's reg't in the town of Coventry in the County of Kent in the State of R. I., in the Alarm from the 24th of July, 1778 to the 30th, under command of Major Gen. Sullivan. 7 da.

He left a will dated Apr. 27, 1804 in which he gave his residence as Johnston and mentioned wife Rosanna, and children Amos Edy, Jeremiah Edy, Welcome Edy, Sarah Edy and son Thomas Jenks Edy. Rosanna and Thomas were executors. (Columbia Co., N. Y. Probate Book C, p. 334.)

Children:

+955 AMOS EDDY, b. Feb. 27, 1768.
956 JEREMIAH EDDY, b. Apr. 18, 1770.
+957 WELCOME EDDY, b. May 4, 1772.
958 CHARLOTTE EDDY, b. Sept. 7, 1776; d. 1778.
+959 SARAH EDDY.
960 THOMAS JENCKES EDDY.

433 Olney Eddy (Daniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 16, 1750 (Revolutionary Certificate); d. Feb. 4, 1835, aged 84 yrs. (gravestone in South Plymouth, N. Y.); m. Sarah . . . (probably Smith) who d. Mar. 12, 1835, aged 80 years (gravestone in South Plymouth).

The name Sally Ann Smith occurs two or three times among the descendants and the name Smith very frequently, so that it seems most probable that Smith was her maiden name and the fact that Augustus frequently is used with Smith suggests that her father may have been Augustus Smith.

Olney lost an eye in an accident, while he was handling a shot-gun. This story has come down in the branch in New York and also in the one in R. I. He was a Minute Man in the Revolution. He received a pension. The full account of his services is on file at the State House in Providence. A condensed account follows:

Olney Eddy. Private, Capt. Generals Cavaliers co., for service in the expedition to Island of R. I., from July 24 to Aug. 31, 1778; Oct. to Nov., 1775, rated as private, co., of horse. Capt. Sam'l Slack of Scituate, Lt. Daniel Manton of Johnston, Ensign Benj. Hubbard; Jan., 1776, rated as Minute-man, ready at any time; served short periods at Pawtuxet, Warwick, Boston Neck, Providence, Bristol, Westerly, Tower Hill, frequently called on alarms and sent as express; b. Smithfield, Nov. 16, 1750; resided in Glocester; also, in Smithfield, then to Chen. Co., N. Y. Pensioner.

In the Census of 1790 Olney Eddy is given as a resident of Glocester, R. I. with a family of one male over 16, three under 16, and five females. He remained in Glocester until about 1800, when he removed to Smithfield, R. I.; but after a short stay there he went to Chenango Co., N. Y. He was in Middfield in 1802, together with his brother Zephaniah, and in Norwich in 1809. Probably for a year or two previous he was in Plymouth, N. Y., for one document is dated Plymouth, 1808.

From an old chest which has come down in the New York branch, Mrs. Frances (Eddy) Houston has found several interesting old documents relating to Olney Eddy. There is a deed from Job Steere to Olney Eddy of Glocester, dated Dec. 15, 1794; a note to Thomas Eddy dated Johnston, June 30, 1794; several receipts among which the following is of interest.

Middfield, N. Y., Oct. 23, 1802, "Know all ye that I, Zephaniah Eddy and my heirs Doth Clear Olney Eddy and his heirs from my father's Estate by receiving the sum of fourteen Dollars and forty-eight cents, I say received by Zephaniah Eddy as Witness my Hand." Abraham Allen. Zephaniah Eddy.

January the 15th, 1811. Received of Olney Eddy by the hand of Daniel Scot two Dollar's and twenty cents to answer on a judge't I hold against Olney Eddy and Daniel his son before Esq. Noyes. Joseph Marst.

Rec'd of Messrs. Augustus Edy and Olnie Edy their note payable the first May next for the sum of twenty one Dollars eighty six cents, etc. Feb. 22, 1811.

Received of Olney Eddey by the hand of Augustus Eddey ten Dollars which I do agree shall answer on a Judgment in my favor before John Noyes Esq. Preston, December 1, 1911. Solomon Wait.

On the first day of July next we the subscribers do severally and joyntly Promis to Pay Asa Whitney or Bearer Seventy Dollars within this for value received. May 17, 1812. (Signed) Augustus Eddy; Daniel Eddy.

Children:

+961 OLNEY EDDY, b. Oct. 16, 1780.
+962 ELIZABETH EDDY (called Betsey).
+963 AUGUSTUS SMITH EDDY, b. July 17, 1788.
964 MARTHA EDDY; m. JOSEPH BROWN. They lived in Plymouth, Chenango Co., N. Y.
+965 ESTHER EDDY, m. NATHAN PHILLIPS.
+966 DANIEL EDDY.

Probably also Sarah Eddy, who was b. July 17, 1786; d. Mar. 9, 1819; m. May 16, 1809, at Plymouth, Chenango Co., N. Y., Adolphus Simons, b. Feb. 4, 1781 at E. Haddam, Conn.; d. Aug. 22, 1873.

436 Stephen Eddy (Nathaniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. May 18, 1745, in Smithfield, R. I. (V.R.); d. May 18, 1815, aged 70 years. He is buried in the Quadis Cem.; m. before 1773 Lydia . . . (Smithfield Deeds 6.460). She was living in 1799.

In 1774 at the time of the Census in R. I. Stephen was living in Smithfield with a family consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, one female over 16 and one under 16. He appears again in the Census of 1777 and in 1790 as a resident of Smithfield. His service in the Revolutionary War follows:

Stephen Eddy. Private, Capt. Stephen Whipple's Smithfield co., in Spencer's expedition against R. I. Oct., 1777; roll dated, Nov. 14, 1777, Smithfield; pay roll of Capt. Timothy Wilmarth's co., Col. Frye's reg't. who did duty 12 da., July and Aug. 1780. Private, 2nd co., of town of Smithfield, Capt. Ebenezer Trask, undated.

He may have had a son Daniel Eddy. There is a Daniel Eddy who is buried in the same cemetery who d. Aug. 25, 1850, aged 78 years.

437 David Eddy (Nathaniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 23, 1747, in Smithfield, R. I.; d. after 1784; m. Feb. 13, 1772 Naomi Arnold, who d. June 27, 1795, at Smithfield (U. S. Chronicle). She was dau. of Thomas Arnold.

David was a tanner. He purchased land in Smithfield from his mother, who was then Hannah Arnold, and in 1772, he sold to his brother Stephen land on Front Brook, in Smithfield. In 1778 his wife Naomi joined with him in selling 80 acres of his farm to Gideon Mowry and a part of his homestead farm to Israel Aldrich. There are several other sales of land through the years up to 1784. At the time of the 1774 Census in R. I. his household was comprised of one male over 16, one under 16, and one female. In 1790 he was still a resident of Smithfield with a household of two males over 16, and three females. He served in the Revolutionary War and became a captain. His service follows.

David Eddy, Smithfield. Capt. Stephen Whipple's Smithfield co. in Spencer's expedition against R. I. Oct., 1777; roll dated Smithfield, Nov. 14, 1777. Capt., 2nd co. militia, Smithfield, May, 1776.

Children (full list not known):

967 Amy Eddy, m. Aaron Arnold, Feb. 19, 1799 (Vol. II; Narra. Hist. Reg.).
968 Peleg Arnold Eddy, b. about 1785; m. at Mendon, Mass. on Dec. 27, 1805, Hannah Tucker, of Mendon, Mass. (Mendon Rec.). It is likely that he is the boy of the following advertisement in a newspaper dated Aug. 1, 1801.

Ran away from the subscriber on July 1, an apprentice boy named Peleg Eddy, about 16 years of age, 5 ft. 6 in., light complexion, blue eyes, sandy hair, his cloathing uncertain. Whoever will return said Boy to the Subscriber shall have Ten Cents Reward. Signed Penelope Aldrich of Smithfield, R. I. (Johnston Records).

439 Daniel Eddy (Zachariah, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 28, 1741/42, at Salisbury, Conn. (Hist. Assoc. Rec.); m. Sept. 30, 1769 (Int.) at Belchertown, Mass., Sarah Jones of Wilbraham, Mass. (Springfield 4th Precinct Rec.).

Children (incomplete list):

969 Joye Eddy, d. Oct. 17, 1774.
970 Daniel Eddy.

440 Newbury Eddy (Zachariah, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. "ye second son Jan. 2, 1743/44" (Salisbury, Conn., Hist. Assoc.); d. Nov. 27, 1815, aged 73 years and buried in Greenbush Cem. at Weathersfield, Vt.; m. Margaret . . .; who d. Aug. 30, 1828, aged 83 years; bur. in Greenbush Cem.

When the 1790 Census was taken, he was a resident of Weathersfield, Vt., with a household of two males over 16, one under 16, and one female. At the time of the 1800 Census he was still in Weathersfield. It is not known just how early he went to Vermont, but probably before 1770, as it is claimed that his son Allen was born there.

Children, b. probably all in Weathersfield:

+971 Allen Eddy, b. Feb. 22, 1770.
+972 Zachariah Eddy.
+973 Isaac Eddy, b. Feb. 17, 1777.
974 Joab Eddy, d. at Cavendish, Vt., Sept. 12, 1861, aged 82 years (V.R.).

441 Asaph Eddy (Zachariah, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. prob. about 1745. He is mentioned in the will of his father probated in 1781 and made executor of the will. He mar. Elizabeth . . . .

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His service follows:

Asaph Eddy. Private, Capt. Joseph Hooker's co., Lieut. Col. Samuel Williams's regt.; enlisted Dec. 15, 1776; discharged March 18, 1777; service, 3 mos. 14 days, travel included; roll dated Morristown; also, Lieut. Aaron Phelps's co., Col. Elisha Porter's regt.; enlisted July 9, 1777; discharged Aug. 12, 1777; service, 1 mo. 9 days, travel included; roll sworn to in Hampshire Co.; also, Capt. Joseph Sibley's co., Col. Danforth Keyes's regt; service from Dec. 1, 1777; to date of discharge, Jan. 4, 1778, 1 mo. 4 days, at Rhode Island; roll dated Providence.

Asaph Eady. Private, Capt. Joseph Sibley's co., Col. Danforth Keyes's regt.; enlisted Sept. 6, 1777; service to Dec. 1, 1777; enlistment, 6 mos. to expire Jan. 1, 1778; roll dated Providence; also, same co. and regt.; pay roll dated North Kingston, Dec. 3, 1777.

Asaph Edy. Private, Capt. Joseph Sibley's co., Col. Danforth Keyes's regt.; list of men stationed at North Kingston, Dec. 8, 1777, dated Sturbridge.

The following deeds help to trace him.

I, Asa Eddy of Clarendon, Vt., cordwainer, sell to Ezekiel Russell of Wilbraham land in Wilbraham in the south division of outward common, formerly Springfield, etc. Dated May 7, 1780 and acknowledged in Hampshire Co. in May 1785. In Feb. 1781 Asa Eddy was on the list of those made Freemen in Clarendon, Vt. On Jan. 15, 1785 Asa Eddy of Clarendon, Vt., cordwainer, purchased land in Wilbraham, Mass. On Mar. 3, 1787 Asa Eddy of Clarendon, sold 120 acres in Brandon, Vt., land which he had purchased from Capt. Tuttle. Nothing later concerning Asa has been found. (Note. There was another Asa Eddy with a wife Elizabeth, living at this same time in Salisbury, Conn. whose brother Josiah went to Vermont and was living there at this time. There is a possibility that this Asa also was in Clarendon, Vt. for a time.)

Child (incomplete list):

975 Hannah Eddy, b. May 5, 1783 in Clarendon, Vt.

(Note. In New York State it is recorded that in 1798 Asaph Eddy was an Ensign in the company of Capt. Joseph R. . . . in the Brigade of Brigadier General Henry K. Van Rensaelaer. This refers probably to this Asa Eddy.)

442 Abner Eddy (Zachariah Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 20, 1747/48, in Salisbury, Conn. (Hist. Asso. Col.); d. before Nov. 2, 1824 (Northampton Prob.); m. (1) July 12, 1777, Elizabeth Colton (Greenwich Town and Church Rec.). She d. Oct. 1, 1790, in Greenwich, Mass. He m. (2) Nov. 17, 1791, Dorcas Gross. (Note. On Sept. 28, 1791 the intentions of marriage between Dorcas Norcross and Abner Eddy were filed. This is probably a clerical error.)

Abner Eddy lived in Belchertown, Mass. On Aug. 7, 1777, he purchased 100 acres from his father. On Sept. 28, 1779, he sold "a part of the farm on which I now live" and "formerly of Abner Smith." The land extends to Capt. Eddy's lane and the Hackmatack Swamp is on the western border. Again in 1780 he sells a part of the same farm (Deeds at Northampton, Mass., 18.55; 18.56).

Dorcas Eddy, together with Simeon Waters and Benjamin Harwood, settled the estate of Abner Eddy, "late of Enfield." They were appointed Nov. 2, 1824. On Dec. 5, 1826, they paid certain sums to Richard Eddy, Jonah Gross, Abner Eddy, Jr. and others.

In 1790 he was a resident of Greenwich, Hampshire Co., the head of a household consisting of two males over 16, two under 16, and six females.

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War with the following service:

Abner Eddy, Belchertown. Sergeant, Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's co. of Minute-men. Col. Jonathan Warner's regt., which marched in response to the alarm of April 19, 1775, to Cambridge; service, 7 days; also, Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's co., Col. David Brewer's (9th) regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted April 26, 1775; service, 3 mos. 1 week, 5 days; also, company return [probably Oct., 1775] also, Capt. Bardwell's co., Col. Rufus Putnam's (late D. Brewer's) regt.; order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Roxbury, Oct. 31, 1775.

Abner Eddy. Private, Capt. Elijah Dwight's co., Col. Elisha Porter's (Hampshire Co.) regt.; discharged Aug. 19, 1777; service, 5 days; company ordered out on an alarm at Bennington, Aug. 17, 1777; also, Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's co., Col. Elisha Porter's regt.; enlisted Sept. 22, 1777, discharged Oct. 18, 1777; service, 1 mo. 3 days, travel included; roll dated Belchertown.

Children, by first wife (Greenwich Town and Church Records):

+976 Claramond Eddy, b. Jan. 21, 1779 (Winslow Gen., p. 448).
+977 Abner Eddy, b. Apr. 15, 1788.
978 Ira Eddy, b. Mar. 26, 1790. He went to New Orleans.
979 Dexter Eddy, d. in Enfield, Mass.

Children, by second wife:

980 Daniel Eddy, b. Nov. 21, 1792; d. in Enfield, Mass.
+981 Newbury Eddy, b. July 15, 1794.
982 John Eddy, b. Mar. 13, 1796. He went to New Orleans.
983 Hannah Eddy, b. Sept. 29, 1797.
984 Richard Eddy, b. Aug. 23, 1799. He lived in Enfield, Mass. A guardian was appointed for him on Nov. 15, 1824, because he was wasting his property.
+985 Elbridge Eddy, b. Sept. 13, 1801.
Perhaps also the following, who were married in Greenwich:
986 Elizabeth Eddy, who m. Mar. 20, 1807, Levi Keth, both of Greenwich (now Enfield).
987 Emily Eddy, m. Int. Oct. 18, 1806, John Robbins, of Belchertown, Mass.
988 Louisa Eddy, m. Ebenezer Rich, between Oct. 6, 1808 and Apr. 1, 1809. Their children were Clarinda, b. Jan. 28, 1810; Joseph Eddy, b. Sept. 18, 1813; Benjamin Colton, b. Sept. 18, 1813; and Emily, b. 1815.

446 Joshua Eddy (James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 2, 1749, at Glocester, R. I.; d. Dec. 12, 1819; m. (1) Oct. 26, 1776, at Wilbraham, Mass., Margaret Scott of Palmer; b. Dec. 11, 1746. She d. Jan. 22, 1782. (Descendants of William Scott, p. 168.) She was dau. of William^4 Scott (William^3, William^2, John^1). He m. (2) Oct. 25, 1783, Jemima Robbins. She d. July 17, 1819, at Sterling, Mass. (V.R.).

(Springfield Deeds, 19, 492) William Scott of Palmer, gentleman, "for the love I bear to my daughter, Margaret, the wife of Mr. Joshua Eddy of Wilbraham, inn holder . . . land in Palmer formerly belonging to Brimfield, being ¼ of a 60 acre lot purchased of Joseph Frost." Dated Dec. 31, 1778.

The will of Joshua dated Sept. 17, 1819 was filed Dec. 22, 1819. He was of Sterling and he mentioned his eldest son, Barnet Eddy, son Daniel, and dau. Betsey Bailey, wife of Capt. Manasseh Bailey. Daniel was executor. Joseph Pearson, Samuel Brown, Jr. and Jonas Ball were the witnesses.

The Worcester Co. registry contains several deeds signed by Joshua and his wife Jemima after 1800. One in 1812 witnessed by Polly Eddy was land sold to Daniel Eddy. One in 1814 was witnessed by Betsey Eddy. In 1816 he sold to Barnet Eddy of Sterling. This deed was witnessed by Daniel Eddy. These were all signed by wife Jemima except the last one on Sept. 14, 1819, which was signed by Joshua alone.

(Springfield Deeds, 15.205) Joshua and Margaret Eddy witnessed a deed from Caleb Eddy to Charles Eddy on Feb. 2, 1778.

(Springfield Deeds, 44.566) Joshua Eddy of Wilbraham sold to the First Baptist Church of Wilbraham . . . the home lot on which I live on the Boston Post Road. Dated Feb. 24, 1779.

(Springfield Deeds, 32.441) Joshua Eddy of Wilbraham, yeoman, sold to Elizabeth Dwight of Springfield land in Wilbraham . . . 42 acres with buildings . . . same as conveyed to me by my honored father Feb. 20, 1776; also a piece in Palmer, bounding west on land lately owned by Caleb Eddy, being land conveyed to my late wife by her honored father, etc. Feb. 20, 1792. (This was a mortgage deed.)

(Springfield Deeds, 31.679) Joshua Eddy of Wilbraham, yeoman, sold land in Wilbraham and Palmer . . . 100 acres on the road from Springfield to Boston, near the Baptist Meeting house; also land in Monson on the Wilbraham line. Apr. 8, 1794.

(Springfield Deeds, 28.23) Joshua Eddy of Wilbraham sold to Abraham Knowlton, . . . a part of the farm where I now dwell on the Boston Post Road, together with buildings and brook and the privilege of turning Brook. Sept. 9, 1785. There are several other deeds but not of such interest as these.

Joshua Eddy's name is on the Lexington alarm list of Dec. 5, 1775. Residence is given as Wilbraham. There is also a statement that Joshua Edey received $30 for soldier's bounty (Hist. of Wilbraham by Stebbins).

Children, by first wife:

989 Joshua Eddy, b. Apr. 12, 1780, at Wilbraham, Mass.; d. before 1790.
990 Asenath Dickinson Eddy; d. July 28, 1780, in Wilbraham.

Children, by second wife:

+991 Barnet W. Eddy.
+992 Daniel Eddy.

993 Elizabeth Eddy, m. Capt. Manasseh Bailey, on Mar. 30, 1815, at Sterling, Mass. (V.R.).
Perhaps also 994 Polly Eddy, who d. Jan. 5, 1819.
995 Sally Eddy, who d. Jan. 5, 1819, at Sterling, Mass.

447 Caleb Eddy (James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 24, 1750/51, at Glocester, R. I. (V.R.); d. before Feb. 13, 1781, when adm. on Caleb Eddy, late of Wilbraham, was granted to Joshua Eddy, and he was made guardian of James and Caleb Edy, minors under 14 years, children and heirs of Caleb Eddy, late of Wilbraham. (13.357). Int. to marry Mary Clark published Jan. 29, 1774, at Wilbraham, Mass. (Springfield, Mass. 4th Precinct 1740–1763, p. 152.)

Caleb's name appears as the head of a family in 1780 in V.R. of Wilbraham.

(Springfield Deeds 15.205) Caleb of Wilbraham, yeoman, sold to Charles Eddy of Wilbraham yeoman, land in Wilbraham—78 acres—bounding west on the Chicopee River . . . on Feb. 2, 1778.

On Sept. 1, 1788, Enos Clark of Belchertown was appointed guardian of James Eddy, minor child, aged 14 years, child and heir of Caleb (15.441). Perhaps Enos was father or brother of the wife, Mary (Clark) Eddy.

Children (Probate Rec.):
+996 James Eddy. He was over 14 and not 21 in 1788.
+997 Caleb Eddy. He was over 14 and not 21 in 1788. He went to Otsego Co., N. Y.

448 Charles Eddy (James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 24, 1755, at Glocester, R. I. (V.R.); d. Apr. 5, 1830, at Oakland Twsp., Ontario, Canada. He published his intentions to marry Maranda (also spelled Myrane) King, of Palmer, Mass. on May 10, 1775. He was married on Aug. 31, 1775. (According to the Palmer Rec. her name was Mercy King.) She d. Sept. 28, 1829, in Canada. She was dau. of Aaron King.

Charles provided meat for the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War, but the tradition does not tell whether it was as a contractor or as an enlisted man. When the Census of 1790 was taken he was a resident of Wilbraham with a family consisting of one male over 16 years, three under 16, and six females.

Children (incomplete list), b. at Wilbraham, Mass. (Springfield, Mass. 4th Precinct, 1740–1763 and Wilbraham 1763–1785, p. 187):
998 Adbeel Eddy, b. June 28, 1776. The Springfield Deeds show that Adbeel went to Canada about 1809. Adbeel Eddy of Burford Gore, County of Oxford, Dist. of London, yeoman, lately of Palmer, Hampshire Co., Mass. sold land conveyed to me by Charles Eddy, Jr. Feb. 29, 1808 (50.209).
999 Anna Eddy, b. Jan. 15, 1778.
+1000 Charles Eddy, b. Jan. 8, 1781.
1001 Myrane Eddy, b. July 15, 1782.

449 John Eddy (Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about 1754, in Rhode Island, in that section where Scituate, Foster and Glocester come together. It is not known in which of the towns Peter was living at this time, but it was probably Foster. John d. Nov. 24, 1823, in Foster. He is buried there in a cemetery near the Barden reservoir in a long grave marked by a stone upon which there is no lettering. His wife Sarah lies beside him. He m. Nov. 9, 1778, at Plainfield, Conn., Sarah Hill, dau. of Daniel Hill (Pension Affidavit at Statehouse, R. I. This affidavit gives the date of the death of John as Nov. 30, 1823.). Sarah m. (2) Sept. 5, 1830, in Foster (V.R.), Abraham Walker. The Foster records contain a marriage agreement between Sarah and Abraham Walker.

When his father went to Vermont, John remained in R. I. with his uncle, Capt. John Round, and aunt, Anna Round. They had no children and John was treated as a son. At the death of John Round, John Eddy received a large portion of his property. Among the articles were a tall clock and a chest of drawers, called a highboy, which have been handed down in this line and now are in the possession of William Holden Eddy, a great-great-grandson of this John Eddy.

John Eddy was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and his widow Sarah was a pensioner. Her affidavit on file in R. I. gives an account of John's service, an abridged account of which follows:

> Private. Dec. 1776, 1 mo. at Warwick in Capt. Jeremiah Davis Co., Col. John Waterman; July, 1777, drafted 1 mo. at Warwick, same officers; enlisted about Aug. 20; ½ mo. at Tiverton in Capt. Simeon Harrington's Co.,Col. Barton's regt., till about Nov. 1; drafted and in Gen. Spencer's expedition 1777, 1778; drafted 1 mo. served at Bristol, Capt. Jonathan Knight's Co., Col. Wm. West, from last of June to last of July; served as substitute Aug. 1778. Capt. Jesse (Isaac?) Hopkins, Col. West, 1 mo. Sullivan's Expedition; Dec. 1778, drafted 1 mo., stationed at Prov., Capt. Coomer Smith's Co., Col. John Mathewson's regt; June 1779, drafted and stationed 1 mo. Howland's Ferry, Capt. Samuel Wilbur's Co., Col. Chad Brown; Sept. 1779, enlisted on board frigate Providence, as mariner till July 11, 1780; Mar. 1781, enlisted Capt. Jonathan Knight's Co., and at Newport, 1 mo. under Col. Stephen Kimball.

In the Census of 1777, taken in R. I. for military purposes, John Eddy was a resident of Scituate between the ages of 16 and 50 years. He is found in the U. S. Census of 1790 as a resident of Foster, with a household consisting of two males over 16, three under 16, and four females. In the Civil and Military lists of R. I. John Eddy occurs as Ensign in 1793–1795; Lieutenant in 1797 and Capt. in 1798 and 1799.

> On Mar. 3, 1792, John Round of Foster sold to John Eddy of Foster . . . 6 A. in Foster, a part of my homestead farm and the same place whereon the said John Eddy now dwells . . . on the highway . . . from where I the said John Round propose to build a barn for the said John Eddy. . . .

He purchased and sold land at other times. He died intestate. There is a fine inventory on file and all the children take part in the settlement and division of the estate.

Children (as given in the pension affidavit):

+1002 Peleg Eddy, b. Feb. 2, 1779.
+1003 Thomas Eddy, b. May 5, 1781.
1004 Nathan Eddy, b. Mar. 7, 1783; d. May 17, 1821. (Newspaper.) Unmar.
+1005 Daniel Eddy, b. Mar. 6, 1785.
+1006 Jarvis Eddy, b. Apr. 10, 1787.
+1007 Peter Eddy, b. June 15, 1789.
+1008 Mary Eddy, b. Aug. 13, 1792.
1009 James Eddy, b. Dec. 8, 1795; d. Jan. 18, 1827. (He is called Gardner in the deeds; probably his name was James Gardner Eddy.) Prob. unmar., as his brothers were his heirs.
+1010 Anne Eddy, b. Dec. 8, 1798.

450 Peleg Eddy (Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. 1758 or 1759, in Glocester, R. I.; d. Feb. 9, 1798, in Clarendon, Vt. aged 39 yrs. He m. (1) Anne S . . . (probably Anne Salisbury), who d. Mar. 19, 1797, in Clarendon, Vt. Both are buried at Chippenhook Cem. in Clarendon. He m. (2) Charlotte . . . on Feb. 16, 1798 (V.R. of Vt). She m. (2) John Kimball on Mar. 14, 1800, in Clarendon (V.R.).

He was a Revolutionary soldier. His service follows:

> Peleg Eady (also called Eddy). Drummer, return of Capt. Thomas Lee's Independent Company of Rangers in the service of the U. S. of America, annexed to Col. Warner's regt. Enlisted Dec. 28, 1776 for 3 years. Credited to town of Clarendon. Pay roll, 10 Aug. 1781, £15. 30 Dec. 1783 £34.7.1.
> Peleg Eddy. Private, pay roll. Capt. Abraham Salisbury's co. for services in the year 1780 Time, 4 days. Thirteen miles to travel; also, pay roll, Capt. Ichabod Robinson's co. of militia in Clarendon, 1780; term of service, 2 days, and 30 miles travel.
> Peleg Eady. Private, a pay roll of Capt. Abraham Salisbury's co. of militia for year 1781; service, 1 day.

At the time of the Census of 1790 Peleg was a resident of Clarendon, Vt. and head of a household consisting of one male and one female. Peleg's name was on the list of those who have taken the Freeman's oath Feb. 1781 in Clarendon. On Nov. 7, 1785 a highway was laid out in the west part of Clarendon . . . that is travelled against Peleg Eddy's house, . . . to Oliver Westcott's . . . to Andrew Potter's grist-mill (Clarendon, Vt. Records). He sold land to Andrew Potter. On Feb. 1, 1798 he contributed $28 toward the building of a church to be paid Feb. 1, 1799. This was a Baptist church. This contribution was double that given by most of the contributors. From the date of this promise and the date of his will, it is evident that he died quite suddenly. His will dated Feb. 4, 1798, mentions wife, Charlotte; eldest son, Peter; daughter Sally; son Jonathan, and others including "child not yet born." The executors were his brothers, Jonathan and James Eddy (Rutland Probate, Doc. 22). Distribution of the estate was made May 10, 1803; "To Abraham Eddy, Peleg Eddy, Peter Eddy, Sarah Eddy, Jonathan Eddy, Jr., Zephaniah Eddy."

On Oct. 31, 1798, a committee was appointed to set off to Charlotte Eddy, widow, her dower of her late husband, Peleg Eddy, late of Clarendon.

Peter Eddy, eldest son of deceased, chose Abraham Salisbury for his guardian. Jonathan Eddy gave bonds. Ezekiel Salisbury was made guardian of Zephaniah Eddy, son and heir of said dec'd (Rutland Probate, 3.176). Jonathan Eddy, minor and heir of Peleg Eddy, late of Clarendon, dec'd, on Oct. 25, 1805 had James Eddy of Clarendon appointed guardian, and Jonathan Eddy gave bonds (Rutland Probate, 4.224). Abraham Eddy, minor and heir of Peleg Eddy, late of Clarendon on Nov. 25, 1805, had Abraham Salisbury appointed guardian and Andrew Potter gave bonds (Rutland Probate, 4.225). In April 1812 Preserved Fish became guardian of Jonathan Eddy. When Jonathan Eddy became of age Preserved Fish submitted his account on Jan. 13, 1817. It was accepted by Jonathan Eddy, son of Peleg Eddy, late of Clarendon (Rutland Probate, 10.50).

Children, by first wife (order of birth not known):

+1011 Peter Eddy.
+1012 Sarah Eddy.
+1013 Jonathan Eddy, called Jr. to distinguish him from his uncle Jonathan.
+1014 Zephaniah Eddy, b. about 1787, in Clarendon.
+1015 Abraham Eddy, b. Aug. 27, 1789.

Child, by second wife:

1016 Peleg Eddy, b. Feb. 16, 1798, in Clarendon or Ira (Vt. V.R.). He is probably the Peleg who m. Aurilla Robinson. (See No. 12169.)

451 James S. Eddy (Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 8, 1764, Scituate, R. I., (Pension Affidavit); d. June 29, 1849, at Clarendon, Vt.; m. Mary Salisbury, b. Nov. 16, 1763 (Clarendon Rec.); dau. of Abraham and Ezilpha Salisbury. She d. Aug. 1, 1844, at Clarendon (V.R.), aged 82 years. They are buried in the Clarendon Cemetery. He was always called Capt. James. He was a soldier in the Revolution and received a pension for his services which follow:

James Eddy. Private, Capt. James Brookin's co. of Infantry, Col. Samuel Fletcher's Battalion. Pay Table Office, Bennington, 17 March, 1782. Service, July 1, to Nov. 23, 1781.

James Edey. Private, Capt. William Hutchins's Independent Company of Troops in the Service of the State of Vermont, stationed at Castleton, and Pittsford Forts during the service. Enlisted Nov. 20, 1781, discharged May 1, 1782; service 162 days.

In Feb. 1781 his name appears among those that have taken the Freeman's oath. In 1790, his household consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and three females, dwelling in Clarendon. In 1800 the Census states that his household has one male under 45, three boys under 10, three girls under 10, one between the ages of 10 and 16, and one female between the ages of 25 and 45. In 1799 he was a surveyor of highways and from 1799 to 1813 he served often as petit-juror, and again in 1819 as highway surveyor. In 1802 he registered his cattle mark as "a slit on the under side of the left ear," and on Nov. 25, 1805, he was called upon to appraise a cow (Clarendon records). His name appears often in the land records. He sold to Peleg Eddy and Ezekiel Eddy and several others. One piece is in the west part of Clarendon on the Mill River and another on the west bank of the Otter Creek River.

Many traditions in regard to James have been handed down in his family. He had the reputation of being a swift traveller on snowshoes and he was an expert marksman. In spite of his seventeen years, he was chosen as a member of a scouting party, which went through the wilderness from Ticonderoga to Montreal in the winter time to reconnoitre. They were to learn the number of troops there and get information as to the likelihood of an invasion in the spring. On the way back the party was caught in a storm. One of the number was nearly frozen to death as he dropped back by the wayside. Only the heroic efforts of young James saved his life.

Children, b. in Clarendon, Vt.:

+1017 Hannah Eddy, b. 1783.
1018 James Eddy, b. about 1790; d. Jan. 12, 1813, buried at Chippenhook Cemetery, Clarendon, Vt.
+1019 Peleg Eddy, b. July 27, 1794.
+1020 Ruth Eddy, b. about 1796.
+1021 Mary Ann Eddy, b. 1798.
+1022 Ezekiel Eddy.
+1023 Nancy Eddy, b. 1803.
+1024 Zephaniah Eddy, b. about 1806.
(Probably another son and another daughter; see 1800 Census.)

452 Jonathan Eddy (Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. in Scituate, R. I. According to a descendant he was the fifth child. He went with his father to Vermont and there married about 1785 or 1786 Temperance Lewis. He d. before May 1823, when administration on his estate was granted to his widow, Temperance, and Linsey Rounds. One account states that Temperance mar. a second time . . . Thorpe and moved to Michigan.

Jonathan served in the Revolutionary War. The record of his service follows:

Jonathan Eddy. Pay roll of Capt. Abm. Salisbury's co. on Otter Creek raised in Clarendon by advice of Committee of Safety, of the towns of Wallonford, Clarendon, Rutland, and Pittsford, on being alarmed by the enemy's coming to Pittsford, taking some prisoners and plundering some houses. Service at Pittsford, Oct. 17, 1777, to Oct. 28th, 1777.

Jonathan Edey. Private, Lieut. David Power's co. of Volunteers, belonging to Maj. Ebenezer Allen's detachment raised by the town of Clarendon. Enlisted, Aug. 17, 1780; discharged, Nov. 8, 1780. Term, 84 days; also, Capt. Ichabod Robinson's co. of militia of Clarendon for the year of 1780; service, 2 days; also, Private, Capt. Israel Hurlburt's Detachment, raised as a levy from Col. Thomas Lee's regt. of militia for the defence of the Frontiers of the State of Vermont in Oct. 1781, stationed at Castleton by order of the Hon. Brig. Gen. Enos; service, 10 days; also, pay roll of Capt. Ichabod Robinson's co. in Clarendon, for the year 1781; service, 5 days.

When the 1790 Census was taken, he was a resident of Clarendon and head of a household of two males over 16, one under 16, and three females. In 1800 his family consisted of four boys and two girls under 10; one boy and one girl between 10 and 16, and one male and one female between 25 and 45, and one female over 45; the latter was probably his mother, for traditions state that she lived with this son.

The Clarendon Records mention Jonathan several times. On Feb. 1, 1798, he contributed $10 toward building a new church (Baptist) in Clarendon which he promised to pay on Feb. 1, 1799 (Clarendon, Vt. Rec. Bk., 1, p. 203). On June 4, 1811, he recorded his cattle mark as "a crop of the left ear and two slits in the same ear." In Feb. 1781 his name was on the list of those who had taken the Freeman's oath. In 1808 and 1814 he was chosen petit-juror. In 1796, 1800, 1813, 1820, and 1823 he was chosen highway surveyor. It is probable that Jonathan lived in the section toward Ira and somewhat up on the mountain, as there is a tradition that an Eddy who had a very large family lived on the mountain. The church at Ira has the item that Temperance Eddy was restored to church on July 21, 1809.

At the death of Jonathan, Linsey Rounds and Temperance were appointed administrators and Linsey Rounds was made guardian of Nathan Eddy, a minor of 18 years and Temperance was guardian of Wealthy, a minor of 16, of Sally, a minor of 14, and Betsey Maria Eddy, a minor of 12 years. A committee was appointed to set off to the heirs of Jonathan, who are mentioned as sons John, Levi, William, Lewis, Jefferson, Nathan, and to daughters Polly Wade, Lola Blanchard, Annis Harthorn, Phebe, wife of Wilmot Robinson, Wealthy Eddy, Sally Eddy, and Betsey Maria Eddy; each to receive 1/13 and Jacob Eddy, a son, has already had his share (Rutland Prob.).

On May 26, 1824 Jacob Eddy of Hinesburg, son of Jonathan Eddy, late of Clarendon, by his agent, says that he will appeal from the order of the court cutting him out from a share of the estate. When the estate was divided it was stated that John, Levi, Jefferson and Polly resided without the state.

A descendant of Sally states that when Sally was about 18 years of age her mother Temperance and several of her younger brothers and sisters went to Chatauqua Co., N. Y. where they settled. Later some of them went to Michigan.

(Note. The greater part of the information concerning Jonathan Eddy's descendants was collected by Byron Barnes Horton of Sheffield, Pa., and given to the Eddy Family Association by him.)

Eddys to honor the one hundredth birthday of Elizabeth Williams; dau. of the late Devotion Eddy, who moved to the State (N. Y.) in 1781. Mrs. Williams is still in perfect health, and has a very retentive memory. She was eleven years of age when the siege of Newport took place and the British troops made their devastating march, destroying all the shipping at New Haven, and burning Fairfield, Norwalk, and Greenwich. She was in Connecticut with her father when Arnold burned New London, in 1781 and she herself witnessed the conflagration while sitting on her father's ox-cart.

464 Obadiah Eddy (Constant, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 21, 1742, in Swansea (V.R.); m. June 15, 1769, at Swansea (V.R.), Lois Palmer. He m. (2) Rose Chase. She was living in 1795. (Bristol Co. Deeds, 76.40).

There are two deeds showing that Obadiah was a resident of Swansea.

(84.270 Bristol Co. Prob.) Obadiah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, sold to Avis Lee the salt meadow on the south west corner of Robert Shearman's land. Wife, Rosanna, signed off her dower rights, but when she signed she called herself Rose. Dated Apr. 19, 1773.

(71.309, Bristol Co. Deeds) Obediah Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, for £400 sold to Edward Gray, blacksmith, ¼ acre with a dwelling house. Wife, Rosey Eddy, signed this deed. Dated Jan. 23, 1779 and acknowledged Apr. 28, 1792. Ebenezer Winslow and Daniel Shearman were the witnesses.

At the time of the 1790 Census Obadiah was a resident of Somerset with two males over 16, one under 16, and six females in his family. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His service follows:

Obadiah Eddy, Swanzey. 2d Lieutenant, Capt. Caleb Hill's (2d) co., 1st Bristol Co. regt. of Mass. militia; list of officers in said regiment, as returned by Col. Thomas Carpenter; ordered in Council March 28, 1776, that commissions be issued; reported commissioned March 27, 1776; also, Lieutenant, Capt. Peleg Shearman's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's (Bristol Co.) regt.; service between Jan. 6, 1777, and April 19, 1777, 90 days; company marched to Rhode Island on an alarm and were stationed as guards at Slade's Ferry in Swanzey by order of Brig. George Godfrey; also, 1st Lieutenant, Capt. Peleg Peck's co., Col. George Williams's regt.; engaged Sept. 29, 1777; discharged Oct. 30, 1777; service, 1 mo. 1 day, on a secret expedition to Rhode Island under Maj. Gen. Spencer; company stationed at Tiverton, R. iv EDWARD LINN.

471 Henry Eddy (Ichabod, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 8, 1741, at Swansea, Bristol Co., Mass. (V.R.); d. May 25, 1818, at Easton, N. Y.; m. June 19, 1763, Ruth Gifford, at Tiverton (V.R.). (Their intentions were published May 21, 1763. See Leonard Papers, at Library at New Bedford, Mass.) She was b. Mar. 9, 1746, probably in Dartmouth, Mass.; dau. of William and Patience Gifford. A Ruth Eddy died at Easton, N. Y. on Jan. 24, 1811. (Vol. XLVI, N.E.H.G.R.). It may be this Ruth Eddy.

He spent his early life in Dartmouth, where he purchased land and carried on a farm. He went to New York State between 1782 and 1784 as the following abstracts show.

(Bristol Co. Deeds, 71.545) Henry Eddy of Dartmouth, yeoman, to Ebenezer Eddy of Dartmouth land . . . driftway . . . south on Ichabod Eddy's; west on Wesson Kerby's; east on Henry Eddy's . . . and all else granted me by Philip Allen. Dated Oct. 22, 1782, and signed also by wife, Ruth Eddy.

(B. C. D., 65.538) Henry Eddy of Bateman's Precinct in Dutchess Co., N. Y., yeoman, sold for £40 . . . to Ichabod Eddy of Dartmouth, yeoman, land in Dartmouth . . . on the west side of Acoxet River . . . part of a tract bought of Phillip Allen,—south on Ichabod Eddy's land; west on Ebenezer Eddy; east on the River and north on Wesson Corby. Dated Feb. 4, 1784.

A grandson writing in 1905 states that he remembers that his mother told him when he was a boy that when Henry Eddy was about eighty years old he married a widow very much younger, and lived about five years after this marriage. He left her $1500. He was buried on the farm in Easton. This grandson states that Henry owned slaves and that his father inherited seven of them, but that his father did not believe in slavery and so liberated them. This letter also states that Ichabod Eddy was a seafaring man and was often away for two or three years at a time on whaling voyages, and that in this way he amassed a large fortune which he left to his children. Henry settled on the east bank of the Hudson where he purchased a large tract of land. It was called Easton. Henry and his wife were Friends.

Another story told about him has to do with his early days in Dartmouth. It is said that the family owned property on Marthas Vineyard, and there they kept their sheep. When shearing time came Henry would arise early, go over to the island, shear 100 sheep and return the same day. Such is the story handed down to the present.

472 David Eddy (Ichabod, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 17, 1743, in Swansea (V.R.); d. June 20, 1789 (V.R.). His will was proved July 1789; m. Dec. 13, 1767, Cynthia Cook of Tiverton (V.R.). Their Int. were filed Nov. 20, 1767.

At the time of the 1774 Census, he was in Tiverton; in 1777 he was resident in Tiverton and between the ages of 16 and 50. In 1790 Mrs. Cynthia Eddy was the head of a household consisting of one male over 16, and two females. The names of the children are given in the will of their grandfather, Ichabod. He was a shoemaker as shown by a deed (B.C.D. 54.506).

David Eddy of Dartmouth, cordwainer, for £72 sold to Zephaniah Eddy of Dartmouth the land he purchased of Benjamin Waites; bounds mention the River, westerly on a highway; southerly on Peckham's land and east on the River, etc. Dated Jan. 3, 1772. Deed was also signed by Cynthia Eddy.

He was a soldier in the Revolution. His widow Cynthia received a pension. In her affidavit on file at the State House, Providence, she tells something about her life and family. The following is a brief resume of her story.

David was a soldier and served before the Revolution broke out. They lived in Tiverton about a mile from the western shore and two miles from the village of Fall River. When the British came to Newport in Dec. 1776 her husband was called to guard the shore and until Nov. 1779, he was mostly in service by terms of a month or more. Her husband was a poor man. His musket was furnished him by the state, and as the state had never asked for it she had it still. As their home was in a secluded spot away from the road, the neighbors, during the war frequently brought their household goods and concealed them there so that the British might not find them. Their trials and sufferings during that time were many. Often the children cried for bread and it was not in her power to furnish it to them. They suffered also much for clothing. At various times her husband served under Capt. Borden, Capt. Durfee, Capt. Sherman, and Capt. Devol. At the time of her affidavit, she was ninety-two years of age.

David Eddy, Tiverton. In companies of Capt. Benjamin Durfee, Capt. Richard Durfee, Capt. Benjamin Borden; Lt. Davol; pensioner, d. June 20, 1789.

Maria Carpenter Hall, b. Nov. 27, 1868, married John G. D. Blackburn. Their son John Hall Blackburn was b. Feb. 21, 1903.

482 Preserved Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 25, 1748, at Swansea (V.R.); d. 1838, aged 90 years, at Somerset, Mass.; m. Jan. 1771, at Swansea (V.R.), Lydia Davis, who d. Sept. 30, 1818, aged 66 years. She was dau. of Benjamin and Lydia (Nichols) Davis.

He was a carpenter and lived in Swansea. In 1790 when the Census was taken he had a household of one male over 16, two under 16, and six females. In 1800 on Dec. 16 he united with his brother Job and brother Joshua in selling his rights in his mother's thirds left by his father Job Eddy (B.C.D., 79.400).

Children, b. in Swansea (order of birth unknown):

+1102 Preserved C. Eddy.
+1103 Wing E. Eddy, b. Nov. 1, 1781.
+1104 Daniel Eddy, b. Nov. 27, 1775.
1105 Lois Eddy; m. Joseph (also given Job) Gibbs (N.E.H.G. Vol. XX, p. 299), Oct. 26, 1794, in Swansea (V.R.).
1106 Patience Eddy, m. Aug. 14, 1796, Henry Chase (Lynn V.R. also N.E.H.G. Vol. XX).
1107 Eunice Eddy; m. Stephen Chase (N.E.H.G. Vol. XX), Nov. 8, 1819, in Swansea (V.R.). Their children were Noah, Stephen, and Elisha.
1108 Lydia Eddy, m. Jonathan Pierce (N.E.H.G. Vol. XX) on Aug. 23, 1804, in Swansea (V.R.).
1109 Mary Eddy, b. Aug. 17, 1790; m. Oliver Simmons (N.E.H.G. Vol. XX) on Mar. 2, 1809, in Swansea (V.R.).
1110 Hannah Eddy, m. Allen Ingraham of Bristol (N.E.H.G. Vol. XX), Jan. 24, 1816, Bristol (V.R.).
1111 Ruth Eddy, m. June 2, 1816, David Hathaway (Providence Newspaper). He m. for his second wife Elizabeth Eddy; dau. of Joshua and Isabella (Baker) Eddy. (See No. 1137.)
+1112 David Bourn Eddy, b. June 1, 1797, at Swansea.

484 Patience Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 8, 1852; m. May 11, 1780, Silas Chase; son of Silas and Hannah Chase (Chase Gen., p. 23).

Children (Chase Gen.):

i Nehemiah Chase, b. Mar. 5, 1781. Unmar.
ii Benjamin Chase, b. Mar. 16, 1782; m. (1) Lydia Shove, Sept. 12, 1804; m. (2) Sept. 12, 1812, Patty Chase, dau. of Paul Chase.
iii Anna Chase, b. Mar. 16, 1783; m. Jan. 19, 1804, Samuel Shove. iv Silas Chase, b. Jan. 27, 1785; m. Lydia Slade.
v Hannah Chase, b. Mar. 7, 1786; d. 1847. Unmar.
vi Elizabeth Chase, b. Nov. 17, 1788; d. 1861. Unmar.
vii Phebe Chase, b. May 27, 1792; m. Moses Chase.
viii Patience Chase.

485 Job Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 23, 1753; d. 1812. Adm. on his estate appointed Feb. 17, 1812. He m. Anna . . .

When the 1790 Census was taken his household consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and six females. In 1797 and 1800 Job Eddy, Jr. and wife Anna sold land. Preserved Eddy was a witness of the deed (B.C.D. 76.256 and 79.421).

Children:

1113 James Eddy. Perhaps his dau. was the Anne Eddy, who mar. James Mason of Swansea on Mar. 28, 1818, who is called dau. of the late James Eddy.
1114 Probably the Anne Eddy of Swansea who m. Jan. 17, 1799, Philip Chase. (See Friends Rec. of Swansea.)

486 James Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 30, 1755, in Swansea, Mass. His will was dated May 28, 1831. He is buried on his home farm in North Adams. He m. Dorothy Wilbur; dau. of Daniel Wilbur.

He went to Adams previous to 1784 and settled in the Bowen District. On Feb. 7, 1800 James Eddy of Adams, Mass., yeoman, sold "all rights to land of my father Job Eddy, late of Swansea" (Bristol Co. Deeds, 78.476).

His will mentions dau. Patience Carpenter; granddau. Mardula Burlingame; sons Stephen, James, John, and Preserved; daughter Mehitable Burlingame and grandchildren, Arnold Carpenter and Harrison Carpenter. James and Preserved Eddy were the executors. He was probably a shoemaker by trade, as he left shoemaking tools in his will.

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War with the following service:

James Eddy. Private, Capt. Moses Ashley's co., Col. Joseph Vose's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from June 24, 1777, to March 1, 1778; reported deserted; also, same co. and regt.; muster roll for Dec., 1777, dated Camp near Valley Forge, enlisted June 24, 1777; enlistment, during war.

Children (order of birth not known):

+1115 Preserved Eddy, b. Oct. 16, 1799, in North Adams.
+1116 Patience Eddy, b. Dec. 19, 1780.
1117 Jeremiah Eddy, b. Mar. 23, 1783; probably d. young, as he is not mentioned in the will.
1118 James Eddy, m. Feb. 8, 1814, Delia Carter.
1119 John Eddy. He was in Adams in 1834.
1120 Mehitable Eddy, m. Aug. 14, 1814, Smith Burlingame. She had a dau. Mardula Burlingame.
+1121 Stephen Eddy.

489 John Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. May 28, 1763; m. May 20, 1784, Mercy Chase; dau. of Ichabod Chase of Swansea (Friend's Church Records). On May 6, 1779 he requested of the Friend's Meeting a letter of dismissal to the meeting in East Hoosic, which was granted to him. It is likely that he did not remain there long for he is found living in Swansea a few years later where he was a cooper. The land records state that he sold his land left him by Job Eddy and all his rights in the thirds of his mother Patience Eddy.

Children (incomplete list):

1122 Phebe Eddy, b. about 1794; d. July 3, 1868, in Swansea, aged 74 years. Unmar.
1123 Gardner Eddy, b. about Jan. 1, 1798; d. Oct. 9, 1839. His three sisters were his heirs.
+1124 Sarah Eddy, b. about 1790.
+1125 Marcy Eddy.
1126 Probably John Eddy.

490 Richard Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 8, 1765. In 1800 Richard Eddy of the District of Marian, South Carolina, cooper, son of Job Eddy of Swansea, yeoman, appointed Benjamin Slade and Gilbert Sisson his attorneys to act for him, and in this capacity they sold his rights in the thirds of Patience Eddy, widow of Job Eddy. Nothing more is known of him.

491 Joshua Eddy (Job, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 7, 1767; d. May 12, 1835, at Dighton (gravestone); m. Nov. 14, 1793, Isabelle Baker; d. Sept. 17, 1855, in Seekonk, aged 81-2-6 (gravestone). They lived in Swansea. He left a will.

In 1794 and 1798 Joshua Eddy sold land in Swansea and at the latter date Isabel Eddy sold her dower rights (B.C.D., 82.380 and 72.455).

Children, b. in Swansea (Bible in the possession of Caroline (Eddy) Westgate).

+1127 Francis Eddy, b. May 22, 1797.
+1128 James Eddy, b. Sept. 22, 1798.

+1129 Wanton Eddy, b. Mar. 3, 1800.
+1130 Joshua Eddy, b. Aug. 28, 1802.
+1131 Joseph Eddy, b. Feb. 13, 1804.
+1132 Ebenezer Eddy, b. Sept. 4, 1805.
+1133 Lavinia Eddy, b. Sept. 4, 1805 (twin). (Called Lovina Eddy.)
+1134 Jabez Eddy, b. July 1, 1808.
+1135 Mary Ann Eddy, b. May 3, 1810.
+1136 Stephen Eddy, b. Oct. 10, 1811.
+1137 Elizabeth Eddy.

492 Hannah Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. May 29, 1741; m. Dec. 23, 1762, in Boston (V.R.), Robert Gardner. She m. (2) Robert Currie of Providence.

The Eddy Genealogy of 1881 gives the following account of Hannah Eddy:

> In her youth she was a very beautiful woman. After the death of her husband, she became a teacher, and during the siege of Boston, was so employed. She was a very intelligent person and one of uncommon industry and perseverance. Her wit and anecdotes were pungent and interesting, always marked by good sense and modesty. She had almost committed the "Holy Bible" to memory. She was a member of Rev. John Murray's church and was free from all bigotry and censoriousness. She was affectionate and liberal to excess.

Children:
+1138 Robert Gardner.
1139 Hannah Gardner, b. Dec. 1, 1765, in Boston; m. Judge Benjamin Williams of Boston.

493 Benjamin Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 19, 1743; d. Aug. 11, 1817, at West Cambridge, Mass.; m. Aug. 11, 1763, at Boston, Martha Bronsdon, b. Nov. 11, 1742; d. Dec. 28, 1830, at West Cambridge. He was a wheelwright by trade, but soon abandoned that business. The Eddy Genealogy of 1881 has the following account of him.

"He was an honest man, a good husband, an affectionate and indulgent father, possessing the qualities of a true Christian. His wife was a treasure to him, devoted to him and his children. She was a woman of great energy and perseverance, and was beloved by all who knew her. During the siege of Boston she was driven out by the British and with a few dollars sought shelter with her five children in Needham, where she remained until joined by her husband; who after having his ship captured by the English, was thrown into prison at Halifax, N. S. He with several others escaped, and travelled on foot by land to Needham. At nineteen years of age he began a seafaring life, and shortly arose to the command of a vessel in the West India trade. In 1776 he and his family removed to Shrewsbury, Mass. While there he kept a store and was a large land-holder. After the end of the war, he became interested in and commanded packets in the London trade. In 1804 he purchased an estate in Waltham, which a short time before his death he sold. He then removed to West Cambridge. He and his wife are buried there in the tomb of his son-in-law William Cotting." At time of 1790 Census, he was a resident of Shrewsbury, with a household consisting of two males over 16, two under 16, and five females.

Children, b. in Boston:
+1140 Martha Eddy, b. July 24, 1764.
+1141 Mary Eddy, b. July 22, 1766.
+1142 Hannah Eddy, b. July 11, 1768.
1143 Sarah Eddy, b. Aug. 11, 1770; d. Sept. 11, 1778.
1144 Charlotte Eddy, b. Mar. 16, 1773; d. Mar. 21, 1773.
1145 Robert Rand Eddy, b. Mar. 18, 1774; d. Sept. 13, 1778.
1146 Eunice Eddy, b. Oct. 11, 1776; d. July 17, 1796.
1148 Robert Rand Eddy, b. Aug. 25, 1781; d. June 17, 1796.
+1149 Caleb Eddy, b. May 27, 1784.

494 Martha Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, William), bapt. Apr. 28, 1745; d. 1799, at Boston; m. Oct. 23, 1764, at Boston (V.R.), Matthew Grice.

Children (Eddy Gen. 1881) (not in order of birth):

1150 Elizabeth Grice, b. Apr. 30, 1775; m. Philip Amidon of Boston. Their children were Philip, Eliza, Angeline, Melania, and Sylvia.
1151 Martha Grice, b. Aug. 18, 1762; m. . . . Balch.
1152 Hannah Grice, b. July 31, 1768; m. . . . French.
1153 Matthew Grice.
1154 Caleb Eddy Grice.
1155 Susan Grice.

496 Elkanah Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William). This name is spelled Elkani, Elcony and in various other ways in the records. B. Jan. 31, 1732/33, in Swansea (V.R.). He d. before Dec. 7, 1759; m. May 22, 1751, at Warren, R. I., Patience Cole of Swansea (V.R.); b. Feb. 3, 1732; d. Jan. 16, 1820; dau. of Caleb and Jemima (Thomas) Cole (Cole Gen., p. 80). According to the Cole Gen., she m. (2) William Salisbury. (See No. 226.)

He was a soldier on the Crown Point expedition and probably died before its return. He must have left Warren soon after his marriage and settled in Scituate, R. I. for the Scituate Records under the date of May 17, 1753 state that the "Earmark with which Elkana Eddy marks his cattle is two happenny in ye upper side of the left ear." Probably Patience went back to her home in Warren while her husband was a soldier, for the settlement of the estate is in Warren. On Dec. 7, 1759, in Warren, "Patience Eddy, widow and relict of Elkanah Eddy, late a souldier in service of the Colony of R. I. prays that administration on estate of said husband be granted to her." She was made administratrix.

In the inventory, there is a note due from Samuel Eddy and "money due to people or souldiers at Crown Point;" an account against Caleb Eddy and one against Jeremiah Pierce, Jr. In the account of Patience on Apr. 5, 1762, mention is made of cash paid William Eddy, and she was allowed money for bringing up a young child (Warren Rec.).

Children:

1156 Amy Eddy, b. Jan. 31, 1752; m. Sept. 27, 1770, William Eddy; son of Michael and Jale Eddy. (See No. 403.)
+1157 Elkanah Eddy, b. before 1759.
1158 Patience Eddy, m. Mar. 13, 1774, John Bushee (Cole Gen., p. 80).

497 Samuel Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 8, 1736, in Swansea (V.R.), but in 1732 according to the gravestone record; d. Aug. 23, 1811, at Dorset, Vt., according to gravestone, but Nov. 12, 1812, according to an old note-book belonging to Smith Eddy, and now in the hands of a descendant. He m. Mar. 7, 1754, at Scituate, R. I., Rachel Smith, who d. Apr. 6, 1811. They are buried in the Whitney Cemetery, at Dorset, Vt.

On Apr. 23, 1747, he registered his ear-mark for cattle at Warren, R. I., as "one half-penny on the fore side of the right ear." Some time before 1753 the whole family removed to Scituate, R. I. and there on May 17, 1753 he registered the earmark "with which Samuel Eddy marks his creatures is two Happeny in the upper side of the right ear." Soon after his marriage he purchased of Daniel Whittaker "30 acres on a plain called High Plain" which bounds on William Seamans, Samuel Gorton, and John Hulett. Dated Jan. 14, 1756 (Scituate Deeds, 4.402). On Apr. 18, 1757 he sold this farm "upon which I now live" in a deed which his wife Rachel signed and which was witnessed by Elkanah Eddy and Caleb Eddy (Scituate Deeds, 4.403). On Feb. 13, 1760, he purchased 100 acres of the Westconnaid Propriety in the western part on the right of Benjamin Carpenter in the 3rd and last division (Scituate Deeds, 5.114). This he sold in March 1761 and in 1763 purchased of Joshua Read land adjoining Caleb Eddy's land. This deed was witnessed by his parents Caleb and Mehitable Eddy (Scituate Deeds, 5.724). On Feb. 24, 1768 he sold his property to Bayes Manchester, in a deed which his wife Rachel signed and which was witnessed by Caleb Eddy and Caleb Eddy Jr. (Scituate Deeds, 5.726).

This date probably marks the time of his removal from Scituate to the town of New Providence, Cheshire. A church was formed there and the roll in 1769 contained the name of Samuel Eddy. The Berkshire Historical Society Collections (p. 93) state that Samuel Eddy is one of those "who is recommended and received from distant places" to the Church of Christ at Cheshire. He seems to have lived in Windsor. Perhaps he went there later, but he was established there in 1777 when the Revolutionary War needed help from that section to protect Vermont. He was one of the famous company of "Silver Grays", which marched for the defense of Bennington. His service follows:

Samuel Eddy. Private, Capt. Thomas Bussey's co., Berkshire Co. militia; enlisted Sept. 5, 1777; service, 28 days; company known as the "Silver Grays," and marched to Pawlet on an alarm.

Samuel Edy. Private, Capt. William Clark's co., Col. Benjamin Simonds's regt.; enlisted Aug. 14, 1777; service, 8 days; company marched from Gageborough to Bennington by order of Gen. Stark on an alarm; also, same co. and regt.; enlisted Oct. 13, 1780; discharged Oct. 18, 1780; service, 6 days; company marched from Windsor to Shaftsbury by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm at the Northward; also, Lieut. John Cole's co., Col. Benjamin Simonds's regt.; enlisted Oct. 1780; discharged Oct. 28, 1780; service, 3 days; company marched from Windsor by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm.

Samuel Edy. Lieutenant, Capt. Joseph Peirce's co., Col. Asa Barns's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; entered service Oct. 28, 1781; service, 10 days; company marched by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm at the Northward.

Samuel Eddy was made lieutenant during the war. The records refer to him frequently as Lieutenant Eddy. In 1783 when the town of Windsor was divided into school districts he and two sons, James and Andrew, were in the northeastern and son Reuben was in the northern district. In 1784, 1790, 1791, and 1793, Samuel was a Selectman of the town. In 1786, 1788, and 1791 he was Surveyor of Highways, and in 1789 he was collector of taxes. In 1790 the U. S. Census states that he was a resident of Windsor, Mass., with a household consisting of three males over 16, and four females. On Oct. 4, 1794 it was voted to abate the ministerial tax against the following persons,—the list included Lt. Samuel Eddy and Israel Eddy and Andrew Eddy, together with several others. There is also on record a deed which states that Samuel Eddy purchased a pew in the Church (Baptist) from Joseph Pierce. Mary and Anna Eddy witnessed this deed (Windsor town records). The deeds at Adams, for the northern section of Berkshire Co. contain several given by Samuel, which were witnessed by various members of his family, namely Smith Eddy, Anna Eddy, Andrew Eddy, Amos Eddy. His wife Rachel signed one in 1794. Somewhere about 1800 Samuel went to Wallingford, Vt. The exact date has not been learned. He spent the remainder of his life in this section.

Children (Bible Rec. sent by Cyrus V. Eddy of Los Angeles, Cal.):

+1159 Reuben Eddy, b. July 23, 1754, in Scituate, R. I.
+1160 Andrew Eddy, b. Aug. 1, 1756.
+1161 James Eddy, b. May 26, 1758.
+1162 Amos Eddy, b. Oct. 19, 1760.
+1163 Israel Eddy, b. July 29, 1762.
+1164 Samuel Eddy, b. June 1, 1765.
+1165 Smith Eddy, b. Jan. 29, 1768.
+1166 Mary Eddy, b. Oct. 19, 1770.
+1167 Anna Eddy, b. Mar. 15, 1773; m. John Eddy; son of Caleb and Prudence Eddy. (See No. 1177.)
(A descendant of another branch adds the two following names to these.)
1168 Rachel Eddy.
1169 Martha Eddy.

498 Mehitable Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. May 22, 1739, in Swansea, Mass.; d. May 7, 1808, in Scituate, R. I.; m. Bayes Manchester, b. about 1722 (Elkanah Eddy's Pension affidavit); d. Feb. 10, 1800, in his 78th year. He was son of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Norton) Manchester. [Elizabeth Norton was the dau. of Joseph and Mary (Bayes) Norton.] They had no children. They owned considerable property in Scituate, R. I. Each left a will. He mentions wife Mehitable, to whom he left everything. Her will dated June 5, 1807 mentions Zilpha Eddy, dau. of Luther Eddy; William Eddy, son of Oliver Eddy; Elizabeth Eddy, dau. of Oliver Eddy; George Washington Eddy, son of Elkanah Eddy; children of Amy Yeaw, wife of Job; and Patience

Taylor, wife of Richard Taylor; also George Yeaw, son of Job; and Abial Taylor and Bayes Manchester Taylor, sons of Richard Taylor, Jr.; and Sibra Yeaw, dau. of Job. Job Yeaw and Jonathan Salisbury were the executors.

499 William Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 25, 1746, in Warren, R. I. (V.R.); d. before Sept. 23, 1782 (Indenture of Luther Eddy at Scituate, R. I.).

At the time of the 1774 Census he was a resident of Scituate, R. I., with a household consisting of one male over 16, five under 16, and one female. He does not appear in the 1777 Census of R. I. Probably about 1775 he joined his brother Samuel in western Mass. for he served in the Revolutionary War, from Gageborough with the following service:

> William Eddy, Gageborough. Sergeant, Capt. John Wood's co., Col. Paul Dudley Sargent's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted April 24, 1775; service, 3 mos. 15 days; also, company return [probably Oct. 1775]; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Cambridge, Nov. 15, 1775.

It is not known whether his family accompanied him or not. If they did his wife must have returned to Scituate after his death, for the indenture of his son Luther Eddy is recorded there on Sept. 23, 1782. (NOTE. In the Genealogy of 1881 the following children are given as the children of William Eddy, son of Joshua Eddy. This error was caused probably because the existence of William Eddy of Scituate was not known to the compiler.)

Children, b. in Scituate, R. I.:

+1170 ALLEN EDDY.
+1171 BAYES EDDY (also spelled Bayse or Bayze).
+1172 OLIVER EDDY, b. about 1764.
+1173 LUTHER EDDY, b. about 1767.
+1174 ASAHEL EDDY, b. 1768.
1175 Perhaps the AMY EDDY, who m. JOB YEAW in Scituate. She d. June 22, 1854, aged 78–9–6 and is buried in N. Scituate. He d. Jan. 20, 1852, aged 74–2–3, and is buried beside her. They had a son, Job Smith Yeaw, b. July 22, 1807; d. Oct. 5, 1830 (gravestone).

500 Caleb Eddy (Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. May 2, 1751, at Warren, R. I. (V.R.). Pension affidavit states 1750; d. Jan. 23, 1820 (Pension); m. Prudence . . . Perhaps she was a Round or Westcott.

At the time of the Census of 1774 in R. I., he was a resident of Scituate with a household of one male over 16, two under 16, one female over 16, and one under 16. He is not in the R. I. Census of 1777, probably because he was a soldier. He seems to have left the company in which he intended to enlist and for which he was drafted and joined another. His record is as follows:

> Caleb Eddy, Providence. Private, Capt. Nathan Goodale's co., Col. Rufus Putnam's regt.; muster return dated Albany, Feb. 9, 1778; reported deserted; also, list of deserters from Col. Rufus Putnam's (5th) regt., dated Nov. 20, 1780; age 26 yrs.; stature, 5 ft. 10 in.; complexion, brown; hair, dark; residence, Providence; engaged for town of Scituate; deserted March 1, 1777; reported never joined.
> Caleb Eddy, Scituate. R. I. pensioner, residing in Rutland County, Vt.; b. 1750; d. Jan. 23, 1820; Jan., 1776, co. Capt. Stephen Kimball, Colonel Hitchcock, 1 yr.; Capt. Hewes' co., Col. Angell, 3 yrs., 14 d.
> Private, Capt. Thos. Hughes' co., Col. Angell's R. I. Battalion, U. S. service, muster roll of co. for Aug. and Sept., 1778.

He perhaps is the following Caleb Eddy, since this is the section in which his brothers lived, and from the records of the town of Scituate, R. I. it would seem that Caleb Eddy was still away from the town.

> Caleb Eddy. Private, Capt. William Fletcher's co., Col. Simons's regt.; service, 6 days; company marched to Pawlet Oct. 13, 1780; also, Capt. Joseph Peirce's co., Col. Asa Barns's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted Oct. 28, 1781; service, 10 days; company marched by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm at the Northward.

Probably his long continued absence as a soldier brought many hardships upon his family and they became so poor that the town had to assume the care of them. These items are recorded in Book 2 at Scituate, R. I.

> Voted that Mehitabel Eddy and Peleg Eddy, infant children of Caleb Eddy, Jun'r., being of the poor of the town be bound as apprentices to James Round of Scituate. Mehitabel was to remain until she was 18 years which would be 1787 and "was to be taught household business so as to be capable of getting her living and at the expiration of the time she was to receive two good suits of Apparel, one of which was to be new, exclusive of her everyday apparel." Peleg was to be bound until he was twenty-one.

John Eddy on Apr. 28, 1781, infant son of Caleb Eddy, Jr., late of Scituate, is fallen under the care of the Town Council and is put and bound to Amos Williams of Glocester until he be 21 years. On the same date John Westcott brought in a bill to the town for writing the indenture of William Eddy, an infant son of Caleb Eddy, Jr., one of the poor of the town.

By Apr. 12, 1794, Caleb was a resident of Glocester, but the town of Scituate agreed with Glocester that Caleb was a legal resident of Scituate. He is probably the one who in 1790 was a resident of Scituate with a household consisting of one male over sixteen, and three females.

Children (Bible Record sent by Cyrus V. Eddy of Los Angeles):
+1176 Mehitable Eddy, b. Nov. 12, 1769.

+1179 Peleg Eddy, b. Nov. 20, 1775.
1180 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Jan. 1, 1778. At the time of the 1850 Census she was a resident of Wallingford, Vt. and living with her sister, Mehitable Cole. She was unmarried.

504 Eddy Cole (Caleb Cole, Elizabeth Eddy, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 5, 1739, in Swansea; d. 1814; m. Dec. 11, 1760, Ruth Salisbury.

Children:
i Levi Cole, b. Jan. 11, 1761, at Warren, R. I. He had a son, Eddy Cole.
ii Mary Cole, b. Oct. 23, 1765.
iii Patience Cole, b. Nov. 16, 1771.

507 Obadiah Eddy (Obadiah, John, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. before 1735. He was a soldier in the War against the French and Indians. His service as found in the Massachusetts Archives was as follows:

Obed'h Edey appears on a Billeting Account sworn to in Hampshire ss on Jan. 25, 1759, rendered by Aaron Sheldon for victualling the soldiers on their return home in 1758. Capt. Cary's Co., Col. Doty's Reg't, Charged with one meal (Vol. XCVI, p. 374).

Obediah Eede Appears on a Billeting Account sworn to Wrentham, Jan. 3, 1761, rendered by Pelatiah Man for billeting invalids as they came down from the camps. Capt. Dunbar's Co., Col. Thomas' Regt. Charged with one meal. Remarks. Residence, Attleboro. (Vol. XCVIII, p. 336).

Obediah Eddy appears on a muster roll dated Boston, Feb. 19, 1761 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Josiah Dunbar. Quality, Corporal. Residence, Attleborough. Entered service Feb. 26. Served until Dec. 8, year not given. Length of service, 41 weeks. Endorsed, 1760. Remarks,—Reported. 105 miles travel home allowed. (Vol. XCVIII, p. 316.)

510 Abiel Eddy (Seth, John, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 3, 1737, in Attleboro, Mass. (V.R.); m. Int. Dec. 12, 1761, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.), Constant Torrey; dau. of Samuel and Constant (Lincoln) Torrey. (Note. Constant Lincoln was the daughter of Nathaniel and Alice (Andrews) Lincoln.)

Abiel was one of the administrators on his father's estate in 1761. While living in Norton he served as a soldier in the French and Indian Wars. His service taken from the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives was as follows:

(Note. There were two Abiel Eddys living in Norton at this time. The other was son of Caleb and Judith Eddy on the John Eddy of Taunton line. He was three years younger than this one. To the compiler of this book it seems that both served in this war. She has done her best to separate the two. It is possible that she has made a mistake. It would be well to compare the two records and form a personal judgment.)

(Vol. XCV, p. 264) Abiel Eddy appears on a list dated April 9, 1757, of the 1st co. of Militia in the town of Norton, commanded by Maj. George Leonard, Jr., comprising the Train band and Alarm list—of men between 16 and 60 years. Rank, Private. Reported belonged to the Train band.

(Vol. XCVI, page 91) Abel Eddy appears on a Billeting Roll dated—Not given, of Capt. Philip Walker's Co., Col.—Not given. Regt. Enlisted, March 30, 1758. Roll made up to May 31, 1758. Number of days, 62. Amount £2 1sh. 4d. Remarks: Res., Norton.

(Vol. XCVI, page 120) Abel Eddey appears on a Billeting Roll, endorsed 1758, of Capt. Philip Walker's Co. Col.—Not given. Regt. Enlisted, March 30, 1758. Number of days, 62. Amount, £2 1sh. 4d.

(Vol. XCVI, page 406) Abiall Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Jan. 31, 1759, of a company of foot in His Majesty's service under Capt. Philip Walker in Col. Thomas Doty's Regt., raised by the province of Massachusetts Bay for the reduction of Canada. Of what town—Norton. Quality, Private. Entered service, Mar. 30.—year not given. Endorsed, 1758. Served until Nov. 25, year not given. Endorsed, 1758. Length of service, 8 mos. 17 days. Days travel, 24. Remarks;—Reported—Discharged Nov. 1. Father or Master; Seth Eddy.

(Vol. XCVII, page 379) Abial Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Feb. 13, 1760, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Nathan Hodges. Quality, Sergeant. Residence, Norton. Entered service, May 1. Served until Nov. 24, year not given. Endorsed, 1759. Length of service, 29 weeks, 5 days. Remarks; Endorsed—Co. in the Expedition to Crown Point.

(Vol. XCVII, page 295) Abial Edey appears on a Billeting Account sworn to Worcester Sept. 1, 1760 rendered by Nathaniel Wolcott for meals furnished soldiers, invalids, on their return from the army. In Oct. and Nov., 1759. Capt. Hodges' Co., Col. Willard's Regt. Charged with 1 meal 6d. Remarks;—Res., Norton.

The baptisms of the two oldest children are recorded in Norton, while the births of all are recorded in Westmoreland, N. H., to which he probably removed about 1767 or 1768. On Dec. 4, 1782 Abiel Eddy of Westmoreland, N. H. purchased 200 acres of land in Londonderry, Vt. of Henry Montgomery. He probably moved there in the following spring for the next record, dated Dec. 23, 1783 states that Abiel Eddy of Londonderry, Vt. purchased 122 acres. On Jan. 15, 1789 Abiel Eddy, Gentleman, purchased land in Londonderry. Abiel Eddy, Jr. and John Eddy witnessed the deed. In 1794 when Abiel sold land in Londonderry, Constant Eddy and Seth Eddy were witnesses of the deed (Londonderry, Vt. Rec.). It was about this time that he moved just over the border of Vermont into New York. In Dec. 1798 Abiel Eddy of Granville, Washington Co., N. Y. sold his land in Londonderry, Vt. At the time of the 1790 Census it is stated that Elial Eddy was an inhabitant of Londonderry with a household of four males over 16, one under 16, and five females. This is probably a clerical error for Abiel, since he is the only Eddy of whom any trace can be found in Londonderry at this time. The size of the family also corresponds with that of Abiel's.

While living in Westmoreland, N. H. Abiel fought in the Revolutionary War. His service follows:

Abiel Eddy. 2d Lieutenant, Pay Roll of Capt. John Coles co., Col. Samuel Ashley's regt.; marched on the alarm of June 28, 1777 from Westmoreland to within five miles of Otter Creek when they were met by an express from Col. Bellows, advising that the enemy had retired, later to be ordered to return which was done, and met the Army on their retreat three miles beyond Col. Meads. Time of engagement, June 29, 1777. Time of service, 1 mo. 3 days. Residence, Westmoreland, N. H.

From the Revolutionary War record of James Eddy it is learned that he was one of the selectmen of the town in 1782.

Jeams Eddey. A return of the men in the Continental Army that engaged for Westmoreland in State of New Hampshire. Signed by Abiel Eddy and Joseph Burt. Selectmen of Westmoreland, April 8, 1782.

Children (Westmoreland N.H.V.R.):

1181 Sabra Eddy, b. Mar. 8, 1764 (Westmoreland Rec.); bapt. July 22, 1764, in Norton, Mass.

1182 Abiel Eddy, b. Apr. 12, 1766 (Westmoreland Rec.); bapt. June 29, 1766, in Norton. He purchased 100 acres in Londonderry, Vt. in 1788. On Apr. 8, 1789, he sold to Rufus Thayer 13 acres in Londonderry, which land bordered on John Eddy's land. On Jan. 10, 1793, he sold about 100 acres to his father, Abiel Eddy. Patience Eddy witnessed this deed. He probably went to Granville, N. Y. with the rest of the family. See No. 12066, Abial Eddy, for some who are possibly his descendants.

1183 Bethiah Eddy, b. July 24, 1768. (This name appears also as Beniah Eddy.)

1184 John Eddy, b. Sept. 30, 1770. John Eddy, a minor, purchased 100 acres in Londonderry, Vt. in the westerly part on Nov. 29, 1788. On Feb. 1, 1796 he being then a resident of Granville, N. Y. sold property in Londonderry. His name appears also as a witness to deeds in Londonderry records. See No. 12667 for descendants.

1185 Constant Eddy, b. Aug. 29, 1772. He witnessed a deed in Londonderry, Vt. in 1794.

1186 Seth Eddy, b. July 1, 1774. He witnessed a deed in Londonderry, Vt., 1794.

1187 Patience Eddy, b. Apr. 3, 1776. She witnessed a deed in Londonderry, Vt. in 1793.

1188 Heber Eddy, b. July 18, 1778.

1189 Lydia Eddy, b. May 21, 1780.

Probably also the Ely Eddy, who was born in Londonderry, Vt., July 14, 1783.

511 John Eddy (Seth, John, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 9, 1739, in Attleboro, Mass.; d. June 2, 1818, in Brookfield, Mass., aged 78 years (V.R.); m. Int. June 29, 1763, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.), Elizabeth Clap of Middleboro, who d. Apr. 25, 1824, at Brookfield, Mass., aged 77 years (V.R.).

Memorial Monument, Dedicated at Eddington, Maine, to Memory of Col. Jonathan Eddy

While living in Norton, he enlisted at the age of 19 years in the French and Indian War. His service as found on the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives is as follows:

(Vol. XCVII, p. 169) John Eddy appears on a return dated April 26, 1759, of men enlisted or impressed for His Majesty's service in Col. Ephraim Leonard's Regt., to be put under the command of His Excellency Jeffry Amherst, Esq. General and Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's forces in North America, for the invasion of Canada. Age 19. Residence, Norton. When Enlisted, March 27. Remarks: Father or Master, Seth Eddy. Reported—Had his own gun. Reported—Said Eddy and others passed muster and were delivered to Capt. Jonathan Eddy.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 183) John Eddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to—Suffolk ss. Jan. 5, 1761 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jonathan Eddy. Quality, Private. Residence, Not given. Entered service, Mar. 27, 1759. Served until Sept. 30, 1760. Length of service, 79 weeks, 1 day. Remarks: Father or Master: Seth Eddy. Endorsed, Co. at Fort Cumberland.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 371) John Eddy appears on a Billeting Roll sworn to Suffolk ss. Feb. 7, 1761, of Capt. Jonathan Eddy's Co., Col. Joseph Fry's Regt., Enlisted, Mar. 27, 1759. Roll made up to Apr. 13, 1759. Date of receiving King's provisions. Number of days, 16. Amount 2s., 8d.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 444) John Eddy appears on a Roll of Officers and Men in Capt. Jonathan Eddy's Co., Col. Frye's Reg't., in service at Nova Scotia after Jan. 1, 1760, and at time of discharge. Rank, Private. Service began Jan. 1, 1760. To what time paid, Sept. 30 (1760).

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 429) John Eddy appears on a return of men, enlisted for His Majesty's service for the protection and security of His Majesty's dominions and conquests in North America—1761. Age, 22. Residence, Norton. Enlisted July 23 by Capt. Lemuel Bent. Attested, July 28. Mustered, July 28.

(Vol. XCIX, p. 146) John Eddy appears on a Pay Roll dated Boston, April 8, 1762 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Lemuel Bent. Quality, Private. Residence, Norton. Entered service, June 12, year not given—endorsed, 1761. Served until Dec. 28—year not given—endorsed, 1761. Length of service, 7 months, 4 days.

He is without doubt the John Eddy who purchased of David Darby of Norton two pieces of land in Norton on Jan. 15, 1763.

. . . one piece on the southerly side of the road leading from Norton to Taunton, being a "corner of ye land of heirs of Samuel Eddy," late dec'd . . . Sylvanus Braman. The second piece is on . . . side of ye way where ye house standeth . . . bounds mention Elkanah Lincoln's land, the River and George Leonard's road to the Grist-Mill.

Just how early John left Norton and settled in Brookfield, Mass. is not known, but it was about 1764. John Eddy of Brookfield, yeoman, bought land, part in Brookfield and part in Ware on Dec. 1, 1783 (Worcester Deeds, 23.129). At the time of the 1790 Census he was a resident of Brookfield with a family of three males over 16, two under 16, and three females. The name of one daughter is not known. His will dated July 27, 1814 was filed April 30, 1819. It mentions wife Elizabeth; son Seth; daughter Elizabeth Lamberton, wife of Seth Lamberton and grandson, Titus Eddy.

Children, b. in Brookfield, Mass. (V.R.):

+1190 SETH EDDY, b. July 2, 1765.
1191 ELIZABETH EDDY, b. Nov. 1, 1769; m. Feb. 2, 1788, at Brookfield (V.R.), SETH LAMBERTON, of Ware, Mass.
1192 JOHN EDDY, b. May 13, 1773; d. Oct. 29, 1796, aged 23–5–16 (V.R.). Probably unmar. as no mention of children is made in his father's will.
1193 ABIEL EDDY, b. Feb. 26, 1776; d. Oct. 9, 1796, aged 20–7–13.
1194 ELIJAH EDDY, b. June 28, 1778; d. Aug. 29, 1796, aged 18–2.

516 Nathan Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 8, 1733, in Middleboro, Mass.; d. Feb. 28, 1804, at Pittsfield, Vt.; m. Nov. 17, 1757 (M.D. 19.175) Eunice Sampson, b. May 15, 1737, at Plympton, Mass.; d. Mar. 25, 1802, at Pittsfield, Vt.; dau. of Ephraim and Abigail (Horrel) Sampson. (See N. E. H. G. R. Vol. 26, p. 365.)

Nathan Eddy spent his early life in Middleboro and as eldest son received his father's property (Plym. Prob., 15.497–8), but was to pay his mother her right of dower and to his sister, Susannah, and brother, Samuel, £40–16–8 and upon the death of his mother the further sum of £20–8–4.

The Plym. Registry of Deeds contains several of interest, among them (47.173–174) one signed by his mother, Lydia, and wife, Eunice, who gave their consent to the sale. In 1768 he joined the church in Middleboro. His service in the Revolutionary War was as follows:

Nathan Eddy. Private, Capt. Nathaniel Wood's co., Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regt.; enlisted May 6, 1778; discharged May 9, 1778; enlisted Sept. 6, 1778; discharged Sept. 12, 1778; service 9 days; company marched on two alarms at Dartmouth. Roll dated Middleborough.

Probably in the late fall of 1779, Nathan went to Woodstock, Vt., for Dana in his History of Woodstock states that "Nathan was a member of Mr. Aaron Hutchinson's congregation, who served from Sept. 3, 1774 for five years." On Nov. 1, 1779 he purchased from Ebenezer Curtis lots 7 and 8 in the 3rd Range in the Apthorp Tract (Woodstock Rec. 1.32).

Among the Woodstock records (1.83) is one in which Nathan Eddy on Apr. 2, 1782 gave a bond to John Murdock of Middleboro, the condition of which was "the maintenance of his honored father, Ephraim Sampson," etc. John Murdock was the brother-in-law of Nathan as both had married daughters of Ephraim Sampson.

At the time of the Census in 1790, Nathan was living in Killington (now Sherburne) and his household consisted of four males over 16, one under 16, and two females. By 1800 he was in Pittsfield, Vt. (Census of 1800). When the town of Sherburne was organized in 1794 the meeting was held at the home of Nathan Eddy, inn-holder, and Nathan Eddy was one of the selectmen chosen. He was a strong vigorous man with all the characteristics of the early pioneer settlers.

As Eunice Sampson was the granddaughter of Isaac and Lydia (Standish) Sampson and since Lydia Standish was the daughter of Alexander and Sarah (Alden) Standish and granddaughter of Miles and Barbara Standish, all Eddys who can trace their descent to Nathan and Eunice (Sampson) Eddy are eligible to the Mayflower Society through both Nathan (See No. 230) and Eunice.

Children, b. in Middleboro (Family Bible in the possession of Leroy C. Eddy, of Warren, Pa.):

+1195 Ephraim Eddy, b. Dec. 21, 1759.
+1196 Lydia Eddy, b. Sept. 16, 1762.
1197 Hannah Eddy, b. Feb. 1, 1765 (Eddy Gen. gives 1766). She was bapt. June 15, 1766; m. . . . Sylvester (probably Seth Sylvester).
+1198 Nathaniel Eddy, b. July 6, 1767 (Eddy Gen. gives 1768).
+1199 Nathan Eddy, b. Apr. 21, 1770 (Eddy Gen. gives 1771).
+1200 Isaac Eddy, b. June 24, 1774.
+1201 Zachariah Eddy, b. Nov. 18, 1778.

520 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 12, 1742, in Middleboro, Mass.; d. Nov. 29, 1821 in Wayne Co., N. Y., Bureau of Pensions; m. Mar. 10, 1763, Anna Morton. (Early Mass. Mar., Vol. II.)

Upon the death of his father, Noah Thomas was appointed guardian and later in 1760 he chose his uncle Zachariah as his guardian, because Noah Thomas had died.

He was a soldier in the latter part of the French and Indian War. His name appears on a Pay Roll dated Boston, April 14, 1762, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jabez Snow.

Quality, Private. Residence, Middleborough (Probably). Entered service, April 23 . . . year not given. Served until Dec. 10—year not given. Endorsed, 1761. Length of service, 33 weeks, 1 day. Remarks: Reported in column of Fathers or Masters. "Lydia Eddy." (Mass. Archives; Muster Rolls, Vol. XCIX, page 131.)

When the Revolutionary War broke out he joined a company of Minute Men. In the records of service, he is frequently called Samuel Eddy, Sr. to distinguish him from his cousin Samuel Eddy; son of Zachariah Eddy, who was a youth some eighteen years younger than he. He became a Sergeant. From these facts it seems likely that all the following references of service belong to this elder Samuel of Middleboro.

Samuel Eddy (also given Sr.), Middleborough. Corporal, Capt. Abiel Pearce's (2d Middleborough) co. of Minute-men, which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, to Marshfield; service, 2 days; also, return of men raised to serve in the Continental Army from Capt. Nathaniel Wood's co., Col. Sprout's (4th Plymouth Co.) regt.; sworn to at Middleborough, Feb. 19, 1778; residence Middleborough; engaged for town of Middleborough; joined Capt. Eddy's co., Col. Bradford's regt.; term, during war (also given 3 years); also, list of men mustered between April 9 and April 24, 1777, by James Hatch, Muster Master for Plymouth Co.; age, 34 yrs.; enlisted by Capt. Eddy; also, Sergeant Major Capt. Eddy's (7th) co., Col. Bradford's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from Feb. 10, 1777, to Dec. 31, 1779; also, detachment from Capt. Joshua Eddy's co., Col. Bradford's (12th) regt.; pay abstract for rations from date of enlistment, Feb. 1, 1777, to May 25, 1777, dated Boston; said Eddy credited with 84 days' allowance; also, Sergeant, same co. and regt.; muster return endorsed Jan. 28, 1778; mustered by Elisha Padock, County Muster Master; also, Sergeant, same co. and regt.; muster roll for July, 1778, dated White Plains; also, Sergeant Major, Capt. Zebedee Redding's co., Col. Bradford's regt.; payroll for Dec., 1778; also, 7th co., Col. Bradford's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from Jan. 1, 1780, to Feb. 10, 1780.

In 1780 he purchased of Joseph Tucker of Milton, land in Colerain, Mass. and soon moved there with his family.

(Franklin Co. Deeds, 2.704) Joseph Tucker of Milton . . . sold to Samuel Eddy of Middleboro, yeoman, land in Colerain . . . being lot No. 39 in the 3rd Division—containing 100 acres. Dated Aug. 25, 1780. At the time of the 1790 Census he was a resident of Colerain, with a family consisting of three males over 16, two under 16, and five females.

(Franklin Co. Deeds, 8.662) Samuel Eddy of Colerain, yeoman, sold 63 acres of lot 39, . . .

etc., and his wife, Anne, signed off her dower rights. David Eddy witnessed the deed together with Moses Donelson. Dated Aug. 17, 1793, but acknowledged in Kingsbury, N. Y. in July, 1795.

(Franklin Co. Deeds, 9.60) Samuel Eddy sold more land in Lot No. 39.

(Franklin Deeds, 14.350) Samuel Eddy of Colerain sold 39 acres in the west part of lot No. 39 . . . His wife Anne signed this deed and David Eddy together with David Morton witnessed it. Dated Apr. 21, 1794.

In the spring of 1794 Samuel took up residence in Hartford, Washington Co., N. Y. for his next sale of land in Colerain (Franklin Deeds 14.459 and 14.303) gives "Samuel Eddy of Hartford, yeoman, lot No. 19 to . . ." etc. These deeds were witnessed by Ephraim Eddy, Joseph Purinton and Leonard White. A part of the Patterson family had already preceded the Eddy family in settling in Washington Co. They were located in Westfield and Kingsbury (Franklin Co. Deeds, 22.439).

From certain other deeds it would seem that Samuel returned to Colerain for a time, but it is possible that these refer to his son Samuel Eddy, who remained there. Some time probably between 1800 and 1810 Samuel went farther west to what is now Wayne County and settled in the section near Williamson and Marion.

(NOTE. A descendant, Alfred D. Eddy, has a letter, which was written by Samuel to Capt. Joshua Eddy, a cousin in Middleboro. In it he states "I would like to meet you again and talk over the trials and perils we passed through at the battle of Saratoga and of Valley Forge."

Letters of administration on his estate were issued to his son William on Feb. 11, 1822.

Children, b. in Middleboro, Mass. (order of birth not known):

viii OLIVE STANDISH, m. ABNER WASHBURN, Mar. 1, 1781 (Plympton V.R.).

(NOTE. Mrs. Annie Olive (Stevens) Jones has furnished the following descent from Olive Standish.

Olive Standish, b. in March 1763; mar. Abner Washburn, b. Oct. 12, 1757, son of Jonah and Huldah (Sears) Washburn. Soon after his marriage Abner accompanied his father to Randolph, Vt. In 1786 the rest of the Washburn family joined them and they settled on a large tract of land (See Heminway's Vt. Gazeteer). Abner and Olive had six children. Among them was Abner Standish Washburn, b. Aug. 12, 1802, who studied medicine and went south, where he married July 25, 1833 at Augusta, Ga., Margaret Camilla Micon. Their daughter, Olive Augusta Washburn, mar. Capt. James Holmes Stevens and Annie Olive Stevens, their daughter was b. July 19, 1871 and mar. Jan. 6, 1897, Claude L. Jones. To them on Nov. 9, 1913 was born a daughter, Olive Standish Jones. (The Standish Gen. gives. the mar. of Olive to Abner Curtis instead of Abner Washburn. This is probably a clerical error as the Plympton V.R. gives marriage to Abner Washburn and no record of a marriage of Abner Curtis to an Olive Standish can be found on file.)

ix MARY (or Polly) STANDISH, m. . . . HAMMETT.

526 Mercy Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 2, 1746; d. Aug. 19, 1828; m. Feb. 26, 1778, Elisha Freeman of Middleboro, b. Apr. 15, 1745.

Children (Eddy Gen. 1881):

+1211 JOSIAH FREEMAN, b. June 11, 1780.
1212 HANNAH FREEMAN, b. 1783; d. Sept. 22, 1842. Unmar.
1213 MORTON FREEMAN.
1214 JOHN FREEMAN, b. 1787.

NOTE.—A descendant states that John should not belong in this list and if there was a Morton he died young.

527 Joshua Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 23, 1748; d. May 1, 1833, in Middleboro, Mass.; m. Apr. 10, 1778, Lydia Paddock, b. July 22, 1756; d. Feb. 13, 1838.

Joshua Eddy was a man of spirit and great decision of character, and of a firm and discerning mind in things pertaining to religion. He was very punctual in the observance of every religious duty and required of others great strictness in the observance of the Sabbath. He always attended public worship and had regular family worship. He was a member of the Congregational Church at Middleboro. It was the custom for the congregation to spend its "noonings" at the Old Sproat Tavern not far distant and pass the time between sermons in interesting and instructive conversation, especially on the sermon of the morning. Joshua was one of the leaders in these discussions. He always was able to treat it from a theological, argumentative and scriptural point of view. His views were treated with as much consideration as those of the pastor.

He was a man of large frame, robust and vigorous. His interests were many. He was a large landholder and could turn his hand to any of the many operations required in making a success of a farm. As time went on, he added to his agricultural pursuits several others. After the Revolutionary War he built up a very prosperous business known as Eddy's Furnace. It was located on Whetstone's Brook. It made use of the bog iron ore deposits found in the near neighborhood, and when they failed it imported from New Jersey. This ore was made into pots, kettles and all sorts of hollow ware. At its most flourishing period over twenty-five men were employed at the "Furnace". He owned and operated a saw-mill on Rocky Meadow Brook. Soon after the Revolution he built a vessel at Woodward's Bridge. Various other pursuits occupied his attention during his long life.

When the Revolutionary War broke out, he was among the first to respond to the call. He began as a private, became an Ensign, Lieutenant and in 1777 he was made Captain. He was in the disastrous retreat from Ticonderoga, the battle of Saratoga and at Monmouth. His service as given on the Revolutionary Rolls was as follows:

Joshua Eaddy, Middleborough. Private, Capt. Joshua Benson's co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 3, 1775; service, 3 mos. 6 days.

Joshua Eady, Middleborough. Private, Capt. Joshua Benson's co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt.; company return dated Oct. 7, 1775.

Joshua Eddy, Middleborough. Private, Capt. William Shaw's (1st Middleborough) co. of Minute-men, which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, to Marshfield; service, 3 days; also, Lieut. William Tomson's (probably Capt. Joshua Benson's) co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt.; order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Roxbury, Nov. 14, 1775; [name crossed out on roll].

Joshua Eddy, Middleborough. 1st Lieutenant, Capt. Thomas Turner's co.; list of officers of Col. Marshall's regt. raised for the defence of Boston, endorsed "May 8" [year not given]; also, 1st Lieutenant, Capt. Thomas Turner's co., Col. Thomas Marshall's regt.; pay abstract for mileage, etc., sworn to at Boston, June 22, 1776; also, 1st Lieutenant, Capt. Turner's co.; Col. Marshall's regt.; list of officers; commissioned July 5, 1776; also, 1st Lieutenant, same co. and regt.; engaged May 14, 1776; service to Dec. 1, 1776, 6 mos. 20 days; also, Captain, Col. Bradford's regt.; list of officers of Continental Army; commissioned Jan. 31, 1777; also, Captain, Col. Gamaliel Bradford's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from Jan. 1, 1777, to Oct. 15, 1778; reported deranged Oct. 15, 1778; also, Captain; list of officers endorsed "Jan. 31, 1777"; commissioned Feb. 20 [year illegible]; also, 6th co., Col. Bradford's (12th) regt.; muster roll for July, 1778, dated White Plains; appointed Nov. 6, 1776.

This tribute was paid to him at the time of his death. "No man was more beloved by his children, grandchildren and neighbors. He was truly a patriarch of the village in which he resided, to whom all repaired for counsel and succor in time of need. Happy are the children who are blessed with such a father."

531 Thomas Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 28, 1756, in Middleboro, Mass.; d. Sept. 21, 1842, in Waterbury, Vt.; m. May 25, 1784, at Sutton, Mass. (V.R.), Elizabeth Putnam, who d. Dec. 15, 1844, at Waterbury, Vt., aged 80 years. (Note. One record states that she was b. July 30, 1764 at Sutton.) Both are buried in the Village Cemetery at Waterbury.

Thomas Eddy served in the Revolutionary War from Middleboro. His service follows:

Thomas Eddy, Middleborough. List of men raised to serve in the Continental Army from Capt. Nathaniel Wood's co., Col. Sprout's (4th Plymouth Co.) regt.; sworn to at Middleborough, Feb. 19, 1778; residence, Middleborough; engaged for town of Middleborough; joined Capt. Eddy's co., Col. It it not known just how early he went to Vermont. He is probably the Thomas Eddy who purchased lot No. 60 in Randolph, Vt. This consisted of 200 acres. In 1790 he was in Woodstock, Vt., where his family comprised one male over 16, two under 16, and two females. In 1800 he was in Charlotte, Vt. At this time beside his wife and himself, there were two boys between the ages of ten and 16 and two girls under ten.

Children (incomplete list):
1234 Thomas Eddy, b. June 17, 1785.
+1235 William Eddy, b. May 17, 1787.
1236 Elizabeth Eddy.

532 Lucy Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 25, 1758, at Middleboro, Mass.; d. Sept. 17, 1839, aged 82 years (Fuller Gen.); m. Aug. 31, 1784, Dr. Jonathan Fuller of Middleboro, b. Oct. 3, 1748, at Medfield; d. Mar. 13, 1802, at Middleboro; son of Jabez Fuller (Fuller Gen., Vol. II).

Children (order of birth not known):
i Zachariah Eddy Fuller.
ii Thomas Fuller.
iii Jabez Fuller.
iv Seth Fuller.
v Betsey Fuller.

533 Samuel Eddy (Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 29, 1760, in Middleboro, Mass.; d. Sept. 25, 1813, in the War of 1812. He m. Nov. 25, 1784 (Early Mass. Mar., p. 106), Sally Paddock; dau. of Thomas and Hannah (Thomas) Paddock. She was a cousin of Lydia Paddock, the wife of Samuel's brother Capt. Joshua Eddy and was living in Victor, N. Y. in 1838.

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His service follows. He is called Samuel Eddy Jr. to distinguish him from his older cousin, Samuel Eddy, son of Nathan and Eunice (Sampson) Eddy, who also lived in Middleboro at this time and fought at times in the same company with him.

Samuel Eddy, Jr., Middleborough. List of men raised to serve in the Continental Army from Capt. Joseph Keith's co., Col. Mitchel's (3d Plymouth Co.) regt.; dated Bridgewater, Feb. 21, 1778; residence, Middleborough; engaged for town of Bridgewater (also given Middleborough). joined Capt. Eddy's co., Col. Bradford's regt.; term, 3 years; also, list of men mustered between June 10, 1777, and July 9, 1777, by James Hatch, Muster Master for Plymouth Co., age, 17 yrs.; enlisted by Capt. Bradford's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from Jan. 1, 1780, to Feb. 10, 1780.

Samuel Edy, Jr. Private, Lieut. Jonah Washburn's co., Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regt.; service 5 days, at Rhode Island; company marched from Middleborough on the alarm of Dec. 8, 1776.

Samuel Eddy. Private, Capt. Jonah Washburn's co., Col. Ebenezer White's regt., marched Aug. 1, 1780; discharged Aug. 9, 1780; service, 9 days; company marched to Rhode Island on an alarm. Roll sworn to at Middleborough.

He was a soldier in 1812, probably serving from New York State. Between the years 1772 and 1787 about fifty families left Middleboro for Vermont. Among these was Thomas Eddy, brother of Samuel, but Samuel did not go until after 1790, for at the time of the Census he was still a resident of Middleboro, with a family of one male over 16, three under 16, and two females. It is probable that he joined his brother in Woodstock, Vt. but that he remained there only a short time, before going on into New York. He settled somewhere near Auburn and died there before 1815, probably about 1813. The exact dates have not yet been found.

The following list was obtained from two entirely separate lists, one in the hands of a descendant in the handwriting of a granddaughter. The other was obtained from an old paper in a wholly different branch of the Eddy family which had received it evidently in answer to a query as to the branch to which the writer belonged. This writer was a descendant of the son Sylvanus. These two records agree absolutely and so serve as proof of this list of children whose birth records are probably lost.

Children:

1237 Samuel Eddy.
+1238 Sylvanus Eddy.
1239 Thomas Eddy.
1240 John Eddy.
1241 Zachariah Eddy.
+1242 Martin Eddy, b. Sept. 4, 1804 (Martin's Bible owned by Mrs. Connell.)
+1243 Polly Eddy, b. Nov. 4, 1800.

537 John Eddy (Jabez, Jabez, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 26, 1733, in Middleboro; d. 1803; m. (1) Dec. 6, 1757, Ruth Hayford; m. (2) before 1792, Joanna Haskins, a widow, who d. Nov. 6, 1839, aged 100 years and 1 mo.

He was a soldier during the time of the French and Indian War. His service as given in the Massachusetts Archives, on the Muster Rolls, follows:

John Eddy appears on a Pay Roll dated Boston, April 10, 1762 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Ephraim Holmes. Quality, private. Residence, Middleborough (probably). Entered service, May 31—year not given; endorsed, 1761. Served until Oct. 31; year not given; endorsed, 1761. Length of service, 22 weeks. (Vol. XCIX, p. 124 and again on p. 164, except that the endorsement is 1762.)

John Eddy appears on a Pay Roll dated Boston, Apr. 22, 1763, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Ephraim Holmes. Quality, Private. Residence, Middleboro. Entered service, Mar. 24, 1762. Served until Mar. 12, 1763. Length of service, 50 weeks, 4 days (Vol. XCIX, 260).

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War with the following service:

John Edey, Middleborough. Private, Capt. Amos Wade's co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 4, 1775; service, 3 mos. 5 days; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Roxbury, Nov. 27, 1775.

John Eddy, Middleborough. Private, Capt. Amos Wade's co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt.; company return dated Oct. 7, 1775; also, Capt. William Tupper's co., Col. Titcomb's regt.; service 65 days, in April, May and June, 1777, at Rhode Island; also, Capt. Joshua White's co., Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regt.; enlisted May 6, 1778; discharged May 9, 1778; service, 3 days on an alarm at Dartmouth; roll sworn to at Middleborough; also, Capt. Joshua Eddy's co., Col. Gamaliel Bradford's (12th) regt.; muster roll for July, 1778, dated White Plains; enlisted March 1, 1778; enlistment, 8 months.

John Eddy left Middleboro about 1780 or a little later and settled in New Salem, Mass. At the time of the 1790 Census, he was there with a household consisting of one male and one female. It is likely that none of his family went with him, and that the wife mentioned in the Census was Joanna.

The following abstracts from deeds are of interest.

(Franklin Co. 5.363) William Haskins of New Salem, yeoman, sold "to my daughter-in-law, Joanna Eddy of New Salem, on June 11, 1792 . . . 50 acres."

(20.371) William Haskins, Jr. "to my honored mother, Joanna Eddy" of New Salem, . . . dated May 20, 1794.

(23.257) Joanna Eddy of New Salem, widow, sold to William Haskins of Shutesbury . . . 50 acres on June 25, 1806.

On Jan. 2, 1839 Joanna became incapable of carrying on her affairs and William Whittaker was made her guardian. She was a Revolution pensioner.

Children (order of birth not known):

+1244 Moses Eddy, b. Nov. 17, 1762.
+1245 Jacob Eddy.
+1246 Solomon Eddy.
1247 Priscilla Eddy; m. Int. Dec. 2, 1796, at Deerfield, Mass. (V.R.), William Arnold of Hadley, Mass.
1248 Lydia Eddy; d. 1840; m. Samuel Moulton.

539 Jabez Eddy (Jabez, Jabez, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 5, 1744; d. probably before 1790, as he is not listed in the Census; m. Jan. 21, 1768, Mehitable Barrows of Middleboro (V.R.). Nothing more is known about him except that he served in the Revolutionary War from western Mass. His service follows:

Jabez Eddy, Springfield (also given South Hadley). Corporal, Capt. Isaac Colton's co., Col. David Brewer's (9th) regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775, enlisted May 15, 1775; service, 2 mos., 21 days; also, company return dated Roxbury, Oct. 7, 1775; also, Capt. Colton's co., Col. Rufus Putnam's (late D. Brewer's) 9th regt.; order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Roxbury, Nov. 15, 1775; also, Corporal, Capt. William Hudson Ballard's co., Col. Asa Whitcomb's regt.; muster roll dated Camp at Ticonderoga, Nov. 27, 1776; enlisted Jan. 1, 1776; reported died July 9, 1776.

Jabez Eddy. Capt. Thomas Wait Foster's train of artillery; list of men belonging to Hadley, Amherst, and Belchertown, in Col. Ruggles Woodbridge's regt., dated Cambridge, April 25, 1775.

Jabez Eddy. List of men belonging to Col. Marshall's regiment and other regiments not identified, appearing on a wage account for the years 1778–1782.

541 Jonathan Eddy (Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 12, 1744, in Halifax, Mass.; d. between May 8, 1794, when he and wife Mercy sold land (Springfield Deeds, 46.747) and Oct. 7, 1794, when "Calvin Moulton, a guardian of Jonas and Joel, children of Jonathan, late of Monson" sold land for them. He m. Jan. 17, 1770, at Brooklyn, Conn. (V.R.), Mercy Cady (also called Marcy and Mary). She was b. about 1750 and d. at Bethel Vt., aged 87 years in 1837.

Jonathan was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He enlisted in the 7th Co. of the 3rd Reg't at Woodstock, Conn. on May 10, 1775, and was discharged, Dec. 15, 1775 (Conn. Rev. Rec.).

After living a while in Woodstock, Conn., Jonathan purchased land in Monson (Springfield Deeds, 31.139) and took up his residence there. This was close to the Brimfield line. He lived there until his death. Othniel Eddy settled his estate. Calvin Moulton became guardian of Jonas aged 19 and Joel aged 16 in 1794. In 1796 David Williams was a guardian of Resolved Eddy, non-compos, and Asher Knight was guardian of Lucy, Clarissa, Rachel and Thankful Eddy, heirs of Jonathan Eddy, late of Monson. In another record the name of Asahel appears in place of Rachel. This is probably a clerical error. (Springfield Rec., 40.259; and Northampton Rec., 19.65 and 19.227). There are several other deeds of interest. There is mention of an Olive Eddy to whom money is owing. Levy Eddy, Barnabas Eddy and Othniel Eddy are witnesses of other deeds.

Children (Woodstock, Conn. Rec.):

1249 Resolved Eddy. Died unmar. Non-compos.
+1250 Othniel Eddy, b. May 8, 1773.
+1251 Jonas Eddy, b. about 1775. (He was 19 in 1794.)
+1252 Joel Eddy, b. Dec. 21, 1777.
1253 Lucy Eddy, b. Jan. 20, 1782. She had Asher Knight for guardian in 1796.
+1254 Clarissa Eddy, b. May 1, 1784. She had Asher Knight for guardian.
1255 Rachel Eddy, b. probably 1786 or 1787.
+1256 Thankful Eddy, b. June 20, 1791.
. . . Eddy, b. Dec. 8, 177– at Woodstock.
. . . Eddy, b. May 22, 177– at Woodstock.

(These may be Resolved and Jonas Eddy or they may be others who d. young. Caleb Eddy in 1840 states there was another son, Jonathan, who d. in Potsdam, N. Y., about 1835, who m. . . . Jones.)

542 Levi Eddy (Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. June 19, 1748, at Ashford, Conn. (V.R.). The Pension papers give the date as June 12, 1749. He died Sept. 12 or 17, 1837, at Lebanon, N. Y. (Pension papers). He m. at Woodstock, Conn., Rhoda Hyde, b. Sept. 13, 1751 or 1752 at Woodstock; d. Sept. 3, 1844. (Pension papers.)

Levi Eddy marched from Woodstock on the Lexington Alarm to Cambridge and enlisted May 1, 1775. He served in Capt. Ephraim Manning's Co. and was discharged Dec. 15, 1775. He enlisted in 1777 and served as sergeant in Capt. Jonathan Morris' Conn. Co. and later enlisted for three years under Capt. David Force of the Conn. troops. He lived in Woodstock, Conn., Sturbridge, Mass. and Burlington, Otsego Co., N. Y. During the last twenty years of his life he was a resident of Lebanon, Madison Co., N. Y. He received a pension and after his death his widow Rhoda was allowed a pension. In 1790 he was a resident of Woodstock, Conn., with a household consisting of one male over 16, two under 16 and three females. His name appears in the settlement of the estate of Jonathan Edy of Monson, when it was administered upon by Othniel Eddy in May 1796 (Northampton Records, 19.234). In 1791 he was living in Monson and in 1794 in South Brimfield (Springfield Deeds, 31.502 and 33.44). In 1794 his wife Rhoda joined with him in signing a deed, which was witnessed by Submit Belding Eddy (Springfield Deeds, 33.44).

Children (Pension papers):

1263 Dau. b. Oct. 31, 1795; d. Nov. 11, 1795.
1264 Rhoda Eddy, b. July 18, 1799.

543 Othniel Eddy (Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. May 30, 1751, in Ashford, Conn. Nothing more is known about him. He is not mentioned in his father's will, so probably he had died before 1776. There is however a possibility that he had already received his share and so was not mentioned. It is also possible that it was his widow who was in Randolph, Vt., with children as follows:

1265 Jane Edey, b. June 11, 1780, in Randolph, Vt.
1266 Moses Edey, b. Sept. 18, 1781, in Newbury, Vt.
1267 Samuel Edey, b. May 18, 1786, in Randolph.

544 Benjamin Eddy (Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William) b. June 20, 1754, at Woodstock, Conn. (V.R.); d. Mar. 1, 1813, at Rockingham, Vt.; m. Mar. 30, 1785, at Woodstock, Conn. (V.R.), Alice Abbott of Woodstock, b. about 1762; d. Nov. 14, 1826, aged 64 years.

At the time of the 1790 Census he was a resident of Woodstock, Conn., with a household consisting of two males over 16, two under 16, and four females. On Apr. 26, 1827, his estate was divided. Each son received a seventh and four daughters received a fourteenth each.

Children (order of birth not known):

+1268 Justin Eddy, b. Dec. 19, 1787, at Woodstock, Conn.
1269 John Eddy, b. Dec. 1789, at Woodstock; d. Apr. 22, 1862, at Rockingham, Vt., aged 73 years. He is buried in the cemetery near the beautiful Rockingham Church. In 1850 he was living with Uriel Hazelton, aged 62 years and Amy Hazelton, aged 62 years. He was 60 years old. Probably he did not marry.
+1270 Amy Eddy, b. about 1788.
1271 Chester Eddy, b. about 1792; d. Nov. 17, 1827, in Rockingham. Unmar. His will mentions a brother Charles, a sister Polly and a sister Hannah and a nephew Lewis S. Eddy.
+1272 Rensalier Eddy, b. about 1795.
1273 Anna Eddy, b. Apr. 3, in Woodstock, Conn. This is probably the Hannah mentioned below. If not, she died before her father and unmar.
1274 Polly Eddy, b. about 1798, in Walpole, N. H.; d. Oct. 23, 1867, in Rockingham, Vt. Unmar. Charles B. Eddy administered on her estate. (Bellows Falls Rec.)
+1275 Olive Eddy, m. Richard Hazelton, Jr., son of Richard Hazelton (father's will).
+1276 Hannah Eddy.
+1277 Charles Eddy, b. about 1802, in Rockingham, Vt.
1278 Levi Eddy, b. Dec. 2, 1805, at Rockingham; d. Oct. 19, 1807.

549 Submit Eddy (Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William). He or she is not mentioned in the father's will. There is a Submit Belding Eddy who witnessed a deed given by Levi and wife Rhoda Eddy of South Brimfield, Mass. on Mar. 21, 1794, which may be this one. No other record of Submit Eddy has been found.

553 Caleb Eddy (Caleb, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. 1754 (Family Rec. of Mrs. Arrasmith); d. Apr. 21, 1818; m. (1) 1779, Esther . . ., b. 1756; d. Oct. 15, 1786, aged 30 yrs. (Morristown, N. J., Book of Mortality, 1806). He m. (2) Mrs. Nancy (McElraf) Jones in 1788.

Caleb and his wife Esther received the Covenant and were baptized at the Morristown First Presbyterian Church on June 23, 1782. He was drafted to serve in the Revolutionary War. The record has been handed down in the family that Caleb's father had already gone to the war, leaving him to care for the farm and rest of the family. He received his "draft" summons on Monday at noon, with orders to appear at the Registration Office the next Thursday at noon. His mother knowing the need of good warm clothes and knowing that soldiers had to furnish their own, went directly to work. She called in their little flock of sheep, caught the only black one in it, sheared it, carded the wool into rolls, spun the rolls into yarn and wove the yarn into cloth, and made a suit from the cloth in time for the son to appear at the Registration Office at noon on Thursday. Probably her young daughters gave her a little help, if not much in the actual work, yet they probably relieved her from all other care, so that every moment was spent on the suit of clothes. She was a typical mother of a soldier in the Revolution, loyal, patriotic and energetic. Caleb later went west stopping perhaps for a while in Penn. and finally settled near Euclid, Cuyahoga Co., Ohio.

Children (Bible Records in possession of Mrs. Arrasmith):

+1279 TIMOTHY EDDY, b. Mar. 4, 1781; bapt. June 23, 1782.
+1280 DAVID EDDY, b. Feb. 7, 1783; bapt. May 11, 1783.
1281 ELIZABETH EDDY, b. Dec. 9, 1784; m. . . . EMMONS. They had a daughter, Fanny Emmons, who mar. . . . Cole.

Children, by second wife:

1282 ESTHER EDDY, b. Aug. 9, 1789.
+1283 CALEB EDDY, b. Sept. 25, 1791.
1284 SARAH EDDY, b. Sept. 4, 1793.
1285 PHEBE EDDY, b. Dec. 12, 1797.
+1286 SAMUEL EDDY, b. Nov. 24, 1799.
1287 ISABEL EDDY, b. Sept. 2, 1804.

554 Benjamin Eddy (Caleb, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. June 20, 1754; probably unmar. He d. in 1818 leaving a will (Trenton, N. J., Files, 1718. Vol. III). He was of Mendham, Morris Co. He mentioned his sister Lucy of Trenton and niece Elizabeth, eldest daughter of his brother Caleb; also Timothy and David, sons of his brother Caleb. (See also Wills, B. p. 242. Morristown).

557 Azor Eddy (Obadiah, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 25, 1759, at Bridgewater, Mass. (V.R.); d. Feb. 1, 1832, aged 74 years, at Bridgewater; m. Dec. 14, 1786, Hannah Fuller, who d. July 29, 1826, at Bridgewater.

At the time of the 1790 Census, Azor Eddy was a resident of Bridgewater with a household consisting of one male over 16, and two females. The descendants of Azor have been obtained from public records as far as was possible. No descendant has been found to help to identify the families. There may be some mistakes made in the grouping of children.

Children (Bridgewater V.R.):

Child, d. Mar. 29, 1788.
Child, d. May 5, 1789.
Child, d. Dec. 24, 1790.

567 William Robinson Eddy (Benjamin, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 8, 1760 (Cunnabel Gen.), but 1761 in Ashford, Conn. V.R.; d. Dec. 21, 1841; m. (1) Nov. 4, 1790, at Guilford, Vt., Zama Severance (V.R.). He m. (2) Aug. 26, 1792, Martha Hall of Guilford (V.R.). He m. (3) Int. Oct. 13, 1804, Philena Cunnabel, b. Jan. 29, 1781, at Bernardston, Mass. She is mentioned in the will of her father John Cunnabel.

William was a soldier in the Revolutionary War serving from Hadley and Shutesbury and Sunderland. From the description of his appearance at the time of enlistment, it is learned that he was five feet tall and was of a light complexion, and only 16 years of age when he first enlisted. At the time of receiving his pension he was a resident of Concord, Lake Co., Ohio. His service follows:

William Eddy, Hadley. List of men raised to serve in the Continental Army from Capt. Smith's (also given Capt. Samuel Cook's) co., 4th Hampshire Co. regt.; dated South Hadley, May 28, 1777; residence, Hadley; engaged for town of Hadley; joined Capt. Benson's co., Col. Putnam's regt.; term, 3 years; also, Private, Capt. Joshua Benson's co., Col. Rufus Putnam's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from April 2, 1777, to July 4, 1777; reported discharged July 4, 1777; also, same co. and regt.; muster return dated Albany, Feb. —, 1778; mustered by Col. Woodbridge.

William Edy, Sunderland. Descriptive list dated Warwick, Aug. 4, 1780, of men detached from 6th Hampshire Co. regt. to serve for the term of 3 months from the time of their arrival at Claverack, agreeable to order of Court of June 22, 1780; Capt. Seth Pierce's co., Col. Seth Murray's regt.; age, 19 yrs.; stature, 5 ft.; complexion, light; residence, Sunderland; rank, Private; mustered July 17, 1780; also, Private, Capt. Seth Pierce's co., Col. Seth Murray's (Hampshire Co.) regt.; enlisted July 15, 1780; discharged Oct. 10, 1780; service, 3 mos. 6 days travel included; company raised to reinforce Continental Army for 3 months; roll dated Leverett.

In 1790 at the time of the Census he was a resident of Guilford, Vt. and the head of a household consisting of two males over 16, and two females. It is possible that his father and mother lived with him. He was a farmer.

Child, by first wife:

1298 Lena Eddy, b. July 12, 1822; m. May 5, 1845, Levi Hart. They lived in Painesville, Ohio (Cunnabel Gen.).
Possibly also Zama S. Eddy, who m. May 4, 1818, Solomon Stimson, at Vernon, Vt.

568 Benjamin Eddy (Benjamin, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William). He lived first in Hadley, but by 1790 he was in Guilford, Vt., where he was chosen hayward. His household consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and one female. In 1800 a male over 45 years and a female over 45 years made up his family. Nothing more is known about him.

569 Joel Eddy (Benjamin, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. about 1760; d. Nov. 28, 1856, in Guilford, Vt. (gravestone), aged 96 years. He m. (1) Feb. 25, 1791, Easter Hall; m. (2) Feb. 19, 1797, Olive Lynde of Guilford, Vt. (V.R.), who d. June 9, 1820; m. (3) Jan. 21, 1822, Sarah Cole; m. (4) Olive Washburn. His monument in the cemetery has the names of the four wives, but no dates of birth or death are given.

In 1790 he was in Guilford, Vt., with a household consisting of one male over 16 and one female. In 1800 he had two boys and one girl under ten years and one female between the ages of 16 and 25 years. He owned land in Guilford, Vt. and Leyden and Bernardston, Mass. (Franklin Co. Deeds).

Child, by first wife, b. in Guilford, Vt.:

1299 RODOLPHUS EDDY, b. Mar. 21, 1792. He served in the War of 1812 and received land in the West. He took up his claim. Nothing more is known of him.

Children, by second wife:

+1300 CHESTER EDDY, b. Feb. 8, 1798.
+1301 RUTH EDDY, b. Sept. 22, 1799.
+1302 WILLARD EDDY, b. Aug. 10, 1802; m. July 24, 1829, MAHALA ANDREWS. He went West.

Children, by third wife:

+1308 OLIVE EDDY, b. 1822.
+1309 BENJAMIN EDDY, b. Jan. 1826.

No children by fourth wife.

574 Barnabas Eddy (Barnabas, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. probably about 1756. He lived in Hadley at one time. He is probably the one who lived in Granby on Apr. 19, 1790 and who had a wife Mindwell (also called Mindal) who signed a deed with him (Northampton, Records). There is a Barnabas Eddy, Jr. who witnessed the deed, so it is possible that Mindwell was a second wife of the Barnabas of the previous generation. At the time of the 1790 Census a Barnabas Eddy was a resident of South Hadley with a household of two males over 16, one under 16, and two females. This is probably the younger Barnabas. On May 8, 1794, Barnabas Eddy witnessed a deed given by Jonathan Eddy (Springfield Deeds 46.747) and money was due to him from Jonathan's estate. This might have been the elder Barnabas also.

SEVENTH GENERATION

579 Elisha Story (Elizabeth Marion, Joseph Marion, John Marion, Sarah Eddy, John, William), b. Sept. 9, 1745; d. Aug. 27, 1805, at Marblehead: m. May 14, 1767, Ruth Ruddock, b. Mar. 5, 1745/46; d. Mar. 21, 1778; dau. of Major John and Tabitha (Drinkwater) Ruddock of Boston. He m. (2) Nov. 29, 1778, Mehitable Pedrick.

Dr. Elisha Story was an eminent physician and surgeon of Boston and later of Marblehead. He was a member of the famous "Boston Tea-Party," which boarded the vessels that were laden with tea and lying at anchor in Boston harbor. This party of men threw about three hundred forty-two chests of tea overboard. He was also one of the "Sons of Liberty," who captured the two brass field-pieces, which had been placed on Boston Common by order of the British commander-in-chief. He fought at Concord and Lexington, pursuing the British at every step of their retreat to Charlestown and he was in the trenches as volunteer at the battle of Bunker Hill, fighting beside his friend, Warren, until he was forced to assume the duties of a surgeon in caring for the wounded. He is buried in Marblehead. The inscription on the gravestone bears a wonderful tribute to his skill.

596 William Eddy (Josiah, John, Samuel, Samuel, John, William), m. Marcia Rosebrooks, at Sturbridge, Mass., on Dec. 29, 1824 (V.R.). He lived in Holland, and Webster, Mass.

The Hampshire Co. deeds at Springfield contain several records referring to transactions of William and wife, Marcia Eddy. These are often in company with Prudence Rosebrooks, widow. Probably she was mother of Marçia. They owned land on the line between Holland and Sturbridge. (92.540; 103.422; 92.539. Deeds at Springfield.) There are also several transactions on file in Worcester Co.

> Zachariah Eddy. Private, Capt. Blackmar's co., Col. Lippitt's reg't, Sept. 1, 1776 to Jan. 17, 1777; muster roll of Capt. James Burrill's co. of militia in the U. S. service, commanded by Col. Jabez Bowen, Apr. 2, 1778 to Apr. 16, 1778; dated Prov. Apr. 14, 1778.

Children, by first wife:

+1549 Stephen Eddy.
1550 Daniel B. Eddy. (Note. A Daniel Eddy, who d. Aug. 25, 1850, aged 78 years, is buried in East Putnam Cemetery. The marriage intentions of Daniel B. Eddy and Polly Gould were published in Douglas on Apr. 5, 1824. Perhaps these are records of this Daniel Eddy and of a son, Daniel.)
1551 Lois Eddy, m. John Baker, Jr. (Will of father). Int. pub. Aug. 19, 1800 at Douglas, Mass. (V. R.).

710 Lippitt Eddy (Enoch, Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel William), b. Feb. 17, 1755 (Papers at R. I. Statehouse in Rev. Rolls); d. Apr. 10, 1838; m. Esther Curtis, b. 1758; d. Mar. 4, 1837, aged 79 years.

His name does not appear on the 1774 Census, taken in R. I., but in 1777 he was a resident of Glocester between the ages of 16 and 50, and in 1790 his household consisted of one male over 16, two under 16, and three females. His service as a soldier in the Revolution for which he received a pension, follows:

> Lippitt Eddy. Private, Capt. Abraham Tourtelott's co., Col. Crary's reg't.; pay roll, May 16, 1778 to Mar. 16, 1779; served also in militia co.'s of Capt. David Burlingame, Capt. John Eddy, Capt. Stephen Winsor, Capt. Abram Winsor, and Capt. Timothy Wilmarth; b. Gloucester, Feb. 17, 1755.

He lived in the northern part of Burrillville not far from Wallum Pond. (See R. I. Historical Society Collections for April 1922.)

On Jan. 15, 1812, Lippitt and wife Esther sold a piece of land to Charles Eddy (Burrillville Deeds). His will, dated Dec. 25, 1837, mentions oldest daughter Zerviah Harris; son Charles; son Duty and daughter Abigail Brown (Burrillville Probate, Book 2, p. 398).

Children, b. in Glocester:

1552 Willard Eddy, b. 1779; d. Aug. 19, 1836, aged 57–4–10. Unmar.
1553 Zerviah Eddy, b. 1783; d. Oct. 14, 1847, aged 64–5–4; m. Nov. 22, 1812, at Burrillville Daniel Harris. She left a will, dated Apr. 7, 1843 (Burrillville Rec., Bk. 3, p. 244).
1554 Roby Eddy, b. 1787; d. July 10, 1834, aged 47–0–9.
1555 Duty S. Eddy, b. Aug., 1793; d. July 3, 1864; m. Nov. 5, 1848, Harriet White of Burrillville, R. I.
+1556 Charles Eddy, b. about 1787.
1557 Abigail Eddy, m. Enoch Brown and lived in Douglas. They had a dau., Hannah, perhaps other children.

711 Willard Eddy (Enoch, Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 26, 1760; d. Apr. 13, 1854; m. 1782, Dorcas Matthewson, b. Dec. 7, 1762; d. Apr. 5, 1847; dau. of Noah Matthewson of Johnston, R. I.

An abridged account of his service in the Revolution follows.

> Willard Eddy. B. Glocester, Jan. 21, 1760; enlisted Jan. 1, 1776, co. Capt. Nathaniel Blackmar, Col. Lippitt, 1 yr.; served in co.'s of Capt. John Eddy and Capt. Stephen Whipple; also, on Continental ships "Providence" and "Boston"; pensioner, resided in Otsego Co., N. Y.

A full account is given in the affidavit for his pension which is on file at the R. I. State House. He marched from Newport to New York. He was in the battle of White Plains, Oct. 1776. In Feb. 1, 1777, he enlisted as a substitute for Lippitt Eddy. In Mar. 1778 he shipped on board the ship "Providence," sailed from Providence, passed the British fleet at Newport, and gave them a broadside which they returned. Then they sailed directly for France and reached there May 29, 1778. After three to four months in France, a part of the time at Brest, he sailed for the U. S. with the "Boston" and "Ranger" and reached Portsmouth Harbor, N. H., and was discharged Oct. 1778. In Sept. 1779 he again enlisted as a sailor on the vessel "Boston," which sailed from Boston in company with the "Providence," the "Queen of France" and the "Ranger." They arrived at Charleston Harbor, S. C., where they stayed during the winter. About Apr. 1, 1780, British ships appeared off the bar and they were besieged until May 12, 1780, when they surrendered to the British. He was taken a prisoner of war and sailed on board a British coastal vessel for Philadelphia. He was discharged June 29, 1780, and given the following pass:

> Willard Eddy, or the beareer hereof, late a prisoner of war to the British at South Carolina, hath permission to pass from hence to his Place of Residence in the State of Rhode Island, he behaving as becometh and all Commisaries of Issues will furnish him with Subsistence agreeable to a resolve of Congress of Aug. 4, 1778 till the 12th day of July next, being a reasonable time for him to get Home take a receipt (—ask the quantity drawn on this pass) and charge the same to the United States of America agreeable to the above resolve.
> Given at my office in Philadelphia, this 29th day of June, endorsed Trenton, June 30, 1780, added three days rations. E. Hornwell.
> July 5, 1780, served with three days provisions. Sub. for James Forsyth. A. C. D.
> Delivered three rations, July 8, 1780 for John Hall. A.C.D.

Willard Eddy's name appears in the Census of 1777 in R. I. as between the ages of 16 and 50 and in the 1790 Census as the head of a household in Glocester consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and three females.

In 1784 he purchased land of John Howland and Lois (Eddy) Howland and also of Daniel Hunt. This was in the northern part of Glocester in the section which later became Burrillville.

In the Military Records of Glocester, Willard appears as Ensign in 1788, and as Captain in 1791 and 1792. About 1795 he went to Otsego Co., N. Y. He first lived in Unadilla, later at Sherburn and finally settled at Richfield, N. Y. There are deeds on record of his transactions in New York State.

718 Eliphalet Eddy (Eliphalet, Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. probably about 1740, or a little earlier, in Glocester, R. I. He was living as late as Aug. 20, 1803, in Cranston, R. I. He m. Apr. 9, 1769, at Glocester (V.R.), Alce (or Alice) Aldrich, b. 1741 ; d. Dec. 16, 1795, in Cranston, in her 54th year. (Newspaper.) She was a daughter of Joseph Aldrich.

When the Census was taken in Rhode Island in 1774, he was a resident of Glocester with a household consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and one female over 16. At the time of the 1790 Census he was living in Cranston with a household of two males over 16, one under 16, and two females. When the military census of 1777 was taken his name did not appear for he was already a soldier. His service in the Revolutionary War was as follows:

Eliphalet Eddy. Private on pay abstract of Capt. Amaziah Weatherhead's co., Col. Stephen's reg't.; 1781 entered July 5; discharged Aug. 7.

He left Glocester sometime before 1783, for on Nov. 1, 1783 the town of Cranston, as was the custom of towns wishing to refuse all responsibility for the support of any new-comer in case of disability of the latter, ordered Eliphalet Eddy to depart the town or produce a legal certificate of his last legal residence. On neglect to do this he was to be dealt with further (Cranston Records 2.393) and again when he was old and had lost his mind he was warned that he had not gained a legal settlement in Cranston and was adjudged a resident of the town of Glocester, to which he must be removed as he was likely to become chargeable to Cranston, Aug. 20, 1803 (Cranston Rec. 3.298).

Children (order of birth unknown):

+1585 Uriah Eddy, b. Jan. 9, 1770, at Glocester.
1586 William Eddy, b. before 1774 (Census of 1774); d. between 1822 and 1827 (Cranston Deeds). Query,—Was he the William Eddy who on Mar. 6, 1799, mar. Polly Williams of Cranston (Providence V.R.)?
1587 Phebe Eddy, b. after 1774 (Census of 1774); m. Sept. 6, 1808, Edward Stafford of Cranston.
Perhaps another son (Census of 1790).

719 Jerusha Eddy (Eliphalet, Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 7, 1740; m. Aug. 26, 1761, at Smithfield, R. I. (V.R.), Eber Angell; son of Abiah^4 Angell (Hope^3, John^2, Thomas^1) and his wife, Freelove Smith.

Children (Angell Gen.): (See Angell Gen. for further records of these children):

i Stukeley Angell, b. May 24, 1762. He had a son, Eddy Angell.

1589 Phebe Angell, d. unmar., aged 40 years.
+1590 Jeremiah Angell, b. Jan. 27, 1781.
1591 Abigail Angell, d. unmar., aged 45 years.

721 Thomas Eddy (Eliphalet, Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. 1754; d. Jan. 30, 1828, aged 74 years, at Clarendon, Vt. He is buried at Chippenhook Cem. He m. (1)

Jan. 23, 1777, at Clarendon, Vt. (V.R.), Rebecca Colvin; d. Dec. 4, 1821, aged 74 years (Clarendon Rec.). He m. (2) widow Huldah Dean. She is probably the Huldah Eddy who d. Nov. 13, 1867, at Wallingford, aged 91 years, who was b. in Scituate, R. I. about 1776, and was daughter of George and Martha Rowley.

He was a blacksmith living in Clarendon. He left a will (dated Aug. 20, 1827) in which he mentions wife Huldah Eddy; daughter Phebe Skeels; son-in-law, Christopher Skeels; eldest daughter, Tabitha Ridlow; two sons Eliphalet and Esek; two grandsons, Jonathan and Thomas Ridlow, and Thomas E. Skeels (Rutland Prob.).

He probably accompanied Peter Eddy and his family to Vermont either late in the fall of 1774 or early in 1775. He was married in Clarendon early in 1777 and later in that year served in the Revolutionary War. His service follows:

Thomas Eddy. Private, pay roll, Capt. Abraham Salisbury's co. on Otter Creek, raised in Clarendon, including men from Wallonford, Rutland, and Pittsford, on an alarm at Pittsford. Service, Oct. 19, to Oct. 23, 1777; also, pay roll, Capt. Ichabod Robinson's company of militia in Clarendon for the year 1780; service, 9 days, including 30 miles travel.

Thomas Eddy. Private, pay roll of Capt. Samuel McClure's company at Dresden on an alarm at Newbury the 8th of March, 1781; service, 3 days; travel 25 miles. (Dresden, a part of Hanover, N. H.)

Thomas Eddy. Private, pay roll of Lieut. Lemuel White's co. of militia in Shrewsbury and State of Vermont, on an alarm commencing June 10, 1781; service, 12 days, including 32 miles travel; also, private, Capt. Thos. Sawyer's co.; Col. Gideon Warren's regt.; on an alarm at Pittsford, service, Oct. 19, to Oct. 23, 1777, 4 days.

On Apr. 10, he registered his cattle mark which was a "croop of the left ear and a slit in the same ear" (Vol. II, p. 105 Clarendon Rec).

On Apr. 26, 1779, Thomas Eddy was chosen petit-juror and again on Mar. 1823. On Sept. 6, 1779, land was laid out to Thomas Eddy in the second division of Caleb Willard. On Oct. 4, 1779, land was laid out to him on the original right of Caleb Willard (Vol. I, p. 110). On May 15, 1782, a tract of land was surveyed for Thomas Eddy in the township of Clarendon on the original right of Simon Chamberland,—about 50 acres.

Clarendon,—Mar. 15, 1788. "Then came David Niles and testified and said he was present when Thomas Eddy and Rebecca Colvin was jined in the marriage covenant by Benjamin Spencer the 23 day of Jan. 1777." Recorded March, 1788. (Town Records.)

On February 16, 1786, Thomas Eddy of Shrewsbury of Rutland Co., deeded land to Jabez Weaver of Clarendon (Vol. III, p. 188).

On Mar. 14, 1788 a highway was laid out near Thomas Eddy's house.

On May 18, 1801 Thomas Eddy found a brownish mare. In 1812 he was chosen surveyor of highways and on Mar. 2, 1819, fence viewer. In Mar., 1812 and on Mar. 4, 1823 he was chosen Hog-hayward.

On Oct. 21, 1817, two acres were surveyed to Thomas Eddy on the original right of Simeon Chamberlain.

On June 20, 1822 Thomas Eddy of Clarendon sold land on the Furnace River, being 25 acres of the farm where "I now live." He also sold land to John Congdon (p. 226); to daughter Tabitha Ridlow (p. 227) and to Eliphalet Eddy (p. 192 and p. 207).

During the years 1822 and 1823 he divided his property among his children and on Jan. 21, 1823 he and John Congdon of Hartford, Washington Co., N. Y., made an agreement whereby John agreed to provide for Thomas and Huldah and to support the two children of Huldah by her first husband, namely Irene Dean and Serenda Dean.

At the time of the 1790 Census, Thomas was a resident of Clarendon with one male over 16, three under 16, and four females in his household. In 1800 his household contained one male under 10 years, one between 10 and 16; one between 16 and 25, one between 25 and 45, and also one female between 10 and 16, two between 16 and 25, and one over 45 years.

Children:

1592 Ruby Eddy, b. 1779; d. Apr. 7, 1802, aged 23 years, at Clarendon (V.R.).
1593 Thomas Eddy, b. 1784; d. July 18, 1811, aged 27 years. He m. Wealthy Their (?). After his death she m. (2) Feb. 27, 1814, Jonathan Hays (Hayes). It is not known whether he had any children; but probably not as Thomas mentioned none in his will.
+1594 Eliphalet Eddy.
+1595 Tabitha Eddy.
+1596 Phebe Eddy.
+1597 Esek Eddy.

728 George Eddy (Enos, Elisha, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. in Glocester, R. I. He was an architect and builder of great skill.

Previous to 1788 he went to Western Massachusetts, and became a resident of New Plantation No. 7. On July 15th of that year he gave a mortgage to Moses Bliss of Springfield on Lot 107. In 1790 he was still a resident with a family consisting of four males over 16, and two females. While living there he sold to Adfur Eddy of Glocester, R. I. 50 acres in Glocester "which my father gave me in his will."

The deed mentions brother Enos Eddy and land which Jesse Eddy sold to Enos Eddy and land which Andrew Potter sold to Enos Eddy (Glocester Deeds 12.276). Another deed of two days later given by Sarah Eddy on Feb. 15, 1793 states, "I, Sarah Eddy of Glocester, widow have received a bond . . . by George Eddy and Enos Eddy . . . I relinquish my dower rights in my husband's farm, which he died possessed of, to Eber Phetteplace."

In 1797 George was a resident of Kingston, N. Y., when he sold to Elias Sprague for $1500 land in Hawley—two lots, two dwellings, iron works, a barn and lots 107 and 100 allotted to Moses Bliss in township No. 7, which is now called Hawley. Dated Dec. 16, 1797 (Hampshire Co. Deeds 18.578).

765 Jacob Eddy (Jacob, Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 7, 1771 (Levi Eddy's Bible), probably in Glocester, R. I.; m. Kriah . . . b. Aug. 3, 1771 (Levi Eddy's Bible), Kriah is perhaps a spelling for Kesiah.

It has not been proved by documentary evidence that Jacob was the son of Jacob and Susannah (Sprague) Eddy, but everything known about him fits this ancestry and the names which he gave his children were those characteristic of this line, and they belong in no other branch. The only other possibility is that he was a son of one of the senior Jacob's brothers, Gideon, Eliakim or Elisha.

It is probable that he married early in Danby, about 1790. Heminway's Gazeteer of Vermont (III, p. 84) states that in "1795 Peleg Hicks and Jacob Eddy with families moved to town into rude houses which they had previously constructed. Eddy was in the north east corner of lot No. 7 in the north range on the westerly side of the road. They were thirteen miles from the nearest neighbor (Sheffield). They agreed to stand by each other through the winter." The town mentioned was Barton, Vt. a town about 40 miles to the north east of Montpelier. In another place in the same work the statement is made that Eddy left in the spring of 1796. In the account of the town of Sutton (Vol. V., p. 33) the statement is made that Jacob Eddy lived there for a while. Another account of the early settlement of Barton gives the name of the Eddy as Joseph Eddy, and states that the first settlers of Barton had to go to Lyndon or St. Johnsbury for all milling and groceries, a distance of twenty or thirty miles. There was no road and the path was shown by marked trees, and Joseph Eddy was employed to transport their supplies.

Dr. Joseph Eddy of Oswego, N. Y., a descendant, states that his great-grandfather, Jacob Eddy, went from Providence, R. I., and that he carried on a drug business in Montpelier. In 1807 the birth of the child, Artemas, is recorded in the town of Middletown, Rutland Co. Jacob was back again near Danby in 1807. The tradition is that two of the sons left Rutland for New York. From these facts and traditions it would seem that Jacob attempted to settle in northern Vermont but finally came back to the home county of Rutland, and went from there to Ontario Co., where he served in the War of 1812. He owned land in Farmington, N. Y., which he and wife Keziah sold before 1826.

Children (Levi Eddy's Bible):

+1675 Moses Eddy, b. Feb. 23, 1791.
+1676 Joseph Eddy, b. Feb. 16, 1793.

1682 Almon Eddy, b. Jan. 20, 1814.

768 David Eddy (Jacob, Joseph, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. probably in Glocester, R. I.; m. Nov. 7, 1799, Hannah J. Arnold; dau. of Seth and Martha Arnold (Arnold's Vital Statistics of R. I., Friend's Church Rec., p. 146).

He lived in Danby, Vt., and was there in 1800 with a household consisting of one male over 10 and under 16, and a male and a female between 16 and 25. In 1804 he went to East Hamburg, Erie Co., N. Y., where he purchased land in Township 9, Range 7. (Turner's Hist. of Holland Purchase, p. 458.) Farther on the same book states that "the venerable David Eddy, who yet survives and is a resident of Potter's Corners, was in all that region a pioneer second only to Didymus Kinney." David says "I made a beginning in the woods in 1804. I came with my brother Aaron, and brother-in-law Nathan Peters and my sister Mary Eddy to keep house for us. In September we built a log house." "Mr. Eddy is now seventy years of age, his health and constitution totally good, though laboring under the effects of a fractured limb. His wife died in 1844. In the early days he was an agent of Mr. Ellicott, and from time to time reported how the settlers were getting on with their improvements. He built a sawmill on Cazenova Creek for the Indians near what is now Lower Ebenezer. He was in later life Judge of the Court at Buffalo. He was a Quaker and a man of very great influence in the life of the Quaker settlement at East Hamburg and Orchard Park."

Children (probably an incomplete list):

She had children by her first husband and after the death of Jirah Eddy she made her home with one of these Fuller children and her two Eddy children were cared for by them after her death.

In 1793 Jirah was in Hampshire Co. where he witnessed a deed given by James Blackmar of Wetherington, Hampshire Co., Mass. to Gideon Eddy of Glocester, R. I. (Adams Deeds 12.451).

On Feb. 13, 1808 Jirah Eddy of Greenfield, Saratoga Co., N. Y. yeoman, sold to Joseph Eddy of Glocester, yeoman, . . . "All right in land which I, Jirah, have in lands which lie partially in Burrillville and partly in said Glocester, which descended to me by my father, Gideon Eddy, late of Glocester, dec'd." (Glocester Deeds).

In December 1817, he moved with his family to Leroy (now Stafford) Genesee Co., N. Y., and from Leroy to Gainesville in 1824. He was a man of great muscular strength, about five feet, ten inches in height. He was a farmer, much esteemed and respected by his neighbors, a man of good habits and good judgment though very unassuming and modest. In September 1831, he was hurt in an accident. He bore the amputation of his leg without taking any anesthetic, but the operation was not successful. He died some few days later of gangrene.

When Augustus Eddy was seven years old, his parents left Adams, a town in western Massachusetts, and settled in the then unbroken wilds of Genesee Co., where his father built a log cabin in a clearing at the place where the town of Victor is now situated. Here Augustus grew up with all the courage and strength of those whose daily task is the subjugation of nature. He was tall, muscular, active and genial. He had inherited from his Quaker grandfather a delicate and sensitive religious nature, which heard the words of the guiding voice of the Spirit. In 1817 he heard his first sermon at Canandaigua. Although his people were Quakers, he soon became impressed with Methodism and embraced its views. He became a clergyman and was sent to Ohio where as a member of the Ohio Conference he was settled near Batavia, about twenty miles from Cincinnati. Later he was in Cincinnati for about a year and then was transferred to the Indiana Conference. He settled in Rush Co., where he purchased a farm. Leaving his wife, her two brothers and his two sons to carry on the work of the farm, he devoted himself wholly to his ministerial work. He was pastor of the Church in Indianapolis and presiding elder of the Indianapolis and Whitewater Districts and preacher at the Wesley Chapel in Madison and also elder of the Madison District and pastor of the Lawrenceburgh station. In 1840 he was sent as a delegate to the General Conference which met in New York. This afforded him the first opportunity to see his mother and others of his father's family since he had left New York State over twenty-five years before. Augustus Eddy carried on his work for over fifty years. He was a man of unusually fine personal appearance, and with a most benevolent face, "a man without reproach, of noble character, single purpose and great piety."

His early childhood days were spent in Nova Scotia, but at the outbreak of the War his parents returned to the states. He purchased a piece of property in East Putnam, Conn., of Azariah Cutler on June 28, 1794 and in 1802 the land adjoining. He carried on the blacksmith trade and in addition had a saw and grist mill. He was a good workman and an obliging neighbor. He was a man of strong physique and of excellent health. On Apr. 26, 1815 he purchased the farm to which he moved his blacksmith shop and there he spent the remainder of his long life. On the day that he was 80 he set four sets of tires. This was a day's work of which he was very proud and of which he often boasted.

801 Jeremiah Eddy (Barnard, Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. 1759; d. Aug. 25, 1820, in his 61st year (Newspaper, also Pension affidavit of widow Sarah Eddy); m. Aug. 23, 1795, Mrs. Sarah (Field) Waters (also spelled Watrous and Waterous). She was widow of Samuel Waters, whom she m. Jan. 9, 1783. He d. 1790. She was dau. of Capt. Isaac and Martha (Hartshorn) Field (Pension affidavit).

Jeremiah was a ship-carpenter and lived on Ship Street, not far from his shipbuilding establishment on Cowpen Point. He was probably learning his trade when his father died. When the Census of 1777 was taken, he was in Providence, between the ages of 16 and 50 years. His service in the Revolution follows.

Jeremiah Eddy. Private, Independent co. Light Infantry, Prov. County; on Return for Jan. 1777; on Muster Roll of Capt. James Burrill's co. of militia, U. S. service doing duty in R. I., commanded by Col. Jabez Bowen; engaged from Apr. 2, 1778, to Apr. 16, 1778 inclusive; record dated Providence Apr. 14, 1778; entered service Apr. 12; fifer, Capt. Lewis Peck's co., Col. Mathewson's reg't militia, U. S. service; rec'd Continental pay for 8 days, entered service June 12, discharged June 20, 1778.

Jeremiah Eddy. Capt. Esek Eddy's co. of artificers acting as boatmen; enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; service, 25 days, on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

In 1790 he was the head of a household consisting of three males over 16; and five females. It is likely that Abby Waters and Isaac Waters, his wife's children by her first husband, were members of his family. In 1779 Jeremiah Eddy was summoned to choose a guardian since he was over 14 but not of age (Providence Probate A 1041). Jeremiah Eddy appears in the Civil and Military Lists of R. I. as a lieutenant in 1791, 1792, and 1793 and as first lieutenant in 1794, 1795 and 1796. At the time of his death he was called Major Jeremiah Eddy by the newspaper.

In the land records of Providence his name occurs first as one of the grandchildren of Elizabeth Eddy to whom she sells the land which their father Barnard sold to her on Oct. 30, 1770. She returned it to them on Feb. 12, 1783. In April Rhoda, Jeremiah, Patience, Barnard and Eunice unite in selling a piece of land to Abigail Anthony and Richard Anthony, her husband. They are heirs of Barnard Eddy, late of Providence and of their sisters, Betsey Eddy and Ruth Grafton, deceased. Abigail was their sister. William Eddy was a witness to the deed. Later Jeremiah and Barnard divided with Rhoda and Betsey after the death of Eunice. There are several other transactions covering the years from 1792 until 1820 in which Jeremiah and his brother Barnard take part, and in some Sarah, wife of Jeremiah and Betsey, wife of Barnard sign off their dower rights. All this property was in the section of the town near Ship St. and the present Eddy St. and Dyer St.

Jeremiah's signature may be seen on a document dated Jan. 6, 1800 on file in the Providence Probate (A 1678).

Children:

1758 EUNICE EDDY, b. Nov. 9, 1817; d. 1876, aged 79 years, at Natick, R. I. (G. S. at Swan Point Cem., Prov.) She m. WILLIAM P. SHAW (Pension affidavit of Sarah Eddy).

1759 BARNARD EDDY, d. before Sarah applied for her pension.

802 Barnard Eddy (Barnard, Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 12, 1762, at Providence, R. I.; d. July 3, 1847, at Providence; m. (1) Oct. 7, 1785, Betsey Walker (V.R.), b. about 1766; d. May 24, 1817, aged 50 years (Gazette). He m. (2) Oct. 14, 1817, Julia Granville Westcott, b. Feb. 28, 1791; d. Apr. 14, 1865, at Prov. She was dau. of John and Mary (Sandford) Westcott. After Barnard's death, she married for her second husband, John Sweet Eddy, son of William Eddy.

When the Revolutionary War broke out, though he was only a boy of fifteen he joined with his father in assisting in the work of preparing defenses. He was tall and strong and had learned much from companionship with his father and uncles. His service follows:

Barnard Eddy. Rev. pensioner, enlisted June, 1775, to May, 1779; private under Capts. Barnard Eddy, Elliott; Lt. and Capt. in May, 1779; b. July 12, 1762; d. July 3, 1847.

In 1775 in co. of Capt. Barnard Eddy to Apr. 15, 1776; transferred to laboratory at Providence Aug. 1, 1778; on sloop "Lively," commissioned Lieut. of "Lively" and later in command. He had a pension.

In 1800 he was in business in Cranston, on the Pawtuxet River (Cranston Deeds 8.244 8.250). In September 1815 a great gale swept through Providence. The Providence River rose to a great height. The old Eddy Homestead on Eddy Point was swept away down stream and nearly all of the family treasures were lost.

Children:
+1778 i Mary Greenman, b. Nov. 26, 1785.
ii John Greenman, b. 1790.
iii Esek Eddy Greenman, b. Feb. 21, 1792, at Newport, R. I.
iv Jeremiah Greenman, b. Aug. 8, 1794, Providence.

809 Peleg Eddy (Esek, Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 1, 1762 in Providence; d. Dec. 26, 1827, in his 66th year (Bible Rec.). He m. Sept. 26, 1783, Elizabeth Waterman, b. Aug. 13, 1762; d. Aug. 24, 1827 (Newspaper); dau. of John and Martha (Dyer) Waterman.

Though only a boy at the time of the Revolution, he enlisted. His service follows:

Peleg Eddy. Capt. Esek Eddy's co. of artificers acting as boatmen; enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; service, 20 days on an expedition to Rhode Island. Roll dated Providence.

He entered the shipbuilding business with his father and continued in it all his life. He purchased from his father land on Pawtuxet St., where he made his home. When the 1790 Census was taken his family consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and three females, living in Providence.

Children, b. in Providence (Bible Rec.):
+1779 Thomas Eddy, b. Apr. 11, 1784.
+1780 Mary Eddy, b. Nov. 16, 1786.
1781 Anna Eddy, b. June 3, 1791; d. July 27, 1793.
1782 Peleg Eddy, b. Sept. 30, 1796; d. Oct. 20, 1827, at St. Philip de Austin, Prov. of Texas. The newspaper notice states that he had for some time been engaged in the mercantile business at St. Bernard and was on his way home from there by land through the Spanish territories, to New Orleans. He was ill but two or three days.
1783 Betsey Eddy, b. June 15, 1801; d. Apr. 14, 1861; m. Sept. 19, 1824, Caleb Godfrey of Providence (Newspaper).

811 Esek Eddy (Esek, Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 25, 1766, at Providence (V.R.); d. Dec. 9, 1844, at Providence; m. Jan. 24, 1790, Alice Williams (V.R.), b. Mar. 14, 1762; d. Feb. 13, 1851, at Providence. She was dau. of Andrew Williams. They lived on Westminster St.

He purchased land of his father and other land some of which he sold to brother Peleg and others. He left a will in which he desires that all his property should be sold after the death of his wife Alice. This was done in Apr. 20, 1851 (Prov. Deeds 123.143). They had no children. In the 1790 Census his household consisted of one male over 16 and one female. In 1827 he was chosen gauger of casks in Prov.

818 Cyrus Eddy (Esek, Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 21, 1775, in Providence; d. Dec. 22, 1862; m. Oct. 23, 1796, at Providence (V.R.), Marcy Vincent, of Providence, b. Nov. 21, 1780; d. Aug. 13, 1846, at Homer, Morgan Co., Ohio. (Taken from an old letter to Thomas Eddy, dated 1846.) He was a very musical man and he not only sang, but played the violin, the flute and the flageolet.

Children:

1784 Abby Eddy, m. Cyrenus Howe. In 1845 they lived in Homer Township, Morgan Co., Ohio.
1785 Mary Ann Eddy. She was unmar. in 1845.
1786 Marcy Eddy. She was unmar. in 1845.
+1787 Cyrus Eddy. In 1846, he was in Ohio and was planning to go to Iowa.
1788 Amy Eddy, m. Eli F. Brown.
1789 Sarah Eddy, m. William Vincent. In 1845 they were in Barlow, Washington Co., Ohio.
1790 Lydia Eddy, m. James Hassington. In 1845 they were in Dover, Athens Co., Ohio.
1791 Henry Eddy.
1792 Thomas Eddy.
1793 Martha Eddy, m. Reul Rothbun. In 1846 they were in Ames Township, Athens Co.
1794 Ruth Eddy.
1795 Jeremiah Eddy, b. 1820 in Providence; d. Aug. 20, 1820, aged five and a half months.

820 Asa Eddy (Asa, Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Sept. 1, 1752, in Salisbury, Conn. (Salisbury Rec.); d. Feb. 3, 1828 (gravestone at Dunham Hollow, N. Y.), aged 75 yrs., 4 mo., 21 da. His will was probated Oct. 1828. He m. Thankful Root who d. Sept. 26, 1845, aged 87 yrs., 2 mo., 25 da. (gravestone).

Note. In the southwestern section of Mass. and the northwestern part of Conn. there were so many Asa Eddys from 1740 to 1820 that it is difficult to separate them.

The following seem to refer to this Asa Eddy:

(Clarendon, Vt. Rec.) Asa Eddy of Salisbury, Litchfield Co., Conn. sold to J. Spafford, 100 Acres, in Clarendon, on the right of John Searles. Dated July 26, 1781 and acknowledged the next day at Litchfield. Again on Oct. 10, 1782 Asa Eddy of Salisbury sold to J. Spafford land in Clarendon.

On Feb. 18, 1788 Asa Eddy of Great Barrington purchased land in Great Barrington—the east end of lot No. 21 in the West Div. of the upper Propriety—to the second ledge of the Little Mt. and on Mar. 15, 1799, Asa and Thankful Eddy, both of Great Barrington sold the East end of lot No. 21 in the West Div. of the Upper Housatonic Propriety and on Apr. 28, 1806, Asa and Thankful Eddy of Steventown, N. Y. sold to John Root all right in the property of Thomas Root, as heirs of Thomas. This deed suggests that Thankful was the daughter of Thomas Root. These deeds also show that he is the Asa Eddy of Great Barrington who had in 1790 a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16 and three females. His will mentions the children named below.

Children:

1796 Anna Eddy, d. Nov. 30, 1875 in her 85th year (gravestone at Dunham Hollow).
1797 Camille Eddy, m. . . . Blake.
1798 Nancy Eddy, m. . . . Fillow.
+1799 Ira Eddy, b. Jan. 2, 1785 (gravestone).

Note. He is also probably the Asa Eddy who is mentioned in the Hist. of Great Barrington, Mass. (p. 235) who marched to Saratoga with Capt. Good, and whose name appears on the Muster Roll of Aug. 1, 1775.

821 Josiah Eddy (Asa, Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 9, 1755, at Salisbury, Conn.; d. July 2, 1827, at Warsaw, N. Y., where he is buried; m. (1) in 1782 Ursula Owen; dau. of Edward Owen of Pittsford, Vt. (Hist of Pittsford); m. (2) Rebecca Owen (Pension papers), who d. 1786; m. (3) at Pittsford in June 1787, Hannah Tupper, who d. May 7, 1851, at Warsaw, N. Y., aged 82 years (gravestone).

(Note. It is not clear whether Rebecca and Ursula were the same person. The first marriage is to Ursula Owen, but the pension papers give a wife, Rebecca, as the one who preceded Hannah Tupper, and as the mother of Ethan P. Eddy.)

On Jan. 4, 1774, Josiah Eddy chose Ethan Pier as guardian. In the probate records it is stated that Josiah is a son of Asa Eddy, late of Oblong (now Amenia, N. Y.).

From Josiah's pension papers it is learned that previous to the Revolution, he lived in Sheffield and Great Barrington, Mass. During the Revolution he lived in Rutland Co., Vt. His service in the War follows:

Josiah Eddy, Sheffield. Private, Capt. Joseph Stebbin's co., Col. Jonathan Brewer's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 13, 1775; service, 80 days; also, company return [probably Oct., 1775]; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Prospect Hill, Oct. 26, 1775.

Josiah Eady. Capt. Pairl's (Pearl's) co., Col. Woodbridge's regt.; list of men in service during June 1775, as shown on an armorer's account.

Josiah Eddy. Private, Capt. Isaac Clark's co. of militia, raised by order of Major General De la Fayette, for the defence of the frontiers and on Lake Champlain, to receive additional pay from the State of Vermont; entered service Mar. 2, 1778; discharged May 2, 1778; 60 days.

Josiah Eady. Certificate of Capt. John Spofford's men (names omitted) left out of a pay roll for service done in an alarm in March, 1780; 7 days, 50 miles travel. Pay Office, Windsor, Feb. 20, 1783.

Josiah Edy. Private, Capt. Samuel Allen's co. of Volunteers raised by order of Brig. Gen. Allen, from Oct. 13, 1780; ending Nov. 4, 1780; 23 days' service. (Seek further information from Pension Office, War Dept., Washington, D. C.)

On July 6, 1782 Josiah Eddy "pitched" 50 acres in Pittsford, Vt. and again Oct. 1785 he pitched fifteen more, but made no improvements until 1786, when he cleared a few acres, built a house and married Ursula (Hist. of Pittsford).

When the 1790 Census was taken he was in Rutland with a household of two males over 16, two under 16, and one female. In 1800 he was a resident of Hinesburg, with a family of three males under 10, one between 10 and 16, and one male over 45, one female between 16 and 25, and one over 45.

On Mar. 10, 1790, Josiah Eddy of Clarendon sold to Noel Potter the place where Eddy now lives (Clarendon Deeds). On Dec. 26, 1794, Josiah Eddy of Rutland sold to Peter Sutherland . . . land on the west side of Otter Creek on the north line of the town. No wife signed (Rutland Deeds 4.91). On Jan. 16, 1794, Josiah Eddy purchased land about 50 acres near where he owned (Rutland Deeds, 4.163).

Children (Pension papers, probably an incomplete record):

1800 Son, b. before 1786.

1801 Ethan Pier Eddy, b. 1786; m. Milanda Owen, b. Jan. 1794 at Pittsford, Vt.; dau. of Abraham and Nellie Owen (Owen Gen. in N. E. H. G. R. for 1929).

Child by Hannah:

1802 Josiah Eddy. See No. 11709, for this line.

822 Briant Eddy (Probably Asa, Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William). His name appears as Bryan and Bryon Eddy. No proof of his parentage has been discovered but his residence in Great Barrington and the fact that he has land transactions with the same people as Asa Eddy and Thankful and at about the same time suggests that he and Asa were brothers. He was b. Dec. 25, 1760, at Canaan, Conn.

In 1776 he was living in the Berkshires to the west of Green River toward Egremont, a neighbor of Preserved Noble and the Root Families. His service in the Revolutionary War follows:

Briant Edy (also given Brian). Private, Capt. Peter Ingersoll's co., Col. John Brown's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted July 1, 1777; discharged July 21, 1777; service, 21 days, including travel to camp and home; also, Capt. Ephraim Fitch's co., Col. Ashley's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted July 21, 1777; discharged Aug. 14, 1777; service, 25 days; also, Capt. Enoch Noble's co., Col. Ezra Wood's regt.; enlisted May 15, 1778; discharged Feb. 7, 1779; service, 8 mos., 28 days, at North river; enlistment, 8 months from time of arrival at Peekskill; also, Capt. John Spoor's co., Col. John Brown's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted July 18, 1780; discharged Oct. 23, 1780; service, 3 mos. 10 days, travel included; company raised to reinforce Continental Army for 3 months and discharged 80 miles from home.

Bryon Eadey. Private, Capt. Roswell Downing's co., Col. Miles Powel's regt.; enlisted July 19, 1779; discharged Aug. 27, 1779; service, 1 mo. 9 days, at New Haven, Conn. Roll sworn to in Berkshire Co.

Bryan Eddy (also given Bryant). Corporal, Capt. Jeremiah Hickok's co., Berkshire Co. regt., commanded by Lieut. Col. Sears; enlisted Aug. 6, 1781; discharged Nov. 8, 1781; service, 3 mos. 7 days, travel included; company raised for 3 months. Roll endorsed "Col. Elisha Porter's regt."

He purchased land Feb. 18, 1788 and sold this same Apr. 25, 1794 to John Root, who was probably the brother of Thankful Eddy, wife of Asa. He was a resident of Great Barrington as late as Jan. 14, 1805.

At the time of the 1790 Census he was a resident of Great Barrington with a household of one male over 16, one under 16, and two females. His name appears in the Registry of Deeds in Great Barrington from the years 1788 to 1806. He was granted a pension while living in Ellisburg, Jefferson Co., N. Y. in 1832. Nothing more is known.

823 Thomas Eddy (Thomas, Charles, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 4, 1749, at Glastonbury, Conn. (V.R.); d. Jan. 24, 1814, aged 64 years (Portland Burying Ground Rec. at Conn.

Lib.); m. Feb. 2, 1775, at Chatham, Conn. (Early Conn. Mar.) Elizabeth Goodrich (First Church Rec. of East Middletown). In 1783 he had a wife Esther (Chatham Land Rec. 4.178). She d. Feb. 19, 1829, aged 75 years. (Conn. Library Rec.)

It may be that Elizabeth as given in the marriage record is a mistake and that it should be Esther as the oldest child is Esther. It may be that Elizabeth and Esther were sisters and that after the early death of Elizabeth he married her sister Esther. One genealogist gives Esther Goodrich as the wife of Thomas, with no mention of Elizabeth.

(Chatham Conn. Land Rec. at Easthampton, 2.413) The General Assembly at Hartford on the second Thursday of May, 1769 (this date was rather illegible and so may not be correctly copied) granted to Martha Goodrich, administratrix on the estate of Richard Goodrich liberty to sell real Estate of the deceased. She sold a piece of land situated in Chatham at the place where Thomas and Seth Eddy now dwell, containing 3 acres, bounded north by the Glastonbury line, south and east by land of Daniel Andrews and west on a highway or country road, with the house, barn and well thereon situate. Dated Apr. 28, 1777. Recorded Mar. 29, 1781. This deed would suggest that Richard and Martha were the parents of the first wife of Thomas.

(Chatham Land Rec., 3.559) On Apr. 17, 1781 Joseph Sage and wife Ruth sold to Thomas Eddy, a dwelling house and land bounded by that of Widow Goodrich.

(Chatham Land Rec., 4.178) On Mar. 18, 1783 Silvanus Eaton and Sarah his wife sold to Thomas Eddy, land in the First Society of Chatham—bounded south on Thomas Eddy and Esther, his wife, west on Daniel Andrews, north on Glastonbury line.

846 Jeremiah Eddy (Joseph, Joseph, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. in Warren, R. I. A Bible in the possession of Dulcinea (Marsh) Southgate states that he was b. Jan. 14, 1769; m. May 20, 1795, Betsey Walden (also given Mar. 20). The Warren, R. I., Vital Records give the birth of Jeremiah as Jan. 10, 1772 and the Congregational Church Records of Bristol, R. I., give the marriage as published Apr. 20, 1794 and as married on May 4, 1794. The record gives Jeremiah as son of Joseph and Lydia Eddy and Betsey as dau. of Isaac and Abigail Waldron. Betsey was b. Apr. 14, 1776, and d. July 16, 1821, according to the Bible. The gravestone at Corinth, N. Y., gives age as in "her 47th year." He m. (2) Joanna Marsh on March 1, 1826, at Woodstock, Vt. She was the dau. of Jeptha and Rhoda (Darling) Clark and was b. Feb. 18, 1775. She first m. Jason Marsh on Mar. 12, 1795. He d. Oct. 21, 1819. She d. Aug. 7, 1867, aged 92 years.

Jeremiah Eddy was a blacksmith in Warren. He purchased land in Warren on May 3, 1792 (Warren Deeds 3.251) and on Jan. 24, 1793. This latter piece was on the country road to Kelley's Ferry and bounded on Jeremiah Child, James Child and William Child. On Nov. 3, 1794, he sold the first piece of land (3.366). His wife Betsey Eddy signed the deed and Samuel Eddy witnessed it. In Mar. and in Apr. of 1795 he sold other land (3.389 and 3.391). His wife signed once as Elizabeth Eddy and the other time as Betsey Eddy. All these signatures were signed with a cross. In 1792 Jeremiah was made adm. on the estate of Caleb Eddy (Warren Prob., 2.61) his brother and on Aug. 27, 1793 he was appointed to serve as adm. on the estate of his brother John. It seems probable that he left Warren before 1800 when his brother Samuel died, for administration on Samuel's estate was given to another outside of the family.

When on their way to Cooperstown on New Year's Eve after being married, they were riding on an ox-sled. The bride was sitting in a chair on the back of the sled. She was so bundled up because of the bitter cold that she lost her balance when the sled lurched and she fell out. The groom did not miss her, until, not receiving a reply to a question, he turned to see what the matter was. He was obliged to retrace his steps over a half-mile, before he found his bride, sitting in a snow bank, from which she was unable to arise.

Child:

Smith Phillips, b. 1811; d. Aug. 7, 1836, aged 25 yrs. (gravestone).

966 Daniel Eddy (Olney, Daniel, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William). Little is known about him. His name appears in some of the old documents in connection with Augustus Eddy and Olney, in one of which he is called son of Olney. In 1812 he was in Plymouth, N. Y. and in 1814 in Lisle. There is a tradition that he went to the lake district west of Chenango Co.

971 Allen Eddy (Newbury, Zachariah, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 22, 1770, either in Conn. (death record at Mt. Holly, Vt.) or in Belchertown, Mass. (family tradition); d. Oct. 17, 1859, at Mt. Holly, Vt. (V.R.) aged 89 yrs., 7 mo., 25 da. He m. Amy . . . b. 1773 in R. I. (1850 Census) and d. at Mt. Holly, Vt., Sept. 24, 1856, aged 82 years (V.R.).

He was a farmer and miller. In 1790 he was a resident of Weathersfield with a household consisting of one male and two females. In two of the records Anna is given as the name of the wife. This is probably an error since the gravestone has Amy as well as some of the birth records of the children.

Children:
+2159 Amy Eddy, b. Aug. 25, 1791.
+2160 Lucy Eddy, b. Aug. 25, 1791 (twin).
+2161 Isaac Eddy, b. June 20, 1795.

2176 Samantha Eddy.

973 Isaac Eddy (Newbury, Zachariah, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 17, 1777, at Thetford, Vt.; d. July 28, 1847, at Waterford, N. Y.; m. (1) Lucy Tarbell, who d. Mar. 8, 1828, in her 48th yr. (gravestone). He m. (2) Susannah Foster, b. about 1800; d. 1855. He was a resident of Weathersfield in 1800.

Isaac Eddy is known as the printer-engraver of Vermont. He is identified with early printing in that state since he was the maker of the engravings of the first edition of the Vermont Bible. In 1814 he purchased the printing establishment, which had been first set up at Dresden, Vt. (now Hanover, N. H.) and which later moved to Westminster, Vt., where it issued the first Vermont newspaper. Isaac Eddy was a man with a talent for engraving. His first work was on copper and very crude. These were for the Vermont Bible; perfect copies of which contain seven engravings by Eddy and one by James Hill. They include Elijah and the Widow's son, the Holy Family, St. John and St. Matthew. In a newspaper, the "Washingtonian" for Oct. 22, 1810, he advertised the "Proposals for publishing an elegant quarto edition of the Holy Bible." In 1812 Isaac Eddy made an engraving for John Russell's "History of the Vermont state-prison." This one bears his name and Weathersfield, Vt. below the picture. There are many others which are the work of his hand. He also made a machine for crushing and pulverizing paints, drugs, minerals and vegetable materials. The patent for this granted in 1823 and signed by John Quincy Adams, Sec. of State, and James Munroe, President, is in the hands of his granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Eddy Peckham.

991 Barnet W. Eddy (Joshua, James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), lived in Sterling, Mass.; m. Apr. 1, 1811, Nancy Wright Bailey. He d. July 18, 1828.

On Aug 5, 1828, his widow Nancy W. was appointed admx. She kept a public place in Sterling. At the settlement of the estate "½ a pew in the Sterling Meeting house was sold." A part of the estate of Barnet was north of the Meetinghouse (Worcester Deeds 204.278). Barnet Eddy of Sterling, Yeoman sold land "where I now dwell in the centre of Sterling." The Worcester Registry contains many other land transactions in which Barnet took part.

Children, not known, probably Charles B., and Barnet.

992 Daniel Eddy (Joshua, James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), d. Mar. 7, 1842, Fredonia, O.; m. (1) Tamer Child, June 25, 1809 (Holden, Mass. V.R. Int. filed in W. Boylston on May 20, 1809). From the following it would seem that she must have been Mrs. Tamer (Ball) Child. "We, Josiah Ball, Hollis Ball of Holden, yeomen, Tamar Eddy, wife of Daniel Eddy of Sterling, Thankful Cannon, wife of Ephraim Cannon of Holden, Melinda Ball, Sally Ball, Perce Ball, and Lydia Ball of Holden, singlewoman, sell land . . . 1/7 part of land descended us by heirship from Thankful Mason, wife of Samuel Mason of West Boylston." Dated May 25, 1825. Daniel m. (2) Hannah Prouty.

Daniel lived in West Boylston in 1810 and later in Shutesbury and finally in Sterling, Mass. The Worcester Registry of Deeds contain several transactions signed by Daniel and wife, Tamer Eddy. From one of these deeds it would seem that he was a tanner (194.115).

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Sterling, Mass. About 1835, after his second marriage, he went to Fredonia, O., where he died in 1842.

Children, by first wife:

+2213 ANDREWS EDDY b. June 10, 1814.

Child, by second wife, b. at Fredonia, O.

+2214 MARK EDDY, b. Oct. 6, 1837.

996 James Eddy (Caleb, James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. about the latter part of 1774; m. Sarah . . . before Oct. 28, 1801, when wife Sarah signed off her dower rights (Springfield Deeds 39.608).

He received from the courts judgment against Charles Eddy of Palmer for $301, and on Feb. 17, 1798 he sold the piece of land taken in execution, subject to dower of the widow, Abigail . . .

On Feb. 13, 1781 Joshua Eddy was appointed his guardian and on Sept. 1, 1788, Enos Clark, of Belchertown was made his guardian.

The following deed, dated Feb. 10, 1796, gives three generations of owners.

(35.341) James Eddy of Wilbraham, husbandman sold to Charles Eddy, yeoman, 33 acres partly in Wilbraham and partly in Palmer, . . . part being owned by James Eddy, dec'd and by him conveyed to Caleb Eddy dec'd, the present owner, James Eddy being son and heir to said Caleb Eddy and received his title from said Caleb Eddy.

Nothing ascertained about his descendants.

997 Caleb Eddy (Caleb, James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William). He had a wife Sally in 1803 (44.9 Springfield Deeds). In 1801 he lived in Wilbraham, Mass.; in 1802 in Palmer but in 1804 he was in Worcester, Otsego Co. (Springfield Deeds 44.359 and 46.551) Caleb Eddy of Otsego Co., N. Y. sold to "David Hodges of Middleburgh in Schoharry Co., N. Y. land in Wilbraham . . . which fell to me as heir of my father Caleb Eddy" . . . Oct. 1, 1806.

1000 Charles Eddy (Charles, James, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 8, 1781, at Brimfield or Wilbraham, Mass.; d. Sept. 23, 1852; m. about 1803, Sarah Malcolm, b. Sept. 1, 1784, in Nova Scotia; d. Sept. 20, 1860, at Townsend, Ontario, Canada. She was dau. of Capt. Finley and Tryphena Malcolm. He was an officer in the militia.

The History of Burford Twsp., Brant Co., Canada, states that Charles was granted Concession No. 10 at 6 pence per acre in 1830. Sarah Malcolm Eddy was granted Concession No. 12 in 1806. The sons Constant and John are also mentioned here.

He sold out all his holdings in Palmer, Mass., in 1808, to his brother Adbeel (Springfield Deeds 48.362). "Charles Eddy, Jr. of Burford Gore, Co. of Oxford, Dist. of London, yeoman, formerly of Palmer, Mass., sold to Adbeel of Palmer, Mass., land in Wilbraham . . . near the Meetinghouse (See also 48.376).

1002 Peleg Eddy (John, Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 2, 1779, in Foster, R. I.; d. Nov. 30, 1860, in Foster. He is buried in a graveyard near the place where he lived near Ponagansett, a village of Scituate, on the border of Foster. He married Elizabeth Randall (called Betsey). She was the dau. of Job and Eleanor Randall, b. 1780; d. Oct. 2, 1870, aged 90 yrs., 8 mo., 9 da. (gravestone in Ponagansett Cem.). They are in the 1850 Census, aged 71 and 70 and residents of Foster.

He is mentioned in the will of Capt. John Round from whom he received a piece of land, which he and wife Betsey sold to John Eddy, June 13, 1805. It was land in Foster beginning at the fording place so called over the Ponagansett River, named in the last will of Capt. John Round, then up stream 15 rods.

1003 Thomas Eddy (John, Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. May 5, 1781, in Foster; d. Sept. 18, 1812; m. Cynthia Phillips.

On Sept. 26 Cynthia Eddy was app. admx. on the estate of Thomas Eddy, late of Foster, with John Eddy and Ephraim Phillips as security. Court then adjourned to the house of Daniel Eddy on Oct. 3 next. Thomas owned a piece of land in Foster, purchased from William and Penelope Davis on Jan. 3, 1808.

Child:

2227 Sarah Eddy, m. Andrew Hopkins. On April 10, 1824, they sold off rights inherited from her father John Eddy, in various deeds to her brothers.

1005 Daniel Eddy (John, Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 6, 1785; d. Oct. 18, 1827; m. Elizabeth Davis.

On May 26, 1806, Daniel Eddy of Foster, yeoman, sold to Job Angell, Jr. of Scituate ½ of my lot on the road leading to Plainfield and is that given me by Capt. John Round, late of Foster, dec'd in his last will and is what Capt. John purchased of Hugh Cole and Hugh Cole of Joseph Hoyle. This deed was signed by Daniel and Elizabeth, wife of Daniel, and by Anna Round, widow of Capt. John Round. John Eddy was a witness. July 22, 1806 Daniel sold ½ of lot given by Capt. John Round to George Brownell and Ozial Hopkins. Feb. 30, 1809, Stephen Davis and wife Priscilla Davis and Daniel Eddy and wife Elizabeth, sell land in Foster (4.365). Mar. 30, 1814, Daniel and Elizabeth sold to Stephen Davis, "½ the lot that Daniel and Stephen own jointly." Bounds mention heirs of Thomas Eddy, dec'd and John Barden. Eddy Walker and Abraham Walker were the witnesses. Mar. 29, 1826, Daniel Eddy of Foster sold "to my son John Eddy" of Foster land descended to me as heir at law of the estate of my father, John Eddy, late of Foster, dec'd (Foster Deeds). Feb. 26, 1827 Daniel and John Eddy, son of Daniel, both of Foster sold to Thomas Hill "all right I have in lands received when my father's estate was divided and my right in the dower of my mother, Sarah, and all rights in land of Gardner Eddy, dec'd" (Foster Deeds).

1011 Peter Eddy (Peleg, Peter, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. probably before 1781; m. Mariah Morey, Aug. 18, 1801 (V.R.). (Note. The name in the V.R. looks like Marcy but as Peter sold land to Joseph Morey, it seems likely that this name is Morey and not Marcy, as there seems to be no trace of a Marcy family in town at the time.)

Peter remained in Clarendon as late as 1807 at which time he entered into land transactions, and sold to Andrew Potter "land set off to me by the court from my father Peleg's land" (Clarendon Deeds). From Vermont, Peter went to Williamson, N. Y., where he bought 50 A. of land (Ont. Co., Deeds 37.248). (Note. This deed was acknowledged before David Eddy with Morton Eddy as witness. These belong to a wholly different line of Eddys.) Peter was a blacksmith. The place of his death has not been learned.

Soon after their marriage Abraham and Cynthia Eddy moved to Cattaraugus Co. in New York and in 1837 they went farther west to Ionia Co., Michigan. Probably Gardner preceded his parents. They settled first near Adrian, in Lenawee Co. and some of his descendants still live there. Abram, as he was generally called, drove into the wilds of Ionia Co. with an ox-team and settled in Berlin township at the place where the Eddy school is now located. In 1844 Abram Eddy was in Section 2, on a farm of 40 acres; Gardner in Section 2, on a farm of 40 acres; and Winslow in Section 14 on a farm of 40 acres.

He m. Julia Ann MacCombs of Scottish descent. She was b. about 1812 in Weston or Andover, Vt. and died Dec. 29, 1872, aged 59-9-24, at Chittenden. She was a dau. of John and Lydia MacCombs.

Julia was one of the "spirit mediums" and for years she and her children were famous the country over for their gifts. People assembled from all over the East to see the spirits which they called up nightly to visit them in a room of their old home or outside in a cave. Col. Olcutt has written a book on this family and his investigations concerning them, called "People from the Other World," published by Colby & Rich, Boston.

Children, b. Chittenden, Vt. (Ages taken from the 1850 Census):
2284 JOHN WESTLEY EDDY, aged 18 yrs. in 1850.
2285 FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT EDDY, aged 16 yrs. in 1850; d. Mar. 18, 1862, at Chittenden. He was an Orderly Sergeant of Co. G of the 5th Vt. Vol. He contracted a heavy cold and went into quick consumption. It is said that three days before the end he wrote in the family Bible the exact day and hour of his death (p. 94, Col. Olcutt's book). Unmar.
2286 MARANDA D. EDDY, aged 14 in 1850; d. Mar. 29, 1871. Unmar. One day before her death the family were at dinner. Suddenly a heavy bell tolled in the air right over their heads . . . Maranda saw James and Francis in the spirit, whereupon she gave orders for the inscription on her tombstone "Not dead but risen. Why seek ye the living among the dead?" She was the greatest medium of the whole family (Col. Olcutt's book).
2287 WILLIAM H. EDDY, aged 12 in 1850; m. Dec. 14, 1870, at Mendon, Vt. (V.R.), SARAH J. DROWN, b. 1850, at Reading, Vt.; dau. of Walter and Harriet Drown. He m. (2) Jan. 1, 1889, at Chittenden, ALICE E. PARENT

John Eddy was guardian of Asa Eddy "a minor of eight years, son of Thomas Eddy, late of Orange, Mass." (Worcester Prob. 18690), on Nov. 27, 1787. Early in life he removed to Hoosac, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., where he carried on a tanning business. He was there as early as 1803 (Worcester Deeds 161.338). He was m. before 1805, for Asa Eddy of Hoosac, N. Y., tanner, sold to Amasa Eddy of Northbridge, housewright, 70 acres in Orange, and wife Sybil signed the deed (Northampton Rec. 28.419) on Feb. 15, 1805 and the Worcester Deeds contain a deed of the same date (164.50).

Before 1824 he had settled in Milford, N. Y. for (Ont. Co. Deeds 43.225) Asa of Milford, N. Y., bought land in Geneva on Aug. 13, 1824 and later (58.348) Asa Eddy of Milford sold lots in Geneva. Wife, Sybil, signed the deed, and Lyman O. Eddy witnessed it.

Children, b. Hoosac, N. Y.:

+2343 Sarah Eddy, b. Aug. 10, 1804.
2344 Thomas Eddy, b. Mar. 4, 1807; d. Oct. 26, 1859; m. July 20, 1830, Aurelia Wilcox. They had no children.
+2345 Jesse Eddy, b. May 5, 1809.
+2346 Lyman A. Eddy, b. Apr. 3, 1811.

+2349 Jane Scott Eddy, b. Apr. 20, 1819.
+2350 Caroline Eddy, b. July 22, 1822.

1040 Amasa Eddy (Thomas, John, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 20, 1783; d. before Oct. 8, 1822, when an adm. was appointed; m. Mar. 15, 1804, at Northbridge, Esther Southwick.

Samuel Aldrich was guardian of Amasa Eddy, a minor of four years, "son of Thomas Eddy late of Orange, Hampshire Co.," on Nov. 27, 1787. John Eddy went bonds for him (Worcester Prob. 18682). He was a carpenter and housewright.

He was in Northbridge in 1805 (Worcester Deeds 164.50) and in Orange, Mass. in Jan. 1821, when he sold land to George Wheelock, "where I now dwell." His widow Esther declined to administer on the estate at the death of Amasa. In 1826 she sold land and right of dower to Sherman Bacon—a part of the farm which was the estate of her late husband, Amasa Eddy. In her old age she lost her mind and Moses Johnson of Orange was appointed her guardian (Greenfield Prob.).

Children (Full list not known. These learned from deeds and other transactions):

+2351 Thomas Eddy.
+2352 Francis L. Eddy.
2353 Charles A. Eddy, m. Sarah C. Bacon. Lived in Erving, Mass. From Hampshire Co. Deeds (297.314) it is learned that Amasa T. Eddy, Josiah Bacon, Sarah C. Eddy, wife of Charles A. Eddy of Erving, Sanford S. Bacon, and Elizabeth A. Eddy, wife of Amasa T. Eddy, and George H. Bacon sold land in Orange. Nothing further is known of him.

1043 Mary Eddy (Jesse, John, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 21, 1793, at Northbridge, Mass.; d. Jan. 27, 1861; m. Thomas Fry, of Bolton, Mass. He was a teacher.

2359 Mary Ann Fry, b. Mar. 7, 1836.

1045 John Eddy (Jesse, John, Joshua, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. July 18, 1799; d. Jan. 5, 1881, at Fall River; m. May 9, 1824, Huldah Larkin of Berlin, Mass.

The old records of Smithfield at Central Falls, R. I., have several transactions which show that John Eddy lived in Cumberland before going to Troy, Mass. (now Fall River). He owned several pieces of land in Smithfield, some of it in partnership with his brother Jesse. Later the two went to the present town of Fall River where they built the mills known as the Eddy Mills. They were in partnership also with Robert Mitchell.

Children:

1049 Gilbert Eddy (Devotion, Constant, Obadiah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 23, 1761; d. 1846; m. Prudence Avery; dau. of Jacob Avery (Jacob^5 was son of Christopher^4, James^3, James^2, Christopher^1; according to the Avery Gen. of Groton Averys).

On his tombstone it is stated that Gilbert Eddy was captured on the ocean and taken prisoner to Halifax, Nova Scotia. There is a tradition handed down in the family that he killed his keeper by throwing an iron kettle at him, and thus escaped. He served on his father's privateers and it was probably on one of these expeditions that he was captured. His name appears on a pay-roll of Capt. Hewit's Co. of Col. Latimer's Regt. of Militia at Saratoga, dated Nov. 7, 1777. He enlisted in Capt. Prentice's Co. of Militia, Oct. 1, 1782. He was a corporal and was discharged Nov. 29, 1782. He was at the battles of Saratoga and Bennington. He was a general over a division during the War of 1812 and he commanded a brigade at the invasion of Plattsburg. He was once chosen presidential elector. His home was in Rome, N. Y.

Robert Eddy was noted among his relatives and friends for his wit. He was rather wild and full of life. His father, Devotion Eddy, gave to him the farm in Brunswick which he had earlier purchased. Robert lived there several years but later went to Missouri. His heirs still own the farm. One incident is told about him with great glee. His brother, General Gilbert Eddy, wished to buy a valuable horse of Robert, but Robert would never sell. One day the horse died. Robert, concealing the death of the horse, propped him up in the stable and notified Gilbert that he was at last willing to part with the horse. Gen. Gilbert came at once for the horse and Robert said, "You can have the horse just as he stands for your figure." Gen. Eddy was greatly chagrined, when he found after paying for the horse, that he had purchased a dead horse. For months he was the laughing-stock of the neighbors.

Apr. 4, 1792; d. May 28, 1862, at Chicopee; dau. of Timothy and Jane (Henry) Gay. They are buried in Mt. Auburn Cem. on Narcissus Path, Lot 362. She was a descendant of John Gay who settled in Watertown about 1630. Her mother was the daughter of Robert and Jane (McQuesten) Henry of Boston. Both the Gay and Henry families were very wealthy and very successful in business (See Eddy Gen. of 1881 for a full record back to 1630). The following is taken from the 1881 Genealogy:

> Caleb Eddy resided in Boston from the time he was fourteen until he left for Chicopee in 1856. He was a merchant for seventeen years of the firm of Bemis and Eddy. He was alderman of Boston for two years. In 1825 he was appointed agent of the Middlesex and Merrimac River Canals and continued in that capacity until Jan. 15, 1846. He conducted the affairs of the corporation with eminent success, having built nearly all the works anew, and converted a non-paying into a highly profitable concern. He enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the community. He was interested in the genealogy of the Eddys, and wrote a large folio volume on the subject, after an extensive correspondence with persons of the name. His son, Robert Henry Eddy, the writer of the 1881 Gen. was greatly indebted to him for the early work.

Perhaps others.

1161 James Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. May 26, 1758 (Bible); d. Aug. 27, 1835, aged 77–3–0; bur. at West Hill Cem., Wallingford, Vt.; m. Lydia Ross, b. in Scituate, R. I. (dau. of Joseph and Mary Ross according to the American Hist. Soc. notes). She was living in 1837 when she gave a quitclaim deed to Sanford Eddy, her son. They lived in Wallingford, Vt.

There is a tradition in the family that the father of Lydia came from Scotland, that he was stolen when he was a little boy, taken on board a vessel and sold, upon his arrival in this country, for his passage money. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War from Berkshire Co. He received a pension. His service follows:

James Edy. Private, Capt. William Clark's co., Col. Benjamin Simonds's regt.; enlisted July 9, 1777; service, 22 days; company marched from Gageborough to Manchester by order of Gen. Schiler (Schuyler) on an alarm; also same co. and regt.; enlisted Sept. 5, 1777; service, 27 days; company marched from Gageborough to reinforce army under Gen. Lincoln at Pawlet; also, same co. and regt.; enlisted Oct. 13, 1780; discharged Oct. 18, 1780; service, 6 days; company marched from Windsor to Shaftsbury by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm at the Northward; also, same co. and regt.; enlisted Oct. 21, 1780; discharged Oct. 22, 1780; service, 2 days; company marched from Windsor by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm; also, Lieut. John Cole's co., Col. Simonds's regt.; enlisted Oct. 26, 1780; discharged Oct. 28, 1780; service, 3 days; company marched from Windsor by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm.

James Eddy. Private, Capt. Joseph Peirce's co., Col. Asa Barns's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted Oct. 28, 1781; service, 10 days; company marched by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm at the Northward.

He next went to Danby, Vt. and was living there when he purchased a piece of land from Abraham and Zilpha Brown in the northwest part of Adams, and was there in 1790 when the Census was taken. His household consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and two females.

Children:

+2552 George Eddy, b. about 1794.
+2553 Joseph Eddy, b. Jan. 5, 1796.
+2554 Hiram Eddy, b. Jan. 9, 1799.
+2555 Lydia Eddy, b. Mar. 24, 1801.
+2556 Sandford Eddy, b. abt. 1807.

1162 Amos Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 19, 1760 (Bible Rec.); d. before Sept. 8, 1796 (Rutland Prob.); m. Ruth Ross.

The administration on his estate was granted to Samuel Eddy and Joseph Ross on Sept. 8, 1796, at Rutland Probate Court. The names of Smith Eddy, Israel Eddy, James Eddy, Samuel Eddy and Ezekiel Ross are mentioned in the inventory. After his death Ruth m. John Eddy, son of Caleb and Prudence Eddy on Jan. 4, 1818. She died at the age of 80 years on June 25, 1847, in Bristol, Vt. Amos lived in Danby, Vt. and on Mar. 26, 1805, Ruth's thirds were set off to her near Joseph Ross's land. The service of Amos in the Revolutionary War follows:

Amos Edy. Private, Capt. William Clark's co., Col. Benjamin Simonds's regt.; enlisted Oct. 13, 1780; discharged Oct. 18, 1780; service, 6 days: company marched from Windsor to Shaftsbury by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm at the Northward; also, same co. and regt.; enlisted Oct. 21, 1780; discharged Oct. 22, 1780; service, 2 days; company marched from Windsor by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm; also, Lieut. John Cole's co., Col. Simond's regt.; enlisted Oct. 26, 1780; discharged Oct. 28, 1780; service, 3 days; company marched from Windsor by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm.

Amos Eaddy. Private, Capt. Daniel Brown's co. commanded by Lieut. William White, Col. Miles Powell's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted July 23, 1779; discharged Sept. 1, 1779, 120 miles from home; service, 1 mo. 10 days, at New Haven, Conn.; roll sworn to at Lanesborough; also, Capt. Hezekiah Green's co., Col. Barns's regt.; enlisted Oct. 13, 1781; service, 11 days; company marched from Windsor to Saratoga on an alarm at the Northward.

Children:

+2557 Amos Eddy, b. June 13, 1795.
+2558 Rachel Eddy.
2559 Perhaps Lillis Eddy (but no proof), who m. Elijah Peckham of Syracuse, and had a son, Steven Peckham, who d. in Bristol, Vt., on Sept. 13, 1913, at the age of 89 yrs. 10 mo. and 7 days.

1163 Israel Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. July 29, 1762 (Bible); d. probably May 20, 1831, at Starksboro, Vt., where there is an Israel Eddy bur. in the Village Cem. He m. Mercy Ross, b. in Scituate, R. I. about 1768; d. at Bristol, Vt., May 25, 1858. She was dau. of Joseph and Mary Ross (V.R.) and died at the age of 90 years.

After leaving Scituate they lived for awhile in Windsor, Mass., where they lost a child in 1797 and where they sold their land on June 13, 1798 (Adams Deeds, 6.293 and 7.445). Probably at this time they moved to Vermont. In 1815 he was living in Wallingford and in 1818 he sold land there. In 1823 in a deed he was called Israel Eddy of Rutland. This deed was witnessed by Heman Eddy (10.387, Rutland, Vt. Deeds).

Children (perhaps not a complete list):

2560 Eleazar Eddy.
+2561 Israel Eddy, b. about 1802.
2562 Child, d. in Windsor, Mar. 1797, aged 10 or 12 (V.R.).
+2563 Gilbert Eddy.
2564 Heman Eddy, m. Nov. 23, 1828, at Clarendon, Vt., Polly Cronkright. He witnessed a deed.

2565 Nathaniel Eddy.
+2566 William Anson Eddy, b. June 21, 1807, near Bristol, Vt.
2567 Mercy Eddy.

1164 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. June 1, 1765 (Bible); d. Aug. 23, 1844, aged 79 years (V.R.). He m. (1) Huldah . . ., who d. Aug. 7, 1796, at Windsor, Mass. He m. (2) Apr. 5, 1797, at Windsor, Mass., Lucy Stiles, b. about 1774; d. Sept. 26, 1848, at Dorset, Vt., aged 74 yrs., 10 mo. They are bur. in the Whitney Cem.

Child, by first wife:
+2568 Roxy Eddy, b. about 1794, probably at Windsor, Mass.

Children, by second wife:
2569 Orrin Eddy, b. about 1802; d. Aug. 7, 1828, at Dorset, Vt., aged 26 years.
+2570 Eroyal Eddy, b. about 1806.
+2571 Laura Eddy, b. Feb. 26, 1813.
+2572 Norman Hibbard Eddy, b. June 9, 1818.

1165 Smith Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Jan. 29, 1768; d. July 9, 1843, at Wallingford, Vt., aged 75–5–20 (V.R.); m. Oct. 16, 1788, at Hadley, Mass., Patience Hulett, b. Sept. 18, 1764; d. Mar. 11, 1838, aged 73–5–23. She is buried in the Doty Cem., Wallingford, Vt. She was dau. of John and Bernice (. . .) Hulett. "A Book of Record" of the birth of Smith Eddy and his wife Patience and their children has been found in the family of a descendant. It is the authority for the dates below. They lived in Wallingford and both are buried in the Doty Cem.

Children:
2573 Elkanah Eddy, b. July 24, 1790; d. May 27, 1791.
+2574 Andrew Eddy, b. Jan. 10, 1792.
+2575 Hosea Eddy, b. Jan. 15, 1794, at Windsor, Mass.
2576 Artemas Eddy, b. July 17, 1795; d. June 27, 1796.
+2577 Alden Eddy, b. Feb. 23, 1800, at Windsor, Mass.

1166 Mary Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Oct. 19, 1770; d. 1845; m. Aug. 8, 1793, Asa Warner. She was called Polly and Molly Eddy, and almost never Mary Eddy.

Children:
Rachel Warner, who m. Champlain Babcock and moved to Cattaraugus Co., N. Y.
Three or four others.

1167 Anna Eddy (Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 15, 1773; m. Mar. 16, 1797, at Windsor, Mass., John Eddy; son of Caleb and Prudence Eddy. See No. 1177. They lived in Wallingford in 1800. After her death on July 26, 1816 at Bristol, Vt., John married Ruth Eddy, see No. 1162, the widow of her brother Amos Eddy. See John Eddy (No. 1177) for the children.

1170 Allen Eddy (William, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William). He d. in Feb. 1835, in Canada. His name does not appear in the 1790 Census, so it is probable that he did not remain long in Vermont, if he resided there at all. The Eddy Gen. of 1881 states that he was b. in Scituate, R. I. No record of the birth has been found and no trace of him anywhere in R. I. It is probable that his wife was either a Harding or a Phillips.

Children:
+2578 Harden Eddy, b. 1796.
+2579 Alfred Phillips Eddy, b. 1798.
2580 Dorcas Eddy, b. 1799; m. . . . Purdy and d. in Canada.
2581 Robie Eddy, b. 1801; m. Elisha Doolittle, in Canada.
2582 Allen Eddy, b. 1804; d. 1876 in Illinois.
+2583 Philo Eddy, b. 1805.
2584 Henry Eddy. He lived in Canada.

1171 Bayse Eddy (William, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), d. Aug. 2, 1849. Nothing has been learned about him other than what is found in the 1881 Gen. He was probably named after Bayes Manchester, the husband of his father's sister, Mehitabel, who had no children.

Children:
2585 Hiram Eddy.
2586 William Eddy.
2587 Nelson Eddy.
2588 Ira Eddy.
2589 George W. Eddy.

1172 Oliver Eddy (William, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. about 1764; d. 1809, in his 45th year. He is buried in North Scituate, R. I. on the Yeaw farm near the New Clayville Road. He m. Elizabeth Yeaw. He may have been the Oliver Eddy who took the Freeman's oath in Ira, Vt. on May 31, 1779; if so he was rather young. He was in R. I. in 1798 in Burrillville, where the birth of one of his children is recorded.

Children:
+2590 William Eddy.
+2591 Ira Eddy, b. May 2, 1798, in Burrillville, R. I.
2592 Oliver Eddy, b. 1802; d. aged 82 yrs. in either Euclid, or Nottingham, O. He m. Abigail Castler. For a time he was a shoemaker in Scipio, N. Y. He had no children.
+2593 Charles Eddy.
2594 Elizabeth Eddy, m. Halsey Eddy; son of Luther and Mary (Bussey) Eddy. See No. 2600.

1173 Luther Eddy (William, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. May 8, 1768, in Scituate, R. I.; m. Mary Bussey before 1807 (Scituate Prob. in will of Mehitable Manchester).

Under the date of Sept. 23, 1782, the Town Council of Scituate, R. I. voted that "Luther Eddy, son of William Eddy, late of said Scituate, dec'd, aged 14 years, on the 8th of May last, be apprenticed to Capt. Coman Smith until he is 21 years and to be taught the cooper's trade." He probably spent all of his life in R. I.

Children, b. in Scituate:
2595 Zilpha Eddy. She is mentioned in the will of Mehitable Manchester, dated June 5, 1807. She m. Stephen Luther.
+2596 William A. Eddy, b. Feb. 15, 1795 (1850 Census).
+2597 Hazael Peckham Eddy, b. Mar. 23, 1796.
+2598 Gardiner S. Eddy.
2599 Lydia Eddy, m. Simon Mattison.
+2600 Halsey M. Eddy, b. probably about 1800.

1174 Asahel Eddy (William, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. 1770; d. Feb. 18, 1838, aged 68 years, at Java, N. Y.; m. Sally Spaulding, b. Nov. 1770; d. Mar. 19, 1839. (Other dates are given, 1768–1836 for Asahel and Mar. 19, 1838 for the death of Sally.) She was b. in Plainfield, Conn; dau. of Philip and Deborah (Wood) Spaulding.

He left R. I. when he was a young man. He settled first at Berlin, N. Y.; in 1807 he was in Richfield, N. Y. and in 1815 at Brighton. He finally in 1818 reached Java Village, where he remained the rest of his life. Both Asahel and Sally are buried there.

Children, b. in Otsego Co.:
+2601 BETSEY EDDY.
+2602 DEBORAH EDDY.
+2603 SALLY EDDY.
+2604 JOHN EDDY.
2605 HARRY EDDY, m. ANNIE WHITNEY. They lived in St. Charles, Ill.
2606 PHEBE EDDY, m. DANIEL SMITH. They lived in Rochester, N. Y.
2607 ERMINA EDDY, m. DR. REUBEN LEWIS. They lived in Attica, Ia.
+2608 SPAULDING EDDY, b. June 4, 1807, at Richfield, N. Y.
2609 AMY EDDY; m. YOUNGS GREGORY. They lived in Marshall, Mich.
2610 AMANDA EDDY, m. DANIEL CHASE. They lived in Marshall, Mich.

1176 Mehitable Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 12, 1769, in Scituate, R. I. (Date from records of Vernon Eddy of Cal.) She was living in Wallingford, Vt. at the time of the 1850 Census, in the family with Polly Cole, aged 52 years, Simeon Cole, aged 25 years, and Elizabeth Eddy aged 72 years. She m. Sept. 6, 1789, Robert Cole, son of Peabody and Mary (Davis) Cole. The Probate Rec. of Scituate, R. I., Book 2, p. 391, have the following record.

> Voted that Mehitabel Eddy and Peleg Eddy, infant children of Caleb Eddy, Jr., being of the poor of said town be bound out as apprentices to James Round of Scituate (Mehetebel will be 18 years of age in 1787), and the said James Round doth agree to instruct the said Apprentice or cause her to be instructed in household business, so as to be capable of getting her living thereby, also to learn her to read and at the expiration of said term to give her two good suits of apparel, one of which to be then new, exclusive of her everyday apparel.

1177 John Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Aug. 20, 1771 (date from V. Eddy's Rec.); d. June 14, 1835, at Bristol, Vt. He was buried in the Greenwood Cem. He m. (1) Mar. 15, 1797, in Windsor, Mass., Anna Eddy (see No. 1167), dau. of Samuel and Rachel (Smith) Eddy, b. Mar. 15, 1773; d. July 26, 1816, at Bristol, Vt. He m. (2) Jan. 4, 1818, Ruth (Ross) Eddy, widow of Amos Eddy. She d. at Bristol, June 25, 1847, aged 80 years (V.R.). See No. 1162.

The Scituate Town Council Records have the following:

> John Eddy, infant son of Caleb Eddy Jr. late of said Scituate is fallen under the care of the Town Council and is put and bound to Amos Williams of Glocester until 21 years of age. Dated Apr. 28, 1781.

The next record is found in Windsor, Mass., where he married. It is probable that he joined his uncles there and either before them or with them moved on to Vermont. In 1800, he was in Ira, Vt., with a boy and girl under 16 years of age (1800 Census).

Children (V. Eddy's Rec.):
+2611 SAMUEL EDDY, b. Feb. 26, 1798, at Wallingford, Vt.
2612 PRUDENCE EDDY, b. Dec. 31, 1799; d. June 27, 1815.
+2613 CYRUS EDDY, b. Apr. 16, 1803.
2614 ZIBA EDDY, b. Apr. 16, 1803 (twin); d. Feb. 12, 1804.
2615 LORANCIE EDDY, b. Mar. 14, 1806; d. Nov. 26, 1809.
2616 ELCY EDDY, b. Mar. 26, 1809; d. June 12, 1834; m. SAMUEL MORRISON.
2617 Child, b. Mar. 1812.
2618 MARY EDDY, b. Apr. 1814; d. 1814.
Perhaps there were others.

1178 William Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 6, 1773 (date from V. Eddy's Rec.); m. Sarah Goff; b. about 1777 (1850 Census), who d. Apr. 29, 1857, at Wallingford. Vt. She was living in Wallingford in 1850, aged 73 yrs. (Census).

In Scituate, R. I. the following record is found,—William Eddy, infant son of Caleb Eddy, Jr., being of the poor of the town is to be apprenticed to Thomas Harris until he is 21 years, which will be 1795. In 1800 he was in Ira, Vt.

He is probably the William Eddy who was admitted to the Baptist Church at Ira, Vt., in 1813 and also the William Eddy who was summoned in Clarendon, Vt. and ordered to depart the town with his family, because he had not brought papers of dismissal from the last town of which he was a resident. It is probable that the Zilpha, Mary, and James Eddy who were baptized in Ira, Vt. at the Baptist Church in 1809 were somehow related to this William and his brother John, but nothing definite has been found.

Children (full list not known):

+2619 William Eddy.
+2620 Caleb Eddy.
+2621 Susan Eddy.
+2622 Phila Eddy.
+2623 Ira Eddy.
+2624 Clara Eddy.
+2625 Jacob Eddy.
+2626 Loana Eddy.

1179 Peleg Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Samuel, Caleb, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 20, 1775 (V. Eddy's Rec.); m. Feb. 3, 1799, Anne Smith, d. Aug. 12, 1862; dau. of Daniel (or David) Smith. He was bound out by the Town Council of Scituate, R. I. to James Round until he should attain the age of 21 years and said master "Shall agree to teach the apprentice to read, write and cipher . . . sufficient to keep a common book of accounts etc." Scituate Rec. 2.391.

In Foster in Sept. 1804, "Anna Eddy, wife of Peleg of Foster, husbandman, and I, Peleg Eddy, her husband," sold land in Foster, 29 acres and a dwelling house, which was a part of Robt. Whitman's, dec'd, farm. According to one account he went to Canada for awhile and then to Watertown, N. Y.

Children:

2627 Benjamin Eddy, d. in early manhood, probably unmar.
+2628 Thomas Jefferson Eddy, b. Dec. 3, 1814, at Watertown, N. Y.
2629 Sarah Eddy.
2630 Nancy Eddy.

1190 Seth Eddy (John, Seth, John, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. July 2, 1765, at Brookfield, Mass. (V.R.); d. Nov. 13, 1823, at Brookfield (V.R.); m. Int. Jan. 22, 1792, and mar. Feb. 12, 1792, at Brookfield, Eunice Eaton, of Middleton, who d. Sept. 26, 1843, at Brookfield, aged 72 years (V.R.).

He lived on the farm which his father had purchased on the top of a high hill in the western part of the town. He was of a mechanical turn of mind, a gift which has been passed on to the following generations.

Children, b. in Brookfield, Mass.(V.R.):

+2631 Saloma Eddy, b. Jan. 15, 1793.
+2632 Titus Eddy, b. July 12, 1795.

2635 Mary Eddy, b. Feb. 22, 1806; d. Oct. 3, 1861. Unmar. She lived with her sister on Ragged Hill. On Oct. 26, 1824 Mary Eddy, a minor over 14, chose Apollos Clap as her guardian.
+2636 Abiel Eddy, b. July 31, 1810.

1195 Ephraim Eddy (Nathan, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Dec. 21, 1759, at Middleboro, Mass.; d. Sept. 3, 1799, at Woodstock, Vt. (V.R.); m. Oct. 10, 1782, at Woodstock, Vt., Mary Safford, b. Apr 4, 1763; d. Feb. 13, 1841, at Chelsea, Vt. (B.B.H.); dau. of Col. Joseph and Martha (Powers) Safford, formerly of Hardwick. She m. (2) at Chelsea, Vt., on Mar. 12, 1811, Col. Frye Bayley, of Newbury, Vt.

Ephraim was a farmer in early life, but in 1791 he purchased the clothier's works of Seth Sylvester. In 1797 his brother Isaac entered into partnership with him and carried on the business after the death of Ephraim. Ephraim held several offices in the town and was a man of considerable influence and much respected. Ephraim Eddy appears in the 1790 Census as a resident of Woodstock, Vt. and the head of a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, and four females. He served in the Revolutionary War, first in Middleboro, Mass., and later in Woodstock, Vt., where he became Captain of the First Light Infantry. His service in the Revolutionary War follows:

1198 Nathaniel Eddy (Nathan, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. July 6, 1767 (also given 1768); d. July 31, 1803, at Gallipolis, O.; m. Feb. 7, 1793, at Guilford, Vt. (V.R.), Hannah Shepardson, b. May 8, 1765; d. Dec. 21, 1813, in Meigs Co., O. She m. (2) Peter Grow of Meigs Co. (B.B.H.).

He was a resident of Killington (now Sherburne). The Land Registry contains several transactions of interest. He owned land also in Pittsford, Vt. From Vermont Nathaniel went to Marietta, O. then in the Northwest Territory. John Seaton possesses an interesting letter written by Nathan, his brother, to Nathaniel and Zachariah, who had recently gone West. It was a reply to one from Nathaniel which he had written from Wheeling on Sept. 24 and 26, and was received by Nathan on Dec. 11. It was six weeks getting to Rutland and lay there five weeks in the office before Nathan had heard of its arrival. Such was the difficulty and delay in communication in those early days of settlement, both in the West and in the mountainous sections of Vermont, especially in the winter months.

1199 Nathan Eddy (Nathan, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 21, 1770; d. Apr. 19, 1843 (also given Apr. 21) at Elmgrove, Shawneetown; m. Oct. 28, 1794, Rebecca Safford of Woodstock, Vt. (also given Woodford, Vt.).

Nathan Eddy purchased land at Killington, Vt. (now Sherburne) as early as 1792 and a few years later he purchased in Pittsford, where he resided from 1797 until about 1809. Sometime between 1809 and 1812 the family went to Chatauqua Co. and about 1819 the whole family with the exception of Henry and Ira went to Gallipolis, O. Nathan was a very large man, so large that it was necessary to build for him a special chair. He was a great student and reader. Oftentimes he taught school. The following reminiscences have been handed down in one branch of his descendants.

"Nathan told his children and grandchildren how his grandmother, Lydia Alden Eddy rendered service to her country during the Revolutionary War. She and her neighbors would spin, weave, and make new garments for the soldiers home on furlough. The old men were pressed into service to make new shoes, for many of them had learned the cobbler's trade in their youth."

Nathan sent two of his sons into Buffalo to school about 1812. His son Henry was put in charge of a "Called Out" regiment of New York Militia. He was only 15 years of age, but being large and well-developed and a youth who seemed to command respect, he took command and was in the Battle of Black Rock. Just previous to this, the father Nathan came to Buffalo to visit his two boys and was drafted into Henry's regiment, much to the amusement of the son, who said, "Now I am boss." Nathan spent his last days with this son Henry in Illinois and is buried there in Westwood Cemetery at Shawneetown, Ill.

1200 Isaac Eddy (Nathan, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. June 24, 1774, at Middleboro, Mass.; d. June 26, 1833, at Jamestown, N. Y.; m. Aug. 12, 1796, at Woodstock, Vt., Betsey McCary on Fryday evening (Bible Record). She was b. Sept. 7, 1772 (Bible Rec.), at Lyme, Conn.; d. Feb. 16, 1863.

(Note. This name is spelled in several ways: McCarey, McCrary and McCreary, but McCary is the spelling in the family Bible, which is now in the possession of Samuel Alden Eddy.)

Soon after his birth, Isaac's parents went to Vermont and finally settled in Woodstock where the greater part of his early life was passed. After his marriage he moved to Pittsfield, Vt., where the Land Registry shows several transactions. He became a leading citizen of that place. He was a justice of the peace and also served several terms in the Vermont Assembly. At first in 1802 he was in the clothier's business and then a merchant, but his position as scribe in the little church in Pittsfield, which had been formed in 1803 with sixteen members, soon developed into that of a deacon, and he was often called upon to conduct the religious exercises. He performed this duty in such a manner that several ministers advised him to study for the ministry. He was forty-four years of age when he was licensed to preach. He then moved to Locke, N. Y., where he remained for nine years. In 1824 he was settled in Jamestown, N. Y. (See Bulletin No. 14) He was a man of mild and agreeable manners, genial and pleasant in his intercourse with others. His life was guided by the strictest rules of rectitude. He was a man of deep thought and reflection, a pleasant speaker and earnest and persuasive in argument. He was known as "Good Father Eddy" in the town. In his church at Jamestown, N. Y., a tablet has been placed to his memory.

1201 Zachariah Eddy (Nathan, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 18, 1778; d. July 14, 1872, aged 93 yrs., 8 mo. at Warren, Pa.; m. May 17, 1804, Rose Stewart, b. Feb. 13, 1786; d. Aug. 6, 1857.

When his brother Nathaniel left Vermont and went to Ohio, Zachariah accompanied him, but later went into Pennsylvania. For twenty years he was lost to his family. A neighbor of Nathaniel happened to meet him in Warren, Penn. and told the family in Ohio about him. News was then sent to Isaac's family in Jamestown, N. Y., a town only a few miles away. There was a great reunion and these two branches have ever since been in close touch. Zachariah was a sergeant in the War of 1812, serving in a Co. of Militia commanded by Capt. Asa Winters, in 1814 (Penn. Archives 6th Series, Vol. X, p. 120). Rose Stewart came from Ireland when nine years of age to the state of Delaware. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

1202 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. June 21, 1764 (Plym. V.R.). He was living in Colerain, as late as 1830, when "Samuel Eddy, gentleman, of Colerain, Mass." sold to Seth Eddy his rights in the land left by William Eddy (Wayne Co., N. Y., Deeds). He had a wife, Esther, who joined with him on Mar. 28, 1825, when he sold land in Colerain, Mass. (Franklin Co. Deeds, 60.362).

On Dec. 24, 1825, Joseph Smith of Colerain and Samuel Eddy of Colerain, yeoman, lease to the latter for $1000, during his life and also during the life of his wife Esther Eddy . . . land deeded today to Joseph Smith by Calvin Smith, etc. He served in the Revolutionary War under his father, in Capt. Joshua Eddy's Co. (Rev. War Rec. at Washington S.30396).

1204 David Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 3, 1774, at Middleboro, Mass.; d. June 9, 1840, at Eddy Ridge, N. Y.; m. 1792–1794 (1) Margaret Patterson (also spelled Pattison). She d. June 24, 1804. He m. (2) May 25, 1806, Deborah Shaw, b. Jan. 2, 1781; d. June 24, 1847.

In 1793 he witnessed a deed of his father's in Colerain, Mass. (Franklin Co. Deeds, 8.662) and his signature and that of Margaret is affixed to a deed, dated Oct. 24, 1789, but not acknowledged and recorded until 1806 (Franklin Co. Deeds, 22.439). In this deed several of the Pattison family join in selling land in Colerain. Just how early he settled in Marion is not known exactly. He became commissioner of the county of Ontario, N. Y., and was called Judge Eddy. His will dated May 5, 1840 (B 429, Wayne Co. Surrogate's records) mentions wife Deborah, oldest daughter Polly Williams; Anna Hawkins, second daughter; Susannah Hill, third daughter, and her husband Fordus Hill; Morton Eddy, oldest son; George P., second son; Hiram L., third son; and Alfred Eddy, fourth son. Morton was the executor. Seth Eddy was a witness.

Deeds, 19–431). In 1822 he and his wife, Sally, sold to Seth Eddy certain lands (Ontario Co. Deeds, 39.240). The settlement of his estate with his brothers as heirs of all but the widow's thirds shows that he had no children who outlived him.

1206 Seth Eddy (Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. 1780; d. 1864; m. Millicent Huggins, who d. 1857, in Marion, N. Y. He was a graduate of Brown University (1799) and the following year was made the principal of Plainfield Academy in Conn. It is said that he studied law with his famous kinsman, Samuel Eddy of Providence. He became an eminent lawyer, who was known all through eastern New England. He kept his office in Middleboro, which became a center not only for legal and political discussions, but also for many religious debates, for he was a very religious man and as learned in the Scriptures as in the law. He was an excellent counsellor and friend to the young and to all who came seeking advice. Living as he did in the very center of the Eddy traditions, he became interested in the history of the family and collected all that he could find in regard to the branch to which he belonged. The New England Historical and Genealogical Register of July, 1854, printed a short sketch which he wrote. This contains a brief account of the early lines and definitely states that John Eddy of Taunton was a son of Samuel Eddy. The Eddy Family History of 1881 follows this authority for the Taunton branch.

William Eddy commenced business in Plympton in one of the first cotton factories in the country. Later he and his brother Nathaniel took charge of the "Furnace" where they made hollow ware and iron utensils, pots, kettles and andirons. These products were shipped all over the country. The iron used was obtained from ponds and when this supply was exhausted, it was brought from New Jersey to New Bedford in ships and carted from there to the "Furnace." (Hist. of Middleborough.)

1235 William Eddy (Thomas, Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. May 17, 1787, probably at Middleboro, Mass., before his parents left for Vermont. He d. June 12, 1874, at Waterbury, Vt.; m. Jan. 1, 1815, at Williston, Vt., Desire Bunnell, b. Oct. 26, 1785; d. Nov. 9, 1815. He m. (2) Oct. 20, 1816, Jane Smith of Burlington, Vt., b. Jan. 11, 1797; d. May 9, 1868, aged 71–3–28 (gravestone in Waterbury Cem.). She was b. in Clairmont, N. H.; dau. of John Smith.

William Eddy was always called Capt. William or Capt. Eddy. A descendant, Mrs. Mann of Randolph, Mass., has his Bible from which the records are taken and also a paper signed by the Governor of Vermont, making him ensign of the 7th Co. of Inf. in the 1st Reg't, 2nd Brigade and 3rd Division of the Militia of Vt., signed Feb. 27, 1819. He was one of the members of the society which built the first meeting-house in Waterbury and contributed to its building and support.

1243 Polly Eddy (Samuel, Zachariah, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 4, 1800, at Sennett, Cayuga Co., N. Y., near Auburn; d. Dec. 21, 1860, in her 61st year in Sterling, Ill.; m. 1822, Simeon Shepard (also spelled Shepherd). He was b. May 23, 1800, in Auburn, N. Y.; d. Sept. 1849, at Milledgeville, Ill. She was his second wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepard probably between 1840 and 1850 left New York and went West by way of the Great Lakes passing through Chicago, then called Fort Dearborn. They settled in Sterling, Ill.

He had a son by his first wife who was burned to death in Feb. or Mar., 1835, aged 13 yrs.

Children:

+2790 John Shepard, b. July 10, 1824.

1244 Moses Eddy (John, Jabez, Jabez, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Nov. 17, 1762; d. Aug. 30, 1849, at Deerfield (V.R.) also given Aug. 29, 1849; m. 1786, to Elizabeth Alverson (also spelled Aulverson) of Halifax, who d. Oct. 19, 1844, at Deerfield (V.R.). This date is also given Oct. 31, 1844.

At the time of the 1790 Census, he was a resident of Middleboro. His family consisted of himself and wife. The births of the children are recorded in Deerfield, so that it is probable that he settled there soon after 1790. According to these records one son was born before 1790 and so ought to appear in the Census. His will mentions daughter Elvira Jones, wife of Caleb, and his grandchildren, children of his son John, deceased.

He served as a drummer boy in the Revolutionary War when only sixteen as follows:

Moses Eddy, 2d. Private, Capt. Joshua White's co., Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regt.; enlisted Sept. 6, 1778; discharged Sept. 12, 1778; service, 6 days, on an alarm at Dartmouth. Roll dated Middleborough.

Children (Deerfield Rec.):

+2801 John Eddy, b. Sept. 17, 1787.

2804 David Eddy, b. Apr. 11, 1802; d. Aug. 4, 1803, at Deerfield.
2805 Elvira Eddy, b. Nov. 23, 1804; m. (Int. Sept. 10, 1824) Sept. 26, 1824, at Deerfield, Caleb Jones of Deerfield. (Her name is also given as Eliza Eddy.)
2806 Seth Eddy, b. July 30, 1811; d. Oct. 17, 1814.

1245 Jacob Eddy (John, Jabez, Jabez, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. probably in Middleboro; m. about 1790 Sarah Clark (Deerfield V.R. state "during the year ending Apr. 27, 1791"). He removed to Troy, N. Y.

Children (Deerfield Records), b. at Deerfield, Mass.:

2807 Sarah Eddy, b. May 17, 1791.
2808 Ruth Eddy, b. Oct. 9, 1792.
2809 Elizabeth Eddy, b. May 21, 1794.
2810 Jacob Eddy, b. June 29, 1796 (also given June 25).
2811 Jabez Eddy, b. Mar. 10, 1798.
2812 Dency Eddy, b. Mar. 1, 1800.
2813 Solomon Eddy, b. Mar. 10, 1801.

1246 Solomon Eddy (John, Jabez, Jabez, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. probably in Middleboro; d. before Sept. 14, 1843; m. Feb. 15, 1803, at Boston (V.R.), Mary Vose of Boston.

(Middlesex Co., Mass. 432.541) "I, Mary Eddy of Providence, widow, depose that I am the reputed daughter and only living child of Jane Vose of said Providence, dec'd, who is named in the annexed mortgage etc. . . ." dated Sept. 14, 1843. Solomon was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, with the following service:

> Solomon Eddy, Bridgewater. Descriptive list of men raised to reinforce Continental Army for the term of 6 months, agreeable to resolve of June 5, 1780; age, 16 yrs.; stature, 5 ft. 3 in.; complexion, ruddy; engaged for town of Bridgewater; arrived at Springfield July 9, 1780; also, list of men raised for the 6 months' service and returned by Brig. Gen. Paterson as having passed muster in a return dated Camp Totoway Oct. 25, 1780; also, pay roll for 6 months' men raised by the town of Bridgewater for service in the Continental Army during 1780; marched July 4, 1780; discharged Dec. 6, 1780; service, 5 mos. 14 days, at West Point; also, Private, Capt. Abram Washburn's co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's regt.; marched March 10, 1781; discharged April 1, 1781, service, 22 days; company marched to Newport, R. I., for 40 days' service; roll dated Bridgewater.

Children (full list not known):

+2814 John Eddy.
2815 Eliza Eddy, b. about 1823; d. Oct. 19, 1883, at Providence, aged 60 yrs. 7 mo. She lived on South St. Unmar.
2816 Marilla Eddy, b. about 1814, in Boston; d. Dec. 3, 1896, aged 82 years. She left a will. Unmar.

1250 Othniel Eddy (Jonathan, Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. May 8, 1773, in Woodstock, Conn.; d. Dec. 15, 1851, in Orwell, Ohio, aged 81 yrs., 7 mo.; m. Alice McKinstry, b. Aug. 17, 1774; d. Oct. 22, 1845, at Orwell.

He is probably the Othniel Eddy who settled the estate of Jonathan Eddy. At the time of his father's death he was living in Monson, but soon he removed to Stafford, Conn. He also purchased land in Bethel, Vt. about 1797 but he sold it in a few years. It is possible that he lived in Vermont for awhile before he went West, but no proof has as yet been found.

Children, b. in Stafford, Conn. (V.R.):

+2817 Moore Eddy, b. Jan. 15, 1795.
+2818 Sarah Eddy, b. June 22, 1798.
2819 Ruby Eddy, b. Apr. 11, 1800; m. John G. Wasson. They lived in Albany, N. Y. They had no children.

2824 Almira Eddy, b. July 19, 1813; d. 1814.
2825 Elvira Eddy, b. July 19, 1813 (twin). (It is possible that these are the same child and that there is a clerical error in the spelling.)

1251 Jonas Eddy (Jonathan, Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. about 1775; m. (1) Susan . . . who d. Dec. 7, 1814, at Bethel, Vt., aged 37 years; buried in Cherry Cem.; m. (2) Ruth . . .

He is mentioned in deeds in Springfield, Mass. (40.246). He probably went to Bethel, Vt., about 1798. He was settled there in 1800, when the Census of that year was taken.

Children, b. in Bethel, Vt.:

+2826 Gustavus Eddy, b. Oct. 14, 1799, also called Augustus R. Eddy.
2827 Lucina Eddy, b. May 3, 1801.
2828 Lewis Eddy, b. Mar. 26, 1803.
2829 Calista Eddy, b. June 9, 1805; d. Oct. 25, 1825, at Bethel, Vt.
2830 Aaron Eddy, b. Nov. 9, 1807.

He was educated in the school near his home. He was a weaver by trade, but like most men of the country districts he also worked on the farm. As his parents grew older he assumed all the management of his father's farm, which was given to him by them in 1859. He cared for his parents during their lives and then left the farm to work in East Boston where he was a salesman. Later he went to Lynn. Here he met Mrs. Mary (Baker) Glover and became one of the students in the classes to which she was explaining her new ideas of religion. He became one of her first converts to the new doctrine of Christian Science. Later, on New Year's day in 1877 he married her, and thus the name of Eddy has become known throughout the civilized world wherever her doctrines have spread. "He was a man of methodical habits, of a kindly nature, and firm convictions, but quiet, gentle, unassuming and pleasing in his manner, refined in his tastes and esteemed and respected by his friends and acquaintances." "In 1879 he and his wife removed to Boston to take up a broader field for her great work." There he died on June 3, 1882. By his will dated Aug. 22, 1878, he gave all his property "to my beloved wife Mary Baker Glover Eddy." This will gave to her possession of the farm in Londonderry where his ancestors had lived. This house is still standing, somewhat off from the road which leads from Brattleboro along the river to Londonderry, Vt. Upon his monument at Tilton, N. H., Mrs. Eddy had the following inscription engraved:

Asa G. Eddy
Departed this Life
For a Higher and More Glorious Sense of Being.
June 3, 1882.

A Devoted Husband,
A True Philanthropist,
A Christian Scientist.

(The above account is abridged from a page devoted to Asa G. Eddy in the issue of Feb. 17, 1916 of the Christian Science Monitor, Boston, Mass.)

But before the fulfillment of her ideas, Mrs. Somers was forced to retire from active leadership on account of her health, but she lived long enough to see the accomplishment of her wishes. She died in June, 1923. In writing of Mrs. Somers, Isabel Creed says, "She believed that living is a fine art and should be cultivated by those attributes which make it so—gentleness, courtesy and consideration. She gave to the daughters of Mt. Vernon Seminary her love of beauty and high regard for the qualities of a true gentlewoman."

When Thomas was thirteen, his father was transferred from the Ohio to the Indiana Conference, so that the remainder of his boyhood was passed in Rush Co., where the present village of Palmyra now is situated. He attended a classical school at Greensburgh, Ind. and when only nineteen years of age on Sept. 17, 1842 he was licensed to preach and was admitted on trial to the travelling connection of the Methodist Episcopal ministry. From the very beginning his preaching attracted unusual attention. Many things combined to bring him into special notice, his extremely boyish appearance, his pale, beardless, but singularly intellectual face, the pathos of his voice, his impassioned manner, and unique diction. His choice of words, abundance of imagery, and earnest style, enabled him to preach his thoughts in the most effective manner, and to secure and hold the undivided attention of his audience. His salary for the first year was sixty dollars. For the carrying on of his labors he rode hundreds of miles in the saddle. He was made an Elder in 1846 and in 1850 was given the church in Madison. By the time that he was thirty he was recognized as one of the most popular preachers in the Indiana Conference. In 1856 at the death of the editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, he was elected to the editorship of the paper. These were troublous times in the history of the Nation, but Thomas Eddy was pronounced and intense in his anti-slavery convictions. His paper came to be recognized as one of the forces upon which the administration could depend for sympathy and support. He served for twelve years as editor while Chicago was growing from a city of 50,000 to a city of 250,000 people and the subscriptions to his paper were over 30,000. He became known as one of the great men of the Northwest. In 1869 Thomas Eddy was transferred to Baltimore to occupy the pulpit of the Charles St. Church. But under his leadership a new church was built in Mt. Vernon Place. It stands as a monument to his genius and energy. In 1872 he was transferred to the Metropolitan Church at Washington, D. C. On his first Sabbath the pulpit was decorated with flowers from the White House and both the President and the Vice-President with their wives and many other persons of note were present. He later became one of the three secretaries of the Missionary Society of the Church and had charge of the Indian Agencies which had been given into the charge of the Methodist Episcopal Church by the Government "Peace Policy" of President Grant. In 1874 Dr. Eddy attended the Western Conference and gave one of his stirring addresses. His health had been failing for some time and the long and exacting trip was too much for his strength. On the seventh of October "one of the most royal souls that ever left a track of brightness on earth had passed away". (From the "Life of Rev. Thomas M. Eddy, D.D. by Charles N. Sims, D.D. 1879.)

Sarah Torrey was one of the earliest graduates of Mount Holyoke seminary. She taught there under Mary Lyon from 1839 to 1843 (Hist. of Mount Holyoke Sem.). Henry Eddy was a graduate of Yale in the Class of 1832. For one or two years he studied theology at Andover Theological Seminary and then continued his studies at Yale Theological Seminary. He was ordained Feb. 16, 1836, pastor of the Congregational Church in West Granville, Mass. He remained there until Sept. 25, 1839, and in 1840 he was installed over the Congregational Church at Stoughton, where he remained four years. Then for two years he was at the Congregational Church in Turner, Me. and two years at Kennebunkport, Me. At this time finding that his voice was failing, he thought it best to prepare himself for another profession, so while supplying the Congregational Church at Guilford, Conn., from Jan. 1849 to Mar. 1851, he studied medicine at Yale and received the degree of M.D. in 1851. From then until his death he resided in North Bridgewater, Mass. at first practising medicine, but after a few years engaged in farming and in a business growing out of inventions of his own, and the patent-rights connected with them. In this he was very successful for he inherited the mechanical genius which was a characteristic of this branch of the family.

When he was a boy, James Eddy went to Boston to learn the trade of an engraver. He was a boy of great talent and he possessed a passionate love for art. This combination of gifts was the foundation of his skill as an engraver. When he had learned the trade he went to New York City, where he became familiar with such works of art as the city afforded. When this country was not able to furnish him with such tools as his skill demanded he went to Europe in search of them. This trip opened up to him the wealth of the art treasures of Europe. He conceived the idea that good copies of the famous paintings that he saw there would sell readily in this country, and so he invested what money he had in such an undertaking. His anticipations were fully realized and he became an extensive purchaser and seller of paintings and other works of art. He was one of the first to import to this country the great treasures of Europe. He disposed of his purchases in the large cities at auctions and so accumulated a considerable fortune. When he retired from business, he returned to the city of his birth and in Providence on Broadway, he built a large mansion house, which he furnished with many treasures. The grounds surrounding were laid out most artistically. Near the entrance to his estate, he built and endowed an edifice for public worship in 1875. This he consecrated to the use of those people who desired to worship as their consciences dictated and without the restrictions of the Orthodox Church doctrines.

He was a firm believer in God as the creator and originator of the universe and mankind. He once told a friend who made inquiries concerning the erection of the chapel that he built it as a voluntary monument of praise and gratitude to God for the life and many attendant blessings that had been given to him.

His home and this chapel were the headquarters of the great Eddy Reunion of 1880, when the 250th Anniversary was celebrated, and again in 1923 when the Eddy Family Association held its Annual Meeting in Providence.

[Extracts from the will of Mr. James Eddy:—"I give, devise and bequeath to my friend Barton A. Ballou and my two daughters, Sarah J. Eddy and Amy E. Harris, wife of Edward M. Harris, as a board of trustees . . . all that building commonly known as the Bell Street Chapel in Providence, Rhode Island, and all the land on which it stands, said lot fronting on Bell Street, also including the strip of land owned by me on the easterly side of same, and a strip of land ten feet in width, on the northerly and westerly sides of said building . . . also as an endowment for the continued support and maintenance of the purpose of this trust, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, the same to be paid from my estate."]

They lived at first in Barrington, R. I. From there Mr. Mauran went to New York, where he became a wealthy merchant and later the proprietor of the first Italian Opera House erected in New York. He was very fond of music. His summer home was on Staten Island, at his country-seat "Monocnong."

ii James Eddy Mauran, b. June 8, 1817; d. Nov. 27, 1888; m. Alice Cooper, b. Apr. 21, 1832. He was a great scholar and well versed in French, Spanish, Italian and Latin. At the desire of his father he started in to fit himself for a business life, but found that it was not congenial. Since his tastes were literary he decided to become a bookseller, and he became the senior partner of the firm Mauran & Philes. After several years in the business, he retired and moved to Newport, where he built the home on Rhode Island Ave., where he spent the remainder of his life. He had a great fondness for rare and antique books and for works of art. It is likely that he inherited from his grandfather Eddy his love for antiquities and the capacity for patient research, which he developed to such a remarkable degree in his after life. Among his books was a copy of Froissart's Chronicles, which he had embellished with his own hand by "illuminations" on the margins. He also made this a most valuable book with his marginal notes and inserted pages upon which he had placed the results of years of patient study of the fourteenth century, its life and works. He was one of the great scholars of his time.

H. CYRUS FARNUM, d. Feb. 12, 1926 at North Providence, R. I.; m. ALICE LEIGH, who d. 1920. He was one of the great artists of Providence, a scholar and a musician. At an early age he gave evidence of great talent. In 1893 he studied in Paris. He took several prizes and in 1896 a landscape was accepted by the Royal Academy of Arts in London. In his later years he gave his attention to portraiture. He travelled much and produced many fine pictures of foreign scenes. His young daughter, Elodie Farnum, was a genius also. Her early death and that of his wife left him much alone in the world. From that time he withdrew from society and spent his time alone with his art. The school children of Providence have a library in one of the public schools which they have named in honor of the brilliant child whom they loved.

He spent his boyhood in Barrington, and began teaching at an early age, and followed this vocation the greater part of his life. During the winter he also taught singing in a night school. He was a fluent speaker and a clear thinker and keen reasoner, so that he was much sought after for debates and public speeches. He settled in De Kalb Co., Ill. in 1844, but in 1852 moved to the extreme frontier of Minnesota.

Frank Marion Eddy writes:

My father was a small, wiry man, with a big head; tremendously fond of argument, and of a literary turn of mind and of considerable oratorical ability; very religious, but of a pugnacious disposition. He was well-educated, having attended an academy in New York State. He was an especially fine penman and taught writing school. He was a fine tenor singer. He was a miller and frequently worked in grist-mills. He was of a very restless disposition and could never remain long in any one place or at any one pursuit. He was a typical frontiersman and whenever any one settled within a mile of him, he pulled up stakes and moved on. He settled on Government land twice in Ill., twice in Ia. (one claim in Ia. is now site of Decorah), twice in Minn. He used neither liquor nor tobacco. He was an ardent Republican.

He began a business career at the age of 17 as a clerk in a country store. He was frugal, industrious and honest. About 1844 he began business in New York City as a manufacturer of tape measures. He pursued this business with his characteristic energy and perseverance, overcoming one difficulty after another which attended the founding of a new business, until it assumed under his wise management much larger proportions than had at first seemed possible. He invented a rotary printing-press which his business demanded. He employed Messrs. R. Hoe & Co. to build this rotary press, the first ever made. All the later presses built by this great firm followed the principle developed in his machine. In 1886 he purchased ten city lots on Carson Ave., Brooklyn, where he built a factory. He was greatly interested in the prosperity of Brooklyn. He was a member of the Union League Club, one of the founders of the Bedford Bank, and one of its board of directors. He was also active in the Classon Ave. Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Raymond Eddy was a self-made man. The greater part of his education was acquired after he was eighteen years of age, by persistent study in his spare moments. For a time he was an overseer in a mill, but later entered the jewelry business in Warren and carried on in addition a watch and clock-repairing establishment. He invented the spring locket and several tools for use in tracing fine patterns on jewelry. But medicine had always interested him. When about forty years of age he entered the Eclectic Medical Institute of Cincinnati and graduated in 1860. He entered upon the practice of medicine in Greenville, R. I. and later moved to Olneyville, on the outskirts of Providence, where he had a large practice and was beloved by all whom he served.

George Washington Eddy was a man of exceptional inventive genius. He was prominent in the business world, being a large manufacturer of stoves, valves and various iron castings produced in his foundry at Waterford, Saratoga Co., N. Y., where he also conducted a large machine shop. He invented a car wheel which received honorable mention at the World's Fair held in London, England, many decades ago, and with just pride claimed that not a single wheel had ever been reported unsound or impaired. He also invented the Eddy Valve used in laying cast-iron water and gas pipe, and R. D. Wood & Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., at that time the largest manufacturers of this pipe, arranged with Mr. Eddy to interest themselves in exploiting the sale of this valve. Mr. Eddy was also engaged in the manufacture of printer's ink, and while associated with his brother, Walton M. Eddy, was interested in the manufacture of "Raven Lamp Black."

At one time Mr. Eddy was one of the three engaged in operating a flour mill in Waterford. He was always most active, and always on the alert. He was a director on the board of the bank in Waterford, and prominent in the affairs of the Presbyterian Church at that place. He was highly esteemed for his veracity and probity, and a most respected citizen. He was a great lover of horses and owned many of the finest breed.

De Forest Eddy writes, "My father died when I was about 17 years of age. I remember that he told me of traveling with his father and family from the shores of Lake Ontario to Open Meadows, Chatauqua Co., when about seven years of age. They bought a farm near Watt's Flats. My father lived with his brother Jonathan from the time he was 10 years old until he was married, when he purchased a place not far away. Some time later he traded with the widow of his brother Levi and so came into possession of the old homestead, where he went to live and to care for his father and mother as long as they lived. He was an honest, sober, industrious farmer, a hardworking Christian man.

When he was eleven years old his family went to Illinois where they remained until 1856, when they went to Iowa, locating in Le Claire. When he was eighteen, Joseph made his first trip as cabin-boy on a Mississippi packet. This was the beginning of his river career. He next became an oarsman and learned the river channels, so that later he took charge of the rafts running from St. Paul to St. Louis. In 1860 he joined a company of prospectors, who crossed the plains by means of ox-teams to seek their fortunes in the gold mines of the Rockies. Later he returned to the river trade and when steamers took the place of rafts he became the pilot and master of one of them. He is now retired (1910) and enjoys the outlook from his home, out over the "Father of Waters", where he has spent the greater part of his life. He is a Mason and a Democrat.

No children.

The following is taken from the Eddy Genealogy of 1881 which he compiled. "He was educated in Boston and studied architecture with the late Asher Benjamin, Architect. Afterwards he studied civil and military engineering with the late Col. Loammi Baldwin and was engaged at the building of the dry-dock at the Charlestown Navy Yard, also on the Middlesex and Merrimac Canals. At the age of twenty-one, he was chosen Civil Engineer to the East Boston Co. and surveyed and laid out East Boston; built roads, wharves, bridges and various other improvements there. For several years he was extensively employed in making surveys in New England and New York for public improvements. He was employed by the City of Boston to make surveys of lakes in the vicinity for the introduction of water. Later he abandoned surveying and became a Solicitor of Patents, being the first to establish the business in this country. He has been an extensive practitioner. He spent much time in Europe studying the public works there, especially docks, canals, bridges, railways, waterworks, etc." He was elected "Fellow of the Royal Historical Society of Great Britain." At his death he left a large sum of money to the New England Historic and Genealogical Society in Boston. Some of the bequest is used in printing the Vital Records of Massachusetts towns. The Society has named a Room in its new home "The Robert Henry Eddy Room."

In his will he left a bequest which was carried out by his executors. In accordance with his wishes a memorial designed by Mr. W. D. Caroe was erected in 1902 in the Church of Cranbrook, where William Eddy, the earliest known ancestor of the Eddys in America, was Vicar. In addition to the tablet are three beautiful windows. The tablet bears the following inscription:

> "This Tablet and these three windows were dedicated by Robert Henry Eddy of Boston in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, U. S. A., to the memory of his ancestor, the Reverend William Eddye, M. A., Vicar of this Church from 1591 to 1616. Whose sons John and Samuel and whose daughter Abigail were among the Pilgrim settlers of New England and there implanted for the benefit of a numerous posterity the religious principles here taught them."

When not yet eighteen years of age Ira, together with his brother Henry, both students at Buffalo, enlisted in the War of 1812. Ira was a mechanic as well as a student. He became a Methodist preacher and about 1818 he was assigned to a circuit in Ohio, which covered about 600 miles, the first Methodist pastor in that section. Perhaps there is no man so responsible for the founding of so many churches in the Western Reserve as was "Father Ira Eddy," as he was called. In 1819 Ira was living in Painesville, O. (See Deed 73.282 in Springfield, Mass.)

Aug. 17, 1826, Mary Jane Marshall, dau. of John and Amy (Leech) Marshall. (John Marshall was president of the first bank in Ill. Amy Leech was b. at Fort Louisville.)

Henry Eddy was sent by his parents to Buffalo, N. Y. to attend school. When he was only 15 years old, he was put in charge of a "Called Out" regiment of N. Y. Militia and was injured in the Battle of Black Rock. After recovering he finished the school, and studied law.

He learned the printer's trade in Pittsburgh. In 1818 he started from Pittsburgh for St. Louis on a river-boat with a printing outfit on board. When he reached Shawneetown, Ill. the boat stuck on a bar. The citizens of Shawneetown learning of the predicament and of the press and typesetter sent a committee aboard. They laid siege to the stranded editor and belittled St. Louis, while praising Shawneetown in glowing colors. Mr. Eddy yielded to their entreaties. On Sept. 5, 1818, "The Shawnee Chief" appeared. It became later "The Illinois Immigrant." Mr. Eddy rose to an influential place in the community. In 1820 he represented Gallatin Co. in the State Legislature and in 1824 he was one of the three presidential electors from Illinois. His paper became "The Illinois Gazette" and later Mr. Eddy took an active part in the Anti-Slavery campaign of 1824. He was made a circuit attorney and in 1835 Circuit Judge. Again in 1846 he was elected to the State Legislature. He is described by a contemporary as a "clean-cut, intelligent, agreeable man, who preferred to be a good lawyer to a poor politician." He was often referred to as the "Roman Senator." He was a great French scholar and he owned a large library. See also articles on Illinois in Chicago Tribune for 1920.

Y., Elizabeth Louise Hawley; b. Aug. 1, 1817, at Glenns Falls, N. Y.; d. Jan. 7, 1856, at Canaan, dau. of Alpheus and Kezia (Berry) Hawley. He m. (2) May 5, 1857, Frances Charlotte Adam, b. Aug. 31, 1830; d. Apr. 18, 1910, at Canaan; dau. of William and Charlotte (Lawrence) Adam.

After a boyhood spent in Chatauqua Co., N. Y., Hiram Eddy attended Hamilton College and Oberlin. He was ordained a clergyman in the Congregational Church and filled pastorates in Sherman, N. Y.; Warren, Pa.; Springville, N. Y.; Ellicottville, N. Y. and in Canaan and Winsted, Conn. While at the latter place the Civil War broke out.

When the news of the firing on Fort Sumter was brought to him, as he was starting for church, he threw away his prepared discourse, preached a "war sermon" and called a war meeting for the same evening. From that time on until the close of the war, he gave all that was in him to the cause of the Union, earning thereby the title of the "Fighting Parson." He was made chaplain of the Second Connecticut Volunteer Infantry.

His active military career was cut short, however, after the first battle of Bull Run when, after ministering to the wounded, and helping the other officers in their efforts to stay the disastrous retreat, he was taken prisoner and marched to Richmond, where he entered Libby Prison in the first squad to be incarcerated in that place. After twelve months in Libby and five other Southern prisons, he was exchanged and returned to his home, his health very much impaired by his long confinement. As soon as his returning strength permitted he entered actively into the campaigns for recruiting the ranks of the army, and many a Connecticut volunteer remembered the eloquence of the "Fighting Parson" as the inspiration to his enlistment.

After the close of the war a year was spent in the service of the Freedman's Bureau among the negroes in the South, and in 1866 a call was accepted to the pastorate of the New School Presbyterian Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. While there he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. In 1871 he returned East to become pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Jersey City, N. J.

With increasing years and experience his views of life, and of religion as a part of life, became broader and more liberal. With a number of his former parishioners and a company of earnest, but liberal minded Christians, gathered mostly from the humbler walks of life, he organized in Jersey City a non-sectarian body which was named the First Free Union Church. Here was done his best work, both as a pastor and as a preacher.

In 1880 he retired to Canaan, Connecticut, where his remaining years were spent, but not in idleness. He organized and ministered to a little mission in a neighboring hamlet, and for several years regularly filled the pulpit of the Congregational Church in Sheffield, just over the line in Massachusetts.

Six feet two and a half inches tall, and with a soldierly bearing, retained even in old age, his was a commanding figure, notably so after years had whitened, without thinning, his heavy hair. Always foremost and active in every good work, his hoary head was a "crown of glory" and always "found in the way of righteousness." After a brief illness, almost the only one in his life, the end came November 30, 1893.

Zachary Eddy as he preferred to be called was prepared for college by a tutor, a friend of his father. During his youth he had shown striking gifts for the ministry at various revival meetings and was persuaded by the Rev. James Darnell to travel with him on his preaching tours from village to village. He gave up a college course but was under the constant instruction of Mr. Darnell, and his earnest study and reading soon brought his eager mind abreast of the most progressive thought of his times. He was ordained and occupied several pulpits in Western New York. He then went to Mineral Point, Wis., a mining town famed for its wickedness, where he built up a church, winning over many of the toughest characters to a Christian life. In 1850 he returned to New York State and accepted a pastorate in Warsaw. After five years there and two more in Birmingham, Conn. he accepted a call to Northampton, where he served for ten years. He became the personal friend of Mark Hopkins, President of Williams. In 1867 he went to Brooklyn, N. Y. and while pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church, he wrote his book, "Immanuel, The Life of Christ," long used in theological seminaries. In 1871 he went to Chelsea, Mass. and there ministered to crowded congregations. This pastorate was followed by ten years in "The Old First" of Detroit. In 1884 he resigned, intending to give up the ministry but was prevailed upon to help for two years in a mission church in Atlanta. But his health was beginning to fail and he returned to Detroit, where he died.

His broad and loving spirit, the magnetism of his presence, his keen sense of honor, and quick understanding of men, saved the day in many a critical situation in convention or meeting, and his rich emotional nature helped his faith to a fervent love for a personal Saviour. He cared little for creeds or theological tenets, and would gladly have welcomed into the church any and all who could say from the heart "Our Father who art in Heaven," and would take Jesus Christ for their Master and Pattern.

He received his honorary degree of A.M. from Brown University and D.D. from Williams College.

He was the Orator of the Eddy Festival held in Providence, Rhode Island, in 1880 in celebration of the 250th anniversary of the landing at Plymouth, of John and Samuel Eddy, the Pilgrims of 1630. (See Bulletin No. 14, p. 272.)

They lived at Dorchester, Mass. When he was a boy of about seventeen, he began an apprenticeship in the carpenter's trade. After three years in this he went into business for himself and made great progress especially in the development of the Dorchester section. He was an ingenious lad and in his spare moments developed a refrigerator for the household, a luxury for those times. His name is now known all over the world as the manufacturer and perfector of the refrigerator. From time to time he added the improvements which he invented and gradually from a business carried on in addition to his building trade it began to absorb all his time and energy. This is now carried on by his sons. Perhaps he will take his place with those inventors who have contributed most to the health and comfort of his fellowmen. He was a member of the Universalist Church and a liberal contributor to that and many other local charities. He was everywhere respected for his integrity of character and for the honesty of his work.

May 7, 1836, at South Onondaga, N. Y.; d. May 4, 1927, at Middlebury, Vt. She was dau. of Joseph Owen and Susannah (Stearns) Seely.

He was born in the old homestead and after acquiring what education he could at the public schools, he began at the age of 15 years to teach school. He continued to teach until he graduated from Middlebury College. He then determined to study medicine. He entered Harvard, but after one year there he was persuaded by Dr. Seely to continue the work in Burlington. Following his work there he took up post-graduate work and surgery at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. He then returned to Burlington and became an assistant to Dr. Seely. He settled in Middlebury, married the daughter of his professor and associate, whom he succeeded upon the latter's retirement. Dr. Eddy's practice extended beyond Addison Co., often over the border into New York and Canada. He is the oldest living graduate of Middlebury College and one of the oldest from the "Burlington Medical College," now a part of the Univ. of Vermont. He has practised for 61 years and is still strong and vigorous. During his long and active life he has seen great strides made in his profession. He used ether for the first time in 1867 when the patient was his own father. He owned the first clinical thermometer used in Vermont. He has brought over 2200 children into the world, and by specializing in children's diseases, he has won an enviable reputation among the physicians of the state. He now lives with his son in Middlebury, in one of those delightful colonial homes for which the state is famous. (See Bulletin No. 13.)

Mrs. Jane (Eddy) West has in her possession an old desk and box which belonged to her father Hallett Eddy. This box contains several papers. These two articles have been handed down from father to son, since they were first owned by Elisha Eddy, whose wife was Sarah Phetteplace. They came into the possession of Elisha's second son, Jesse. When crossing the Hudson on the way west through New York, Jesse lost the box into the water. It was recovered, but some of the papers were wet. The desk and box next passed to his son Jesse and from him to Hallett Eddy. Among the papers were some deeds and the last will of the first Elisha Eddy. In this will are mentioned Enos, Jesse, Amasa and Stephen Eddy, the sons of Elisha.

She inherited her father's love for beauty and the power to express it on canvas. She is well-known in Providence for her beautiful pictures, many of which hung for years in the Olneyville Free Library. All her life she has been interested in philanthropic work. The Free Library at Olneyville claimed her support in its early days and its success was greatly due to her influence. She is exceedingly fond of animals. The R. I. Humane Society for the Care of Dumb Animals has been greatly aided by her support and her articles written in their behalf. To the love of animals she adds a love of the "great out-doors." Her garden of flowers is always a joy to all who behold it.

They lived at 4 Bell St., Providence in the beautiful mansion which her father had built and which contained the works of art which he had collected. She inherited her father's artistic tastes and habits and as long as their health lasted their home was a center of art. They travelled much both in this country and abroad. As Dr. Harris' health failed they made their home in California, where he died. Mrs. Harris sold the home and is now living in California. It was at this home in 1923, that the Eddy Family Association held the annual meeting. Dr. and Mrs. Harris welcomed the guests most cordially and with the greatest of kindness showed their art treasures.

Augustus O. Bourn was educated in the Providence Public Schools and Brown University, from which he graduated in 1855 with Phi Beta Kappa honors. Upon leaving college he became an employe of the firm Bourn, Bourn and Chaffee, of which his father was a partner, and one of the pioneers in the rubber business. Upon the death of his father a few years later, he took his place and in 1861 incorporated the business under the name of the Providence Rubber Co. In 1864 he established a separate plant in Bristol, R. I., which shortly became the principal business of the town.

The firm is now known as the National Rubber Co. and is a part of the United States Rubber Co. System. In 1887 Mr. Bourn resigned from the company and in 1892 re-established a rubber manufactory in Providence, called the Bourn Rubber Co. This was incorporated in 1902 and he became its president and manager. He was greatly interested in the scientific and technical side of the business and was a pioneer in the vulcanizing of rubber.

He was elected State Senator from Bristol several terms and was twice chosen governor of the state of R. I. He was Consul General at Rome in 1889 and served there with distinction. As a young man he entered the militia and became lieutenant-colonel. Much of his leisure time he devoted to flowers and his evenings to the study of astronomy, chemistry and physics.

He is a member of the American Brass Band, which he joined at the beginning of its career in 1870. One of its duties is to play for the graduating class and alumni of Brown University on their march on Commencement Day from the College on the Hill to the First Baptist Church. With but two exceptions, he has played the drum for them in sunshine and in rain ever since 1870. In 1925 when for the fifty-fifth time he played at Commencement, a document signed and sealed was presented to him expressing the University's appreciation of his long and unprecedented service. He played at the Philadelphia Centennial and at St. Louis and at Saratoga and he has played at parades all over New England.

Dec. 18, 1867, Helen Delana Van Hoesen; b. May 4, 1842, at Preble, Courtland Co., N. Y. She was dau. of Richard V. and Rachel Van Hoesen.

In 1856 he entered the printing business in Corning, N. Y. and continued in it until 1873, the last two years of which he was also one of the editors and proprietors of the Alleghany Democrat, at Wellsville, N. Y.

Since 1875 he has been engaged in the mercantile business at Beaver Dams and Hornby, N. Y. After the publication of the Eddy Genealogy of 1881 he became especially interested in genealogy and he, together with William Penn Eddy, traced out their branch of the family so that they had an almost complete record of their own line back to the sixth generation. He deposited a copy of his records with the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston and it is largely from this work that the older records of this line were obtained, that is to say, the records of the seventh, eighth and some of the ninth generation, which have John and Deborah Winsor for their common ancestors. Further research has proved that the Asa Eddy of Preston, Conn. was not the son of Zachariah Eddy, as his work states, but was son of Jonathan Eddy of Preston, Conn. Zachariah's son Asa went to Vermont.

He was born, lived and died on the old farm in northern Brunswick. Since he was the oldest of a large family, he had to go to work early to aid in its support. When only seven he often drove a team of horses to Troy with a load of produce for the market, a distance of ten miles. Becoming used to horses when young he developed a great fondness for them and great skill in handling them. After the death of his father he, together with his brothers, Devotion and John, continued the farm to which his father had added many acres. He always mourned the loss of an early education, so gave to his children every opportunity for a good one. He was a kind father and a devoted husband. He was a great reader of history and always interested in politics. He was a Republican.
